NOTES FROM FATHER EDGAR...

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's gospel according to Mark, Jesus begins by saying "This is how it is with the kingdom of God..." The Kingdom of God really means the reign of God. What does the reign of God mean? It means the day when God's Will will be done as perfectly on earth as it is in heaven.

This parable is short but it is packed with truth. I am going to divide it into three parts. The first part says, "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how". These words tell us that we are not the ones who create the Kingdom of God. He is responsible for all that grows. We don't fully understand how it grows, and we don't even perceive its growth but it's happening.

One of the places Fr. Bob is going to visit during his sabbatical is the Coliseum in Rome. Its construction was completed in 80 AD. A great number of Christians were executed within its walls in vicious and cruel ways before sneering crowds of spectators. Nowadays things like that are unthinkable. Why? Because the Kingdom is on the way. Its growth may be imperceptible from day to day; but over the years it is plain. What is Jesus' message for us here? Patience!

The second part says, "Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear." It tells us that nature's growth is constant and inevitable. Night and day, while the farmer sleeps, growth goes on. God's plan unfolds quietly, unceasingly, and inevitably as well. He is constantly working in the background of our lives and nothing can stop Him. In spite of humanity's rebellion and disobedience, God's work goes on. What is Jesus' message for us here? Hope!

The third part says, "And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." What happens when the harvest comes? The good fruit is gathered in, and the weeds are destroyed. Harvest and judgment go hand in hand. What is Jesus' message here? Be Prepared!

The Point: If we live in patience which cannot be defeated, in hope which cannot despair, and in preparation which ever sees life in the light of eternity, we will be ready for when He comes.

Let us ask the Lord to help us open our heart to his grace that we may continue to grow evermore in holiness and be ready to join Him one day at His banquet in the Kingdom of Heaven.

HAPPY FATHERS DAY TO ALL DADS!

I would like to take this opportunity to wish a very special day to all the fathers, grandfathers, and godfathers of our parish community. We are reminded in today's gospel of how, from a minute seed, life comes forth in abundance. This is a day to reflect on the very special role that our fathers and grandfathers played in us being here today—and the ways in which, along with our godfathers, they have formed us and guided us in life and faith. We thank you, DADS, on this special day set aside just for you. May God watch over each of you and always keep you in His loving care.

NEW DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

I am pleased to announce that Fr. Bob has chosen Laura Langseth Brasky as the next Director of Music for St. Cletus. Laura served for 8 years as Director of Music at St. Phillip the Apostle in Addison; she has a Bachelor's of Music from DePaul in Chicago and a Masters Degree in vocal performance from the New England Conservatory of Music. She is a private voice and piano instructor and also does some freelance work in churches throughout the area. Laura officially begins on July 1st. We are very excited to have Laura as part of our parish staff and wish her the best of times here with us. May God bless her as she begins this new undertaking in St Cletus Parish. Welcome aboard!

Happy Sunday to all and God Bless,

Fr. Edgar

Associate Pastor/Administrator

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time.

SUNDAY, JUNE 17, 2012

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

What are your intentions?

The church believes in the power of prayer, of course, but it also believes in the energy of intention. That is the essential message of many holy people—notably Saint Thérèse of Lisieux (in her autobiography The Little Way) and Mother Teresa, who wrote, “We can do no great things, only small things with great love.” The simple acts of setting the table, washing dishes, mowing the lawn, taking out the garbage—you can transform everything you do by your intention. On this “ordinary” Sunday, try consecrating all the tasks you undertake and thereby render them extraordinary.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ezekiel 17:22-24; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10; Mark 4:26-34

“For we walk by faith, not by sight.”

MONDAY, JUNE 18

Words to the wise about scripture

To encounter scripture is to encounter the Word of God, but sometimes you need a little help in understanding how God is speaking to you right now. When you are attracted to a passage of scripture but not sure what to do with it, find some saints, poets, or theologians who have meditated on and written about the passage. Their words might be just the springboard you need to gain greater understanding. For example, Jesus’ enigmatic command to turn the other cheek? Dorothy Day of the Catholic Worker Movement sets this scripture in the context of living nonviolently. “To be truly nonviolent,” she writes, “is to ‘resist not evil,’ turn the other cheek, put aside all power, walk another mile, give up coat and cloak, too.”

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:1-16; Matthew 5:38-42 (365)

“When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him as well.”

TUESDAY, JUNE 19 FEAST OF ROMUALD, ABBOT

One in community

It’s natural when something bad happens to want to run in the other direction. For that reason, 1,000 years ago Saint Romuald went into a monastery after his father had committed a terrible crime. The desire to escape evil and do penance—these might have been strong motivations for him. Perhaps, though, there was something else: a deep need to encounter God in solitude. Though his brother monks made him abbot—their leader—Romuald sought greater separation and established a new monastic community where daily contact with others was kept to an absolute minimum and each monk spent considerable time alone and in prayer and study. Romuald’s example points to the importance of solitude; at the same time it serves as a reminder that God is with you always.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:17-29; Matthew 5:43-48 (366)

“Be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20

Fast times

When applied to food, fasting and abstinence have different meanings in Catholic tradition. Fasting involves the reduction of one’s intake of food, while abstinence means refraining from eating a certain kind of food. With exceptions for age and health reasons, Catholics are asked to engage in some kind of penitential activity, like abstaining from meat on Fridays during Lent and fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by consuming only one full meal. Prayer and works of charities are also encouraged as ways of fasting. When practiced for the right reasons—spiritual focus, self-discipline, awareness of dependence on God, and imitation of Christ—these practices can be very powerful. Give them a chance to work for you.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 2:1, 6-14; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (367)

“When you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not appear to others to be fasting.”

THURSDAY, JUNE 21 FEAST OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, RELIGIOUS

Lead by example

Saint Aloysius Gonzaga was a young Italian Jesuit who devoted much of his life to prayer and fasting. As an advocate of the poor, he would also roam the streets during the plague to pray for and take care of those who were infected. While in Rome, his spiritual director Saint Robert Bellarmine encouraged him to spend more time befriending and teaching his companions about the importance of prayer. Aloysius’ love of prayer and pious reading, his great devotion to Jesus and Mary, and his constancy in his vocation were all ways he influenced those around him to be devoted followers of Christ and his message. Today be inspired by the power of prayer in your own life and like Aloysius be faithful in all you do.

TODAY’S READINGS: Sirach 48:1-14; Matthew 6:7-15 (368)

“In life he performed wonders.”

FRIDAY, JUNE 22 FEAST OF PAULINUS OF NOLA, BISHOP

How well do we see ourselves?

Self-knowledge isn’t always welcome. We prefer to think well of ourselves, so if that requires a little trip to denial-land now and again, it can’t be helped. Or can it? Back in the fourth century, when future saint Paulinus was a pen pal to Saints Augustine, Jerome, and Martin of Tours, clear-eyed self-awareness was considered the prerequisite to a Christian life. These men threw off all pretense of self-importance in favor of the truth. “Truth will reveal its face to you and unlock to you your own person,” Paulinus wrote. Abandon the mask. Become who you were born to be.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 11:1-4, 9-18, 20; Matthew 6:19-23 (369)

“The lamp of the body is the eye. If your eye is sound, your whole body will be filled with light.”

SATURDAY, JUNE 23 FEAST OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Protect us from all anxiety

Fifty-one percent of our annual expenditure goes to shelter and transportation, according to the most recent U.S. Department of Labor report, and another 18 percent goes to food, drink, and clothes. That amounts to about $44,000 for the average U.S. consumer—a cash outlay that undoubtedly causes anxiety for most of us despite Jesus’ admonition not to worry about such things. Like it or not, wealth defines us and can easily consume us. That is what Jesus tries to warn us against. Yes, we need things to live, but what we don’t need is to compare, judge, measure, and rank. Our time is best spent unconcerned about what we don’t have and focused on what we do have in abundance: the love of God and the glory of all creation.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Chronicles 24:17-25; Matthew 6:24-34 (370)

“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life.”

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

We were able to meet the need for our June 14 monthly food distribution because of the generosity of our supporters both in the parish and throughout our community. A shocking statistic—documented by the Greater Chicago Food Depository—tells the story that more than 807,000 people in Cook County are food insecure, uncertain where their next meal will come from. Some of those people reside here in our area Thank you for continuing to ease the worries of those who come to us for food assistance.

As we replenish our pantry shelves, most needed items this week include boxed side dishes, meals in a can, canned meat, cereal, cooking oil, jelly, canned fruit, canned tomatoes/tomato sauce, and crackers. Thank you for remembering that the need for food donations does not take the summer off.
