FR. BOB'S UTTERINGS

Fifth Sunday of Lent

John 8 1-11

How do I react? Lord, why do we delight so when someone gets caught doing something wrong? We know that we are all sinners, but somehow we seem to feel a little better when someone gets what we feel they deserve. As Christians, we believe that we are all children of God and that we are to love God and one another, but that behavior does not seem to be our natural tendency.

In today's passage from John, scribes and Pharisees drag a woman before Jesus and claim that she was caught in the act of adultery...if guilty she could be stoned to death. Jesus does not respond the way they expected him to respond or perhaps wanted him to respond. If I caught a friend in the act of adultery, would my first reaction be one of love? How do I show love and understanding without being judgmental or giving acceptance which would enable the person to continue the behavior?

Sometimes we just want to think that the only one we are responsible for is ourselves, but this action falls short of the message Jesus gives us in today's gospel. We are to be forgiving and merciful. Most of us have not yet evolved to the point of being able to forgive very well, to forgive without any need to equalize the suffering. Maybe that is why, for many of us, we still like the idea of capital punishment and a kind of justice that balances scales pain for pain. Maybe it's because we are still in the process of becoming truly Christian in our humanity with such a long way yet to go.

Statues Covered in Purple, Holy Week, and the Sacred Triduum

You will notice this Sunday that the main cross over the sanctuary is draped in purple and that the statues in the church are covered in purple. There is a long tradition in the church that on the fifth Sunday of Lent, which used to be called Passion Sunday, the statues were covered until the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. In the diocese of the United States, crosses in the church may be covered or draped from the fifth Sunday of Lent until the end of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. All other statues in the church may be covered from the fifth Sunday of Lent until the beginning of the Easter Vigil. Our Parish Worship Committee has decided to reintroduce this long time tradition this Lenten Season.

Holy Week will soon be upon us as we quickly move through our Lenten journey. Please try to make every effort to fully participate in all the sacred events of the Triduum this year. These three days symbolize the essence of our faith as people of God. I will write over the next couple of weeks about each of the days of the Triduum.

Beginning with the celebration of Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday we are reminded of Jesus with his disciples at the Last Supper, the Institution of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and the symbol of service in the washing of feet. This year we encourage EVERYONE to have their feet washed. It is a rich symbol and reminder to each of us that by virtue of our Baptism we are all called to serve one another and to truly be the servant of all. We will have eight individual stations for foot washing to help facilitate this wonderful event. The Mass will lead us to the procession, adoration, and repose of the Blessed Sacrament that will be used for Good Friday Services and for the sick or dying during the remainder of the Triduum.

Lenten Blessings, Father Bob

I invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, MARCH 25, 2007
FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT
Off the rack

Mark Twain said, "Clothes make the man. Naked people have little or no influence on society." It's sort of an "outside-in" way of looking at people and their worth. But there's a kind of "dressing up" that goes much deeper than material clothing. Saint Paul called it putting on the Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 13:14). The result: "It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me" (Galatians 2:20). Put on the garment of Jesus, and Christ "possesses" you, takes hold of you, calls you his own. Invite Jesus to fill your body, mind, and spirit, and see what kind of person you become.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11
"Christ Jesus has made me his own."

MONDAY, MARCH 26

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD
How to play the favorite

It's not easy for us to explain why we hold certain people in special esteem above others. We have our favorites, and we don't analyze it much beyond that. But if we did, we'd probably find it's because they remind us of us, or they are people we aspire to become. They possess qualities we find appealing and amusing. We enjoy the person's company because what they do pleases us. For these same reasons Mary found favor with God. She chose ways that were God's ways. Her life was a reflection of life in God, and thus she was asked to bring the love of God to the world through Jesus Christ. Choose God's ways of justice and mercy so that like Mary you, too, may find favor with God and be filled with grace.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:10-14; 8:10; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38
"The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.'"

TUESDAY, MARCH 27 LENTEN WEEKDAY
You either believe or you don't

When you read or hear the Gospel of John, you find out that much of it is up or down, yes or no. Either you believe Jesus to be the Son of God, or you don't, and John was pretty hard on those who didn't. He was writing to Christians who were still separating from the Jewish community, and the conflict got fierce at times. Ultimately, though, John had it right. There really is not much middle ground when it comes to whether you believe the amazing claim that Jesus comes from God and will lead us to God. It is this belief more than any other that makes you Christian. So affirm it in your life today: "I believe in Jesus Christ, the only Son of God . . ." and follow his ways.

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30
"He said to them, 'You are from below, I am from above.'"

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28 LENTEN WEEKDAY
Search for the truth

Whenever you feel unduly burdened, hopeless, and helpless, and find yourself wishing you could run away from it all, assume you are living a lie and then try to discover the truth—because the truth will set you free. The truth will tell you that you are not alone, unloved, or unaccounted for. The truth will let you know that nothing can separate you from the love of God and that God's love conquers all. Don't let the lies of your worst fears guide your actions. When you're dazed and confused, move toward love—toward the courageous and compassionate response—and soon you will find your burden lifted and your chains loosed.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; John 8:31-42
"If you are my disciples, you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

THURSDAY, MARCH 29 LENTEN WEEKDAY
What's in a name?

New names frequently reflect entering upon a new phase of life. A baby receives a name, both on a birth certificate and at baptism, to mark its entrance into the human and Christian communities. At the sacrament of Confirmation young people choose a new name to signal their taking on of the adult responsibilities of discipleship. Even a new era for a business or other organization may mean a name change. When God entered into a covenant with Abram and his descendants, Abram got a new name—Abraham—that signified the renewed relationship and life with which God would grace God's people. Does your faith seem new to you? This Lent, what can you discover about it that's fresh and life-giving—what new "name" can you give your faith life?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:3-9; John 8:51-59
"No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations."

FRIDAY, MARCH 30 LENTEN WEEKDAY
Prayer stations

Today is the last Friday before Holy Week and the last one before Good Friday. As the day of the week on which Jesus died, Fridays have had a special place in Christian tradition. There was a time when Catholics abstained from meat on every Friday, not only those in Lent, as a reminder of Christ's sacrifice.

Another traditional Catholic practice associated with Friday is the Stations of the Cross. Pray the Stations today. You might try praying the Stations at church. Every church has the series of 10 shrines devoted to the Stations. Going from one to another as you pray retraces Jesus' footsteps to the place of his crucifixion and offers a kind of pilgrimage in the same sacred space where we celebrate the Eucharist. From life to death to new and transformed life: This is the mystery we enter into at this time of year—and all year round.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:10-13; John 10:31-42
"The Lord is with me like a dread warrior; therefore my persecutors will stumble, and they will not prevail."

SATURDAY, MARCH 31 LENTEN WEEKDAY
Correct your faulty logic

Caiphas, who pushed for Jesus' arrest and execution, believed that sacrificing one man for the sake of the nation was the better of two evils. Leaders are often faced with such abhorrent choices in a world where power and glory are held in esteem. Sacrificial lambs are slaughtered daily. But Jesus exposed the falseness of such death-dealing logic. It is not power and glory, he proclaimed, but humility and service that are the standards that please God and will bring about God's reign. The servant leader shares in a sacred trust to protect every life in his or her care. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, refused to forsake even one lamb. Follow Jesus' lead as you lead others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:21-28; John 11:45-56
"You do not understand that it is better to have one man die for the people than to have the whole nation destroyed."

Keeping the Ark Afloat

God calls us to build a just and sustainable world so that poverty and hunger are no longer the plague of the world's people. Let us build a solid foundation based on generosity and fairness for all of God's people. We hope that your "Ark" is filled with assistance for the poor.

You may turn in your "Ark" in on Palm Sunday, during Holy Week, or on Easter Sunday in the baskets in the vestibule of church. Thanks for your generosity.

Adult Catechism Study

We have all admired the beautiful stained glass windows in the church, but are we aware that each of them pictures a phrase from the Apostle's Creed? This creed is a summation of what we believe as Catholics and is prayed each time we say the Rosary. We recite a longer version of the Creed at every Sunday Mass.

A program based on the new Catechism of the Catholic Church will soon begin. The first sessions will study the Creeds—what the Catholic Church teaches and why she does so. If you've ever been at a loss to explain to others just what you believe as a Catholic, this study program will give you the answers.

The first of eight meetings will begin on Tuesday, April 10, at 7:00pm, in Room 213 of the Education Building. Other sessions will study the ten commandments, the Sacraments and Prayer. The text will be the new Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The older version may also be used. For further information, call Rita Reichardt, (708) 352-3374.

Calling All Holy Name Members

Our next meeting is Friday, April 13, Room 201 of the Education Building, at 8:00pm. We will review the pancake breakfast and discuss the Past Presidents Dinner which will be held in May. More information to follow.

+ Embrace the Challenge of Conversion +

Deep down, too many of us fear our sins are bigger than God's mercy. Jesus, however, responds to profound sin with profound mercy. Once we encounter Jesus, we are moved to repent, to change our behaviors. Every Lent is a call to conversion. Now is a good time to assess how well our Lenten penance has helped us overcome sin and come closer to Jesus.

PRAYER + Practice the presence of God in the midst of your day:
 + Pray the prayer for forgiveness:
*All loving and forgiving God, give us the courage to see ourselves with humility and honesty.
 Open our hearts to receive your forgiveness and your healing love.
 Then, as you forgive us, help us to show mercy and kindness to others.
 Help us to stand for what is right and to speak out against injustice, so that by our words and our example we may give witness to your saving power. Amen.*

FASTING + Avoid snacking in-between meals this week.
 Pray for those who are hungry all day.
 + Fast from acting on your prejudices and seek ways to overcome them.
 + Avoid stereotyping people. God loves us all—did not make one better than the other.
 + Live simply so that others may simply live. Clear out the clutter.
 + Fast from passing judgments on others.
 + Fast from focusing on the trivial things of your life; feast on the most important people in your life.

ALMSGIVING + Hug your loved ones & tell them why they are special.
 + Examine and discuss with your family ways that you can work together to make for a cleaner and safer environment.
 + Offer hope to others— family, co-workers, friends who may be experiencing pain or disappointments.
 + What am I doing to promote the work of justice?
 + Do I buy products from companies that pay a just wage?

CARDINAL CORNER

News from the St. Cletus School Board

St. Cletus School Board Openings, Candidates Invited to Apply

The St. Cletus School Board has openings for the term beginning July 1. The board consists of 8 to 12 members with diverse interests and backgrounds who typically serve consecutive three-year terms. We aim to broadly represent the Catholic community served by St. Cletus School and are seeking individuals of varied backgrounds. We also have a specific need for candidates with an accounting or finance background.

If you are interested in learning more about the school board or would like to apply, please contact the interview committee or submit your resume. Applications are due to Bob Thomas rmthomas0203@sbcglobal.net. Call Bob at (708) 354-8134 with any questions.

Where Are Our Alumni and Past Parents?

The Development Committee of the St. Cletus School Board is searching for our alumni and past parents. Please take a few minutes to fill out the form in the pews this week; visit the school website and click on the Alumni tab to complete the information online; or send an email to development@stcletusparish.com with your information. We're hoping to gather as much information about our alums as possible, including the following: name, address, phone, year graduated, e-mail address, employer and occupation. We'd also love to find some graduates who would like to be a class agent and help us find other classmates.

Congratulations to St. Cletus Students for Their Accomplishments in the Band Room and the Classroom

At a recent band competition, the following St. Cletus students received perfect scores: Elle Mrazek, flute; Tim Christopher, drum; Marie Johnson-Dahl, clarinet and Amy Burke, flute. Students also received a total of 115 1st place gold medals and 34 2nd place silver medals. Congratulations to all our musicians.

Our 8th grade students recently competed in the American Legion Essay Contest. Congratulations to 1st place winner Katherine McMillin, 2nd place winner Michael Micek, 3rd place winner Ben Okkema and Frances Galin who received an Honorable Mention.

"MANNA" for Easter

We will once again be offering gift cards/certificates for purchase through the MANNA Program after all Masses this Saturday & Sunday, March 24 & 25 in the church vestibule. "Manna" is a convenient way to purchase gift certificates for several stores without the hassle of driving and waiting in long lines. Fannie Mae, Toys R Us, Starbucks & Borders are some of the gift cards we offer which would make great Easter gifts. MANNA is an ongoing fundraising program offered weekly through the St. Cletus FSA. The FSA purchases these gift cards at a discount, sells them at face value and the difference is the profit for St. Cletus School. Order forms will be available at the MANNA table on the day of purchase. Any questions, please call Caryn Dombro at (630) 789-8560 or Lisa Heim at (708) 354-4257.

This event is free. Please bring a canned food donation for the St. Cletus Food Pantry.

Food Pantry

THANK YOU! to all who support our community Food Pantry. Your commitment to this much needed and on-going ministry is a great witness to your embracing Jesus' challenge to help those in need. Because of your generosity we were able to serve 110 local families in March. Please continue to make it a routine to pick up some items for the Food Pantry when you do your weekly grocery shopping. Several reminders:

- All non-perishables are greatly appreciated, especially our staples of rice and dry pinto beans; peanut butter and jelly; soup, meals in a can, tuna, macaroni & cheese; pasta and pasta sauce; canned fruits and vegetables; cereal and paper products.
- Each month we have a "specials table" where we have extra items from which our clients choose a couple of items. Some favorites include coffee, oatmeal, juice or soft drinks, crackers or cookies, diapers, toiletries, laundry detergent and dish washing soap. (Usually one of these extra items is also put in each pre-packed family bag.)
- Remember to check expiration dates to avoid out of date goods which we cannot use.
- These items can be dropped off in the church vestibule on the tables now provided in the former baptistery.

The Food Pantry distributes groceries from the vestibule of the Church on the second Thursday of each month, from 6:30-8:00 PM. Our next distribution is on April 12.

If you have any questions, please contact me: (708)352-4641 or Marybeth.ford@stcletusparish.com. Thanks again!
