Saint Cletus Parish Canticle

When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear
with him in glory.
— COLOSSIANS 3:4

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Cardinal Cupich has mandated the suspension until further notice of all liturgical services (weekend and daily masses, confessions, reconciliation services). Easter Liturgies will not be celebrated publicly in our parishes.

Please continue to pray for the People of God and for all whom the Coronavirus and these closings affect.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY, HEALTH OF THE SICK, DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

O Mary,
 You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the Cross, united with Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman people, know what we need, and we trust that you will provide for those needs so that, as at Cana of Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us. He who took our suffering upon Himself, and burdened Himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas — we who are put to the test —and deliver us from every danger. O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Letter from Fr. Bob...

Dear St. Cletus Parish Families,

I pray that you and your loved ones are healthy and have the resources you need amidst the current restrictions. We know these measures are designed to protect our well-being and that of our broader community and world.

The ministries of St. Cletus continue to adjust and adapt to today's reality, which seems to change day by day...sometimes by the hour. We remain flexible to this change and committed to serving the needs of our parishioners and community, even if the way we minister looks different. We continue to provide weekly curbside service to feed the hungry through our food pantry, both School and Religious Education students continue their education through eLearning, and other resources that are available. The parish staff are working remotely to ensure as much continuity in our operations as is possible.

PRAYING TOGETHER

Though our parish family may be physically separated from one another, we are blessed with several ways we can unite in prayer and devotion.

Online Masses are available on the Archdiocese of Chicago and St. Cletus Parish websites. ABC 7 has been airing Mass with Cardinal Cupich on Sundays at 9:30am. There are also many resources online for Catholic prayer and devotion.

GIVING TOGETHER

All parish Masses and liturgies through Easter Sunday will not be celebrated publicly. This is leading to extreme losses in our offertory income, which is placing all of our ministries and operations at significant risk. Our staff and parish community depend upon your regular, weekly offertory contributions and, during this current challenge, they are needed more than ever.

Please consider giving online through our parish website, where you can make a weekly offertory and/or Easter contribution to maintain and keep all of our ministries and services. We ask you to prayerfully consider maintaining your regular weekly donation level or even increasing it during these times.

If you prefer to make an offertory donation by check, please mail them to St. Cletus Parish, 600 W. 55th St. La Grange, IL 60525.

The fact that this pandemic is occurring during our Lenten journey and Easter celebration offers each of us important reminders about the role of faith, hope and charity in our daily lives and in whom we place our trust. I believe we are being called by Jesus Christ to a renewed sense of solidarity. This is a time for unity in prayer, not for isolation; it is a time for hope, not despair; it is a time for generosity, not self-focus. "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn 13:35)

May God grant you peace during this difficult time and may He manifest His love and presence to you in abundant ways.

Easter Prayers and Blessings to all as we are reminded that God is with us each day.

Even though we are not able to receive Jesus physically in Holy Communion, know that he is in Spiritual communion with each of us every day.

If you have any questions, please contact the Parish office at (708) 352-6209. If we aren't able to immediately answer, please leave a message in the general parish voicemail which is monitored remotely.

*Prayers of Good Health,
"He is Risen" "Alleluia"*

Sunday Notes

SEEDS OF FAITH

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information “bullet points.” Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or “kernels” of our faith. Actually, “kernels” or “seeds” are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter “seeds” of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.

THE EASTER OCTAVE

Sunday, April 5 - Sunday, April 12, 2020

Eastertime lasts fifty days: seven weeks of seven days (seven equals Biblical perfection) plus one day: perfection plus! Like an eight-day Jewish wedding, or a child who can't bear to let go of Christmas, birthdays, and school vacation, the Church celebrates the Easter Octave: “the marriage of heaven and earth,” as the Vigil calls Jesus' resurrection; our new members' baptismal rebirth; our renewal of baptismal vows; our hearts' “divine vacation” (Latin vacare, “to be empty”), newfound time and space for love of God and neighbor. Make home an Easter garden! Adorn the dining table with a pillar candle (your “paschal candle”), a bowl full of water (ideally, from the parish's baptismal font), a vase of flowers or bowl of sprouting grain with Easter eggs. Even non-singers can handle the three-fold Gospel Alleluia! Let that be your grace before meals, perhaps with a prayer recalling Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35): “Be known to us, Risen Lord Jesus, as you were to the first disciples, in your word, in the breaking of bread, and in everyone we meet.”

—Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CHRIST HAS RISEN

Where is your sting, O death? Where is your victory, O hell? Christ has risen, and you are overthrown. Christ has risen, and the demons have fallen. Christ has risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ has risen, and life reigns. Christ has risen, and not one dead rests in the grave. For Christ having risen from the dead became the first-fruits of them that slept. To him be glory and majesty to ages of ages. Amen.

—Byzantine Pentekostarion

Readings for April 12, 2020 Easter Sunday

READING 1

Acts 10:34a, 37–43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 118:1–2, 16–17, 22–23

R. (24) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

“The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.”

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

READING 2

Col 3:1–4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

EASTER SEQUENCE:

VICTIMAE PASCHALI LAUDES

(This text is chanted at Mass on Easter Sunday after the Second Reading and before the Gospel Acclamation.)

Christians, to the Paschal Victim

Offer your thankful praises!

A Lamb the sheep redeems;

Christ, who only is sinless,

Reconciles sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:

The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring

What you saw, wayfaring.

“The tomb of Christ, who is living,

The glory of Jesus’ resurrection;

bright angels attesting,

The shroud and napkin resting.

Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;

to Galilee he goes before you.”

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!

Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Jn 20:1–9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

FOOD PANTRY

New Donation Drop Off Location

Please look for the FOOD PANTRY DONATION bin near the Rectory door, this will be checked daily. A list of our most needed items can be found to the left. Please do not make a special trip out to the store if you do not need to!

DONATIONS NEEDED FOR A MATCHING GRANT!

We have been given an anonymous matching grant up to $20,000! Can you please help us match this donation? We have never come to you like this before!

With the current pandemic, our neighbors need help now more than ever. We are here to help.

To ensure we have the necessary resources, we need adequate funding. Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to help us continue our services. All donations go directly to the operation of our pantry. We appreciate your support! Here are some benefits to making a monetary donation:

- A monetary donation can stretch 8-10x further than it would at a grocery store because we can purchase items at a deep discount through the Greater Chicago Food Depository.
- Funds allow us to buy what our clients need, when they need it.
- Food donations must be sorted, dates checked, and processed by volunteers, which we are trying to limit during this pandemic.
- Funds allow us to purchase necessary safety and sanitation items, such as wipes and gloves.
- All donations are tax-deductible

Online donations can be made here: <https://bit.ly/2UMNfeP> Or you can write a check to "St. Cletus Food Pantry" and mail it to: 600 W. 55th St. LaGrange, IL 60525.

Can you help us reach the full amount of this matching donation? Your $10 donation becomes $20, a donation of $50 becomes $100, and $100 becomes $200!

LENTEN OUTREACH

Happy Easter! We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate the Risen Lord! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl challenges us as we begin the Easter season to share what we have with our global family. At this time, please consider holding on to your donation until it is safe to be together. Or, even better, convert your collected change into a check and either mail it to St. Cletus or drop it in the mail slot at the Rectory. Thank you!

WORD OF LIFE

“Those who die in God’s grace and friendship live forever with Christ. Heaven is not an abstract idea, but a true and lasting relationship with God that is beyond all earthly description and understanding. We look forward to the resurrection of the dead and everlasting life by preparing now, in hope, for our passage from this life into eternal life.”

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH

We hope you are all staying safe and healthy during this uncertain time. We are very aware of the extra stress, fear, and danger that “shelter in place” puts on families with domestic violence. Individuals normal opportunities to get out of the house for work, school, activities and to see other people is greatly limited or non-existent.

We wanted to remind you that our Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry is still here for you at this time.

- If you would like to talk directly to one of our volunteers please call 708.215.5418 and leave a message for someone to call you back. Or email kgrant@stcletusparish.com
- Pillar’s 24-hour DV hotline is available at 708.485.5254
- If you prefer not to talk on the phone, or if it unsafe to do so, you can chat directly with someone at: <https://www.thehotline.org/what-is-live-chat/>
- Call your local police or 911, if needed
- Under the “shelter in place” order we are still allowed to be outside, to go for walks, etc.

We are thinking of you, please let us know if we can be of any assistance.

WEEKLY GIVING REPORT

Due to the temporary closing of the parish the weekly collection numbers were unavailable at the time of printing this bulletin. Thank you for your continued support of St. Cletus Parish during this difficult time.

BULLETIN ARTICLE SUBMISSIONS

Please note that all Canticle articles are to be emailed to canticle@stcletusparish.com as text with pictures attached separately. All articles are due 5p.m. Friday a full week (9 days) before Sunday’s publication.

ENROLL IN ELECTRONIC GIVING

Please consider supporting St. Cletus Parish by enrolling in electronic giving during the temporary closing due to COVID-19.

It is SO EASY! Visit the St. Cletus Parish website at www.stcletusparish.com and click the “DONATE” BUTTON. Click Sunday donations. We accept checks (ACH), debit and credit cards. If you have questions or need help, call Mary Zwolinski 708.352.6209.

YEAR-END STATEMENT BY REQUEST ONLY

As tax time approaches, we ask everyone who would like a year-end statement of their Year 2019 financial offering to the parish to fill out the form below and return it or simply call the office @ (708) 352-6209 with your request. You may also email bkallal@stcletusparish.com and submit your request electronically. Rather than mail statements to everyone in the parish, it seems more prudent and conservative to only mail them to those who need them for tax returns. Of course, your statement is available anytime a need for it may arise. Thank you.
