NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME 2012

At 12:30 p.m. on November 22, 1963, shots rang out in Dallas, Texas, and the world was stunned to learn of the assassination of John F. Kennedy, the thirty-fifth President of the United States. Whatever historians subsequently unearthed about the man's alleged shortcomings, there was a palpable sense of tragedy, of a promising, bright future being brought abruptly and cruelly to an end. Almost invariably, people, who were alive at the time, will be able to tell you where they were, what they were doing, and whom they were with, when they learned the shocking news of Kennedy's death. (I was attending my Grandmother Clark's funeral at the Methodist Church on the east-side of Joliet, IL. along with my family) It was a decisive moment of history, an event which literally changed the course of world events. Things would never again be the same.

There is the same sense of a momentous event in today's Gospel. We are told the exact time when those two disciples of John the Baptist first met Jesus: the tenth hour, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. This may seem to us to be an unimportant, trivial fact, but that first encounter with Jesus was hugely important for Andrew and the other disciple, who was possibly St. John the Evangelist himself. Their lives changed so dramatically that they can tell us exactly when and where it happened. Tantalizingly, the Evangelist doesn't tell us the content of that encounter. He doesn't tell us what Jesus said to them, or what questions they asked. He doesn't describe Jesus or where he was living. John simply says that they accepted his invitation to "come and see," and they stayed with him for the rest of the day. Perhaps the conversation was too personal to be recorded, or perhaps a written account would not be able to convey its effect, or the power of the presence of Jesus. The Lord certainly had a profound effect: the two disciples left John the Baptist to become followers of Jesus, and Andrew wasted no time in telling his brother Peter: "We have found the Messiah."

Perhaps, too, the gospel writer realizes that an encounter with the Lord must be a unique event, something which each potential follower has to experience personally. It's not something which can happen second-hand; it cannot be experienced vicariously. The Lord issues an invitation, but it is up to us to respond. We need to be in a state of readiness, open to hear the Lord's call. Samuel was already living in the Lord's sanctuary – in the right place to hear the call. And the two disciples were already followers of John the Baptist – predisposed to the coming of the Messiah. When the call came, they responded without hesitation.

As Christians we believe that we have been called, and that we are following the Lord, however falteringly or hesitantly. But we must have a real, personal meeting with the Lord, and not simply go by what others have told us about him. Whether or not we can pinpoint an exact moment when we first encountered him, we need to allow our relationship with Christ to change our lives irrevocably. By spending time in his presence, we learn to see as he sees, judge as he judges, act and speak as he does.

The call to follow, the invitation to spend time with the Lord, is never a once and for all experience. It is a daily happening. As we grow in discipleship, as we learn to recognize his voice and walk in his ways, we learn that he speaks in many ways-- not just through the authentic teaching of the Pope and Bishops who, like Eli and John the Baptist, are able to point us in the right direction. Christ is also able to speak to us through everyday events and people. Peter, remember, was brought to the Lord by his brother, Andrew.

As Samuel shows us, recognizing the Lord's voice and presence can be a gradual affair, just as discipleship is a life-long commitment, not a one-day only decision. Perhaps today the Lord is calling to us most persistently in the faces of those in need: in the faces of the poor, the homeless, the victims of war, violence or oppression, the sick and the dying, the lonely and the unloved. Whenever we can see and serve the Lord in these people, we know that we really have become his disciples.

Yours in discipleship,

Father Bob
Pastor

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 15, 2012

SECOND SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"Here I am"

Throughout the Bible when God would call on someone by name, the answer would be: "Here I am." Many saints throughout the church's history responded with the same willingness to serve God's will for them, whether it be to start a hospital, feed the poor, educate the young, or shelter the elderly. Even when the task seemed overwhelming, they pursued it. Faced with the challenge of founding a community and an academy in the then-wilderness of Indiana, Saint Mother Theodore Guerin, the foundress of the Sisters of Providence of Saint-Mary-of-the-Woods, wrote: "All appearances are against it." But establish it she did. Look for opportunities to say an unconditional "yes!" to love and serve others as God loves you.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19; 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20; John 1:35-42 (65)

"Here I am. You called me."

MONDAY, JANUARY 16

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY

Getting head and heart right

"One day we will learn that the heart can never be totally right if the head is totally wrong." The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote that in his book Strength to Love in 1963. He underscored the necessity of taking responsibility for the formation of our consciences—including informing our consciences through ongoing education even after formal classroom days are behind us. After all, integrity doesn't mean simply holding to your principles and actions in tandem with each other. You have to be sure, first of all, that your convictions are tied to more than your preferences, biases, and opinions! To be tethered to true north, reflect on scripture daily.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22 (311)

"No one puts new wine into old wineskins; but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins."

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17

FEAST OF ANTHONY, ABBOT

Turn down the distractions

On the feast of Saint Anthony of the Desert, we recall that there has been, almost from the beginning, a way of following Christ that draws the believer away from busyness, away from noise, away from the sense stimulation that many experts say we are becoming addicted to. We respond reflexively not to what is most important in life but to the latest signal, beep, buzz, or ringtone to impinge upon our consciousness. Few of us have a desert at hand where we can retreat and listen to the still, small voice of God, but perhaps there is a park, a rooftop, a chapel, a parked car with the radio off that can offer a chance for contemplation, for quietly considering the things that really matter.

TODAY'S READINGS: Samuel 16:1-13; Mark 2:23-28 (312)

"The sabbath was made for man, not man for the sabbath. That is why the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18

Fighting Goliath

It's challenging to face off with the monsters of one's own making in this world: relationships that are fraying, decisions poorly made, today's bills that reflect yesterday's foolish purchases. How can we also be expected to fight the monsters who owe their creation to the forces of history? Take, for example, the sad divisions that make up Christian history. You and I didn't forge the breach between Rome and today's Lutherans, Anglicans, Baptists, and Methodists. Yet as we prepare for the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, we're asked to reach out across this scarred battlefield and recall the Christ who invited all to be his friends.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 17:32-33, 37, 40-51; Mark 3:1-6 (313)

"You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy."

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY BEGINS

How to be a real winner

The theme of this year's Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, "We shall all be changed by the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ," asks us to consider the entrenched role of winners and losers in our society and then to move beyond such oppositional thinking. Our prayer this week is to reach toward the level of awareness where opposites like winners and losers are transcended and reconciled through the forces of love and compassion. That is the "victory" of this year's theme. That is the mindset of Jesus. That kind of change, however, is going to take more than a week. Still, we must begin where we are. What will you do to put this prayer into action?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 18:6-9; 19:1-7; Mark 3:7-12 (314)

"Hearing what he was doing, a large number of people came to him."

FRIDAY, JANUARY 20

FEAST OF FABIAN, MARTYR, POPE AND SEBASTIAN, MARTYR

Take this call seriously

Saint Sebastian, the patron saint of soldiers, and Saint Fabian, who was chosen as pope by the sign of a dove descending from above, were both men who embraced what God had called them to do and eventually gave their lives for Christ. They accepted the opportunities God offered them and fought through persecution because they believed in the unconditional love of God. The apostles did the same when Jesus summoned them up a mountain. By emulating the apostles and Sebastian and Fabian, we allow ourselves to fully accept our true vocation from Jesus.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 24:3-21; Mark 3:13-19 (315)

"Jesus went up the mountain and summoned those whom he wanted and they came to him."

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21

FEAST OF AGNES, VIRGIN, MARTYR

The most vulnerable deserve the most protection

The stories of child sex abuse that have come out recently remind us in no uncertain terms that the exploitation of the youngest and most vulnerable among us is an ongoing and serious problem. Today in the church calendar we remember Saint Agnes, who died at the tender age of 13 back in the year 304 A.D. It was said that as punishment for refusing a forced marriage to the son of a Roman official, young Agnes was dragged naked through the streets of Rome to a brothel where she was raped and then executed. A horrific tale of child abuse no doubt, but one that has been repeated in some form or another through the ages. It is time for Christians to speak with one voice worldwide to denounce the abuse of children wherever and whenever it occurs.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 1:1-4, 11-12, 19, 23-27; Mark 3:20-21 (316)

"Rouse your power, and come to save us."

Social Concerns Ministry Update!

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Thank you for your generosity enabling us to have 200+ bags ready for our January food distribution. Once again, we ask your help as we restock our shelves and begin making up bags for our next distribution.

- The most needed staples at this time include dry pinto beans (1-3 lb bags work best for us), tuna, boxed side dishes, canned meat, cereal and jelly.
- We are also low on our “extras.” Some favorites include coffee, powdered or evaporated milk, juice, crackers or cookies, all sizes of diapers, toiletries, laundry detergent and dishwashing soap.
- All non-perishables are greatly appreciated. Please remember to check expiration dates to avoid out-of-date goods.
- You can drop off your donations in the designated bins in the Madonna Della Strada shrine in the Church vestibule when you come to Mass over the weekend, or daily, from 7:45 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Thanks again for your faithfulness in supporting this much needed and appreciated outreach. If you have any questions, please contact me at (708) 215-5418 or mford@stcletusparish.com.

WORDS OF THANKS

I have received many calls and cards from our client families in appreciation for your generosity in providing the volunteer manpower and the food/gift donations to ease their worries throughout the year, and provide care and hope during the holidays. Let me share a few of these words with you, who make our outreach to the community possible.

“Thank you so much for the lovely Christmas gifts and food basket. I have severe arthritis and the electric can opener is greatly appreciated. But what made this Holiday Season extra special is not just the gifts, but knowing that there are people out there who care for struggling people like me, and that Jesus is working miracles through you. God bless you.” “I would like to send blessings and thanks to all the volunteers of the Food Pantry. This has helped greatly for my elderly mother, who is having such a hard time.” “I would like to thank all the volunteers for their time and God’s work on Sunday (the December 18 food basket/gift distribution). It is so difficult for our family these days, and no one made us feel bad there. God will smile down on all of you, and those who donated the gifts and food.” The most repeated expressions of appreciation were “God bless you for all you do. We will keep you in our prayers.” “You will never know how much you are helping us and our children.” “We hope and pray for a better 2012 so we can give back.” “Thank you for treating us with respect and not looking down on us because of the situation we find ourselves in.” Let us continue to be Jesus’ hands and feet in the new year.

FEDERAL JOBS AND HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR CHANCES

Interfaith Career Network (ICN) invites job seekers to an informative session on how to increase your chances of success when applying for federal jobs. Our speaker on Thursday, January 19, at 7:00 p.m. in the St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5005 S. Wolf Rd., Western Springs, will be Becky Brillion, from Naperville's Community Career Center. Becky's discussion "Federal Job Application Tips and Hints," will help job seekers identify open positions, navigate the process and tailor their resume to match government hiring requirements.

Projections of the federal employment sector add 153,000 civilian employees by the end of 2012, bringing the total number of federal workers to 1.43M. Retirement plans of long-term federal workers are still on track and allow for additional new hire opportunities. Federal job benefits are among the best in the country, adding to the attractiveness of working for the government, but landing a federal job involves a different process than landing in the private sector. Learn about the government job postings website through this demonstration presentation where explanation of the GS pay system will also be described, resume writing towards the federal goal will be explained, and participant questions will be answered. Plan to attend and invite a friend.

JOB SEARCH SKILLS WORKSHOP

INTERFAITH CAREER NETWORK (ICN) invites you to join us when the First Presbyterian Church of La Grange hosts a six-week job support workshop beginning Tuesday evening, January 24, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. A sixth session has been added which will focus on how to make a career change. On Tuesday, February 14, featured speaker, Dennis Hamilton, will help you prepare a strategy, conduct skills assessment and identify transferable skills.

The First Presbyterian Church of La Grange is located at 150 South Ashland Avenue. Please enter on Ashland Avenue and take the stairs to the lower level, Room G-9.

Whether you have lost your job or are looking for a new one and even college grads looking for their first job, this workshop will help you put together a job search strategy and specifically cover job search resources, elevator speech preparation, interviewing techniques, how to network and use the social networking sites as well as handling your emotions throughout this often overwhelming process. This workshop is open to all and there is no fee for attending. We hope you will join us!

The Kindergarten and 8th grade celebrated Mass together on Thursday, December 22. Through song and prayer we shared the CARDINAL spirit of being respectful, responsible and compassionate. We ended the Mass with Christmas songs that the kindergarten children sang. It was a wonderful display of our Catholic faith!
