NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is a sense of a momentous event in today's Gospel. We are told the exact time when those two disciples of John the Baptist first met Jesus: the tenth hour, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. This is an unimportant, trivial fact perhaps, but an indication of just how important, how life-changing that first encounter was for Andrew and the other disciple, who was possibly St. John, the evangelist himself. Their lives changed so much that they can tell us exactly when and where it happened.

Tantalizingly, the evangelist doesn't tell us the content of that encounter. He doesn't tell us what Jesus said to him and Andrew, nor what questions they asked. He doesn't describe Jesus or where he was living. John simply says that they accepted his invitation to come and see and they stayed with him for the rest of the day. Perhaps the conversation was too personal to be recorded, or perhaps a written account would not be able to convey its effect or the power of the presence of Jesus. Certainly the Lord had a profound effect: the two disciples left John the Baptist to become followers of Jesus, and Andrew wasted no time in telling his brother Peter: "We have found the Messiah."

Perhaps, too, the gospel writer realizes that an encounter with the Lord must be a unique event, something which each potential follower has to experience personally. It's not something which can happen second-hand; it cannot be experienced vicariously. The Lord issues an invitation, but it is up to us to respond. We have to be in a state of readiness, open to hear the Lord's call. Samuel was already living in the Lord's sanctuary – in the right place to hear the call. And the two disciples were already followers of John the Baptist – predisposed to the coming of the Messiah. When the call came, they responded without hesitation.

As Christians, we believe that we have been called, and that we are following the Lord, however falteringly or hesitantly. But we must have a real personal meeting with the Lord, and not simply go by what others have told us about him. Whether or not we can pinpoint an exact moment when we first encountered him, we need to allow our relationship with Christ to change our lives irrevocably. By spending time in his presence, we learn to see as he sees, judge as he judges, act and speak as he does.

The call to follow, the invitation to spend time with the Lord, is never a once and for all experience. It is a daily happening. As we grow in discipleship, as we learn to recognize his voice and walk in his ways, we learn that he speaks in many ways: not just through the authentic teaching of the Pope and Bishops who, like Eli and John the Baptist, are able to point us in the right direction. Christ is also able to speak to us through everyday events and people. Peter, remember, was brought to the Lord by his brother Andrew.

As Samuel shows us, recognizing the Lord's voice and presence can be a gradual affair, just as discipleship is a life-long commitment, not a one-off decision. Perhaps today the Lord is calling to us most persistently in the faces of those in need: in the faces of the poor, the homeless, the victims of war, violence or oppression, the sick and the dying, the lonely and the unloved. Whenever we can see and serve the Lord in these people, we know that we really have become his disciples.

In the love of Christ one disciple to another,

Father Bob

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME; WEEK OF CHRISTIAN UNITY BEGINS - Come and see

Remember that nasty teacher in grade school who nobody liked? Well, imagine instead of just being in the same classroom for a few hours a day you had to live with that teacher 24/7. In the ancient world students didn't only go to school with their teachers. They lived with them and learned by example as much as by words. Those who would be students of Jesus must take up his way of life, which is the way of unity. Click up the website about the Week of Christian Unity, which is certainly what Jesus wanted for his church: www.geii.org/wpcu_index.htm.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19; 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20; John 1:35-42

"Anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him."

MONDAY, JANUARY 19

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. DAY - Promises to keep

Martin Luther King Jr. promised that the nation would "get to the promised land" on racial equality someday. Tomorrow Barack Obama will become the first African American president in U.S. history. In his election night speech Obama spoke of 106-year-old voter Ann Nixon Cooper: "She was born just a generation past slavery; a time . . . when someone like her couldn't vote for two reasons—because she was a woman and because of the color of her skin." As we celebrate Christian Unity Week, we still have a ways to go in overcoming divisions in our nation, but tomorrow we can indeed celebrate a big step toward the Promised Land.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 5:1-10; Mark 2:18-22

"And no one puts new wine into old wineskins . . . but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins."

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20

INAUGURATION DAY - Hope stays alive

A "new birth of freedom" is the 2009 U.S. presidential inaugural theme. The theme is drawn from Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The words, according to the government website, inaugural.senate.gov, "express Lincoln's hope that the sacrifice of those who died to preserve the United States would lead to a new birth of freedom for the nation." With today's swearing in of the first African American president, 200 years after Lincoln's birth, we are witnesses to an important milestone in the fulfillment of Lincoln's hope. As Christians we must carry on this hope beyond a new birth of freedom to the abolition of war and the presence of enduring love and mercy.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 6:10-20; Mark 2:23-28

"We earnestly desire each of you to demonstrate the same eagerness for the fulfillment of hope until the end."

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21

FEAST OF AGNES, VIRGIN, MARTYR - Think outside the box

Determining good and evil is rarely a simple affair. Saint Agnes refused to obey a Roman official and marry his son, so she was considered a defiant citizen and was tortured and beheaded. Jesus healed on the Sabbath and so was considered a lawbreaker and was tortured and hanged. Every age has its citizens and religious leaders who see things in black and white and stand ready to accuse any who would dare to admit to shades of gray when it comes to right and wrong. Be careful not to join their ranks. The world is filled with mystery, subtlety, and divine truths that can't be prepackaged in one-size-fits-all boxes.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 7:1-3, 15-17; Mark 3:1-6

"They watched Jesus closely to see if he would cure the man on the Sabbath so that they might accuse him."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 22

Diversity in unity

From all of recorded history, it seems, we humans have always tried to distinguish ourselves from one another, to be individuals standing out from the crowd, to be original, unique, distinct. The result is that we end up separating ourselves from one another, creating differences where there are none, and somehow forgetting we are all children of God. Meanwhile, God never ceases to try to bring us together. The story of our lives in four words can be: We divide, God unifies. This is Christian Unity Week, a time to remember that the differences among Christians derive from our interpretations of the story of Jesus, not the story itself. In truth, we all follow the same Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 7:25-8:6; Mark 3:7-12

"They came to him in great numbers Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and the region around Tyre and Sidon."

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23

A baker's dozen, and then some

The gospel writers saw significance in the number 12 to number the apostles, echoing the 12 tribes of Israel—a sign of the new covenant in Christ. But that initial dozen was temporary. Even in Christ's lifetime, and certainly soon after his resurrection, others were likewise becoming apostles and disciples: Paul, Barnabas, Mary Magdalene, the Samaritan woman, and quite a few others. While not everyone is called to be an apostle, prophet, evangelizer, or missionary, these are tasks all the baptized share. As Jesus said to his own apostles who once wanted to silence a group of strangers preaching in Jesus' name, "Do not silence them. The one who is not against me is for me." Not a bad thing to remember during Christian Unity Week. After all, the faith of every Christian alive today, if we just had the right genealogy, could be traced back to one of those first 12, or 13, or 14. . .

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 8:6-13; Mark 3:13-19

"Jesus appointed twelve, whom he also named apostles, to be with him, and to be sent out to proclaim the message."

SATURDAY, JANUARY 24

FEAST OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Crazy like a fox

You have to be a little crazy to expect miracles, because when God intervenes in history, all the normal stuff goes out the window. Christ's family thought Jesus was out of his mind because of all the things he was saying and doing. Sixteen centuries later people thought Francis de Sales was nuts for starting a religious order of sick and broken-down women who could not follow the conventional rules of religious life. Yet together they practiced "gentleness with a valiant spirit," and today the Order of the Visitation numbers approximately 3,000 sisters in 168 monasteries located in most countries, making the world a better place.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 9:2-3, 11-14; Mark 3:20-21

"When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, 'He has gone out of his mind.'"

ROE VS WADE - 2009

January 22nd is the 36th anniversary of Roe vs. Wade; the Supreme Court legalized abortion at any stage. Today 4,400 babies are killed each day by abortion. That is one million six hundred and six thousand each year (1,606,000)! (OVER 50 MILLION since 1973!)

In a message Our Holy Father says: “As you, your Bishops and great numbers of the faithful from throughout the United States gather at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception to pray for an end to the tragedy of abortion in your country, I assure you of my spiritual closeness and my sharing in your concern for the continuing holocaust of innocent human lives. This anniversary of the decision which effectively legalized abortion on demand in the United States is a call to people of good will to reflect seriously on the devastating consequences of that step.”

You can join the Vigil Mass For Life brought to you LIVE from the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington DC at 6:00pm, Wednesday evening, January 21, over the Eternal Word Television Network EWTN Comcast Cable...Channel 119 and on Thursday morning, January 22, at 6:30am.

Thursday, January 22, at 10:00am, EWTN brings you LIVE and complete coverage of one of the most important pro-life events of the year, the annual March for Life in Washington, DC. You'll be a part of it all, from interviews with participants across the U.S. including preeminent, pro-life speakers. Follow the March for Life procession up Constitution Avenue, and join the Rally for Life at the Washington Monument. This 4-hour telecast encores at 9:00pm on Thursday, January 22, and again at 8:00am on January 23 and on Saturday, January 24 at 8:00am on Comcast Cable Channel 119.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE!

Thank you for your generosity enabling us to have more than 170 bags ready for our January food distribution. Once again we ask your help as we restock our shelves and begin making up bags for our next distribution. Here are a few things to keep in mind:

- At this time we are short on many of our staples, including rice, dry pinto beans, jelly, pasta, pasta sauce, tomatoes, meals in a can/box, tuna, canned fruit, macaroni & cheese, and paper goods.
- We are also low on our “extras”. Some favorites include coffee, powdered or evaporated milk, oatmeal, juice, crackers or cookies, diapers (especially sizes 4 & 5), toiletries, laundry detergent and dish washing soap.
- All non-perishables are greatly appreciated. Please remember to check all expiration dates to avoid out-of-date goods which we cannot use.
- These items can be dropped off in the designated food bins located in the Madonna della Strada shrine in the Church vestibule. You can bring them when you come to Mass over the weekend, or daily, from 7:45 AM – 4:00 PM.

The Food Pantry distributes groceries from the vestibule of the Church on the second Thursday of each month, from 6:30-8:00 PM. Our next distribution will be on February 12. If you have any questions, please contact me at (708) 215-5418 or mford@stcletusparish.com.

STEWARDSHIP

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" -John 1:38

What are you looking for? That is a question Jesus asks each of us. It has been said there is a God shaped hole in every soul that only God can fill. Instead of spending time with God, though, we fill our days working for things that do not satisfy us but that society says we need to impress one another.

The St. Cletus Women's Club Christmas Tea was held at the La Grange Country Club. The tea was a huge success. Attendees sipped tea, enjoyed finger sandwiches and were serenaded by the St. Cletus Children's Choir. The 140 women that attended raised $2,500 that will be donated to the St. Vincent de Paul Society to help those in need. In addition, more than 100 children's books were collected for the St. Cletus Giving Tree program. The Women's Club wants to extend a special thank you to all the local business owners whose generous contributions made the tea such a wonderful success.

FISCAL 2008 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

Please Note: Registered parishioners will receive a 2008 contribution statement. Anyone who gave regularly but is not registered will also receive a contribution statement. Statements will be in the mail by February 2, 2009.

Heads Up!

Please take extra care walking in and out of church this time of year. With cold and icy weather, floors and sidewalks tend to be slick.
