NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT 2011

Secular culture is rushing toward Christmas, now only one week away. Can the momentum be slowed a bit to allow us to reflect on the deep meaning of what we are about to commemorate? Who can help us to ponder God's saving deeds?

The first reading gives expression to Israel's hope for a Messiah who, like David, would govern God's people in righteousness and justice. David's intent was to build a house for God, a temple where God could dwell among his people. Instead, the prophet Nathan reveals that God will build a house, i.e., a lasting dynasty, for David! Such are the workings of the God of surprises! The promise of the perpetuity of the Davidic line became the basis of popular Jewish Messianism. The second reading praises God for the mystery of salvation, manifested through the prophets, and now fully disclosed in Jesus Christ. This same doxology appears elsewhere in Romans (14:23 and 15:33), and may have served as a conclusion to three different forms of the letter. It emphasizes the continuity of God's redemptive plan. In the Gospel, we meet Mary, the young maiden from Nazareth. Annunciation stories were common in the Hebrew Scriptures. Luke himself includes the annunciation of the birth of John the Baptist as a parallel to that of Jesus. The purpose of an annunciation story was not to present an event, but to detail the role which the person about to be born will play in the great drama of salvation. As such, the annunciation of the birth of the Messiah surpasses all other annunciation narratives in importance.

On this final Sunday of Advent, with the world awash in the trappings of Christmas, God's word reminds us that WE ARE STILL IN ADVENT! Who, better than Mary, can help us prepare for the commemoration of Christ's birth? She carried him for nine months in her womb! A pregnant woman is perhaps the best teacher about patient expectation. As Mary waited for the birth of her son, she must have reflected on what his life would mean. Every mother does. Beyond this, Mary recapitulated the hopes and dreams of her people. She knew her lowliness, her powerlessness, her inability to save herself or anyone else. Mary also knew God's tender mercy and faithfulness. Thus, she awaited patiently the coming of her son and her Savior. Do we?

Abundant Advent Blessings,

Father Bob
Pastor

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Coming to a manger near you

After somewhat of a rocky start with the Philistine giant Goliath, David reached the pinnacle of his career, ensconced in a palace, king of Israel. With power, wealth, and leisure now at his disposal, David noticed that the Ark of God was housed not in palatial splendor like himself but rather in a mere tent. David magnanimously pledged to build a temple for the Ark, but God gently rebuffed him, reminding him that it was God, not David, who brought him from the brink of disaster to be king of God's people. With David we recall that God is the source of all that is good in our life. As we await the arrival of God, not in a palace but in a stable, let us pray for a spirit of gratitude for all that God has done.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16; Romans 16:25-27; Luke 1:26-38 (11)

"I have been with you wherever you went."

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Turn your heart toward children

After hearing of a newborn king in Bethlehem, King Herod ordered the slaughter of all young male children in the village. Truth be told, it has never been easy to be a child. Historian John Boswell reveals in The Kindness of Strangers that child abandonment was a common and often accepted practice from antiquity until the Renaissance. Although strides have been made in child welfare, abuse, neglect, and exploitation are still alarmingly widespread. A society that puts children first has a great future to look forward to. Be a voice for those who are still learning to speak.

TODAY'S READINGS: Judges 13:2-7, 24-25a; Luke 1:5-25 (195)

"He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah to turn the hearts of fathers toward children."

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Find your bliss

Many people believe God has a special plan just for them—if only they can figure out what it is! From this point of view, discovering what God wants for a person is like a search for a missing key: Find it, and you can get in; don't, and you're locked out. Discerning what God may be calling you to, though, may be as simple as seeing where, in the words of campus minister Sally Willitzer in the 2011 issue of VISION magazine, you "can best be an instrument of love in the world," and that means not only discovering where you can most effectively help others but also what makes you happy.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:10-14; Luke 1:26-38 (196)

"Do not be afraid . . . for you have found favor with God."

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21

FEAST OF PETER CANISIUS, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Give it your all

Saint Peter Canisius might have been what today we call a Type A personality. He lived at a pace that illustrated his saying, "If you have too much to do, with God's help you will find time to do it all." Sometimes it seems that he did do it all. He had a master's degree by 19, became a popular preacher, a founder of the Catholic press, and a diplomat who used his gifts to bring the challenge of Christian values into the marketplace. Whether or not we have as much energy as Peter Canisius, the important thing is to give what we have and do what we can.

TODAY'S READINGS: Song of Songs 2:8-14 or Zephaniah 3:14-18a; Luke 1:39-45 (197)

"The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a mighty savior."

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Generous Christmas to you

The constant jingle-jangle of ads this time of year reminds us that it is not too late to get into "the spirit of giving." Most of the time those words are followed by encouragement to run to the local mall for last-minute shopping, but there are many other ways to give as well. We can give of our time, lend an ear, share our table, make a donation, deliver a gift to those who are less fortunate. There are many ways to experience the special feeling that comes from an act of generosity. If there is magic to the season, that is surely it.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 1:24-28; Luke 1:46-56 (198)

"He has filled the hungry with good things."

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Say yes to the mess

Every birth is an unequivocal "yes" to life. We enter the complexities on earth without any assurance that our lives will be smooth and we won't have difficulties. We don't know whether we will have a disability, experience the trauma of an earthquake or a fire, or struggle with addiction, or feel deep loneliness. Yet in spite of the insecurities, the unknowns, all the possible things that could go wrong, we are somehow willing to risk for life, we are willing to risk for love. Today, in the midst of the busyness of Christmas preparations, take a moment to appreciate the courage it takes to say yes.

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:1-4, 23-24; Luke 1:57-66 (199)

"What, then, will this child be?"

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Peace is within our reach

The promise of peace is surely the greatest of all God's rewards. For a human race caught up in the throes of fear and competition year in and year out, the idea that there is a path toward peace is good news indeed. As Christians we believe Jesus was sent to us by God for the specific purpose of showing us the way of peace. Jesus is not only the Prince of Peace, he is peace itself. Embrace Jesus and you embrace peace. Then, as promised, you will be filled with a sense of wholeness, harmony, healing, and hope. What more is there to proclaim but hallelujah!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16; Luke 1:67-79 (200)

"The dawn from on high shall break upon us, . . . to guide our feet into the way of peace."

The word "Bethlehem" means "the house of bread." The breaking of the bread is a sign of charity, unity and friendship. Religious family customs bring the truths of faith into the home. One of these beautiful Christmas Eve customs is the Christmas Wafer. With a simple prayer for God's grace and the welfare of all members of the family, those present as well as those who are absent, the head of the house breaks the wafer and distributes it, one piece to each person at the table. The spiritual lesson is this age-old custom is that the unity of the family is grounded in God's love for us. May you experience unity and love through this simple celebration.

O COME LET US ADORE HIM! ADVENT OPPORTUNITY FOR REFLECTION AND ADORATION

In the hectic holiday season, take a moment to stop, pause, reflect on the wonder of the Nativity, and worship Jesus in adoration as the wise men did long ago.

The CREDO Committee has organized another mini-retreat (similar to the Passion of the Christ event last Lent, which we will offer again next spring).

On December 19, we will show the movie The Nativity Story (2007) in Room 98 of the Education Building beginning promptly at 7:00 p.m. Even though you know the story, the movie is a chance to reflect on the wonder of the incarnation during the season of Advent. The movie ends with the wise men worshipping the newborn king. At the conclusion of the movie, we will move to the church for Eucharistic Adoration followed by Benediction, so that we too can worship and adore our Savior.

As St. Alphonsus Liguori said, "Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us."

We hope you can join us for the evening. Families are welcome; the movie is rated PG. There will be refreshments during the movie. The movie will last until about 8:45 p.m.. Please feel free to join us in church at 8:45 p.m. if you only wish to attend Adoration and Benediction.

Hail,
full of grace!
The Lord is with you.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

An old joke asks, “What time is Midnight Mass?” The answer is not really obvious, since Christmas is unique in having several distinct celebrations. The readings and prayers vary greatly from hour to hour. The Vigil Mass hinges on the family heritage of Jesus and his origins. The concept of “midnight” predates clock time, and really has to do with a celebration in the hours of darkness. Years ago, it was not possible to receive Communion without fasting for a full day, so the late hour of this Mass made it possible for the people to receive. The first Mass after sunrise, the Mass at Dawn, was once known as “The Shepherds’ Mass,” and later Masses set aside stories of Jesus’ birth to focus on the key to the day’s celebration: John the Evangelist’s majestic theology of Christ’s identity as the Word made flesh, dwelling among us. One feast, four separate Masses. Only monasteries manage the whole round. Parishioners typically take just one entry point into the mystery. Yet there is much to savor and celebrate in the coming of Christ into the world. Christmas is not a day, but a season. You still have two weeks to send those Christmas cards before you’re officially late!
