A Note from Fr. Elmer

Dear Friends,

I would like to share with you some updates regarding our St. Cletus School.

I am pleased to let you know that our St. Cletus School is blessed to have a faith-filled, passionate, and dedicated Principal, Gregory Porod. He loves what he does. He wants to provide our students “the foundations for life,” help them grow in their faith, and see them receiving a fine quality of education.

Principal Porod and I have been meeting twice a week since July 1st. We both think that it is important for us to have a direct communication and a good working relationship. Per mutual agreement, he and I plan to hold a weekly meeting once school starts.

Under the leadership and direction of Principal Porod, our facility and maintenance team is working attentively to have all the classrooms ready for the new school year.

As I continue to learn about my role with our School, I am becoming aware not only what goes on at our school but also about how generous you are with our students. Principal Porod and I greatly appreciate your generous support and contribution.

Below you will see a letter sent out to all parents a few days ago which is signed by Principal Porod and me.

May the Good Shepherd continue to inspire us to share our Catholic faith especially with our children through our school.

FAITH FAMILY FUTURE

Dear St. Cletus School Families,

We hope all of you are enjoying the beautiful summer weather that we have been experiencing lately. As we begin to approach the start of the 2021-2022 school year, we ask God to continue to bless our St. Cletus School families and benefactors. As always, thanks for your continued positive support in all that we do.

Our new Pastor, Father Elmer Romero, and I had the opportunity to meet this past week. We both share a common vision about the important role St. Cletus School plays in the overall parish community. We talked about the importance in offering liturgical opportunities for students, maintaining high academic standards, providing extracurricular activities, and creating an environment for students, parents, and staff that make them feel part of a larger Catholic Parish School Community.

Father Elmer shared that he looks forward to helping the school continue to grow, and that he wants to be actively involved in supporting the spiritual and academic growth of our students. He and I will work as a team facilitating ongoing collaboration between the parish and the school.

We will continue to pray for all of you and your families and ask that you continue to pray for us as we work together educating our children.

May the Holy Spirit continue to guide all of you in all that you do!

God Bless.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH

When we talk about domestic violence, just who and what are we discussing?

It is easy to put that “other” person over there, to feel sorry for her/him, to shun the abuser, to “tsk, tsk, tsk” about how it never used to be like this, to say “there but for the grace of God...”, to stereotypically link her/him to poverty, drugs, under-education, or certain racial or ethnic groups.

Was she just a poor judge of men? Didn't she have any backbone? How could she let her children see that going on? Why didn't her family help her? Why didn't she just leave?

Unfortunately, interpersonal and intimate partner violence isn't so simple. During October, Domestic Violence month, this space will share with you some situations and some of the many faces of violence, so you can see for yourself how complicated it can be. As you read, please pay attention to the people as you picture them in your mind, to their appearance, their ethnicity - if you notice, to their general demeanor.

MYTH: Domestic Violence is bad, but it happens elsewhere. It doesn't happen in my community, my neighborhood, my culture, my religion, or my congregation.

FACT: Domestic Violence happens to people of every educational and socio-economic level. Domestic violence happens in all races, religions and age groups. Domestic Violence happens in both heterosexual and same-sex relationships.

You are not alone!

In an emergency, dial 911 or call the National Domestic Violence 24-Hour Hotline at 800-799-7233

WORD OF LIFE

“Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ... That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other.”

CELEBRATING WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

Today is the First World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, and it is fitting that we celebrate it on the Feast Day of Saints Anne and Joachim, the grandparents of Jesus. Our Grandparents and the Elderly are cherished gifts in our society. The older generation has “seen it all”, and they have lived most of their lives with unpredictable and challenging times, including this current pandemic. They are true survivors, having overcome very difficult experiences including war, droughts, fires, financial recessions, business failures and pandemics. They can certainly provide us all with some valuable wisdom and perspective in these current challenging times.

Grandparents and the Elderly offer us their personal memories. Memories help us to understand who we are, and help us to prepare for our future. Grandparents carry the collective experiences of many generations before them. That’s a wealth of memories and wisdom!

The mental health of young people is enhanced by knowing their place in their own particular family’s history. In today’s world, social media has significantly increased the number and range of contacts of our youth, but often their contacts are limited to their own age range. The presence of the elderly in their lives can help to improve that imbalance. The elderly also benefit from our younger generation as well. Young people help their elders to keep abreast of new trends and new technologies. They help to keep elders young!

Perhaps one of the greatest gifts of Grandparents and the elderly to our younger generation is that they have the gift of time to share. Grandparents often have more time to spend with the younger generation, from offering rides, teaching them to cook or build things, reading them stories, or just having the time for interactive play. The main gift is their presence – just being present to others. Their own love and care, in combination with their observations and life experience, are all components of making a culture of security and care for the younger generation.

It is important to recognize that the loss of faith practice of grandchildren can be a deep source of sorrow for our Grandparents and Elderly. Pray for your grandchildren. When you pray, pray with trust and pray for them by name. Tell your grandchildren that you are praying for them. Preach without words – be the kind of person you want your grandchildren to become: trustworthy, respectful, generous, and faithful. Be joyful and talk about the good that you see others do, including the good that they do.

Many Grandparents do not live near their grandchildren to be physically present with them. Here are a few suggestions for Long-Distance Grandparents:

Whats App, Facetime, Zoom... and a host of other apps are good ways to keep in touch with your grandchildren. Make sure you have a news item or interesting fact to pass on to them in your video chat. Write a note on your calendar to remind you to connect with them virtually at a regular time each week.

Texting is quick...and perfect for passing on jokes, a fun photo, a fun fact or an interesting quote. Get your grandchildren to show you how to include emojis and gifs to take your texts to the next level!

Email is so easy...and perfect for sharing an attachment from your photos, or a news item, or even an interesting story or piece of family history.

Snail mail is slow...but brings true delight to your grandchild when they receive a letter, card or care package in the mail!

Let’s use this special day to connect with our Grandparents and the Elderly. We owe them a tremendous debt of gratitude for their love, wisdom and example to us all.

REGISTER FOR RE TODAY!

During the summer, we ask that you register your child for our upcoming year in Religious Education! Registration forms can be found online at our website: www.stcletusparish.com/re This coming year will be a combination of at-home lessons and in-person events which will provide opportunities for your child to encounter Jesus through prayer, retreats, service and fun! Please make sure to register by August 1st to ensure we have enough time to order your child’s books and materials for the coming year!

Sunday Notes

ONE LORD, ONE FAITH

Do you suppose the authors of the four Gospels were aware of today's first reading from the second book of Kings? Of course they were. The prophet Elisha fed a hundred men with twenty barley loaves in order to prove God's power. This same miracle, now multiplied by more people fed by fewer loaves, is attributed to Jesus in all four Gospels. In today's passage from John we even have the detail that the loaves were barley, reminding every pious Jew of that miracle that Elisha worked. Yet Jesus went into hiding when they wanted to make him king. It is the passage from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians that gives us the reason for this. The power of Jesus comes from God. It is not meant merely to feed us, or to provide one group with a king. There is one Lord, one faith, one God and Father of all who works through Jesus Christ and through us all.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Elisha feeds a hundred people with twenty barley loaves (2 Kings 4:42-44).

Psalm — The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — Paul urges the Ephesians to live in a manner worthy of the call they received (Ephesians 4:1-6).

Gospel — Jesus feeds a large crowd with five barley loaves and two fish (John 6:1-15).

FEAST OF FAITH

The Preface Dialogue

"Lift up your hearts." "We lift them up to the Lord." "Let us give thanks to the Lord our God." "It is right to give him thanks and praise." With this ancient dialogue we enter the Eucharistic Prayer, the heart of the Mass. These venerable words have been part of the Christian liturgy almost from the beginning—by the time of Hippolytus of Rome (c. 215) they were already fixed in the liturgy.

Several times during the Mass the priest has invited us to pray. There is something different here. We are invited to be "lifted up," to ascend, to climb the Lord's mountain, as it were, to go to a new place for this most solemn part of the Mass. And we are invited to a new frame of mind, a sense of joy, of focused dedication: our hearts must not be cast down, but lifted up, and lifted to the Lord. Why? Because we are going to give thanks—we are going to "eucharist!" It is right and just that we do this.

Deacon Stuart Heyes Homily - July 11, 2021

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ARE YOU CHOSEN? ARE YOU?

In today's readings and Gospel we heard a lot about being "CHOSEN"

The Jewish people were the chosen ones as we read in the OT - But they offended and disappointed God - for example in today's first reading from Amos!

God chose Amos to go to the Northern Kingdom of Israel and remonstrate with the people because of their unfaithfulness to God's covenant.

But Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, insults and dismisses him, despite Amos's protestations that as a humble shepherd and orchard keeper he had nothing to gain personally but was commissioned - "CHOSEN" by God.

So Christ in his ministry extends those Chosen to include gentiles, and no wonder given the reception He got from The Jewish leaders and indeed His own Jewish friends and neighbors in Nazareth - as heard in last week's gospel.

Who does He think He is - A carpenter's son, son of Mary. A prophet is not without honor except in His native place indeed!!!

So in today's second reading Paul writes to the Ephesians that God Chose them - to be Holy and they are blessed through Jesus Christ - because God chose them from the beginning of time.

Making it clear that in God's plan all are equal - Jews and Gentiles - All are chosen.

Then in Mark's Gospel we hear what it means to be CHOSEN by Jesus.

Jesus not only ignores the disbelievers but he doubles down on his ministry and sends out his disciples - two by two - they are CHOSEN to have power over unclean spirits, to rely on the faithful for hospitality, and to make a public display of rejecting the disbelievers - "shaking the dust of their feet"

So those of us who believe in God the Father, The Son and Holy Spirit are indeed chosen. BUT we are expected to live our lives accordingly - not easy in society today.

And as I read and thought about this aspect of being CHOSEN - a story I read recently came to mind. It was written by Marie Armenia for the local TN paper.

To summarise - its end of time - God has had it with all the hate & division.

But Because some of us believed what God said and because of His mercy we are standing in Heaven with Popes, Martin Luther, Calvin, Rabbis, Prophets, Wesleyan brothers, Evangelists, Priests, Nuns, Saints old and recent, and even a few politicians!

We look around and are surprised by some people we know that made it - God is more merciful than we could ever have imagined !! Then we realise we are there by His grace despite such un-Christian human thoughts!!! - but all thoughts of denominations and disagreements are forgotten -

We are all THE BODY OF CHRIST.

Now Its time for REWARDS CEREMONY of ETERNITY to begin.

Gabriel the Archangel steps forward and blows his trumpet and announces the reward for the most faithful servant of God goes to "Elmer Schmertz"

I didn't make this name up Fr. Elmer - it was the name in the story.

All assembled are puzzled - no-one it seems has heard of Elmer Schmertz - who is he??

And Gabriel reading their minds tells them:

Elmer wasn't famous on earth but he was famous in heaven - where it counts.

He didn't care if people knew his name - it was the name of Jesus he wanted people to know

It wasn't fame that motivated Elmer but Love of God and Love of people,

Gabriel continued - Love is a big deal up here - ELMER was ignored most of the time, suffered sometimes - but did what he knew God wanted him to do - all day, every day - all his life -

Yes he was a nobody on earth but up here he was famous!!

In Conclusion - some of you will have heard me say that I'm not the pope nor the President of the US, nor the Cardinal of the Archdiocese or the governor of the state nor a big shot TV Sports or entertainment personality BUT I interact with many many people during my life - as we all do -

What God and His Son expects of us as CHOSEN disciples is that we influence those within our sphere of influence - in how we behave, live, act, but most of all LOVE.

That's what it means to be CHOSEN by God - so go out into the world and live your lives like Elmer Schmertz -

Love of God, Love of people - And while you may not be famous on earth - your reward will be great in heaven.
