NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2011

Dear Parishioners,

Earlier this year I mentioned that I was participating in a review of my Priestly Ministry, which is conducted by the Archdiocesan Office of Ministerial Evaluation. This is a process to evaluate and improve my work as a priest.

Parishioners at-large, the pastoral staff, and parish leaders were asked to be part of the review team. I thank all those who returned their candid responses to the survey. Overall, the comments were strongly affirming and grateful for my pastoring. The comments also suggested areas for further development. After the data was gathered and collated, I met with a priest colleague who reviewed the data with me. Your responses, along with these meetings, have given me solid material to pray over and help form a personal Development Plan and set some goals for myself as pastor.

This is a summary of the feedback under the headings of Areas of Strength, Recommendations, and Goals.

Areas of Strength:

- Fr. Bob is an excellent homilist who uses understandable language.
- His homilies are always well prepared.
- Fr. Clark demonstrates a concern for the beauty and quality of our Church.
- He is an engaging and enthusiastic leader.
- Fr. Bob preaches homilies that are rooted in Scriptures and he is faithful to Church teachings in the areas of doctrine and morals.
- He is prayerful, reverent, and engaging while celebrating Mass.
- He participates regularly in continuing educational opportunities and professional growth to deepen his personal theological and pastoral knowledge.
- He presents the teachings of the Church in a way that is understandable and applies to daily life.
- Father is a strong supporter of both Catholic Schools and Religious Education within the parish.
- Father has been transparent regarding finances.
- He has created the parish's first Pastoral Council.
- Father attempts to be inclusive of both the Hispanic and Anglo communities within the parish.
- Fr. Clark works well with staff and delegates responsibility when appropriate.
- Father has a good sense of humor, he is personable and engaging.

Principal Recommendations for Growth:

- Be more present and active in school and religious education.
- Have more hands-on in individual ministry areas.
- Look more closely at the inclusion of the Anglo/Hispanic involvement within the parish.
- Improve follow-up skills, organizational skills.

Goals for this Year:

- To be more present to the School and Religious Education.
- To encourage Associates to be more present to School and Religious Education.
- To attend each Ministry Commission Meeting at least once each year.
- To attend individual ministry area events when possible.
- To continue to dialogue with leadership of both Anglo and Hispanic Communities regarding inclusiveness.
- Work on improving organizational skills and consistency in follow-up.

Again, thanks to all who participated in this review process. Your positive feedback and recommendations for growth just confirm my gratitude for having the privilege to spend these years of my priesthood at St. Cletus. Let's keep each other in prayer as we further the Lord's work in our parish.

*Grateful Blessings,
Father Bob
Pastor*

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2011

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pay attention!

A consistent theme of these weeks leading to Advent is akin to the motto of the U.S. Coast Guard: Semper paratus: “Always ready.” For what? The military remains ready for terrorist attacks or disasters like a tornado or flood, but Jesus’ call to be ready always is neither a threat nor a prediction of catastrophe. It is his expectation that we be aware of the presence of the sacred as we move through even the most ordinary day. Mary Oliver suggests the same in her poem “The Summer Day”: “I don’t know exactly what a prayer is. / I do know how to pay attention.” Being prepared for the coming of Christ means keeping eyes and ears, hearts and minds open. The sacred, the Christ, is all around you.

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 6:12-16; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 or 4:13-14; Matthew 25:1-13 (154)

“Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.”

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7

This time for sure

How many of us read book after book or attend lectures, retreats, and workshops with the thought that this author, this story, or that technique will finally provide the spiritual breakthrough we seek? This time, we hope, we will finally “get it.” No program or series of steps, though, can give us the deep faith we desire. We may draw inspiration and courage from the experiences and insights of others, but ultimately if it is to be our faith—one that is living, changing, growing, deepening, and expanding—then it must come from within. Jesus knew that of course, but his disciples did not, so we have lots of company. Are you looking outside yourself for what can only be found within?

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 1:1-7; Luke 17:1-6 (491)

“Increase our faith.”

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Don’t forget your glasses

Have you ever been told to “just trust in God” as you deal with a difficult situation? What—we’re supposed to buck up and take whatever comes at us and just valiantly endure? Scripture offers us a more authentic way of trusting in God. Trust means seeing with “grace-colored glasses,” allowing us to perceive how God is active in extending grace and mercy, blessing and new life even in life’s toughest moments. These glasses do not magically make the stuff of life disappear, but they help us to shift our vision so that we might transform the circumstances, both at the level of doing something to better the situation and at the level of attaching our own—not someone else’s—meaning to it. Are you ready for grace-colored glasses?

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 2:23-3:9; Luke 17:7-10 (492)

“In the time of their visitation [the souls of the just] shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble.”

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA IN ROME

The temple we worship

Serving as the cathedral of the bishop of Rome, the Lateran Basilica contains the papal throne and ranks above all other Catholic churches, including St. Peter’s Basilica. The genius of Christianity, however, is not contained in its many beautiful buildings and monuments, impressive though they are. The real power of our faith lies in the fact that, on this day that exalts a cherished basilica, our gospel reminds us that Jesus himself, not the buildings we construct to honor him, is the true and only temple of our faith. Our God is a living God, reflected but not contained in our stone monuments.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671)

“Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.”

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10

FEAST OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Joining the friends of God

Some clubs have picky memberships. To apply might cost big dollars, or admission may depend on something money can’t buy, like knowing the right people. To belong to the friends of God, all that’s required is to cultivate wisdom. Seeking wisdom means being in pursuit of what is “intelligent, holy, unique, manifold, clear, kindly, tranquil”—and a whole lot more, as the Book of Wisdom exuberantly details. Though wisdom may seem unreachable from where we are, Pope Saint Leo the Great (fifth century) perceived God’s desire to supply it: “What you long for will be given you; what you love will be yours forever.”

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 7:22b-8:1; Luke 17:20-25 (494)

“And passing into holy souls from age to age, [Wisdom] produces friends of God and prophets.”

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11

FEAST OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

Go long!

In the early centuries of the church in Europe, Advent began today, the feast day of Saint Martin of Tours. That meant a 40-day season, similar to Lent. Believers wanted a way to somehow reflect in their own faith lives the ages it took for the Savior to appear on earth, and so a lengthy period of preparation before Christmas seemed appropriate. The older, longer observance of Advent serves as a reminder that, like Lent, Advent is a season of preparing ourselves for Jesus’ journey into greater life—his birth and life and his being raised from the dead. Today is as good a day as any to focus on how God is moving in your life and how you can move into closer life with God.

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495)

“All men were by nature foolish who were in ignorance of God, and who from the good things seen did not succeed in knowing him who is.”

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12

FEAST OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

Communicate for peace

Saint Josaphat decided at an early age to dedicate his life to healing the complex and deep split between the Eastern and Western rites of the church. He had a natural capacity to listen to the concerns, fears, and needs of both sides and hold them equally. Fortunately, it’s an ability that can be learned. In his book Non-Violent Communication, Marshall Rosenberg describes a method of communicating that honors both sides of a dispute and leads to resolving conflicts peacefully, whether personal or public, domestic or international. He writes: “When our communication supports compassionate giving and receiving, happiness replaces violence and grieving.” Find out more about Rosenberg’s work at the Center for Non-Violent Communication, www.cnvc.org.

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8 (496)

“Peaceful stillness compassed everything.”

MUSIC MINISTRY NEWS

AMERICA: A TRIBUTE TO HEROES PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, November 15, and plan to attend an event you won't want to miss! Ten years ago, in the wake of 9/11, the La Grange community came together at St. Cletus Church for a community concert and sing-along. Nearly 300 voices filled the sanctuary and more than 1000 gathered in the pews to raise our voices and spirits together. Ten years later, our community spirit will be just as strong as we gather again to pay tribute to the many heroes who serve our country, from the local to the national. The evening begins with a prelude concert at 7:00 p.m.; the community sing-along begins at 7:30 p.m. Our parish choirs will participate along with the combined choirs from Lyons Township H.S., as well as LT's symphonic orchestra...we'll also be joined by a local honor guard, local first responders in full uniform...and more! Plan to spend this evening at St. Cletus to be uplifted and reminded of all of the good things in our community.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Our St. Cletus Parish Choirs have just finished recording sessions of a Christmas CD! "Home for Christmas" is the title of this new CD that will feature music heard at our Christmas masses over the past years. The last recording in our archive was taken in 1993; you will hear many of your "newer" favorites on this CD. The CDs will be available for purchase in mid-December and will cost $15 each – plan ahead to use them as Christmas gifts! We'll also present a concert featuring the music from the recording on Tuesday, December 20.

MASS OF JOY AND PEACE

I can't close this article without expressing my appreciation for the openness and enthusiasm with which the parish has embraced our new Mass setting. I also want to say thank you to Alison Sisul and George Pach for cantoring all of our Masses in October and helping us with the learning process. Thank you to all of you who are singing along; there is no sound more heartwarming and encouraging. I look forward to hearing you continue to pray with us in song.

Don't forget – Tuesday, November 15 – come sing the songs we all know by heart and honor those heroes in our own community!

It's your last opportunity to stop by the Church vestibule and drop off coats. The men's and women's winter coats can be new or gently worn. The Junior High St. Cletus Girl Scouts will be collecting these items for the St. Vincent de Paul Center in Chicago after all Masses this weekend. The collection ends Sunday, November 6.

Thank you for your support!

Social Concerns Ministry Update!

FOOD PANTRY

Thank you to the volunteers, who are busy packing 325 bags for the November 10 food distribution, and thank you to all who are helping to stock the pantry! Suburban food pantries across the country are experiencing a dramatic increase of families in need of supplemental groceries...and our Food Pantry is no exception. Please remember to add an item or two to your shopping list and drop off your contribution in the food bins provided in the church vestibule, when you come to Mass over the weekend, or weekdays from 7:45 a.m.–4:00 p.m..

We are in immediate need of peanut butter, pasta sauce, meals in a can/box, canned meat, tomatoes/tomato sauce, and boxed sides. Extras are also in short supply, including paper goods, diapers, coffee, juice, etc. As always, we greatly appreciate all non perishables with current dates. Thank you for continuing to answer Jesus' call to feed the hungry.

Finally, special words of appreciation to St. Cletus school for their Red-Ribbon Week food collection, sponsored by the student council, and to Westchester Weightwatchers, who conducted a food and "extras" drive during October. We are thankful to have support from local groups, as well as from our parishioners.

IT'S "TURKEY BUCKS" TIME!

Beginning November 1, when you do your grocery shopping at the Jewel store across the street from St. Cletus, please don't forget to tell your cashier that you would like to help St. Cletus Food Pantry by purchasing $1, $5, or $10 in Jewel "Turkey Bucks". Your thoughtful donation will help bring a traditional holiday dinner to a family in our community that otherwise may have gone without. Thank you!

GIVING TREE

Thank you to the group of intergenerational volunteers who assembled 2,000 tags for our Advent Outreach. It's hard to believe that the season of Thanksgiving and the Christmas holidays is just around the corner. Watch the Canticle for more opportunities to participate in this annual "labor of love".

ADULT SERVICE PROJECT

There are still a few spots left if you want to become part of the crew taking part in the upcoming adult service project with DuPage Habitat for Humanity on Saturday, November 12, 8:00 a.m.–3:30 p.m. To give you an idea of what is entailed, you can find a report on the activities of the 9-17-11 construction day on the parish website www.stcletusparish.com under Social Concerns. You won't want to miss this great opportunity to put your faith into action! If interested, please contact Wes Rehwoldt at: Wes@xrdevelopment.com or (708) 579-3186.

SAVE THE DATE

St. Cletus Parish will be sponsoring our 2nd annual Fair Trade Market on November 19, after the 5:00 p.m. Mass and on November 20, after all the Masses. Featured will be vendors with an assortment of unique, reasonably priced, high quality, fairly traded handcrafts, coffee, tea, cocoa, chocolate bars, natural beauty soaps and other gift items. Mark your calendar now for this great opportunity to do some holiday shopping and spread double the joy! Your loved ones receive an ethical, eco-friendly gift from you that is unique and made with the utmost attention to quality; disadvantaged, small-scale artisans and farmers from around the world, receive all the benefits of Fair Trade – a fair price, long term trading relationship, safe and healthy work places, and economic and social opportunities. Spread the word...this is one event you don't want to miss!!!

SOCIAL CONCERNS

WINNING OVER THE COMPETITION... YOUR PEAK INTERVIEW

Interfaith Career Network (ICN) invites you to join us on Thursday, November 17. Come hear Bill Burnett, author of The Peak Interview, provide new insights into winning the interview and getting the job. With more than thirty years of business experience, Burnett is a problem solver and proven leader. By the time you get to the job interview, the company has determined you are qualified for the job. So are all the other interviewees. You need an edge! Great musicians know that when they are playing a solo, they have to hit one or two peaks in the body of the solo and end with a flourish. That's because people evaluate an experience based on its peaks (good or bad) and how the experience ended. The rest of the experience is remembered, but the evaluation of the experience is based on its peaks, and how it ends. Learn how you can leverage this insight as you prepare for and produce an outstanding interview. This could really boost your chances of winning the interview and getting the job. We look forward to seeing you at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5005 South Wolf Road in Western Springs. Bring along a friend. This program is open to all and there is no charge to attend.

Interfaith Career Network (ICN) offers job support through various programs throughout the month. For more information, visit our website at www.interfaithcareernetwork.org.

MINISTRY OF CARE

After 22 years of being in charge of this ministry, Dolores Wouk has handed over the reins. As a part of this transition, I'd like to meet with ALL current ministers and those interested in joining this ministry.

The Parish is very thankful to Dolores for all she has done both for this ministry and the parish. I encourage you to acknowledge Dolores for her dedication and service.

The Mission Ladies (pictured left) make hand-made dolls and small animals, lap robes, wheel/chair walker bags, adult and children hats, doll and baby blankets, tracheotomy coverlets, and the parish baptismal bibs. We also clean donated stuffed animals and dolls. These items are distributed to social service agencies, nursing homes, hospitals and the St. Cletus baptismal program, the Mother's Day Right to Life Program, and the Food Pantry. To assist us in our mission, we need donations of white eyelet and cotton fabric, fiberfill, yarn, thread, glue sticks, small gold or silver crosses, lace, and narrow ribbon. Donations for the Mission Ladies may be left in the Minister's Room or at the Rectory. We invite you to join us on Wednesdays, 9:00 a.m.-Noon, in the Rectory basement or you may help us by doing projects in your home. For additional information, please contact Dolores Scaletta at (708) 839-9605.

Marine Lance Corporal Joshua Misiewicz is a lifelong La Grange resident and member of our neighboring parish St. Francis Xavier. Josh, an LT graduate who is 23, suffered the loss of both his legs in a landmine explosion while serving in Afghanistan this past July. He is making remarkable progress at a military hospital in Maryland. But Josh and his family now face a long journey of healing and rehabilitation and a heavy financial burden for years to come. Their friends and neighbors are asking the St. Cletus community to open our hearts and wallets to give encouragement, hope, financial and emotional support to a Marine who gave so much for us.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps.” -Matthew 25:4

We might think that the wise virgins are selfish for not sharing their oil. Yet, the wise were the ones who brought all they had for the Lord. They did not keep anything back, like the foolish virgins who only brought the least that they could. Reflecting on these virgins we must ask ourselves if we are bringing God all that we can or are we holding things back from God, expecting others to cover for us?
