NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2010

God believes in Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter, and for that matter he believes in you and me. These three men of faith have much in common. All of them have profound experiences of God in their lives. Isaiah in the Temple has a vision of the holiness of God. Paul has his Damascus experience. Simon Peter has witnessed some remarkable things in the short time that he has known Jesus. Jesus has healed his mother-in-law and for his previously luckless crew has brought about a huge catch of fish. These three men react in the same way to their encounter with God. Each of them is overwhelmed with a feeling of unworthiness. Isaiah says: "What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips." Paul knows he is unworthy; he has zealously persecuted Christians. Simon Peter realizes that he is standing in the company of God and so sinks to his knees and exclaims: "Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man." God's response is something like this: "Isaiah, Paul, Simon Peter, I believe in you. Stop looking at your limitations, your fears, your inadequacies. Concentrate on my love, my mercy, my strength and you can be my apostles: together we can do great things."

And so, Isaiah, Paul, and Simon Peter are invited to accept God's belief or faith in them. They are beggar men who recognize their poverty before God but understand that God can fill that poverty with His love, mercy and strength. With God working in and through them, they can do great things. Without the help of Jesus, Simon Peter will labor in vain. With the help of Jesus, anything is possible. Even a huge catch of fish, where before there were empty nets.

Just as God believes in Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter, God believes in you and me. God is not interested in our limitations. Rather, God is interested in our potential. God asks us to concentrate on his love, mercy and strength working in and through us. Together with God, we can be his apostles, his messengers. Together with God, we can do great things. The genius of St. Francis of Assisi summed it all up centuries ago: "Lord, make me an instrument of your peace." This simple prayer describes our vocation. To be an apostle or messenger of Jesus, we must let him do the work. We must be humble instruments or channels who allow God's love, peace and mercy to flow in and through us. God believes that we, along with Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter, can be instruments of his peace in the world. God believes in us.

With that recommendation ringing in our ears, we can be sure that we can do great things with and for God.

ST. CLETUS PARISH MISSION 2010

Please make every effort to "Come and See" at our parish mission over the next three days. Monday, February 8 through Wednesday, February 10. Father Dennis Koopman, O.F.M. will celebrate Mass each morning at 8:00 a.m. and then lead us on a spiritual journey each evening beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the church. Monday February 8 will be the Mission Service (Come and Live in the Embrace of God's Love) with Benediction followed by hospitality. Tuesday, February 9 will be the Mission Service (Come and Know Forgiveness as a Path to Peace) followed by the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Wednesday, February 10 will be the closing Mass (Come and be Called to Witness the Good News) followed by hospitality.

*Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Bob*

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Answer the call

Ever feel overwhelmed in the face of a monumental experience? Many of us have been there, including the prophet Isaiah. Isaiah had known firsthand the glory of God. In the face of such great beauty and goodness, he felt keenly his own imperfections and those of his community. God, too, saw the truth of Isaiah's situation, but God also saw Isaiah's commitment and desire to serve. God accepted Isaiah as he was and at the same time helped transform him so that he could more fully serve God. That enabled Isaiah to step up and volunteer his life. In what ways do you hear God's call? What will help free you to step up to the call?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 or 15:3-8, 11; Luke 5:1-11

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send . . . ?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'"

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8

FEAST OF JEROME EMILIANI, PRIEST, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER New directions amid life's twists and turns

There are a number of saints like Jerome Emiliani, men who had been mercenary soldiers and in some cases lived hard lives, gambling, drinking, and brawling. Some even landed in prison. But they later underwent profound conversions that redirected them to lives of service. Emiliani, for example, ran away from home when he was 15 and became a soldier in Venice in 1506, only to be captured by the enemy. Praying for deliverance to the Virgin Mary, he got away, hung his chains on a church wall as an offering, and began studying for the priesthood. During an outbreak of spotted fever he cared for the sick and orphans in his own home. He later founded orphanages, a hospital, and a religious order. Jerome turned out right after making some wrong turns. Remember that God makes it possible for you and the people around you to be more than your pasts and always to find new paths.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:1-7, 9-13; Mark 6:53-56
"Wherever he went . . . they laid the sick in the market-places . . . and all who touched it were healed."

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9 - Are your lips sealed?

The 19th-century Dictionary of Phrase and Fable defined "lip service" as "verbal devotion; honoring with the lips while the heart takes no part nor lot in the matter." This definition holds up pretty well today, as it did in biblical times. Technology may progress and develop, but human nature is much more stubborn. The next time you find yourself worshipping, whether in a pew, a prayer group, or in your own home, reflect on whether what is on your lips is also in your heart. If not, pray for a renewed heart!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30; Mark 7:1-13
"This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me."

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 10

FEAST OF SCHOLASTICA, VIRGIN - Ask and you will receive

Little is known of Saint Scholastica's life beyond the fact that she was the twin sister of Saint Benedict, the founder of Western monasticism. She and her brother were accustomed to meeting once a year to talk and pray. On what Scholastica sensed would be their last evening together, she asked Benedict to stay with her until morning. He refused, citing his rule that a monk may not be away from the monastery overnight. Scholastica then bowed her head in prayer and almost immediately a severe thunderstorm broke out, making it impossible for Benedict to leave. God loves to be asked to help. Rather than stewing in resentment or worry, remember Scholastica and ask God to help you with God's wonderfully creative solutions to trouble and conflict.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 10:1-10; Mark 7:14-23
"Blessed be the Lord your God, who has delighted in you."

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES; WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE SICK - Everyday miracles

Today, the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, is also the World Day of Prayer for the Sick, a reminder that Jesus' reputation was largely as a healer. The sick of Jesus' day were often assumed to be on God's wrong side and as such were often excluded from society. Healing was rare. While medicine is now a science able to help countless people recover from illness, it is still true that a caring, human touch can also have a healing effect. Lourdes perhaps more than any other Marian shrine is associated with the miracle of healing. Today I can perform the miracle of breaking the barrier of isolation that makes illness even harder to bear.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:4-13; Mark 7:24-30
"A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet."

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12 - Listen up, speak up

Jesus performed many miracles but never did so by force. Neither would he coerce anyone to listen to him, much less to speak up on his behalf. If we choose to ignore the Good News in our own lives, we have the free will to do so. It does us well to be on guard, therefore, so that we do not fall into a sort of spiritual deafness and muteness in which we neither listen to nor speak of our faith. God would never force you to do so—faith is freely given and freely exercised. Exercise yours today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:29-32; 12:19; Mark 7:31-37
"He even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13

FEAST OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY - Don't leave hungry

Some folks will always set out food when you visit their homes no matter what time of day it is. If you're smart you learn to drop by when you're good and hungry! Jesus never let anyone walk away hungry either—even if it meant setting the table for 5,000. His mother foretold that fact in her great song, the Magnificat: "He has filled the hungry with good things." When tired of the junk food the world has to offer, pray Mary's Magnificat (Luke 1:47-55) in faith that God will fill you with good things.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 12:26-32; 13:33-34; Mark 8:1-10
"If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way."

ST. CLETUS PARISH MISSION FEBRUARY 8-10th 7:00 p.m. FACILITATOR: FR. DENNIS KOOPMAN, O.F.M.

Why Should I Go?

We all need to do something just for ourselves. We get shots to prevent sickness and disease; we take vacations from daily stress.

A parish mission has much the same motivation. We commit ourselves to renewal so that we can be refreshed with God's word and God's love to better approach our daily lives.

Especially as we approach the season of Lent, it is a time for reflection and repentance.

Monday, February 8th

8 a.m. Mass celebrated by Fr. Dennis Koopman, O.F.M.

7 p.m. Mission Service with Benediction, Hospitality will follow

Come and Live in the Embrace of God's Love

In the face of violence and injustice it is indeed tempting to abandon our belief in a God of Love. We proclaim that God does indeed hold us in a loving embrace, giving us both the strength to carry on and the ability to reach out to all those in need.

Tuesday, February 9th

8 a.m. Mass celebrated by Fr. Dennis Koopman, O.F.M.

7 p.m. Mission Service, including the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Come and Know Forgiveness as a Path to Peace

In a world that often seeks to resolve conflict through retaliation, punishment and violence, we proclaim a God who is merciful and always seeks to forgive. In accepting His gift of mercy for ourselves, we are then called to be peacemakers by forgiving those who have wronged us. At the same time we must wrestle with the truth that real peace and reconciliation cannot come about without justice.

Wednesday, February 10th

8 a.m. Mass celebrated by Fr. Dennis Koopman, O.F.M.

7 p.m. Closing Mass, Hospitality will follow

Come and be Called to Witness the Good News

Renewed and restored to life through love, forgiveness and healing, we are called to share this life with all by spreading the Good News to men and women of today.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRYST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In the Gospel today, the disciples decide to leave everything to follow Jesus. We are also called to follow Jesus, who tells us that “whatever you do to the least of mine, you do for me.”

Our parish conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society encourages you to support the Society’s mission of “offering person to person service to those who are needy and suffering” in our community. We now have a St. Vincent de Paul Offering Box in the Church vestibule located in the Saints of the Americas alcove. Your monetary donation, whether large or small, is greatly appreciated, as “we collaborate with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes, making no distinction in those served because in them, we see the face of Christ.”

FOOD PANTRY

It’s as easy as 1-2-3 to help out: When you go to the grocery store this week, just pick up an item or two for the Food Pantry.

Choose something from our list of staples and extras: CEREAL, PASTA, PASTA SAUCE, BOXED SIDE DISHES, PAPER GOODS, (at this time these first 5 items are in short supply on our shelves), dry pinto beans, rice, canned fruit, meals in a can/box, canned meat, macaroni & cheese, tuna, canned vegetables, peanut butter, jelly, soup, crackers, coffee, juice, tea, evaporated or powdered milk, paper goods, diapers.

~ OF COURSE, ALL IN-DATE NON PERISHABLES ARE ALWAYS APPRECIATED. ~

Drop off your donations in the designated food bins located in the Madonna della Strada shrine area in the vestibule of the Church when you come to Mass this weekend, or on weekdays from 7:45 A.M. – 4:00 P.M. Thank you for your ongoing support and for adding St. Cletus Food Pantry items to your regular shopping list!

Youth Ministry News

The Rite of Election/Enrollment of Names for our Year II Confirmation Candidates will take place at the 11:00 A.M. Mass today. The purpose of this celebration is twofold: (1) The community tells the candidates that the Church appreciates their participation in the preparation for Confirmation and wishes to express its continuing openness to, gratitude for, and support of the candidates; and (2) the candidates sign their names on a scroll as a sign of their appreciation for the community’s support and as a pledge to enter in a more deeply personal way into the immediate preparation for the sacrament. Please keep our teen candidates in your daily prayers.

Christmas Tea

The Women's Club Christmas Tea took place on December 19 at the La Grange Country Club and a lovely time was had by all. A special thank you to all who made this event possible and to Mrs. Gibbons, Ms. Ziembra and the Children's Choir who did a wonderful job singing Christmas carols. Proceeds from this event benefited the St. Cletus chapter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society as well as St. Cletus Parish. Additionally, warm hats, gloves and slippers each guest brought as a donation were distributed the following day along with food baskets to our sister parish, St. Agatha.

CAREER SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR TODAY'S MARKETPLACE

INTERFAITH CAREER NETWORK invites you to a program designed especially for those who find themselves "between opportunities". Career coach, lifelong devotee of rock n' roll, accomplished executive, author, facilitator and volunteer, Jeff Carroll, will provide you with a unique collection of insights into the ever-changing, always frustrating job search process. Jeff has spent nearly 20 years in the field of leadership development helping people revive, redeem, re-wire, reassess, revamp and re-ignite their careers. The "guide" is comprised of 15 principles (i.e., Engaging the Enemy, the Networking Paradox, Detour to Nowhere) that will help you manage your expectations about this crazy ride, as well as encourage you to develop a healthy sense of humor for your journey. Once you internalize these principles your search will become far more efficient and effective! Jeff's passion for helping others along with his empathetic brand of humor promises to make this a session you won't want to miss. This program is open to all and there is no fee for attending. Hope you can join us at 7:00 P. M. on Thursday, February 18, at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5005 S. Wolf Road in Western Springs.
