CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO A BENEFIT THEATER PARTY

Join us for a performance of the extraordinary Pulitzer Prize-winning play:

WIT

By Margaret Edson

Tuesday, April 22, 2008

The Theatre of Western Springs

4384 Hampton Ave., Western Springs

(6 blocks west of Wolf Road along Northern side of RR tracks)

7:00pm Wine, Soft Drinks & Hors d'oeuvres

8:00pm Performance

Wit is a play that is both intellectually challenging and emotionally immediate. Vivian Bearing, Ph.D., comes to reassess her life and work with insight and humor that are transformative both for herself and for the audience. It's a play about love and knowledge; grace and redemption. The London Times called this play: "...moving, funny and wise."

Donation: $40 per person - $75 for two

Please RSVP by April 18 by mail or phone (708) 579-8929

Please make checks payable to: Interfaith Community Partners and mail to 1515 W. Ogden #536, La Grange Park, IL 60526. We are a not-for-profit organization (501C3) and donations are tax deductible.

CALLED BY NAME

Our parish is participating in Called by Name, a vocation awareness program, the weekend of Sunday, April 13. This program offers an opportunity for us to pray for vocations; to recognize the gifts and potential for leadership and service in the men and women of our parish; and finally, to call forth and encourage these members to share the gifts God has given them through a vocation to the priesthood and religious life. Perhaps you know a man or woman who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest or religious sister. On Called By Name weekend, April 13, you will be asked to recommend this person [18 years old and older] by filling out a Nomination Form to be printed in upcoming bulletins and placing it in the collection basket. If you yourself feel called to ministry as a sister or priest, you may feel free to nominate yourself through this process. Interested women under age eighteen should contact Sister Peter Mary Hettling (phettling@archchicago.org) and interested men under age eighteen should contact Fr. Peter Snieg (psnieg@luc.edu). Nominated men and women will be invited to attend informational gatherings designed to help them explore the possibility of a vocation to the priesthood and religious life. God may be asking you to help your fellow parishioners to recognize His call in their lives—please begin praying today!

A Prayer for Vocations

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, graciously hear our prayers.
Give us generous hearts
to respond to your call in our lives.
Lift up courageous men and women
willing to follow after your heart
as priests, sisters, and brothers.
Help parents and teachers to share the faith and to encourage young people to explore religious vocations.
Guide all people, Lord, in your ways
of compassion, truth, and peace,
that we may find happiness
in fulfilling our vocations.
Through Christ our Lord,
Amen.

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER; DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Whose sins you forgive

In the Genesis story it says that God breathed upon the darkness of chaos to begin the work of creation. In today's gospel story, the risen Savior breathes upon the church to carry on the work of the new creation, a spiritual kingdom freed from the corruption of sin and death. So, with every breath we take, forgiveness is ours and we in turn exhale God's mercy into the world around us. What a gift! But with the gift comes the responsibility to forgive as we have been forgiven. Just think of all the people in your life who need to be forgiven. And you have the power to do it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:42-47; 1 Peter 1:3-9; John 20:19-31

"Jesus breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

MONDAY, MARCH 31

ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

Full of grace

Luke's gospel is the only one of the four to tell the story of the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary of the coming birth of Jesus. Much has been written—and painted—about this moment, especially her acceptance of her great vocation to give birth to God in a human person. But the angel has an often-overlooked line, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you." We usually think the Spirit didn't show up until Pentecost. The Spirit's here, though, from the beginning, with Mary. In a way she not only brings the Son into the world but also the Spirit. Pray today for the Spirit to enter your life: "Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love."

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:10-14; 8:10; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38

"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you."

TUESDAY, APRIL 1

EASTER WEEKDAY; APRIL FOOL'S DAY

Keep it simple

Mark Twain said of April 1: "This is the day upon which we are reminded of what we are on the other three hundred and sixty-four." Well perhaps we don't make fools of ourselves every day, but we all have our moments, especially when it comes to love. We rush in and out of it before we really understand it. We misdiagnose, misconstrue, and miss opportunities. Love in its myriad forms is the key to our salvation. Yet we frequently fail to embrace it. We analyze, weigh, measure, and judge whether or not to give and receive it. Why complicate things? Just follow Jesus' lead: Love always.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:32-37; John 3:7b-15

"Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2

FEAST OF FRANCIS OF PAOLA, HERMIT, FOUNDER

One and many

The funny thing about hermits is that they tend to attract a crowd. Born in southern Italy in 1416, Saint Francis of Paola lived as a hermit for five years before gathering some companions with whom he founded a branch of Franciscans called the "Minims"—the "minis," the least. He wasn't the first person whose desire to focus on God attracted people who wanted the same thing. Try to find a balance between solitude and sociability, between encountering God one-on-one and with others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:17-26; John 3:16-21

"Those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

THURSDAY, APRIL 3

EASTER WEEKDAY

In and out

Garbage in, garbage out is the message of today's gospel. Hmm . . . does that mean that faithfully watching American Idol or the 20th rerun of a favorite Law and Order episode is less innocuous than we might have hoped? What about celebrity gossip, office chatter, and daily political intrigues, or video games, shopping networks, and text messages? They're all fascinating and fun, but they often distract us from the more important work of care and compassion: A problem goes unsolved, a loved one is neglected, a friend gets snubbed. Allot a block of time each day to go above and beyond earthly things, and concentrate on the ins and outs of your faith.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:27-33; John 3:31-36

"The one who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things."

FRIDAY, APRIL 4

FEAST OF ISIDORE OF SEVILLE, BISHOP, DOCTOR

Sacred sites

When the church was looking around for a patron saint of the internet, it hit upon Isidore. One of the most learned people of his time (the sixth and seventh centuries), Isidore, among his many accomplishments as a church leader, also put together a 20-volume encyclopedia covering just about everything from agriculture to grammar. His position at the center of this "web" of knowledge made him the most likely candidate to be patron of the internet. To find saintly protection for something new, the church looked to someone very old. May Isidore guide you wisely on the World Wide Web!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:34-42; John 6:1-15

"Jesus told his disciples, 'Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost.'"

SATURDAY, APRIL 5

FEAST OF VINCENT FERRER, PRIEST

Wisely sorry

Reconciliation means bringing things or people into some kind of harmony. Bringing peace to conflict. Allowing people to resolve or at least put aside their differences and move on. The Dominican Saint Vincent (1350-1419) practiced reconciliation on many levels. He traveled around preaching repentance and also had a role in trying to do something about the Great Schism, when the papacy divided into two. "When you have realized your true worth," he said, "you will be able to judge your faults sanely . . . and the faults of your neighbor will remain in shadow." Seeing the shortcomings of others, Vincent reminds us, begins with seeing our own limitations clearly. That perspective can then lead us to gracefulness in accepting criticism and tact in giving it.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:1-7; John 6:16-21

"They saw Jesus walking on the sea and were terrified. But he said, 'It is I; do not be afraid.'"

WELCOME SUNDAY NEXT WEEKEND

Welcome to all St. Cletus newcomers. Registration is available next weekend, April 5/6, after the 5:00pm Saturday Mass and the 7:00, 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00am Sunday Masses. Please stop by the back of church, say hello, and become members.

ATTENTION LEISURE LOAFERS!

Kym Frankovelgia entertained us a few years ago and was enjoyed by our group. Now she has accepted another invitation to perform after our Thursday, April 3 meeting which is at 1:00pm in Morrissey Hall. So, after a cup of coffee and a treat we will be ready to sit back and enjoy the entertainment.

There is plenty of room so invite a friend. We like to see new faces along with our regular and faithful members.

Mary White

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Our next meeting will be held on Friday, April 4, 8:00pm, in Room 201 of the Education Building. We will have the results of our annual pancake breakfast and we'll also be discussing the Past President's Dinner to be held on May 2. Hope to see you there!

Dan Gibbons

Please remember our sick in your prayers: Donal Fox, Robert Haws, Roy Laurence, Bernie Kelly, Mary Barnish, Elaine Bianco, Freda Guide, Leslie Imholt, Ryan Cosgrove, Vincent Trauth, Ann Fahey, Joan Klein, Sheila Nash, Rosemary Sylvester, Rose Olferchek, Steve Zeman, Mary Jane Taylor, Sister Arlene Gibson, Zach Sperka, Marguerite May, Mike Patzelt, Richard Taylor, Rita D'Onofrio, Marilyn Matesevac, Adrienne Welenc, Hunter Peters, Mario Aguilar, Cacilia Ziegler, Ruth Calandriello, Ann Marie Nabor, Nadine Pankow, Patty Johnson, Agnes Suennen, Joseph Johnson, Stephanie Yakowicz, Virginia Wilson, Gail Pankow-Locker, Josie Spoto, Larry Wojnar, Louise Jaunich, Frank Werner, Agnes Olszowka, Michael Karpinski, Augustin Jaso, Marie Krolecki, Mary O'Rourke, Debbie Broz and Scott May. Please know we pray daily for our sick.

THANK YOU, parishioners and friends, for your donations to our March 13 Food Pantry. It was a busy evening, as we served 135+ client families. Besides our regular food distribution, we updated our files as families reregistered with current information. We distributed over 250 Easter Baskets, thanks to John Findley's Boy Scout Eagle Project. Because of generous monetary donations, we were able to give each client a $10 Jewel certificate for perishables for Easter dinner. Our youngest client children received a beautifully "renewed" Easter stuffed animal, compliments of our St. Cletus Mission Ladies. Special thanks to our untiring and always compassionate Food Pantry volunteers, to John Findley, his parents, siblings and his team of hard working boy scouts, to the ever cheerful and diligent Mission Ladies who meet weekly to sew and restore toys for the needy, and to our parish maintenance team for their extra effort in meeting our special set-up and last minute needs! Now, together, we begin the task of replenishing our shelves for the April Food Pantry! Here are some reminders:

- All in date non-perishables are greatly appreciated. We are presently very low on our staples, including dry pinto beans, rice, jelly, tuna, canned fruit, cereal, evaporated or powdered milk, macaroni & cheese, paper products and larger sized diapers (4,5, & 6).
- We are also low on our "specials". Some favorites include coffee, oatmeal, juice, crackers, side dishes, baby food, toiletries, cleaning supplies, laundry detergent and dish washing soap.

Don't forget to save your large brown grocery bags for us. You can drop them off with your food donations.

Please continue to make it a routine to pick up some items for the Food Pantry when you do your weekly grocery shopping. These items can be dropped off in the Church vestibule in the designated food bins located in the Madonna della Strada shrine area.

If you have any questions, you can contact me at (708) 215-5418 or mford@stcletusparish.com. Thanks again!

SCIENCE FAIR AND HISTORY FAIR WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Congratulations to all our 7th grade students who participated in our annual History Fair and our 8th grade students who participated in our annual Science Fair.

For the 7th grade History Fair, students chose a subject from Illinois and depicted its history with a timeline and graphics. From locations to local companies, the students learned a great deal not only about their topics, but also about how to conduct research. Honorable mention was awarded to Kathryn Callahan, Mary Figura, Kathleen Lawler, and Conor McLaughlin. The following students qualified for the regional History Fair: Edward Ashe, Alex Contarino, Meghan Flannery, Andrea Goethals and Kathryn Zebus, Michelle Gostkowski and Alexis Serrano, Thomas Gray and Mitchel Tlusty, Patrick Kelley, and Casey Kodatt. Best of luck to them as they hope to advance to the state finals in Springfield this May.

Our 8th grade class showed they know what scientific experiments are all about. Gold medal winners for the Science Fair include: Catherine Usher, Chris Mosquera, Julie Jaskierski, Katie Kages, Lora Vietzen, Maddie Anderson, Marie Johnson-Dahl, Mike Thomas, Noel Smith, Troy Lenz, Martin Bruce, Kyle Cernetig, Martin Garvey, Kelly Meade, Veronica Szigeti, and Jonathon Ward.

PATRIOTISM – THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA, ST. CLETUS STUDENT ESSAYS RECOGNIZED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION POST

Our 8th grade students recently competed in the American Legion Essay Contest. Congratulations to Micaila McErlean (1st place), Nikko Lobraco (3rd place), and Andy Balch (Honorable mention). Sara Sedlacek, St. Cletus graduate and Nazareth Academy student, took first place in the 11th and 12th grade class of the 2008 Americanism Essay Contest sponsored by the Robert E. Coulter, Jr. American Legion Auxiliary.

ST. CLETUS SCHOOL BOARD OPENINGS, CANDIDATES INVITED TO APPLY

The St. Cletus School Board is now accepting applications for a few open positions. If you've always thought about getting involved at St. Cletus School, now is your opportunity. You can make a difference at St. Cletus. The School Board is a great opportunity to do so. To apply, send a letter of application along with your resume to Jeanne Sommerfeld at jwsommerfeld@sbcglobal.net or call Jeanne with any questions at (708) 579-3603.

PARENT & CHILD ACTIVITY TIME

Families with infants up to age 2½ are invited to join us for Parent & Me activity times. On three Thursdays this April (April 10, 17, and 24), you are all welcome to join in a fun filled activity time in the St. Cletus School Library from 9:30-10:15 a.m. Park on 54th Street and enter through the side doors on 54th Street.

Youth Ministry News...

Confirmation Year II Candidates: Our overnight retreat is quickly approaching (April 12/13)! If you haven't turned in your permission slips, then please do so ASAP. They can be brought to the rectory or religious education office in an envelope marked "Youth Ministry". Looking forward to a great weekend!

Mission Trip: The Teen Advisory Commissions Board would like to take this opportunity to thank our parishioners for their support! Your words of encouragement and your kind wishes were inspiring! Your financial contributions have helped us to reach our goal and have renewed an excited spirit within us! Our teens were truly overwhelmed with your generosity. As we go to the Indian reservation in Minnesota this July, we will think of you, pray for you and we will know that we represent the people of St. Cletus. God bless you!

Director of Youth Ministry

Reprogramming your eating habits through "Spirituality of Food"

On Thursday April 10 and 17, come to The Well, 1515 W. Ogden Ave., LaGrange Park, from 7-9:30 p.m. to explore "Food for Body and Soul: We are what we eat." This topic includes food and nourishment, food and wholeness, mindful eating and creating a beautiful, nourishing meal. "Food as Communion: An experience of participation" focuses on sustainable eating, eating locally and considering meals in the global context. Next "Food, an Adventure for Life!" incorporates creating menus, sharing recipes, learning about farmers' markets and planning and planting for life. Joanne Cavallo Kouba, Ph.D., R.D., will lead this enlightening program. She is an assistant professor of food and nutrition at Loyola University, Chicago's School of Nursing and director of the University's dietetic internship program. She has a doctorate in public health from the University of Illinois at Chicago's School of Public Health. The offering for the two classes is $25. Bring a friend for 1/2 price! If you are not able to attend both, classes can be enjoyed as a single unit. To register for this program online, go to www.csjthewell.org or email thewell@csjlagrange.org or call 708-482-5088 or 708-482-5048.

STEWARDSHIP

"Your light must shine before all so that they may see the goodness in your acts."
(Matthew 5:16)

A good steward is a manager or caretaker of the many gifts bestowed upon us by God. These gifts are given to us generously and wisely, we in turn must use them to build the kingdom of God. God desires that we freely choose to use our gifts this way and that our motives be love, thankfulness and justice.

Weekly Giving Summary

Last Weekend	$ 17,177
A Year Ago	27,634
This Fiscal Year (thru 3/23/08)	$1,047,256
Last Fiscal Year (thru 3/27/07)	1,011,108

Note: Regular Sunday collection on April 6, 2007 (Easter) = $21,381

As always, we sincerely thank all who generously give of their treasure, as well as those who give of their time and talent, to support the work our parish does in the name of Jesus Christ.

We are beginning the process of developing our 2008-09 budget and ask for your help by completing the commitment card that was mailed to all parishioners last month. Please return your completed commitment card in the Sunday collection basket, by mail, or drop it off at the rectory. Remember you can have your contribution to the Parish transferred conveniently each month from your checking account through the Electronic Offering Program. For further information contact the rectory office.

MEMORIALS ARE TRIBUTES

We are all given but a few years on God's earth to "build up the kingdom." Sharing your blessings through a Memorial Gift in honor of someone special will make this world just a little better. Remember, God is never outdone in generosity to each and every one of us.

PLEASE CONSIDER REMEMBERING
ST. CLETUS IN YOUR WILL.
