NOTES FROM FATHER EDGAR...

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This Sunday's Gospel is about healing. Jesus sends his apostles to preach the good news and heal the multitudes. How does this "healing" take place? Karl Menninger, the famous psychiatrist, once said that if he could convince the patients in psychiatric hospitals that their sins were forgiven, 75 percent of them could walk out the next day! However, there is one more thing they need if they want to stay out of the hospital: they need true repentance.

Here, in brief summary, is an account of the work that the Twelve did when Jesus sent them out. "So they went off and preached..." In the original text, the word "preached" literally translates as "a message by the king proclaimed by herald." When the apostles went out to preach into the villages, they did not create a message; they brought a message. They did not tell people what they believed and what they considered probable; they told people what Jesus had told them—God's truth.

What was the truth they preached? They preached "...repentance." Repentance means a change of heart and a change of action. As such, it is bound to disturb because it means a complete reversal of life. To truly repent and follow Jesus, we have to place all our thoughts, habits and character, our whole nature up to this moment on a burning pile and then fill ourselves with a life altogether different and an entirely new soul. That is precisely why so few people do repent. The last thing most of us want is to be disturbed.

With "...repentance", however, comes mercy. Not only did the apostles bring this disturbing demand of repentance upon the people, they also brought help and healing from God. They brought liberation, comfort, and peace.

Today, those who approach the confessional with a heart full of sorrow for having offended God "who is all good and deserving of all our love," experience a lifting of a great weight off their shoulders—a liberation that can't be fully described—they experience healing of heart, mind, and soul. The same thing happens when someone who is gravely ill or infirm receives the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick; with forgiveness, which is part of the sacrament, it becomes liberation from anxiety, fear, doubts, sadness, and more. And, with all that, even physical healing becomes a possibility.

Why is there power in the sacraments? There is power in the sacraments because they were given to us by Jesus himself—the Son of God. The Church is bringing us not what she believes and what she considers probable; the Church is bringing us what Jesus gave her: God's truth. And so, from the first apostles to the newest of their successors, that truth has been handed down from generation to generation to bring the human race healing of heart, mind, and soul, and create in them a new life: a life of faith, hope, and love.

Do you believe in God? Do you believe in his Word? Then let us come to Him with a repentant heart and He will heal us and raise us up so that we may live the life we were meant to live—a life of happiness and peace in this world, and in the world beyond.

Happy Sunday to all and God Bless,

Fr. Edgar

SUNDAY, JULY 15, 2012

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Thank you for your support

A saying goes: "There are many things a person can do alone, but being a Christian is not one of them." Jesus knew that of course, which is why he sent out his disciples two-by-two. Jesus knew that community and companionship, giving and sharing are essential to the Christian journey. Today, it's in large part the bricks and mortar of church buildings that make Christian community possible around the globe. Given this fact, it's a sad statistic that only one third of people who attend Mass regularly support their parish financially. Consider giving generously to your local parish today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 7:12-15; Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10; Mark 6:7-13 (104)

"Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two."

MONDAY, JULY 16

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

Fighting for peace

Most people prefer an environment without conflict. When home is a domestic battlefield, the workplace a war zone of envy and competition, or national politics a reenactment of the gunfight at the OK Corral, they seek refuge in calmer quarters—like, say, in church. But what do you do when the conflict moves into the realm of religion? Jesus reminds you that faith rarely takes you down the path of least resistance. The prophet Elijah waged a bloody battle for religious fidelity on Mt. Carmel, and later monks erected a monastery there in comparative tranquility. If you seek peace, you may first have to do battle with the issues that divide.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 1:10-17; Matthew 10:34-11:1 (389)

"I have not come to bring peace but the sword."

TUESDAY, JULY 17 - United we stand

On this date back in 1967, at the height of racial discord across the United States, violence erupted in the once prosperous town of Cairo in Southern Illinois. As tensions and sporadic violence continued over the next several years, many businesses and residents abandoned the town, and today its population has dwindled to around 2,500. Decades after the civil rights movement, racial disparities and conflicts persist nationwide. Let's do our part as responsible citizens and people of faith to help heal divisions. Be a uniter, not a divider.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:1-9; Matthew 11:20-24 (390)

"Jesus began to reproach the towns where most of his mighty deeds had been done, since they had not repented."

WEDNESDAY, JULY 18

FEAST OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST-Good bedside manners

The lives of saints can inspire in so many ways, and there's a saint's story for just about any situation you might face. Take illness for example. Saint Camillus (1550-1614) knew it from both sides. Having a leg infection he contracted while fighting in the Venetian army, and from which he was never fully cured, he sought out medical attention at a hospital for the chronically ill. There the patient became the nurse. He started caring for those around him so well and compassionately that the hospital gave him a position. Eventually he founded a religious order dedicated to hospital work. He even combined his military experience with his medical ministry to basically invent the army field hospital. How can you, like Saint Camillus, use the experience of the "wounds" in your life to bring care and healing to others?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 10:5-7, 13b-16; Matthew 11:25-27 (391)

"All things have been handed over to me by my Father."

THURSDAY, JULY 19-Where there's a will, there's a way

"Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness," Jesus says in the biblical passage known as the Beatitudes, "for they will be satisfied" (Matthew 5:6). It's an interesting comparison to make: that hungering and thirsting for righteousness is as important as doing the same for real food and drink, but doesn't it feel that way? In the face of injustice, don't you almost physically yearn for what God wants? But how do you deal with that disconnect between what should be happening and what is happening? Remember the second half of the Beatitude: They will be satisfied. That's where faith comes in. Believe God's will is real and pray for it and try your hardest to help bring it about. Somehow, some way, sometime, it will be done.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 26:7-9, 12, 16-19; Matthew 11:28-30 (392)

"My soul yearns for you in the night, yes, my spirit within me keeps vigil for you."

FRIDAY, JULY 20-Follow the law of love

The Pharisees were a sect that among other things demanded strict interpretation and observance of Mosaic Law. They sometime preferred rules and regulations to thoughtful consideration of circumstances or the larger picture. It's not hard to see why: Laws are neat, impartial, neutral, clear. Moreover, when we simply follow laws, thinking is generally not required! Jesus, however, calls his followers to a higher standard: to love, which, as Archbishop Desmond Tutu rightly observed, "is much more demanding than law." Just for today, let's immerse ourselves in the "something greater" that Jesus talked about. Let's immerse ourselves in love. What would your day be like if you did so?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8; Matthew 12:1-8 (393)

"I say to you, something greater than the temple is here."

SATURDAY, JULY 21

FEAST OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

A second language should be second nature

Perhaps the most remarkable quality of the 16th-century Franciscan Lawrence of Brindisi was his outstanding gift for languages. In addition to his native Italian, he could read and speak Latin, Hebrew, Greek, German, Bohemian, Spanish, and French. Few of us are blessed with such ability, but just about everyone can learn a second language. As technology shrinks the world, it becomes all the more important to reach across barriers that divide, and language is a big one. Hone your skills in a second language. Whether sharing the Good News or chatting with a neighbor, it's the only catholic (universal) thing to do!

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 2:1-5; Matthew 12:14-21 (394)

"Many people followed him, and he cured them all."

HOPE: An Immigrant Story

"I was a stranger and you welcomed me.." (Matthew 25:35)

On June 15, 2012 it was announced that deportations will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for young people who entered the U.S. before the age of 15, are not above 30, and have not committed any serious crimes. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops supports this action. Amanda, a Dreamer who was brought to Chicago at 8 and was on the honor roll at her school, said "I have been praying for some sort of relief for very long. I might be able to go to college and attain a degree now!"

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Join

Strange as it sounds, the Mass is a continuous action of joining. We join ourselves to each other, we join ourselves to the heavenly worship of the angels and saints, and—most certainly—we join ourselves to Jesus in his self-sacrificing love. When we join ourselves we connect and unite ourselves. Our action of joining as we connect and unite ourselves so completely pervades and colors the entire Mass, that it can easily escape our notice...

We join ourselves to each other when we walk into church and take a position with other worshippers, when we sing, and when we make the common responses. We join ourselves to heaven when we praise and thank God, because that is exactly what angels and saints do in heaven. We join ourselves to Jesus when we offer ourselves with him and receive him in Holy Communion.
