BI-LINGUAL EUCHARIST CELEBRATION SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2

On Saturday, November 2, at 11:00 a.m., you are invited to remember your loved ones who have gone home to God this past year.

There will be a bi-lingual celebration of the Eucharist during which families may come forward to light a candle of remembrance as the names of all the deceased of this year are read. There will also be the traditional Book of Remembrance available in church during the month of November for the inscribing of the names of all our deceased loved ones.

NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2013

Created in the image and likeness of God, the diversity of God's creation is portrayed in the faces of millions of people; people of different color and belief, from distant nations and continents, from near and far. Coming into church, we already have many faces stored in our memory; the faces of those we see regularly, those who we know and love, those who may distract us, those we find awkward. As we glance around, there are many different images being registered and various signals being sent to the brain.

When the Pharisee became distracted and spotted the tax collector during his prayers, he judged him. He looked down on him and despised him. Like a peacock, he preened himself and rejoiced in his good deeds. The Pharisee is presented as being self-righteous, not in need of God. He justifies himself before God. In contrast the tax collector knows that he needs God's forgiveness. What does this say about tax collectors in Jesus' time? Often tax collectors in Palestine were men who demanded money from others by extortion. They demanded money beyond what was due in tax and kept this extra fee for themselves. Characteristically they were seen as men greedy for money. Luke describes Zacchaeus as the chief tax collector who has become rich through defrauding other people. Are all tax collectors like this? Probably not, it is always dangerous to make generalizations.

Luke uses the story of the tax collector and the Pharisee to emphasize God's compassion and mercy and warn against self-righteousness. The example of the repentant tax collector is a reminder that no sin is beyond the forgiveness of God. What is required is repentance and the request for forgiveness. The image of God portrayed in the readings is one of a God who listens carefully to the voice of the sinner, the poor, and the vulnerable people of society. The Book of Ecclesiastes describes the way in which God does not favor the rich. God hears the plea of those who are injured. God hears the cry of the orphan and the widow who pours out her story. These vulnerable people had no one to protect them and God becomes their protector and acts to secure justice for them. God does not just listen but cares sufficiently to act on their behalf.

Many older people will remember preachers speaking about the sin of presumption. It referred to presumption about knowledge of one's relationship with God. While I can trust in the mercy of God, I can never fully know how I stand before God. The Pharisee not only suffers from the sin of presumption but then makes a presumptuous judgment about the life of the tax collector. It is much easier to judge others than oneself! I remember a comment after a homily on the need for conversion; "They needed to hear that Father!" While it is necessary to judge certain actions as right or wrong, it is presumptuous to judge how a person stands before God. There are always facts about a person's situation and life which are private. The story Jesus told about removing the plank from your own eye rather dealing with the speck in others' eyes is a warning about this sort of behavior. Like the tax collector we are invited to trust in God's mercy and pray for our enemies.

Blessings,

Fr. Bob
Pastor

Comfort

© SnappyStock, Inc./Stephen Coburn

A youngster makes his daily call to his mom after a difficult day in middle school. Mom asks what's wrong, and he mumbles, "Nothing." She makes a mental note to check on him at bedtime and stops on the way home from work to buy the ingredients to make his favorite meal. "Comfort my people," says the Lord. And she does.

A dad notices that his daughter is sad and sitting alone. Her friends left for the mall without her. He asks her to help him with a repair project. On the way to the hardware store, they stop for doughnuts, and he tells her about the day she was baptized and how every family member held her and blessed her tiny forehead. "Comfort my people," says the Lord. And he does.

Our children need our presence. Notice and respond.

Pope Francis challenges us to be protectors of all creation, to be stewards of all God's gifts. We begin to exercise this responsibility when we defend human life—especially the unborn and the vulnerable. When we affirm the sacredness of all human life, we acknowledge God's plan for each human being, and we work to defend the gift of life from every form of abuse. Similarly, when we affirm that everything God made is good and worthy of our reverence and respect, we look differently on all God's creation."

FOOD PANTRY

Thank you to all who continue to support this much needed and appreciated ministry. As you do your grocery shopping this week, here are a couple of things to remember

- Most needed items at this time include dry pinto beans, cereal, peanut butter & jelly, canned fruit, meals in a can/box, and canned meat We need to constantly replenish our pantry shelves with staples and extras as our volunteers continue to pack bags for our November 14 monthly food distribution.
- All in date non-perishables, paper goods, laundry detergent, dish soap, etc. are most appreciated!

GIVING TREE

Stores are displaying Christmas decorations and advertisements for gift giving will soon be a common sight. As the season of Thanksgiving and the Holidays approach, we Christians are looking for ways to keep the true meaning of the season alive in our families. One way is to take part in our annual Giving Tree Project, which will begin on the weekend of November 16/17. Please watch upcoming Canticles for details. Also, if you or anyone you know in our faith community could benefit from this outreach, please let me know. Your request will be confidential.

Thank you to all the volunteers who helped assemble the Giving Tree tags last Tuesday. Please check upcoming Canticles for more volunteer opportunities during this season. Your cheerful participation is what drives this awesome outreach.

St. Cletus School

“WE WALK BY FAITH, NOT BY SIGHT”

It may have been a chilly Friday afternoon, but St. Cletus students did a great job at our 2nd Annual Walk-a-thon. Students reached out to family and friends to sponsor their walk, taking an active role in this parish school fundraiser and showing their pride in being a cardinal.

Students enjoyed a fun afternoon outside. Some students took a leisurely walk while others mixed things up a bit with a silly walk. The more playful participants danced to DJ Pryor's tunes, showed off their limbo skills and played a game of bags for a chance at prizes. Preschoolers especially enjoyed walking with their 5th grade buddies while older students loved seeing the teachers limbo and slow-motion walk. As a result, we all got to see lots of smiles on those cute Cardinal faces.

Final tallies of the Walk-a-thon won't be available until the end of the month, but we are pleased to report that it looks like it was a success, both as a fundraiser and as a fun event.

THE DEACON'S WIFE IS A STAMP COLLECTOR!

Well actually, I am a stamp collector for Kolbe House Catholic Jail Ministry. As many of you know I serve as a Minister for Kolbe House at Cook County Jail, however, the families of the incarcerated are also a matter of concern to the men and women engaged in this ministry.

In an effort to keep the detainees connected to their families, Kolbe House is asking us to send them postage stamps. The stamps are to be used for the detainees Christmas greetings to their families. This annual effort this year is looking to collect 7,000 stamps.

If you would like to donate stamps in any denomination (1 cent up to first class postage) please put them in an envelope and drop them off at the rectory marked "Kolbe House Stamps-c/o Marlene."

Thank you,

Marlene Heyes
