Memorial Day Poppies Honor US Veterans' Valor And Sacrifice on the Battlefield

Memorial Day Poppies will be sold May 27, 28, and 29 at various locations throughout La Grange, Western Springs, and La Grange Park by veterans and volunteer members of the American Legion and Auxiliary of the Robert E. Coulter, Jr., Post 1941 in La Grange. American Legion volunteers will accept donations in exchange for a memorial poppy. All money raised through the American Legion poppy program is used to fund projects that assist US military members currently serving, those in hospitals, and their families. The little red cloth poppies first became a symbol of the tragic cost of war and the sacrifices and valor of the US military in the days following World War I. Today the memorial poppies are hand-made by veterans receiving rehabilitative treatment in Department of Veterans Affairs hospitals, including Hines Hospital in Maywood, Illinois.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

Get in the Spirit

The first time an English speaker hears Mass in Spanish can be striking, particularly when familiar responses are presented in a new light. For example “And also with you” becomes “Y con tu Espiritu” (“And with your Spirit). That opens things up—not only about how to understand this part of the liturgy but also how to understand our brothers and sisters. How amazing it is to consider that indeed the Holy Spirit is with each one of us. And not only at Mass or when we are doing “religious” things or with people we like. What would the world be like if we truly recognized the Spirit within ourselves and within one another?

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23 or 14:15-16, 23b-26

“All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit.”

MONDAY, MAY 24

Stuff, stuff, and more stuff

“Coat Hanger Syndrome” refers to the way coat hangers seem to multiply all by themselves in an unused closet. The same thing happens in a garage when stuff multiplies to the point where the car no longer fits. Desk drawers have the same problem. In fact life itself can become so burdened with stuff, things we own and accumulate over time, that we become dulled to the still, small voice of the Holy Spirit within that leads us to fulfillment and true joy. Our stuff is supposed to make our lives better, but it doesn’t. The Spirit is our best bet.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:3-9; Mark 10:17-27

“Go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor.”

TUESDAY, MAY 25

FEAST OF GREGORY VII, POPE

Let God be the highest bidder

There was a time when those with enough wealth could legally buy all sorts of important positions in the hierarchy of the church. The practice, known as simony, is named for Simon Magnus, who appears in the Book of Acts and offers to pay the apostles in exchange for special spiritual powers. They reject him outright, but the custom nonetheless was common in the early church and led to widespread corruption. Gregory VII, pope from 1073 until his death in 1085, was instrumental in putting a stop to it. As Jesus said, we can’t serve two masters—God and money. Let’s make sure our priorities are in order.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:10-16; Mark 10:28-31

“Look, we have left everything and followed you.”

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26

FEAST OF PHILIP NERI

PRIEST - Patron of mirth

Some vocations come out of the blue, the result of divine intervention in an otherwise ungovernable life. So the church welcomes demon-plagued Mary Magdalene, self-involved Augustine, and strong-willed Dorothy Day into its ranks. But others are more like Philip Neri, such a terrific kid they called him “Philip the good” from the start. The patron saint of everything from rheumatism to earthquakes, Philip was best known for his hilarious sense of humor. That is cause enough for sainthood: choosing to lift the spirits of others. And couldn’t the church use more people who can make us laugh?

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:18-25; Mark 10:32-45

“The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord endures forever.”

THURSDAY, MAY 27

FEAST OF AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, BISHOP

Good news comes ashore

In 596 Pope Gregory the Great tabbed Saint Augustine of Canterbury and 30 other monks to bring the gospel to the Anglo-Saxons. When the missionaries landed in southern England, they were met by the Anglo-Saxon King Ethelbert. In his speech to Ethelbert, Augustine said: “Do not see us as coming to force upon an unknown people against their will. Be assured that only a great love constrains us to do this.” We bring you, Augustine said, “news of never-ending joy.” Ethelbert was so impressed he gave Augustine freedom to do his work and even a base of operations at Canterbury. Isn’t that the heart of sharing your faith with others: not compulsion but persuasion—delivering news so good that another can’t resist it?

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Peter 2:2-5, 9-12; Mark 10:46-52

“Long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation—if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.”

FRIDAY, MAY 28

Difficult, Godlike—and necessary

Mark’s gospel does not include Jesus teaching the Lord’s Prayer, as he does in the other gospels. Like Matthew and Luke, however, Mark does show Jesus linking our own forgiveness to our willingness to forgive others. The Lord’s Prayer asks that God forgive us as we forgive others; those who seek forgiveness must be “forgivers” themselves. In Mark, Jesus says: “Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses.” Jesus characterizes his own mission as handing himself over “so that sins may be forgiven.” We need forgiveness! How much we desire it! But at the same time we must be its vehicle to others, especially those who have hurt us.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Peter 4:7-13; Mark 11:11-26

“Whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.”

SATURDAY, MAY 29

Faith large and small

When you think about it, Jesus asks both a lot and only a little of his disciples. A lot: that they give themselves completely to following him and his way. But also a little: doing a few basic things like having faith and trusting him and the Father who sent him; loving as you are loved by God; forgiving because you are forgiven; and showing mercy, for you have received mercy. Though it asks much—everything, really—of people, being a Christian is actually pretty simple: Love God with your whole self, and share that love with others.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jude 17, 20b-25; Mark 11:27-33

“Build yourselves up on your most holy faith . . . keep yourselves in the love of God; look forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ . . .”

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Today as we celebrate Pentecost the Holy Spirit wants to make us advocates of God's presence to bring new life to others, especially those who do not know the love of God in their lives. Our Society of St. Vincent de Paul parish conference continues to bring the love of God to those in need by providing Christian hope and emergency assistance for necessities, including utilities, rent, food, medical prescriptions, etc. If you or someone you know in our community are in need of our services, please contact us. Often the support and assistance we offer can bridge you through a tough time. Contact: Jim McLamore, (708)267-5657, jimm@datacompld.com or Mary Beth Ford (708)215-5418, mford@stcletusparish.com.

WANTED: JOBS

The purpose of our Employment Ministry, the Interfaith Career Network, is to prepare and enable individuals to successfully complete their job search by finding meaningful employment in a timely manner. YOU can be a crucial part of this ministry, if you answer "Yes" to the following questions:

Are you Hiring? Do You Know a Company that is Hiring? All levels of positions are welcome at any time. Interfaith Career Group members are degreed and non-degreed individuals seeking full time, part time and contract positions in a broad range of levels and functions, including: Accounting, Engineering, Customer Service, Clerical/Administrative, Warehousing, IT, HR, Supply Chain, and Sales/Marketing. Please send position description and preferred method of contact to: Jobs@interfaithcareernetwork.org. Job opening information will be sent to group members via the Interfaith Career and Networking Yahoo Group. If you would like to know more about this ministry, visit www.interfaithcareernetwork.org. Thank you for your assistance!

CAREER NETWORKING SESSION

INTERFAITH CAREER NETWORK invites you to join us for a supportive evening of networking on Thursday, June 3, at 7:00 PM. You'll meet with other job seekers in our community and exchange contacts and leads that could be very helpful in your job search. Meet job seekers who understand the value of networking to help you find your next new job. Bring copies of your networking handbills, resumes and business cards to distribute. Don't have any? Come anyway! Hope you will join us and gain some important new contacts and information that may lead to your next new job. This session is open to all and there is no fee for attending. We meet at the First Baptist Church, 20 North Ashland Avenue in La Grange (across from the La Grange Post Office). Please use the Bell Street entrance.
