FR. BOB'S UTTERINGS

4th Sunday of Lent

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

On this fourth Sunday of Lent we hear once again the familiar parable about the prodigal son. It is a story about abundance, greed, wastefulness, overindulgence, disrespect, envy, jealousy, loss, and anger. It sounds more like a soap opera than a scripture parable. The real story is about FORGIVENESS and not just forgiveness but forgiveness in ABUNDANCE. It is important to note that the young man's father was so pleased to have his son return that he showered him with not just forgiveness but with ACCEPTANCE and LOVE which were expressed in the gifts and celebration offered to him.

It is precisely this same ABUNDANT FORGIVENESS, ACCEPTANCE, AND LOVE that our God calls each one of us to during this holy season of Lent. How does anyone ever imagine such abundant forgiveness, acceptance and love? Sometimes, maybe always, forgiveness stretches us beyond ourselves, beyond balancing the scales or restoring justice to our lives. Maybe that is exactly why it is often so difficult, just because we can't imagine what it looks like, at least until someone comes along and shows us, the way the father did in the parable, and the way Jesus does everyday of our lives.

If we are to do one thing this Lent as we continue to embrace the challenge of our conversion, consider doing something lavishly generous to someone who may be seeking our forgiveness or so something generous for a different person each day. It'll change their world, and yours, too.

CONGRATULATIONS

It is with great pride that I congratulate, on behalf of the entire parish, six of our teens as they prepare to receive the Spirit Alive Medal (the highest award given to high school students) from the Catholic Medals Committee for Youth Organizations Archdiocese of Chicago. Kari Asick, Julie Hagen, Valerie Kozora, Katherine Grunow, Samantha Melandez, and Lauren Ward will all receive their medals today at Holy Name Cathedral. Your commitment to individual growth and service to the community is commendable. We are extremely proud of each one of you. Best wishes from all of us here at St. Cletus Parish.

Congratulation, also, to Colleen Hagen who will receive the St. Anne Medal for her dedicated work with youth. It is a recognition that is long overdue. Colleen, on behalf of our entire faith community, we thank you for your commitment to our youth and your willingness to put their needs before your own. May God continue to bless you and your ministry to the youth of St. Cletus Parish.

*Lenten Blessings to All,
Father Bob*

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, MARCH 18, 2007

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT; LAETARE SUNDAY

Rejoice and let go

Today we are supposed to rejoice (laetare in Latin) because Jesus turned the world upside down and preached a message of mercy and forgiveness. Instead, we often resent God's largesse. We have our sense of who is deserving, and we're less than thrilled when the door is open to those we'd rather shut out. As we enter the fourth week of Lent, our challenge is to love those who remain unrepentant despite their having hurt, persecuted, or deceived us at a cost of time, money, bloodshed, or heartache. Love for our enemies begins by understanding that everyone receives the same open-ended invitation to God's banquet. God's heart never hardens, but ours may with built-up resentments. Remember this psalm as you struggle with the hard task of forgiving: "Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants, beyond my fears, from death into life."

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 5:9a, 10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

"The Pharisees and scribes grumbled, 'This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.'"

MONDAY, MARCH 19 SOLEMNITY OF JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF MARY
The good father

Jesus taught his disciples to pray "Our Father . . ." We are blessed in the name of the Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Saint Joseph, the husband of Mary, was a generous and strong father who always put the well-being of Mary and Jesus first. He stands as an inspiration for parents, and he points to the kind of parental love God has for us. He is also a powerful intercessor. Catholics call Saint Joseph the patron saint of the entire church. Pray to Joseph today in your own words for the wisdom and courage to care for the people and responsibilities in your charge.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16; Romans 4:13, 16-18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18-21, 24a or Luke 2:41-51a

"Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

TUESDAY, MARCH 20 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Do you want to be well?

Jesus posed an intriguing question to one man who had been ailing for 38 years: Do you want to be well? It appears as though the answer would be obvious. So why does Jesus even bother to ask before healing him? Perhaps because he knew how often we find it difficult to leave our own suffering. We cling to our suffering because we have grown so comfortable in it. Ailments can explain all our insufficiencies before God. But what would we cling to when those ailments have been cured? Muster the courage to commit to true health, and say yes to an offer to be healed.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12; John 5:1-16

"Jesus knew that the sick man had been there a long time and asked, 'Do you want to be made well?'"

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Father loves best

Author Frederick Buechner writes the sad story of an adolescent boy who shot and killed his father because of his father's relentless, unbearable cruelty toward him. Later on, when he had been placed in detention, a guard walking the dark corridors one night heard the boy sobbing in his cell, and his words were, "I want my father, I want my father." This is the father wound, suffered by so many men in particular, but women as well, who lack a close, loving relationship with their father, yet continue to need a father's love. Jesus offers hope to all who suffer this great pain. His intimate relationship with, and absolute trust in, his divine

Father can serve as a guidepost toward our own healing. All of us do indeed have a loving Father—we just have to get to know him as well as Jesus did.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:8-15; John 5:17-30

"The father loves the son and shows him all he himself is doing."

THURSDAY, MARCH 22 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Do you believe?

When some of the people around Jesus would not believe him to be the Son of God, he rebuked them for their shortsightedness. How can you not see, he said to them, when so many good authorities testify to me—God, scripture, Moses, John the Baptist?

In today's world it can be hard for us, too, to recognize Jesus. We live in a society that seems more committed to making money and pursuing comfort, pleasure, and security than in finding the presence of God, especially a God who asks for sacrifice and generosity—of putting others ahead of oneself. But amid the busyness stands the humble figure of Christ, inviting us to live for others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:7-14; John 5:31-47

"But if you do not believe what Moses wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

FRIDAY, MARCH 23

LENTEN WEEKDAY; FEAST OF TORIBIO DE MOGROVEJO, BISHOP

Nobody expects the Spanish Inquisition

Saint Toribio (1538-1606) had his career all set. A law professor at the University of Salamanca, he became the head of the dreaded Inquisition that rooted out heresy. But the king of Spain had other ideas for him and sent him as bishop to the colony of Peru. There he faced a vast diocese of uncatechized native people and many dissolute clergy. He threw himself into reform, requiring his priests to learn native languages and publishing a catechism in those tongues. He set out to tour his diocese, teaching and baptizing as he went and showing up where "no prelate or visitor had come." Working tirelessly, he was generous and refused to accept gifts.

The Spirit lit a fire under Toribio, and not the kind to burn heretics at the stake. He underwent a profound conversion and lived it out to the end of his days. What will be your conversion this Lent?

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 2:1a, 12-22; John 7:1-2, 10, 25-30

"Let us see if his words are true, and let us test what will happen at the end of his life."

SATURDAY, MARCH 24 LENTEN WEEKDAY

Hear them out

A question addressed to Jesus—Our law does not judge people without first giving them a hearing, does it?—is one that Americans are asking of their leaders today when it comes to immigration issues and the detention of accused terrorists. Due process is a fundamental human right that the Catholic Church and all major religious, humanitarian, and justice groups support. Jesus was ridiculed, persecuted, and condemned to death because his message and his very existence frightened and threatened those in power. Let's not repeat the mistake of the Pharisees. Give your friends and enemies a fair hearing and insist that your government, who acts in your name, do the same.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 11:18-20; John 7:40-53

"Our law does not judge people without first giving them a hearing, does it?"

EMBRACE THE CHALLENGE OF CONVERSION

Fourth Sunday of Lent - Laetare Sunday

This fourth Sunday of Lent places us in the middle of our Lenten journey. If we have wandered, like the lost son in today's Gospel reading, it is not too late to come back to a loving Father who is ready to welcome us home. Continuing to embrace the challenge of conversion, the following thoughts are offered for your reflection.

- ~~~~~
- PRAYER
- + Pray for peace. Pray for men and women in our armed forces. Pray for the safety of all innocent victims of war.
  - + Pray for the catechumens who are preparing to be baptized, confirmed and receive our Lord in the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. Pray for yourself that you may live out your baptismal promises more faithfully.
  - + Participate in the Sunday liturgy.
  - + Pray the Prayer of St. Patrick. It is a wonderful reminder of Christ's presence within us.

St. Patrick's Breastplate

Christ with me and before me.
 Christ behind me and within me.
 Christ to the right of me. Christ to the left of me.
 Christ above me. Christ beneath me.
 Christ in the heart of everyone who thinks of me.
 Christ in the eye of everyone who sees me.
 Christ in the ear of everyone who hears me.
 I bind myself today to the strong virtue of Christ.

- ~~~~~
- FASTING
- + Keep one evening meal this week simple – soup and bread. Use this as a means to become aware of the plight of the millions of people who are hungry every day.
  - + Fast from overreacting with anger, resentment, or any form of unkindness. Think before you speak.
  - + Fast from discontent; feast on gratitude.
  - + Fast from self-concern; feast on caring for others.

ALMSGIVING

- ~~~~~
- + Always include a remembrance of the hungry in your grace before meals.
  - + Put your spare change in a jar or Heifer bank.
  - + Clean out your closet and donate your surplus and one thing that you don't want to let go of to a charity who will distribute the items to those in need.
  - + Write a note or e-mail to someone you may be estranged from.

What is Taize Prayer?

"At the depth of human condition, lies the longing for a presence, the silent longing for a communion. This simple desire for God is already the beginning of faith." (Brother Roger founder of the Taize community)

Taize prayer is meditative common prayer. It is an ecumenical prayer form emphasizing chant-like song and scripture. It is composed of song, Scripture reading, intercessions, and meditative silence.

Taize prayer originated in the ecumenical monastic community in Taize, France after WWII. This style of worship has become increasingly well-known and loved throughout the world, and has attracted thousands of young people to worship.

Please consider attending St. Cletus' first Taize service, March 27 at 7:00pm.

Paulette Bolton
Director of Worship

It's Today in Morrissey Hall! Annual Holy Name Pancake Breakfast

Come join us for the annual "Walter Klimcke" Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, March 18. Breakfast will be served from 7:00am 'til Noon in Morrissey Hall. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Tickets are: adult's $5 and children $2.

"Meet Another of Our R.C.I.A. Sponsors"

Why did I decide to become a parish sponsor? This is a no-brainer, since my daughter-in-law (Denise Kuchta) is the person I am sponsoring and there is nothing that I would rather do. The Dali Lama suggest differentiating between temporary pleasure and longer lasting, true happiness in the book, "The Art of Happiness." Denise's "conversion" has been a source of real happiness for myself and my entire family as well as many of my friends.

The RCIA process has renewed Nick's faith as he shares his beliefs with his wife and increases his participation in the Church. My son's "religious rebirth" is another cause for great happiness. Since many of life's milestones are interwoven with religious observances, it is wonderful that there will be the stability of one faith for their future family.

The RCIA meetings are interesting and increase my own appreciation of the Catholic faith. I have two nieces who were baptized, but not brought up in the faith due to family circumstances. I sincerely hope that in the future I may have the honor of sponsoring them toward full membership in the Church.

Ann Kuchta

Attention! High School Girls of the Parish

We are hoping once again to form a team to compete in the High School Girls Church Basketball League. Games will be played on Saturday evenings at 6:30 or 7:30pm, April 14, April 21, April 28, May 5, May 12, and May 19. Practices are once a week. You can find sign-up forms and information on our parish website www.stcletusparish.com under Youth. Return forms as soon as possible. I need to let the League know if we have enough players to form a team.

Also, we are also looking for a coach or coaches for this team. Would interested parties, please contact me as soon as possible at the Youth Ministry Office, (708) 352-4641, or via e-mail: marybeth.ford@stcletusparish.com.
