Notes from Fr. Bob...

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Arak is a spirits drink, something akin to vodka, and made by the Arabs. As a body-warming and mind-numbing drink, it became the friend and companion of a young, Scottish soldier during the dark days of war in 1942. Fighting with the "Desert Rats" in North Africa, against the great German general, Erwin Rommel, that young soldier felt that his world was coming to an end. "The Africa Cores" of the German army had the Allies on the run, and victory for Britain looked very unlikely. News coming from home was equally bleak, as towns and cities suffered constant bombing from the raids of Goering's Luftwaffe. It was a bad time, with no light or hope on earth's horizon. The soldier sought refuge in the bottle. Arak became his comfort in sorrow.

"That will kill you," a fellow soldier warned him. He did not care. And kill him it did. One morning his fellow soldier woke up in his sleeping bag on the desert sand, and found the young Scot dead, beside him. He had found his exit from life, from a life too hard to live. The desert sand, the burning sun, the vast and empty sky, all spoke to him of the end of hope, and we cannot live without hope. And so he died. Yet his companion and many like him, lived to see a better day, and a change of fortune and the promise of peaceful times.

The words of Isaiah would have been very appropriate then. "Let the wilderness and the dry lands exult, let the wasteland rejoice and boom." Yes, a total transformation had occurred. The fortunes of Israel were changed when the exile to Babylon was over, and the people could return home: just as the tide of war also turned, and "desert rats" could go home. What had looked like disaster is now turned to glory, the glory of going home.

In the days of the early Church, James, "the brother of the Lord", writes a letter to all the Jewish converts to Christ, to encourage them to persevere and to be patient in times of hardship. Think of the farmer, he says. He knows what he has planted in the ground. He knows what power is in the seed to emerge and flourish and bear fruit. But he has to wait for autumn rain and spring rain. For a long time there is no sign of life, it is buried in the earth. Then the miracle happens. The earth breaks open to reveal the new life and to give us food and fruit and flower.

Life is like that, says James. We must wait patiently and not lose hope. Rather, we must help each other to hope. So he goes on to give another example. Think of the prophets of old, how much they put their hope in God and

John the Baptist in his prison was a man in chains and in confusion. His forceful preaching had been stopped in mid-shout, his career curtailed. Detained in Herod's dungeon, his wide world and wider vision of the coming Messiah had shrunk to the width of his prison cell. He is caught in the narrows, his drive diminished, his voice silenced. Then he hears of Jesus and of the voice reclaimed – for you cannot shut up God's word. John sends the question so he can know, "Are you the one?" The answer is not a simple "yes", because so short an answer leaves too much unsaid. We need to see. So Jesus sends John a vision, a picture of the truth. "Tell John what you see and hear." Lives are being healed, and the word is being spoken. "Do not lose faith in me!"

John can persevere, right to the end. His life is not in vain. His patience is not pointless. They point to the power of goodness and love, for which he is prepared to suffer for the sake of others. Sin and selfishness have no such powers. They witness to nothing, they merely fade away.

We are not immune to the troubles of this world, or to the agonies that cause people to despair. But the seed of hope has been planted in us, and hope is bright. Then let us give to others what God has given to us - a reason to rejoice.

Advent Hope, Peace and Love,

Fr. Bob Pastor

Learning through Doodles

Our sixth and seventh grade religion students are taking an artistic approach to learning the materials while they work through their Sadlier religion books. Using the sketch note method students take notes by drawing pictures to highlight and emphasize important information which helps them conceptualize ideas. The benefits are a richer understanding of what they are learning and fun notes for studying.

Girls on the Run 5K

We are so proud of our Girls on the Run club! Despite some chilly weather, all their training paid off when they showed up ready to run and have fun. The GOTR program is focused on helping the next generation of women grow up strong, confident, and empowered.

Cub Scout and Girl Scout Tree Trimming

Thank you to Fuller's for donating the trees for our Scout Tree Trimming. The trees can be found by the main entrance to St. Cletus School.

Using Technology to Enhance Science Lessons

Recently our Junior High Science classes used their Chromebooks to study genetics by manipulating traits in real-time. Using an application our students were able to create different genetic scenarios and then see what the possible outcomes would be. The pictured student is using the application to cross a famous person's traits with his own.

Second Collection This Weekend

"Be faithful to your prayer life and have a sense of humor," says Sister Rita Polchin (foreground), 87, a member of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius. This philosophy has served her well during nearly 70 years of religious life, especially as a teacher and principal in Catholic schools.

Like Sister Rita, the senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests shown here—and nearly 33,000 more across the nation—have offered their lives in service and prayer. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide nursing care, medications, and other necessities. Please be generous.

Advent - A Season of Love, A Season of Joy, A Season of Hope

A SEASON OF HOPE

Today we can bask in the imagery that the Mass readings offer us. In particular, Isaiah's vision of a parched land that blooms with abundant flowers holds a message for each of us. Too often we are just like that parched land. We can allow ourselves to become absorbed in the waves of consumerism that grip so many. We look for fulfillment in the things that money can buy. Unfortunately, this leaves us like parched land, thirsting for something that money can't buy. This holy season has much to offer to quench our thirsts. In a word, this season offers hope. We are told that those who are ransomed by God will know joy and gladness. For them, sorrow and mourning will be no more. Let us place our hope in these promises.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The barren deserts will rejoice and flower. Tired bodies will receive strength. Aching hearts will be made glad (Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10).

Psalm — Lord, come and save us (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Be patient, for the coming of the Lord is as sure as the rain (James 5:7-10).

Gospel — Tell of what you hear and see: The blind regain their vision, the crippled their movement, the deaf their hearing (Matthew 11:2-11).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When the ties of affection and authority that bound Europe's Catholics unraveled in the sixteenth century, many cultures lost time-honored customs of faith. Some customs proved to be especially difficult for the reformers to wrest away from the people, especially those celebrated in the home. This week in Sweden, a country where the Catholic Church was disestablished four hundred years ago, a Catholic martyr from Sicily is the most beloved figure. St. Lucia, Lucy, is celebrated on December 13. The long-story-short is that Lucy was a Christian whose father wanted to marry her off to a pagan fellow, and she rejected her father's authority. To make an example of her, her father had her killed. In the course of the brutal martyrdom, Lucy lost her beautiful eyes, but her vision was miraculously restored. The candles worn today by the eldest daughter of the family are tokens of the fire that refused to harm the saint. So this patroness of light and clear vision is revered on the shortest, darkest days of the Nordic winter. Before the reform of the Gregorian calendar in the sixteenth century, December 13 was the winter solstice.

Today, young girls appear in the morning wearing lighted candles on their crowned heads (battery-operated now after many mishaps), and serve sweet rolls and coffee to everyone in the house. For the Swedes, who are not churchgoers, the "Lucias" are the official heralds of the holiday season and a sign of everyone's yearning for more light in this world. Europe once abounded with customs like this; the survival of this custom in Scandinavia is a sign of God's grace, and how fertile the soil is to receive the true message of Advent.

OPLATKI AVAILABLE

Oplatki is available at the St. Cletus Parish Rectory office during regular business hours. A donation of $2 is requested.

Traditionally at midnight the head of the household takes the white oplatki and shares it with family and friends and than the pink oplatki

Once again I'm collecting stamps for the Kolbe House Catholic Jail Ministry. These are to be used for the Christmas Card mailings from Detainees to their families. As many of you know I serve as a Catholic Minister for the Kolbe House Jail Ministry at Cook County. This annual effort this year is looking to collect 7,000 first class stamps.

If you would like to donate stamps in any denomination (1 cent up to first class postage) please put them in an envelope and drop them off at the rectory marked "Kolbe House Stamps - c/o Marlene". ### BOOK CLUB - DEC. 13

The St. Cletus Book Club will be meeting on Tuesday evening, December 13th, at 7:00 p.m. We are meeting in Room 102 in the school. The book to be discussed is "Welcome To Hard Times" by E. L. Doctorow. All interested participants are most welcome.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF COMMUNION AND MINISTERS OF CARE

On the weekend of December 17th-18th, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion and Ministers of Care will be mandated for a three year period. A mandate is an order or commission given by the Archdiocese to individuals who have completed a course of training to serve or continue serving a particular parish as a Minister of Communion. It implies a commitment on the part of the ministers to serving the parish. The pastor reviews those ministers' service who have already been mandated and authorizes their re-mandating (if already in service) or commissions new ministers to be mandated. This occurs every three years. This takes place throughout the Archdiocese on one of the Sundays of Advent marking the beginning of the new liturgical year.

A blessing will be offered for these ministers at each of the weekend Masses Dec. 17-18.

If you are interested in joining this ministry, please contact Paulette Bolton. Please contact Fr. Ken or Paulette if you have any questions. (708)215-5422.

ARCHDIOCESAN MASS FOR LIFE - 1/7

Save the date for the Annual Archdiocesan Mass for Life which will again be held at Saint Cletus Church.

Saturday, January 7th at 5:00 p.m.

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Principal Celebrant All Are Welcome. Reception to follow Mass.

WORD OF LIFE

"A child is loved because he is one's child: not because he is beautiful, or because he is like this or like that... Not because he thinks as I do, or embodies my dreams. A child is a child: a life generated by us but intended for him, for his good, for the good of the family, of society, of mankind as a whole."

— Pope Francis, General Audience, February 11, 2015. © 2015 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission.

THANKS A MILLION!

Women's Care Center of La Grange would like to thank all St. Cletus parishioners who donated to our recent baby bottle collection at the parish. The total amount collected to date is $8,050. We are so pleased with your response and are very blessed by your generosity! You have made it possible for us to continue our life-saving and life-affirming work helping women and babies in our area.

We are deeply grateful to Fr. Robert Clark, pastor, and to Wayne and Marianne Hamilton, pro-life coordinators, for all their support and leadership in this event. We also want to give a big THANK YOU to the Girl Scouts who once again passed out the bottles after all the Masses.

Because of your sacrifices large and small, Women's Care Center of La Grange will be able to help save babies' lives through compassionate counseling, free ultrasounds, medical referrals and material assistance given to their moms and dads in crisis. As we approach the Christmas season, we and the babies give thanks for all of you and count you as one of our greatest blessings.
