THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER APRIL 14, 2013

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing."

— Revelation 5:12

NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's three readings are strange, or contain elements that do not make sense in the ordinary world. Imagine hearing them for the first time. The first reading has the apostles delighting in having suffered humiliation; the second describes a world that could not be further from earthly existence – the heavenly Lamb being worshiped by vast numbers of angels as well as by all animals, birds, fish and insects ever created. The third, the Gospel, has a stranger on the shore directing experienced fishermen to find what they could not, a shoal of large fish. He cooks for them and eats with them – despite having been killed in a vicious execution a short time before.

Are these not strange? And yet, as Lord Byron expressed it in his long poem DON JUAN: “’Tis strange – but true; for truth is always strange; Stranger than fiction.”

The Gospel passage contains the key that the other two readings depend on for their meaning. For here Jesus straddles two worlds, the earthly and the heavenly, as only God-made-man could do. As a stranger, he appears to the disciples after an unproductive night's fishing on the Sea of Tiberias. Both the image of night-time and the sea itself represent the darkness and danger of life lived apart from God, a life that can produce no real fruit.

But to the eyes of faith, this is no stranger on the shore, but the resurrected Lord. The risen Christ calls the disciples to be fishers of people, to bring into community the great catch of believers, to share together the Eucharistic meal on the safe shore of the kingdom.

Seated by the fire on the beach, Christ wipes clean Peter's shameful thrice-denying episode, which had recently taken place beside another fire, in the courtyard outside the place of Jesus' trial. The eventual effect on Peter of this reconciliation is seen in the first reading, when he courageously stands up to the Sanhedrin and accuses them to their faces of having caused the death of Jesus, now raised by God.

Lest we forget the full significance of who Jesus is and what he had done, the second reading, from the Apocalypse, expresses, in vision language, the all-inclusive nature of his kingdom. Here all living beings, human, animal and angel, are glorifying the Father on the throne and Christ the Son, the sacrificed Lamb. Through Christ, all nature has been renewed and voices its praise in the heavenly kingdom.

Sometimes we are so concerned to read this Gospel passage as a mandate for the leading role of Peter and his successors in the Church that we lose sight of the message it also has for each of us. We who recognize the Lord are either like Peter – leaping into the water, full of enthusiasm – or, like the other disciples, being carried in the boat of the Church, doing our bit to haul in the net, to evangelize and make new disciples.

Then, in Jesus' question to Peter, we could hear ourselves being asked if we too love Jesus, and, like Peter, being asked to feed the lambs of God, to look after and feed his sheep. These creatures, the epitome of innocence and vulnerability, represent all for whom Jesus is still a stranger. They might be our families and friends, our acquaintances or work colleagues. They all need the love of God in their lives; to know Jesus as Lord and friend, not stranger. Like good shepherds, we are called upon to tend their needs, to bring God's love to them in the way we are, in what we say and in what we do.

Like Peter, we do not know where this will take us. We hope we will not be asked to suffer, as Peter did, but we cannot expect the way to be easy – self-sacrificial love never is. All we know is that we, like Peter, are called by Jesus: “Follow me.”

Living our Faith, Building our Future.

CAMPAIGN PROGRESS REPORT

Save those Pennies . . .

PENNY WARS are returning. Different grades in St Cletus school will compete against each other in a repeat of last year's Penny War during the week of April 15 – 19th to raise money for the Living our Faith, Building our Future Capital Campaign. The Cardinals will contribute pennies to their class jars – and offset the efforts of other classes by placing silver coins and paper money in their opponents' bottles. A "no uniform" day and a special treat will be the prize for the winning classes!

Brick by brick, square foot by square foot we continue to make progress.....

During this past month, four additional families have made a pledge to the Living our Faith, Building our Future Capital Campaign, thank you for your generosity and your commitment to St Cletus parish and its future. It is hoped that every month a few more families will make this commitment!

At the Capital Campaign's Bake Sale, held during the Holy Name Society's Pancake Breakfast, over $1900 was raised, and the tip jars at the Shamrock Social brought in an additional $237 dollars. Although these two fund raisers didn't quite cover the cost of our new building, they did pay for approximately nine square feet of the new parish center. Thank you for being part of these events!

And so brick by brick, square foot by square foot we continue to make progress.

SECOND COLLECTION - Weekend of April 20th & 21st – please be generous!

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE NEWEST MEMBERS OF THE ST. CLETUS FAITH COMMUNITY!

Frs. Ken Baker, Edgar Rodriguez, and Bob Clark warmly greet our parish's newest members: Bonnie Burns-Vigacek, Clyde Bradley, Melissa Phalen, Alyssa Fitch, Ashley Olivarez, and Nicole Whetter.

The Easter Vigil marked an ending and a beginning for our RCIA catechumens and candidates. It was the culmination of several months of prayer, study, reflection, inquiry, and interaction with each other and the RCIA team: Fr. Ken Baker, Deb Bleick, Jerry Mitchell and Paulette Bolton.

It was also the initiation into a life-long journey of faith-learning and living, full participation in the liturgy, commitment to service, and celebration of the sacraments. What a joyful, hope-filled road lies ahead as we continue to build the kingdom of God.

SAVE THE DATE!

COME HEAR ABOUT

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Feed

At Mass, we receive Holy Communion. We don't take Holy Communion. We hear, "The Body of Christ," and the host is placed in our hands or on our tongue. We receive the Bread of Life. This pattern is so important, and it's not just fussing about words or gestures. The action captures the reality that is so important. The Lord is feeding his people in the Eucharist. We are not taking our own food. We are not feeding ourselves. It is the Lord who in his generous love feeds and sustains us.

Perhaps our independent spirits push us to want to take care of ourselves and to feed ourselves, and maybe even control the whole of our lives. Receiving Holy Communion redirects us to our true dependency on him who feeds us and sustains. And it is the Lord.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter's fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light-bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday “blackouts,” perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.
