NEW MINISTRY -UNEMPLOYED TOGETHER

The pandemic has sadly created unemployment and reduced employment for several in our communities.

Unemployment is not just an economic problem; it impacts ones sense of worth, security and spirit. It can be a spiritual challenge as it affects people at every level. It affects ones well being.

St. Cletus Parish is launching a virtual small faith group called "Unemployed Together". It is to help those facing the same challenge of unemployment to grow in faith and relationship with Christ through the lens of this exceptionally challenging moment in his/her life.

All are welcome! - The small group will meet weekly, virtually via Zoom video conferencing. An invitation to Brian and Bernie working through the rain!

Congratulations Angelina and Patrick!

Thank you Volunteers!

Sunday Readings

The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

1 Corinthians 10:16–17

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc. - Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass © 2008, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCD. All rights reserved. Photo: Nito/Adobe Stock

READING 1

Dt 8:2–3, 14b–16a

Moses said to the people: “Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

“Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 147:12–13, 14–15, 19–20

R. (12) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem;
praise your God, O Zion.

For he has strengthened the bars of your gates;
he has blessed your children within you.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has granted peace in your borders;
with the best of wheat he fills you.

He sends forth his command to the earth;
swiftly runs his word!

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has proclaimed his word to Jacob,
his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
He has not done thus for any other nation;
his ordinances he has not made known to them. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

READING 2

1 Cor 10:16–17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

(The sequence Laud, O Zion [Lauda Sion] may be sung before the Gospel Acclamation.)

GOSPEL

Jn 6:51–58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ.

SAINT ROMUALD (C. 951-1027)

June 19

"God so loved the world," declares John 3:16. "Do not love the world," warns 1 John 2:15. The "world" to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God's children all. The "world" to flee: "sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life" (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald's conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God's world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald's journey resonate with all who find life more maze than superhighway. Both the hermit's solitary struggle and community life's unique challenges shaped Romuald's legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California—in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe—integrate Romuald's experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

Music Ministry

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ or simply, the Feast of Corpus Christi. In the first reading from Deuteronomy we hear Moses say to the Israelites, as they had been wandering in exile after leaving Egypt: “Remember how for forty years now the Lord, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert...He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger...Do not forget the Lord, your God...”

Then both the second reading from Paul’s letter to the Corinthians and the Gospel according to John reference the body and blood of Jesus; the fact that He gave of Himself for us. The Gospel concludes with: “...unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

This weekend’s recorded mass included a familiar tune played during the distribution of Eucharist. “Eat this bread, drink this cup...” This hymn tells the entire story of Corpus Christi. And yet, this year, as a Christian community, we were not able to physically receive this life giving Eucharist. In reference to this weekend’s solemnity, The National Association of Pastoral Musicians wrote this: “What matters is not simply eating the bread and drinking the cup, but participating in the life and mission of Christ, whose sacramental presence impels us into the world to transform it.”

Although we are getting closer to once again reopening our parish and celebrating mass as a community, and although it hasn’t been forty years, thank God, it certainly has been “a journey in the desert”; we have certainly been afflicted with a “hunger”. No one knows how each of us has been effected by all the unprecedented events of the past three months, but one thing is certain. Our faith affirms our belief that God has not deserted us and the promise of eternal life is certain.

Please continue to pray for our Parish; for all in our community whose health has been impacted by the coronavirus; for all who have been effected by the non-essential business closings; for our nation as we struggle with injustices. Better days are certainly just around the corner!

“Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, what God has ready for those who love Him!”

Amen. Karen

SAINT JOHN’S ABBEY REFLECTION

Psalm 62: “In you alone is my soul at rest. My help comes from you.”

In Memory of George Floyd

Words of Martin Luther King

“Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.”

“He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it.”

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.”

“I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.”

Psalm 27: “I believe I shall see the Lord’s goodness / in the land of the living.
