GIVEN MUCH

"Much will be required of the person entrusted with much." (Luke 12:48) Whew! At least the Lord hasn't entrusted me with much! Thank goodness that the work of the reign of God on earth has been entrusted to somebody else. This must be the "good news" of today's Gospel, right? Wrong!

In the mentality that has come to be known as "keeping up with the Joneses," we can gear ourselves toward a comparison with those who have more or who have been given more, even by God. Unfortunately, nowhere does Jesus say: "Not much will be expected of those who have been given only a little bit." Each of us, in our own way, has been given something, some gift or treasure that we can put toward the work of the reign of God. This is the vocation of Christian discipleship. Perhaps others seem to have been given more; evaluating this is not the disciples' concern. The concern of each of us in the vocation for which we have been chosen is to take what we have been given, and consecrate it for the continued in-breaking of God's kingdom of justice, joy, peace, and beauty. Then will we come to realize that we have indeed been given much.

NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2010

The words “Seize the Day” can help our understanding of the meaning of Christian discipleship. St. Luke describes some people in the early Church who are paralyzed by fear. Fear prevents them from truly accepting the message of the kingdom of God and keeps their hearts tied to their worldly securities. What are these securities? For some it is wealth; for others it is attachments to patterns of life not compatible with being Christian. Rather than generosity and love, small-mindedness or resentments bind the heart to old hurts. Whatever the security, Luke challenges the Christians to reflect about their treasure. To what is the heart attached, what binds it and prevents it from truly living the gospel? Does the heart truly find its treasure in God? For most people, freeing the heart for God can be a lengthy process.

In contrast, Christian life is characterized by freedom and risk. The Christian will be alert and ready to meet the Master. Seizing the Day is not about living life half-heartedly but rather living life to the fullest as a gift from God. The author of the Book of Wisdom celebrates the deeds of God in freeing the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt. In this, God made his people glorious and called them into a new relationship with him. The author praises the way in which God keeps his people safe and protects them even in tragedy. Many times, the people of Israel wanted to return to Egypt where they knew security and a familiar pattern of life as slaves. Freedom was much harder to live. Protecting them with love, God called them onward into the strangeness of the desert, unknown territory, and towards the Promised Land. Only through uncertainty and struggle did they reach this place after forty years. Many never saw the final goal, and although they died before reaching it, their hope encouraged others towards it.

The same journey of faith is shown in the lives of Abraham, Sarah and their descendents who left home to travel to God’s Promised Land. They died in faith without receiving all the gifts which had been promised but glimpsed to them on the distant horizon. The image of leaving home is a powerful symbol, which calls for risk and a journey into uncertainty in order to find true freedom. Like Abraham and Sarah, many know that they can trust in God but do not see or know the route of their earthly journey.

Lived faith knows the life of uncertainty and unpredictability. Often it has to cope with tragedy which it cannot understand. After the shock, and denial, maybe through anger or depression, there has to be a surrendering, if life is to continue. Without wanting to underestimate the pain and difficulty of this process, the readings show that it is only the promise of God’s love that can be guaranteed. In faith, the disciple is called to love the gift of life. The world is graced by God and gifts abound. To root one’s heart in the promise of God’s love will lead to freedom and joy in life. It helps one to savor each moment and live it to the full. Through love one builds up true life in heaven.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 8, 2010

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - 'Tis a gift

With so much emphasis on work and consumption in American culture, it is easy to fall into the trap of believing that “you are what you earn.” This attitude creates a lot of anxiety, leaving us constantly worried about our financial worth and feeling devalued if our “earning power” drops or if we are not part of the wage economy. Jesus offers a different vision when he assures us that God is pleased to give us the kingdom. There is nothing to earn here, nothing to be gained, nothing to be lost. Our self-worth is a freely given gift of our Creator. Bank on it!

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12; Luke 12:32-48 or 12:35-40

“Do not be afraid . . . for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.”

MONDAY, AUGUST 9

FEAST OF TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Change your course?

Ezekiel's career as a prophet started with full-blown atmospheric effects: “As I looked, a stormy wind came out of the north: a great cloud with brightness around it and fire flashing forth continually.” If you don't think something big is going to happen after that, you should have your pulse checked. Drastic changes also played a role in the life of Saint Teresa Benedicta, also known as Edith Stein. Raised in a devout Jewish family, she gave up her faith as a young woman. She studied with the philosopher Edmund Husserl only to leave her academic career to become a Carmelite sister. The last drama in her life was also the most tragic: her death in a Nazi concentration camp. Be open to what God is calling you to, even if it means going in a very different direction.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 1:2-5, 24-28c; Matthew 17:22-27

“The word of the Lord came to the priest Ezekiel . . . and the hand of the Lord was on him there.”

TUESDAY, AUGUST 10

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

Dare to care

Saint Lawrence—patron of comedians, butchers, and roasters—will ever be remembered for his legendary last words to his executioners, “this side's done, turn me over and have a bite,” as he lay martyred on a red-hot gridiron. He showed compassion, courage, and challenging righteousness, too. Lawrence was a deacon charged with the care of the poor in Rome, people whom he loved deeply. So when the prefect of Rome demanded that he hand over the church's treasure, Lawrence ushered in the poor, the lame, and the blind. In this Lawrence showed himself most like his Lord who, if he favored anyone in life it was those who had no one to depend upon but God. It's charming to be remembered for one's wit, especially if it's accompanied by courage and compassion.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26

“He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever.”

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11

FEAST OF CLARE, VIRGIN

Give thanks for others

At the age of 18, Saint Clare (1193-1253) was inspired by Saint Francis of Assisi to leave her life of luxury and give herself to God. She and her sisters in the Order of Poor Ladies (Poor Clares) lived in complete poverty, depending solely on the generosity of others for their sustenance. Clare was by all accounts a remarkable woman. Yet she could not have lived her chosen life alone. Her years of poverty and prayer were made possible by the surrounding community. The role and significance of community often go underappreciated in our individualistic culture. Take some time today to notice and appreciate the communities of which you are a part.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 9:1-7; 10:18-22; Matthew 18:15-20

“For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12

FEAST OF JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, RELIGIOUS

The best method for receiving the Spirit

At various times in her life Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was a wife, a mother, and a nun. In each of these roles she lived with compassion and trust in God as well as with a spirit of leadership and vision. That doesn't mean life was easy for her. She survived the deaths of her husband, son, spiritual mentor, and other dear ones. She endured despair, the plague in France, and opposition from some officials to her religious community's non-cloistered, ministerial way of life. Prayer was her strength. Take to heart Jane's wisdom: “The great method of prayer is to have none. If in going to prayer one can form in oneself a pure capacity for receiving the spirit of God, that will suffice for all method.”

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 12:1-12; Matthew 18:21-19:1

“In their sight you shall lift the baggage on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark.”

FRIDAY, AUGUST 13

FEAST OF PONTIAN, POPE, MARTYR, AND HIPPOLYTUS, PRIEST, MARTYR

Cats and dogs unite

In the heated doctrinal debates of the third century, today's dynamic duo of saints was locked in a theological steel-cage death match. They were at it so much that Emperor Maximinus got sick of it and exiled them both to Sardinia. There, realizing they shared the same fate of torture and starvation, they decided to bury the hatchet. Before their martyrdom in about 236 they forgave each other and reconciled. One thing all Christians have in common, despite any differences, is forgiveness and reconciliation. That's nothing to argue about.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 16:1-15, 60, 63 or 16:59-63; Matthew 19:3-12

“I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the Lord . . . when I forgive you all that you have done.”

SATURDAY, AUGUST 14

Let them come to me

Because of Jesus' reputation for holiness, people brought children to him for his blessing. Children—nearly powerless—were especially in need of Jesus' prayer and touch. Christ welcomed these opportunities, but he also saw in them a chance to teach the adults around him. The kingdom of God, he said, has a special place for children because they are vulnerable and must receive what they need as a gift. And so are all the “little ones”: the lowly, helpless, sick, poor, and excluded of every age. These least have the first place in the kingdom. Do you welcome them as privileged guests? Do you feel welcome?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:1-10, 13b, 30-32; Matthew 19:13-15

“It is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”

St. Cletus Youth Ministry News...

Thank you!!! The Youth Ministry Mission Trip to St. Louis, MO was a wonderful success!! Here are a few pictures and messages of thanks!

*St. Louis Gateway Arch aka
Gateway to the West*

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you so much for your donations, prayers, and encouragements regarding the 2010 St. Louis Mission Trip. It was an amazing experience which, as always, came with many new learning opportunities. I was lucky to be able to work at Karen House, a homeless shelter set up as a walk-in home, where I cleaned rooms and made a meal. There I met many interesting people and many children, who taught me to be grateful for what I have. Overall, I made many friends and learned a lot about myself and others. This would not have been possible without everyone from St. Cletus Parish. Many thanks again.

Kelly Meade

We are called to serve one another...

Dear St. Cletus Parishioners,

Thank you for buying candy and making generous donations to allow me and several other teens to attend the mission trip to St. Louis. The homeless shelter we helped made me appreciate the house, clothes, and supportive family I have. I also enjoyed talking to and assisting the elderly at a nursing home. While we spent most of our day at different sites in St. Louis working, we were able to go on outings at night, such as a trip up in the arch or a walk around a local park. Overall, I feel very blessed and thankful to have had the opportunity to go. I plan to continue my service to others throughout the year. Thank you again.

Emily Pavlik

UPCOMING MUSICAL EVENTS...

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW! On Sunday, August 29, at 4:00 p.m., we will present an afternoon of gorgeous vocal music presented by Erin Doppke. Erin has been a cantor at St. Cletus for many years - if you don't know her name, I am certain that you know her face and recognize the beauty of her voice and the musicality that she brings to St. Cletus. Plan to join us for a program containing works by Schubert, Bernstein, Mozart, Gershwin, and more!

We are also in full preparation for our Fall Festival Chorus - this is your opportunity to join us for an outstanding event! On Sunday, October 24, the Festival Chorus will join an orchestra and present a concert of sacred and secular choral music. The Chorus is open to any and all singers, regardless of background, training...there is a spot for everyone! If you enjoy singing with us from the pews but don't have the time for a long-term commitment, this is the chance for you to share in the wonderful experience of making music. Rehearsals will be once a week (on varying nights of the week) through September and October leading up to the concert.

Here is a great chance to try something new - or return to singing if it's been a while! Feel free to bring a friend, neighbor, or family member to share in the experience! If you are interested in joining us for the Festival Chorus or would like more information, please contact me at jsisul@stcletusparish.com or, by phone at (708) 215-5423. Our last Festival Concert had nearly 100 singers - I hope that YOU will be one of those singers this year.

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

SVDP RUMMAGE SALE

What a story we have to tell about this year's Rummage Sale, from the sweltering heat to the flooding, which caused us to postpone and reschedule our sale dates! But through it all the generosity and teamwork of St. Cletus parishioners and friends shone brightly! The Spirit was with us as we faced the challenges. Thank you to all who dropped off donations, picked up donations, lent a hand organizing or selling, or shopped till they dropped. Although we do not yet have final sales results to report, we are already most thankful for the SPIRIT & TEAMWORK seen in this venture! Look for more details next weekend!

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

We stand ready with 200 bags packed for the August 12 Food Pantry. Thank you for your generous donations of both food and school supplies for this month's food distribution. Our shelves now need replenishing, and we anticipate greater needs as fall approaches. Most needed items include dry pinto beans, pasta, pasta sauce, canned meat, meals in a can, canned fruit, boxed side dishes, all sizes of diapers, and "extras." Some suggestions: baking mixes, coffee, crackers, condiments, and cooking oil. As always, we welcome any in-date items. Thank you for being so faithful to Jesus' call to feed the hungry.

Mary Beth Ford

Director of Social Concerns

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We have contracted Guide Book Publishing to publish a Guide Book & Directory for our congregation that will be updated and delivered directly to your homes annually. This book will be the Who, What, Where, When, Why, and How of our Church. The book is being provided at no cost to our Church. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office at 708-352-6209.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

Update Membership Information

Does our church database have YOUR family membership record correct?

Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory. (If you haven't already done so.)

It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year.

Have you changed your phone number? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published? If not, please call the church rectory office.

If you have not already informed the church office about changes to your record, please let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book & Directory is correct. The church office number is 708-352-6209.

Thank you for your help!
