NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

Seventh Sunday of Easter

A few weeks ago, you heard from me regarding the final stages in our parish's long range planning process. As this important initiative continues to progress, I wanted to give you a quick update on where we stand and how you can join us in the planning effort!

As a quick recap: St. Cletus has partnered with Laurus Strategies, who will conduct a Case Statement Process and develop a concrete set of prioritized recommendations for St. Cletus. This is the final step in a three-part process, and the recommendations made will serve as the foundation of a plan—a plan developed for the parish, by the parish—which will guide St. Cletus strategically into the future.

Parishioners Rob Luxem, Peter Okkema, and Roman Szabelski have agreed to serve as Case Committee Chairmen in this effort. The remainder of the Case Committee will be made up of parishioners who represent a wide variety of ages, interests, and engagements across both the parish and school. Their primary role will be to work hand-in-hand with Laurus Strategies to ensure the success of this final step, as well as represent the interest of the St. Cletus community throughout the Case Statement Process.

Again, the planning process has just begun! Over the next few months, there will be a number of opportunities for participation in the form of group discussions, opinion surveys, personal interviews, and more. We look forward to hearing from as many parishioners who wish to share their thoughts and ideas, and you will continue to hear more about the specific ways that you can get involved in this exciting initiative.

This is truly a time and a process which allows us to celebrate all the gifts God has given us and how we can express our gratitude to St. Cletus for allowing those gifts to come alive. As planning efforts continue over the next several months, please pray for the St. Cletus community and the success of this process.

I am grateful for your commitment to our parish community, now and always.

FIRST COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION 2010

On May 1, 2010 we celebrated First Holy Communion at two separate liturgies and witness more than 117 young boys and girls receive our Lord in the Eucharist for the very first time. It was indeed an inspirational day for all concerned. These young people not only received Christ for the first time in Holy Communion but served to remind each of us of the joy of receiving him body and blood each time we approach the altar. Our prayers are with each of these new communicants and we thank God for their holy and innocent model of what it means to be a true and faithful disciple of Christ.

This Sunday afternoon we will witness another 80 of our young high school students as they are confirmed in the Holy Spirit at Confirmation. They have spent the past two years in study, discussion, prayer and reflection and service preparing to receive this joyous sacrament. Once again we thank God for their commitment to their faith and their modeling for us what it means to be faithful disciples. May the Holy Spirit of God grow and prosper within each of them today and always. Our prayers are with them as they continue their journey of faith.

*Blessings,
Fr. Bob
Pastor*

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, MAY 16, 2010 - SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD - The sky's the limit

The old logo of the paint manufacturers Sherwin-Williams shows the planet being colored by their product and the words: "We cover the earth." The image is apt as we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. The angels in the story chide the disciples for their "verticality": Stop standing around gazing up into the sky. Close your gaping mouths and get to work. The effect of the Paschal Mystery is to breathe into us the very Spirit of God, which impels us to get "horizontal." That is where we are sent to continue Christ's Easter work of healing, forgiving, and taking the part of the broken and excluded. May the angels catch us not staring into the sky but into the eyes of our sisters and brothers.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23 or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24:46-53
"Why do you stand looking up toward heaven?"

MONDAY, MAY 17

EASTER WEEKDAY - Believe it or not

The disciples confidently assured Jesus they believed in him, suggesting an unshakeable faith. Jesus knew better; he knew they would flee at the first sign of the trouble that was coming his way. When we are most sure of ourselves and most persuaded by our own arguments, we most need to be careful. When it comes to faith, Jesus knows we can talk a good talk, but can we walk the walk—especially when it leads us to risk or hardship? The Easter season is a good time to bring to mind both our own limitations and God's limitless power to help our unbelief. Pray for an extra dose of humility mixed with a little courage.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 19:1-8; John 16:29-33
"You will be scattered . . . and you will leave me alone."

TUESDAY, MAY 18

FEAST OF JOHN I, POPE, MARTYR - The spirit of sacrifice

You might think that martyrdoms always mean dying violently for faith. Some deaths, however, are slow—but they are martyrdoms nonetheless. Take Pope Saint John I's death, for example. In the sixth century he got caught up in the rivalry between two emperors. As a result he was put in prison, where he died slowly of starvation. Whatever form it takes, martyrdom involves the willingness to make the ultimate sacrifice for what you believe and to remain faithful to what you hold to be important. Let some of that spirit into your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:17-27; John 17:1-11a
"I do not count my life of any value to myself, if only I may finish my course . . . to testify to the good news of God's grace."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19

EASTER WEEKDAY - The way of the world

In the Marian prayer Salve Regina we call the world "this vale of tears," an image not so different from Saint Paul's when he warns us of "savage wolves" who will not spare believers. In John's gospel Jesus, too, refers to the world as a place where believers will find the rejection that he experienced. It's easy to become cynical, to see salivating wolves lurking everywhere. But it is precisely this valley of tears that God so loved as to give us his Son. Jesus never promised, "Let me take you away from all this," like some cornball movie hero. He promised to be with us so that we could continue the good fight. As a matter of fact, he prays to his Father, "As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world"—into the fray, not as victims but as lovers.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:28-38; John 17:11b-19

"We must support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

THURSDAY, MAY 20

FEAST OF BERNARDINE OF SIENA, PRIEST

Finding strength in weakness

Bernardine had the makings of a saint from an early age. In 1400 at the age of 20 he voluntarily nursed the sick and dying during a devastating plague. Later he cared for an ill aunt. Eventually Bernardine joined the Franciscans, an order of missionary preachers—a seemingly odd choice for a poor speaker! Nevertheless, after years of prayer and meditation he went to Milan where he astounded the crowd with his eloquence. He spent the rest of his life traveling around Italy spreading the word of God through his inspired preaching. Bernardine reminds us that God makes use of our weaknesses as well as our strengths. Can I accept my limitations today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; John 17:20-26
"That night the Lord stood near him and said, 'Keep up your courage!'"

FRIDAY, MAY 21 - Breakfast is served

The gospel contains a lovely story we can take with us from this Easter season, which ends this Sunday with the celebration of Pentecost. Peter and the other disciples were at a loss as to what to do with themselves after Jesus' death, so they did the only thing they knew how to do: They went fishing. After a fruitless night on the sea, they returned to shore to find the risen Christ cooking breakfast for them over a charcoal fire. Jesus serves the hungry fishermen and they share a meal. Wouldn't you love to have been there? The fact is, we have a standing invitation. The kitchen is open, the cook is available. Have a seat at the table.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 25:13b-21; John 21:15-19
"Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'"

SATURDAY, MAY 22

FEAST OF RITA OF CASCIA, RELIGIOUS—The patience of a saint

When Saint Paul went to Rome a prisoner, he lived under a lengthy house arrest, awaiting word of his fate but also receiving all who visited him and sharing the Good News with them. Life also called Saint Rita (1381-1457) to patient endurance. First was her marriage to an abusive husband. Then, after becoming a widow, several refusals on the part of religious communities who didn't want her. When she finally did become a nun, she suffered the daily pain and indignity of a forehead wound that did not heal. But, like Saint Paul, she remained patient and generous. When she died, a local official wrote of her as "having spent 40 years as nun . . . desiring to show all the faithful a model of life." Try to meet your own difficulties with the same spirit of serenity and service.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; John 21:20-25
"He lived there two whole years . . . and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God."

New Principal Named

I am most pleased to announce that we have a new principal for next year. Our principal search committee, advisory board, and I, interviewed a number of candidates over the past several weeks and we were all very impressed with Mrs. Terri Langellier.

Terri comes to us from SS. Cyril and Methodius Elementary School in Lemont. She brings many years of administrative and classroom experience. I am confident she will lead our parish school to new heights of excellence.

Blessings,
Fr. Bob

THE LABYRINTH ~ PRAYER IN MOTION

You are invited to walk the sacred path of the Labyrinth on Monday, May 17. A labyrinth is an archetype, symbol, found in many religions in various forms around the world.

Walking the labyrinth is a spiritual act and a physical mediation-prayer in motion. The labyrinth is a large circle with a single path with twists and turns. You cannot get lost. It is a metaphor for our spiritual journey.

This is a wonderful form of meditative prayer. The labyrinth will be available during the hours of 6:30-8:30 P.M. in Morrissey Hall. Stop by and take time for yourself with God.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

We received a large food donation as one of the recipients of the United States Post Office Food Drive last weekend. Thanks to all who donated to that event, to the food pantry volunteers who picked up, delivered, and sorted the groceries, and to Boy Scout Troop and Crew 216 for lending a much appreciated hand in the carrying and sorting of the goods received. Their cheerful work made a huge undertaking go very smoothly!

SVDP REMINDER

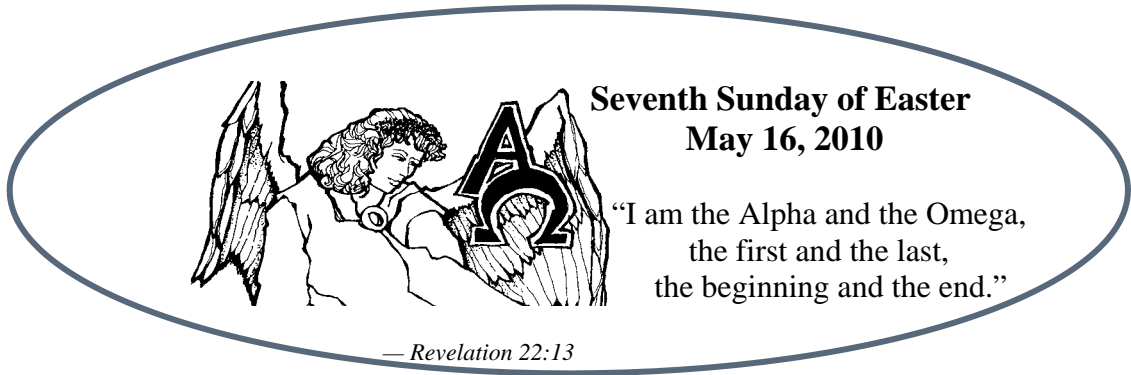

The 3rd Annual Rummage Sale sponsored by our Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference is just a little over two months away, on Saturday, July 24. Please remember us as you do your Spring/Summer cleaning and organizing. Visit Social Concerns/SVDP/Rummage Sale on our parish website, www.stcletusparish.com to see a list of the items we will be accepting the weekend and week before the event. Your donations at that time will help provide necessary funding as the SVDP volunteers go in pairs on home visits to ascertain client's needs and to offer Christian encouragement and hope, as well as one-time emergency financial assistance. Thank you.

SEVEN OBSTACLES TO A SUCCESSFUL JOB SEARCH

INTERFAITH CAREER NETWORK invites you to join us for a very positive and helpful session for job seekers. Our speaker, Jim Fitzgerald, is a founder of the Career Transition Center located at Old St. Patrick's Church in Chicago, an accomplished Career Transition Specialist and Executive Coach. Job seekers fail in their search efforts for many different reasons. You can overcome these obstacles by taking these seven steps: 1) get out of the gonna syndrome, 2) defeat rejection, 3) organize the process, 4) get in their faces, 5) develop persistence, 6) be in control, 7) do your homework. If you are interested in some candid and insightful information regarding these seven steps, be sure to attend Jim's presentation on Thursday, May 20, 7:00 P.M., at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5000 South Wolf Road in Western Springs. This program is open to all and there is no fee for attending.

ICN has created a local LinkedIn Group, "La Grange Links", for anyone in the La Grange area and surrounding communities. Visit LinkedIn, then search for "La Grange Links" under the LinkedIn Groups heading. We hope you will join and discover new contacts within our community.

ST. CLETUS LONG RANGE ADVANCEMENT PROPOSAL

CHALLENGE NO. 4: How can we ensure that St. Cletus offers activities and programs for all age groups?

In order to meet this challenge, the Parish Life Commission was formed by volunteers from several of the different Parish Life Ministry organizations. The Parish Life Commission is a ministry committed to planning social programs and activities that will provide opportunities for the Parish Community to meet and interact, and to share our Christian faith. Over the past year the Parish Life Commission has sponsored several Family Game Nights, the St. Cletus Parish Picnic, The Kelly Miller Circus, the St. Cletus Pot Luck Dinner, Co-ed Basketball Gym Night, and a Book Club that meets every other month. The Parish Life Commission, together with a variety of social and community organizations (Christian Family Movement, Cub Scout Pack 83, Girl Scouts, Holy Name Society, Leisure Loafers, Welcoming Committee and the Women's Club), provides fellowship opportunities for parishioners of all ages. Please check the weekly Canticle for upcoming programs and activities.

FAREWELL BLESSING

In the Hebrew scriptures the "farewell blessing" is a fairly common way to end the story of the lives of the great figures in Israel's faith. The farewell blessings of Jacob, Moses, and David are particularly notable. At the end of Luke's Gospel, we have a "farewell blessing" by Jesus; it is the only time that Jesus is described as giving a blessing to his disciples. Jesus' farewell, of course, is different. Unlike Jacob, Moses, and David, who gave this blessing at the time of their deaths, Jesus bestows his blessing as he prepares to enter into new and glorious life seated at the right hand of God in heaven. His blessing, like that of his predecessors, is meant to give them strength and courage. But it also has another purpose: it prepares them to be sent out on mission. In this way, it is a precursor to the dismissal blessing we receive at the end of every Mass. Yes, the grace of God's blessing strengthens us, but it is also a dynamic force that sends us out on a mission to continue the life and the work of the Risen Christ.
