A Note from Fr. Elmer

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to share some blessings with you.

First, since our parish is blessed with three priests, we are happy to be available to you for confession every Saturday. As of Saturday, August 7th, 2021, we will be offering Confessions every Saturday from 8:30 AM to 9:15 AM. There is no need to sign up ahead of time. I would like to acknowledge and thank some members of our parish who brought to my attention the need to have more opportunities to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation. Please share this news with your family, neighbors, friends, and coworkers.

Second, this past Tuesday morning (July 20th), after the 8:00 AM Mass, we enjoyed some convivial time together with coffee, juice, and treats in the Parish Center. About 25 parishioners and our three priests gathered informally for about 45 minutes and we all had a good time just visiting at the tables in the Gallagher Room. I would like to do this again on the third Tuesday each month after the 8:00 AM Mass. Please know that you are welcome to join us.

Third, another blessing that I want you to be aware of is that on August 31st, 2021, at 8:00 AM we will be celebrating a Mass of the Holy Spirit as we begin our new school academic year. Parents and parishioners are all invited to join us in praying for our school children, faculty, and staff for a successful new year.

I pray that our good and gracious Lord may continue to share His blessings with us!

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH

I live in your neighborhood.

“I am a woman with three children. I have an MBA, a good job, and I live in a nice Chicago suburb. However, I have had several visits to the Emergency Room this past year. I try to go to different ERs so they won’t recognize me coming in. I have to pay out of pocket since my insurance doesn’t cover all these out-of-network visits. I don’t come in right away. I wait until the bleeding has stopped, until I am calmer, until I can think up a plausible story to go with my cuts and bruises. I think that my husband is jealous of my education and earning ability. He never finished college. He earns less than I do. Still, I do not withhold money. We put everything into a joint account. I love him and I don’t hold it over him. But it seems like every month when we pay bills, he starts feeling like he’s one down. He starts belittling me first, I guess to make himself feel better, and soon he gets physical. He has never hurt me too bad. I’ve had a few stitches, but no broken bones like some women. He always feels so sad when it’s all over. I know he doesn’t want to hurt me. Something just happens.....”

MYTH: Victims provoke their partners’ violence.

FACT: Whatever problems exist in a relationship, the use of violence is never justifiable or acceptable. There is NO EXCUSE for domestic violence.

You are not alone!

In an emergency, dial 911 or call the National Domestic Violence 24-Hour Hotline at 800-799-7233.

WORD OF LIFE

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel is a sequel to last week's account of Jesus feeding a large crowd with five barley loaves and a few fish. Here, Jesus is challenging the crowd to see in the bread they have eaten a sign of God's generosity in providing for all the blessings in their lives, as well as the blessing of life itself. The first reading, from Exodus, recounts how the escaped Hebrew slaves were fed in the wilderness, first with quail, then with manna. The psalm is a later reflection on the manna as the bread from heaven and a blessing from God. The selection from the letter to the Ephesians sketches the image of putting away the "old self" and putting on the new, emphasizing that a person's life in Christ needs to differ from their previous life, just as the life of a free person differs from that of a slave.

SIGNS AND WONDERS?

Today's Gospel continues into a second day the narrative that had begun the day before when, after crossing the lake to look for Jesus, a large crowd are fed with five barley loaves and two fish. The following day (today's reading), after more lake crossings, the people who had been miraculously fed are again searching for Jesus. However, they do so (as Jesus puts it) "not because you saw signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled" (John 6:6).

In John's Gospel, the word "sign" has a distinct meaning. At the wedding at Cana, after telling how Jesus turned water into wine, the Evangelist notes "Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs" that "revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him" (John 2:11). For John, signs are not just wonders to behold; they are about the revelation of God and a response of faith in Jesus.

OR MAYBE THE SIGN IS THE WONDER

When the crowd first arrives, Jesus notes that they had not appreciated the sign that he had already given; they are still focused on their physical hunger. When they ask for a sign, "that we may see and believe in you" (John 6:30), they refer to their ancestors who ate manna in the wilderness. Can Jesus top that? Can he give them more bread that will relieve them of their daily worries about going hungry?

Jesus reminds the crowd that it was not Moses who gave the "bread from heaven," but his Father. Further, the Father can give them the true bread from heaven that comes down and gives life to the world. There is a parallel in the Greek between working for food that perishes and doing the works of God, which is believing in Jesus as the one God has sent. This is the sign that the people missed the day before, the sign that Jesus is pointing out to them.

Like the Evangelist, the Church uses the word "sign" for its sacraments. Like the crowd, we are called to see similar "signs" of God's generosity in all the blessings of our lives.

Religious Education

WHAT IS IT??

In today's first reading and the Gospel, we hear about manna that was provided to the Israelites in the desert. Do you and your children know that "manna" means? The word "manna" actually means "what is it?" What is it?!?!? Manna was so strange to the Israelites that they named it "what is it?".

So really, what is it? When the Israelites fled Egypt they wandered in the desert for forty years. Forty years! That's a really long time! And all forty years they had very little to eat. Deserts are usually very empty, so you wouldn't be able to pick berries or dig up potatoes. And when you are constantly traveling, you can't exactly grow a garden or raise chickens. The Israelites got so hungry they began to complain and got very angry. They thought they were all going to starve! They went to Moses to beg for food, so Moses asked God to feed them. And God did. The next morning manna fell from heaven, and when the Israelites woke up, they were surrounded by little white fluffy mounds. Since they had never seen anything like it before they called it manna, or "what is it?".

Manna was a bread sent from heaven to keep the Israelites alive, but the manna didn't last. Even if they ate all they could they would still be hungry the following day. And if they tried to store some up for later it went bad and turned into worms. But manna isn't the only bread God sent from heaven. Jesus is our bread sent from heaven. Jesus tells us that he is the Bread of Life. Just like the manna was sent to keep the Israelites alive, Jesus was sent to keep us alive. And unlike the manna, Jesus doesn't run out or go bad. Jesus was sent from heaven to save us and keep us alive for all time.

In the our Gospel reading today Jesus said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty." Once we have Jesus we are full. We have all we need. We don't need to keep searching for something else to save us. Jesus is it. He is all we need, and with Jesus we will live forever. When we receive the Eucharist, and invite Jesus into our lives, we receive the best gift that God has to offer us. As we receive that gift, we can then share those gifts with others, just as Jesus did.

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Today's Gospel has the crowd asking Jesus three questions. First, "When did you get here," to which Jesus responds by rebuking them for their failure to grasp his miracle as a "sign," an occasion to put faith in him. Their second question about accomplishing the "works of God" has Jesus respond that faith is the "work" that God wishes. Many scholars believe this is John's answer to the faith-works dichotomy emerging in the early Christian community. Faith is the work of God in the believer, John would have us understand. The third question asked by the crowd is a request for a "sign" that would allow them to put faith in Jesus, as the manna in the desert allowed the Israelites to put faith in the Lord God. Jesus answers by revealing himself as the "bread of life" that "comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

FEAST OF FAITH

The Preface: Thanksgiving

The preface of the Mass has been called "a poem, the cry of joy and recognition, the song of the world discovering its salvation . . . the certitude of faith making hope spring forth" (Philippe Béguerie, quoted in The Mass, Lucien Deiss, The Liturgical Press, Collegeville, MN, 1992, p. 70). The preface takes up the last words of the dialogue, and expresses briefly and simply why we are grateful, why it is right and just to give thanks and praise to God. On feast days, the preface sings of the specific mystery or saint we celebrate; in Ordinary Time, the Sunday and weekday prefaces express our gratitude for God's gift of the Son, Jesus Christ, in whom we have redemption and newness of life. The prefaces offer a succinct account of what God has done for us in Christ; they express the mystery of faith, always relating it to us, to our lives. "By his birth we are reborn," we hear in Preface IV for Sundays in Ordinary Time. "By his suffering we are freed from sin. By his rising from the dead we rise to everlasting life." Yes, we have cause to give God thanks and praise.

PLANNED GIVING

Q: Who Needs an Estate Plan?

A: Everyone.

Your estate includes everything you own, regardless of size. If you want your assets to be given to the people and charities you care deeply about after your passing, then it's important for you to establish a formal estate plan. Not only will it give you peace of mind, but your loved ones will also appreciate not having to make tough, stressful decisions during an already difficult time.

There are five key elements to an effective estate plan:

- (1) Financial power of attorney
- (2) Will
- (3) Beneficiary designations
- (4) Charitable beneficiary designations
- (5) Health care documents, such as a living will and a health care power of attorney.

Please consult an attorney and financial advisor when creating your estate plan. For more information, please contact Mary Zwolinski at 708-352-6209.

To request the free guide, "Tips for Creating an Effective Estate Plan," please contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org.
