NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER 2013

On Holy Thursday, April 11, 1963 a letter was published, addressed to all people of goodwill. The signature at the end of the letter was that of Pope John XXIII, and the title of the letter was PACEM IN TERRIS – “PEACE ON EARTH.” It was the last letter, or encyclical, that John XXIII wrote. Two months later he was dead. The letter, therefore, stands as his “last will and testament.” After a lifetime spent in the diplomatic service of the Church, with appointments in Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece and France between 1935 and 1953, Angelo Roncalli had returned to Italy, and to the care of souls, as Patriarch of Venice. When he was elected Pope, in 1958, he showed the world the warm and human face of a pastoral and fatherly figure.

The encyclical PACEM IN TERRIS is a landmark document. “Peace on Earth” is a most attractive thought and a dearly desired goal, but it remains elusive and unrealized. Many people would say that the idea of peace is unrealistic in our human society. In many ways Pope John XXIII would agree with them. This world is not a place of peace, he says in his letter. Pope John had first-hand experience of war and conflict. He knew what he was talking about. He had been a chaplain in the Medical Corps in the First World War. He had worked tirelessly for people in Greece and Turkey during the Second World War. He saw the end of that war in Paris.

Now, in 1963, as his life was ending, Pope John gave his great teaching, to direct us how to find peace and to work for peace in the world. He tells us to look into our human nature, and to find there the meaning inscribed by God. Looking into our nature, we will find the dignity of the human person. That is our starting point for the peace of the world.

At the Last Supper, the night before he died, Jesus made his own last will and testament to his disciples. St. John has recorded at length the words that Jesus spoke on that occasion. The great bequest that Jesus makes, his parting gift, is the gift of peace. It is the power of the Holy Spirit, which, after his death and resurrection, Jesus will send from the Father to all who love him and who keep his word. The Holy Spirit of God empowers people to live in tranquility of heart, and to negotiate the storms of this world without losing that peace. That is a powerful spirit and a tremendous gift.

The need for that Holy Spirit became evident very quickly in the life of the early Church. An argument broke out about the very meaning of following Christ. Some Jewish converts wanted the sign of their tradition, circumcision, to be demanded of the Gentile converts. All sides of the argument were presented and argued for. Judgment was made, wise judgment, but not at the expense of any side. All points were given due consideration and value. It was not about winners and losers, but about finding the right way forward.

When Pope John wrote “Peace on Earth,” to all people of goodwill, he stressed especially the need for discussion and mutual understanding. “Conflicts,” he said, “should not be resolved by recourse to arms, but rather by negotiation.”

In May 2009 Pope Benedict XVI visited the Holy Land as “a pilgrim of peace.” The conflict in the Middle East and in the land of Jesus’ birth is a symbol of all the conflicts that exist throughout the world. In every place and in every generation the task of “making peace” continues. Pope Benedict spoke of “unleashing the power of respect, reconciliation and cooperation.” Instead of unleashing weapons on one another, we are called to understand the power of respect for human dignity, and the great good that it can do.

Pope John concluded his letter with a prayer: “May Christ inflame the desires of all... to break through the barriers which divide them, to strengthen the bonds of mutual love, to learn to understand one another, and to pardon those who have done them wrong. Through his power and inspiration may all peoples welcome each other to their hearts... and may the peace they long for ever flower and ever reign among them.”

“Peace be with you” is the Easter greeting of the risen Lord. That greeting is not merely a wish. It is a gift imparted to us. It is a responsibility. It is our calling and vocation.

Peace be with you and with your spirit!

Father Bob

Pastor

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Rise

The organ begins to roll out the Alleluia Gospel Acclamation. On cue, everyone rises. We all get up, and we look like we are expecting something. And we should. The words, the teaching, the ministry of Jesus are about to be proclaimed in the Gospel. That is momentous and worth rising for. The Word of life and hope is coming to us.

Each time we rise up, we also anticipate the end of time which is the fulfillment of our hopes and dreams. Jesus said, "Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near" (Luke 21:28).

THE YEAR OF FAITH

FAITH-FALLING

by Thomas Smith

"The deep secret mystery of faith lies in the fact that it is a 'baptism' in the death and sacrifice of Christ. We can only give ourselves to God when Christ, by His grace, 'dies' and rises spiritually within us." —Thomas Merton

On many a sunny and crisp day over the years, people have sung along with Tom Petty, "And I'm free!... Free falling!" That chorus makes me feel, just a tad, like I'm running off the edge of a mountain ridge, strapped into a hang glider. Someday I'd like to experience the exhilaration of true flight.

Christian faith is also a "faith-fall" of sorts. The exact moment we submit our own will to that of the Father, through Christ, God's invisible plan of love can lift us to perspectives we've never seen before. At the very place where we experience the death of self, new life grows. When God asks us to give him something in our lives, most of us have trouble releasing our grip completely; it can be tough letting go of the things that matter to us: our reputation, our finances, our marriage, our children, forthcoming test results, or our job security. Sometimes we even have problems letting go of things we know aren't good for us: a habitual sin, an unhealthy relationship, or a jammed schedule.

Learning to detach from our preoccupation with having things our way, and letting God Have thing his way in our lives, doesn't mean we will always get our way, but it does mean that we will rise in freedom. As we learn to lay these things on the altar, (as Christ "dies and rises spiritually within us") we fall in freedom from the cliff of our own controlling ways. This "faith-fall" is a reversal of the "first-fall" of Adam and Eve. It is a trust in the love of the Father and his provision for our needs, our hearts, and our happiness. It is a lived "work" of what we know by faith: Deus Providebit. God will provide!

ACTION STEP

Is there an area in your life that God is asking you to give to him in a kind of "faith-fall"? Pray about the issue this week, both at Mass and while meditation on your favorite mysteries of the Rosary. Ask Mary to help you follow her example, her "faith-fall fiat," and help you to recognize and release the earthly things you are grasping so you can better hold onto the things of heaven.

At Mass this week, when receiving the Eucharist ask Jesus to allow his faithful embrace to become the strength you need to experience this "faith-fall," so that your heart can soar with his. Then, pray in gratitude with St. Paul: "It is no longer I who lives, but Christ who lives in me." (Gal 2:20)

KINDERGARTNERS LEARN ABOUT MONEY THROUGH SONG AND TECHNOLOGY

I was fortunate enough to observe in a St. Cletus School Kindergarten class recently. Wow, what an amazing experience. The children were learning about money! Identifying money, the value of a coin, and adding and subtracting coin amounts to name a few were included in the lesson. For the auditory learner, the children learned a song to help identify money. For the visual learner, the kindergartners manipulated the Smart Board to determine money amounts along with putting different coins together to equal another coin amount. The students then worked in small groups as they continued to reinforce their skills. We are very proud of all our student's accomplishments. If you are interested in learning more about our school, please give us a call (708) 352-4820. We would be very happy to talk with you and set up a time to visit.

MINISTRY OF ALTAR SERVER

We would like to extend an invitation to all current 5th and 6th graders and any 7th graders who are not already involved in this ministry, to consider becoming an Altar Server at St. Cletus Parish. The ministry of Altar Server is an important ministry and part of our regular Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. In addition to serving at weekend liturgies, altar servers assist at weddings and funerals as well as at other liturgical celebrations throughout the year.

This ministry is vital and as such, requires a true commitment. It requires a generous spirit, a prayerful attitude and a decorum that reflects both respect and holiness. It is a public ministry which not only enhances one's spiritual growth, but it also gives greater glory to God and invites others to come to know the Lord more fully at the Eucharistic table.

New servers will be asked to attend two training sessions, which will take place in church.

Session I will take place Monday, May 13, 2013 from 3:30 – 4:45 p.m. All new servers must attend that session.

Session II will take place on Tuesday, May 14, 2013, Wednesday May 15, 2013 and Thursday, May 16, 2013 from 3:30 – 4:45 p.m. Servers will only need to attend one of the second sessions.

An email with an electronic form for registration has already been sent to families of all 5th, 6th and 7th grade students who attend our parish school or who are registered in our religious education program. If you have not received this email, please contact Fr. Ken at the rectory (708) 352-6209. We look forward to welcoming our new altar servers in the coming weeks.
