NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2014

“GOD’S CHOSEN ONE’S”

We too are the chosen ones of God. In baptism the Holy Spirit descends on us and makes us the sharers in God’s own life. Our responsibility as chosen ones is to take up the assignments we have just heard of in the life of Jesus, in the life of Paul and in the life of the servant disciple in today’s readings. We are called to take away the sins of the world, to be apostles and to be the light of the nations, bringing salvation to the ends of the earth: all daunting tasks. We may be forgiven for trying to flee them or off-load them on to those we consider to be especially trained for the purpose, the clergy and religious. But, through our baptism, we are each called to make unique contributions to these assignments. It helps if we can see how in turn they have been communicated to us. As we have received, so shall we give. How have we been enlightened? What brings clear vision and understanding into our lives? What has our experience of forgiveness been? Have we really forgiven others or allowed ourselves to be truly forgiven? Finally, how have we received the good news? What words or images moved or still move us? It is through our own experience of God that God will communicate his presence to others.

SINCERE GRATITUDE FOR AN ABUNDANCE OF GENEROSITY

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks for the wonderful outpouring of the spirit of giving that was demonstrated this past Christmas season within our parish community. The abundance of gifts that were presented by the people of our parish to those less fortunate through our Giving Tree Program was overwhelming. The commitment of our parish to the needs of all God’s people is inspiring and speaks to the gospel in action.

St. Cletus parishioners are indeed extremely generous in their support of the work of the gospel. You have once again demonstrated your generous support of our parish ministries and programs by your Christmas contributions this year which as of this weekend total more than $200,800. It is a true sign of this parish’s willingness to answer our baptismal call to be of service to one another in Christ.

May Christ shower each you with abundant blessings for your spirit of generosity and love. I personally thank each of you for your continued commitment to the work of the Lord through your financial support of our parish family. I ask that God watch over you and keep you and your families in His loving care always.

Continue to Light Our World with Peace,

Fr. Bob
Pastor

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

January 18-25, 2014

HAS CHRIST BEEN DIVIDED?

"Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you should be in agreement and that there should be no divisions among you, but that you should be united in the same mind and the same purposes.

The Cross of Christ must not be emptied of its powers?

(cf 1 Corinthians 1:1-17)

What is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity:

- Celebrated annually between the feasts of St. Peter and St. Paul (January 18 through January 25th).
- Sponsored by the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and the World Council of Churches.
- Each year, Christian churches and communities of a particular country develop the theme and texts for the Week of Prayer. Material for the 2014 observance was prepared by representatives from different parts of Canada, brought together at the invitation of the Canadian Centre for Ecumenism and the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism.
- Francis Cardinal George and the Office for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs is encouraging all Christians in the Chicago area to engage in personal prayer and join local joint observances during January 18-25 and throughout the year.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

We give you thanks, O God, for you to bless the church with the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Help us support one another, to be respectful of our differences and to work for the unity of all those throughout the world who call upon Jesus as Lord.

Help us by your grace to continue praying the prayer of your Son that we may be one, that we may draw ever closer together and recognize our unity is that of Yours, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

SOCIAL CONCERNS UPDATE!

WORDS OF THANKS...

Many verbal and written words of appreciation continue to come in from this year's grateful recipients of our monthly food pantry and our Giving Tree outreach. Let me share a sampling with you, whose faithfulness allows this ministry to continue. "I want to thank you so very much for the food and Christmas gifts you gave my family. You are truly angels...for donating your time and energy to another family." "Thank you for all you do for my family all year long! But especially for the food basket, gift cards, space heater and sheets, which keep us warm." "In the Holy Family's presence, may you find Christmas Joy and abiding peace through the New Year. All the work that you and your volunteers do has been such a blessing to my family." The most repeated expressions of appreciation were "God bless you and your parish for all you do. We will keep you in our prayers." "You will never know how much you are helping us and our children." "Thank you for treating us with respect, and not looking down on us because of the situation we find ourselves in." Let us continue to be Jesus' hands and feet in the New Year.

The pictures below are "snapshots" of the generosity our Social Concerns Ministry encounters in all our efforts to help others.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Thank you for your faithful response to the pantry's needs. Your donations, along with those from various area churches, schools, businesses, and organizations, are what keep us up and running.

- As we gear up for our February monthly distribution, most needed items include pasta/assorted noodles, tuna, canned meat, cereal, hot cocoa mix, crackers, and paper goods.
- It's not necessary to bring every item we need each week (although we will graciously and gratefully accept them!), but if everyone could just bring one or two items, it would help us greatly.
- All in date non-perishables are greatly appreciated.
- Your donations can be dropped off in the designated food bins in the Church narthex when you come to church on the weekend, or daily from 7:45 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Fairness

Two brothers live on my block—Gerald, my next-door neighbor, and Mike, who lives down the block. I like to say they run a school for fairness. As winter approaches each year, the brothers build an ice rink in Gerald's yard. When the first cold wave arrives, they get to work, and soon the rink is ready for hockey. The two brothers teach not only the rules of the game, but also rules important in life, such as it's more fun when the teams are evenly matched; everyone who wants to play gets to play; and if you hog the puck too often, you sit in the penalty box. Children need to learn fairness, and there's no place like home to begin those lessons—especially if that home has an ice rink in the backyard. —Tom McGrath

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH— HERE COMES EVERYBODY

This popular way of describing the universality of our Church is a theme of today's readings. The prophet Isaiah tells of God's servant who will be the "light of the nations." It will not be enough for this servant only to bring back the survivors of Israel's dispersion and captivity. God's salvation must reach to the ends of the earth.

Saint Paul writes to a local church of mainly Gentiles and presumably former sinners of all kinds in Corinth. He greets them and tells them that they are to take their place with "saints everywhere" in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel reading from John tells of Jesus' commissioning by the Father in the Holy Spirit to bring salvation to all, to take away the sins of the world. This Chosen One has come to baptize the world in God's Spirit. Everybody.

As you hear these words, consider your own task to bring the good news of salvation to everyone you will meet in the coming days, weeks, years.

What does it mean to be living in poverty in America today? It's feeling that normal daily challenges are magnified one hundred times more because low-income persons are much more powerless because of the structures that oppress them. Help empower the poor during Poverty Awareness Month by taking part in the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). The most insidious cause of ineffective parenting is poverty. CCHD funds organizations like Parenting for Nonviolence who provide parenting skills education to parents of children who live in at-risk communities. To contribute, meet our grantees and hear their stories, participate in the Youth Art Contest and more, visit chicagopeaceandjustice.org/poverty.
