Something as Parishioners we should know...

JOSEPH J. VARRIANO
JOANNE G. VARRIANO

Saturday, April 11, 2009

Dear Priests and parishioners of St. Cletus,

On Palm Sunday, we attended the 9:30 am mass. We are from the Kansas City area and in McCook for a volleyball tournament later that day. When we arrived, we picked up our palms and found our seats. Shortly after, we were asked to present the gifts of bread and wine. Explaining that we were from out of town and not members of the parish (and dressed very casually), the usher said he would be happy for us to join in the celebration with the other parishioners. We accepted.

The mass started with a well rehearsed opening song. My husband even commented on the harmonious choir. The mass moved along quickly with everyone knowing their duties. The sermon was short and to the point. I almost always get the point of sermons and hate when the priest repeats himself or a reading two or three times. Continuing, the music was upbeat and well paced, not dragging. Palm Sunday is usually one of the longest masses of the year, yet today it only lasted 45 minutes.

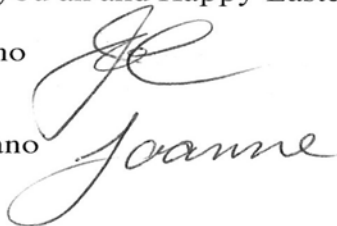

After mass, we purchased some candy bars from a youth organization. With the extra 25 minutes allotted for church that day, we decided to eat at the pancake breakfast. We were greeted with smiling faces and easy conversation. We sat next to a guy and his mother. He had apparently attended school at St. Cletus 40 years ago and was home visiting. He hadn't been in the school since he left. He spoke of his memories there and his mother sat politely and smiled. We had to finish our meal quickly because our ride was waiting outside to pick us up.

We gave our driver a candy bar as a gift then realized we wish we had bought more. Unfortunately, we didn't have time to go back. Anyway, we wanted you to know that you have a wonderful parish. We felt at home from the minute we stepped in the church and we haven't found that with many churches. You're doing something right at St. Cletus. Keep up the good work. We will make it a point to attend St. Cletus should we ever find ourselves in Chicago again.

May God bless you all and Happy Easter!

SUNDAY, APRIL 26, 2009

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Graceful you

Luke's accounts of Jesus' resurrection appearances include Jesus in the role of "Bible teacher." The disciples on the road to Emmaus and those in the upper room experienced Jesus in bodily form and also in his role as rabbi. He helped them "connect the dots" of their Jewish tradition so they could see that the resurrection was the fulfillment of all their ancestors had hoped for. Easter helps us locate ourselves in the vast sweep of history, the constant working out of God's irrepressible good will. God's grace is not only for figures from biblical times but also for us. You are not included as an afterthought but the intended beneficiary of God's grace since the beginning of time.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a; Luke 24:35-48

"If anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous."

MONDAY, APRIL 27

EASTER WEEKDAY - Read the signs

When we speak of "signs," we mean that a sign will point us to something larger that we do not see. When Jesus multiplied five loaves of bread to feed a large crowd, he intended the loaves to be a sign of eternal life. But many in the crowd believed the bread to be just bread; that he could feed them all with five loaves was all the miracle they needed. When we become infatuated by the surface of life, we can easily miss the deeper meaning to which it points. Today try to imagine that deeper meaning.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:8-15; John 6:22-29

"Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves."

TUESDAY, APRIL 28

FEAST OF LOUIS MARY DE MONTFORT, PRIEST

Sincerely and completely yours

Louis de Montfort (1673-1716) was a French priest remembered both as a champion of the poorest of the poor and for his strong devotion to Mary. Centuries later, his writings influenced four popes (Leo XIII, Pius X, Pius XII, and John Paul II), and he is now considered a candidate to be named a doctor of the church, a rare distinction. Pope John Paul II said that reading the saint's work True Devotion to Mary was a "decisive turning point" in his life, and he chose Louis' personal motto Totus tuus ("completely yours") as his own motto while a bishop. Try to bring some of Louis' passion and complete commitment to your own faith and devotion—who knows, future popes might number among your admirers!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 7:51-8:1a; John 6:30-35

"I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29

FEAST OF CATHERINE OF SIENA, VIRGIN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

A saint of struggle

She may be from 14th-century Italy, but Saint Catherine of Siena could probably relate to many people today. Just as many of us do, she lived in an atmosphere of political turmoil, struggles in the church, and economic hardship. Catherine struggled with how to make sense of the world around her and a call from God that was burning within her. She surrendered to the call and cultivated her relationship with God in everything she did: tending those who were sick, praying in mystical union with God, writing letters of spiritual counsel and encouragement, suffering the agony of physical and emotional pain, engaging in ecclesial and political affairs in order to bring about reconciliation. Ask Saint Catherine to be your companion as you negotiate life's sometimes-rocky paths.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:1b-8; John 6:35-40

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me."

THURSDAY, APRIL 30

FEAST OF PIUS V, POPE - A leader to follow

Like Pope Paul VI 400 years later, Pope Pius V was called to implement the directives of a church council, in his case the Council of Trent that took place in the wake of the Protestant Reformation. Pius V, a devout fellow with a spare lifestyle drawn from years as a Dominican friar, met the challenge by continuing to live simply, avoiding any luxuries of papal life, and working extremely hard. He offers inspiration to leaders today to dedicate themselves to their tasks for the good of the people they serve, rather than for their own power, wealth, and glory.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:26-40; John 6:44-51

"It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me."

FRIDAY, MAY 1

FEAST OF JOSEPH THE WORKER - Get to work!

The Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker may have been instituted partly for political reasons (to counteract dreaded communist influence), but the feast's recognition of the dignity and sanctity of labor has deep roots in Christian tradition. Unfortunately our high-tech culture no longer values manual labor as much as it should. E. F. Schumacher, in his book Small Is Beautiful, suggests that a "great part of the modern neurosis may be due to this very fact: for the human being . . . enjoys nothing more than to be creatively, usefully, productively engaged with both his hands and his brains." Today, in honor of Saint Joseph, plant a seed, make dinner from scratch, or fix something that's broken.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 1:26-2:3 or Colossians 3:14-15, 17, 23-34; Matthew 13:54-58 - "Is not this the carpenter's son?"

SATURDAY, MAY 2

FEAST OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP AND DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Reasons to believe

The struggles of the church to define itself in its early centuries are easily forgotten, but those battles were waged with passion and conviction. Heresies such as Arianism changed the faith of individuals and even helped shape political history. Athanasius' vigorous defense of the divinity of Christ and the Trinity cost him dearly, not only in his theological thinking but also in popularity and even personal safety. Christians today easily acknowledge the divinity of Christ without realizing the full implications of such a belief. It is important we regularly ask ourselves not only what we believe but why—and avoid easy answers in the process.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:31-42; John 6:60-69

"For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father."

"MY GRIEF OBSERVED"

Adolph Funeral Home is having a four week grief educational series entitled "My Grief Observed". This group will meet at the funeral home in Willowbrook on Monday nights from 7-8PM, starting on April 27. Karen Rose Schultz LCSW will be the group leader. Issues to be discussed will deal with loss, changes, family life, and learning how to cope with and heal from the death of a loved one. Please call Donna to RSVP at (630) 325-2300. Please leave a message if the answering service is on.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE...

A sincere THANK YOU to the dedicated volunteers, both women and men, who help stock our pantry shelves and make up the more than 200 bags of groceries we distribute to our clients each month. Their faithfulness in making sure all goods are in-date, sorted properly, and put on the appropriate shelves to allow them to efficiently put together a balanced assortment of staples and "extras" in each bag, is greatly appreciated, especially by those we serve! They have already made up 100 bags - half way to our goal for the May 14 food distribution. Again we turn to you, our generous supporters, to help us restock our inventory of non-perishables. We are greatly in need of dry pinto beans, rice, peanut butter, jelly, canned fruit, boxed sides, tomatoes, and all sizes of diapers. Extras such as crackers, coffee, juice, evaporated or powdered milk, or any in-date non perishable will also help us fill the needed bags. THANK YOU for so faithfully adding an item or two for the food pantry to your weekly grocery list.

REMINDER: There are a lot of exciting opportunities for service in the Social Concerns Ministry – whether you have a few hours of volunteer time or more to offer. Be sure to stop at our tables at the Ministry Fair this Sunday to check them out!

Mary Beth Ford

Director of Social Concerns

OUR NEWEST MEMBERS ARE WELCOMED INTO THE CHURCH AT THE EASTER VIGIL

Frs. Edgar, Charles and Bob were the celebrants at the Easter Vigil Mass.

At the Holy Saturday Vigil, Apostolia Vallianatos received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist, Laticia Tinajero received her First Holy Communion, and Mary Anna DePasquale received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Anyone who is seriously thinking about becoming a Roman Catholic or who would simply like more information can call the Religious Education Office at (708) 352-2383 regarding R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

Pat Kahl
Director of Religious Education

CONGRATULATIONS!

YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS...

Confirmation: Next weekend, May 3, 90 of our high school teens will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation at a special 12:30pm liturgy. Bishop John R. Manz will be presiding. Please remember our young men and women in your prayers.

Thank You!!... The Teen Advisory Board would like to thank the parishioners of St. Cletus for your support of our summer mission trip. We are reaching our goal and are most grateful for your contributions. We are continuing to sell the remaining Fannie May candy bars this weekend! Please stop by our Youth Ministry booth if you would like candy bars for $1.00 each. We have dark chocolate, milk chocolate, almonds, caramel and peanut butter. Thank you!

Amy Cranny
Youth Director

STEWARDSHIP

“Then he said to them, ‘Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts. Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself.’”

These words from the Risen Christ are good advice when we are troubled or doubtful about our stewardship decisions. Just look at the hands and feet of the Lord. How can we refuse to be the hands and feet of Jesus here on earth now when He sacrificed His entire body for us?
