NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT 2014

It was a sunny morning in July and a family was beginning their vacation on the west coast of Ireland. Being in County Clare, they decided to visit the Cliffs of Moher. These spectacular cliffs rise 700 feet sheer from the sea and stretch for five miles along the Clare coast. A popular venue with tourists, there is a good, safe viewing area for the experience. On this particular morning bright sunshine gave a stunning view of the cliffs, the shimmering sea and the many birds that nest in the crevices of the rocks. Suddenly, as if from nowhere, a sea mist, a fog, rose up to blot out the sun, to blanket the sea, and to enshroud the towering cliffs. From being able to see everything, now they could see nothing. Only the path in front of them, leading people safely back to the car, could be discerned. Everything else was a disorientating mist.

People have lost their lives, on cliffs and on mountains, when a sudden mist has descended and robbed them of every landmark and of all sense of direction. Without signs or familiar objects to get our bearings, we become totally lost and disoriented. We cannot see where to go. We do not even know where we are.

This physical experience of disorientation is multiplied a million times in the spiritual experience of life. In a world of a myriad voices and life-styles, people, especially people on their own, can become completely lost and confused. Without the comfort and support of spiritual guides in the shape of family and friends, many people find themselves lost, and prey to every kind of exploitation. It does not take long for them to fall victim to the coldness and callousness of the world. The suffering of such people is enormous, because, as Saint Paul reminds the Christians of Rome, we are spiritual beings, and unspiritual behavior is destructive of our very soul. We are made for goodness, loveliness, beauty and truth, and our suffering is intense when all we experience is badness, cruelty, ugliness and lies. When such things happen to us, the sun is blotted out of our lives, and a disorientating fog envelops us. It is then that the cry for God's mercy goes up. "Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!" A spiritual death has taken hold of us, and we cannot raise ourselves. Who will lift us from our graves?

When Jesus' friend, Lazarus, falls ill and dies, the opportunity presents itself for Jesus to show to the world that he is the Lord of life. To show that no death, no evil or corrupting power will win the victory over the Lord of life. Neither physical death, nor spiritual death, will have the mastery. Whoever believes in Jesus will never die. Life beyond the grave is a tremendous promise, but life before the grave is desperately important as well. What is the point or purpose of living, if we can never know happiness? And happiness is the spiritual delight in being alive. It is the spirit of God living within us. It is the life of the Beatitudes which Jesus preached to the crowds.

The poor, the humble, the gentle, the patient – these are the people whose lives bring them the great gift of happiness. These are the people who have the power to raise others from spiritual death.

"If you had been here, my brother would not have died." This is the heart-broken cry of Martha over her dead brother, Lazarus. It is also a cry addressed to us by the broken-hearted people of our world. Wherever people suffer from the death-dealing blows of a violent and cruel world, they look to the healthy ones for care and compassion and for help and healing.

By God's grace, you and I are the healthy ones of this world. Not because we are perfect – far from it! Not because we are holy – God help us! Not because we are faultless – God forgive us! No, but for a most amazing reason, of which we are not worthy. The Spirit of God has made his home in us!

If the Spirit of Jesus lives in you, then not only will you be alive, but you can help others to be alive as well. You can, as a member of Christ Jesus, call others from their graves, unbind them and help them to be free.

Lenten Happiness,

Fr. Bob Pastor

FINDING STRENGTH AND HOPE THROUGH THE WAY OF THE CROSS: A JOURNEY WITH CANCER

It is difficult to imagine anyone in today's world whose life has not been touched by cancer in some way.

No matter where you are on your cancer journey – cancer survivor, recently diagnosed, or walking this path with a loved one – you will be encouraged by this contemporary Stations of the Cross.

In this week's Gospel, we see Jesus perform another miracle: raising Lazarus from the dead. This miracle may seem to contradict what the Gospel tells us in previous weeks, as well as the message we often relay to ourselves as we make our Lenten sacrifices: that this earthly world and all of the things of it are absolutely surpassed by the heavenly afterlife awaiting us. But if this is true, why does Jesus bring Lazarus back to life on earth? Jesus knows about heaven, but he still weeps when he hears of Lazarus' death, his departure from the physical world. He even brings Lazarus back to life in the body – not just in spirit!

It is through this miracle that we are reminded that our physical presence here on earth is important and even necessary in order to achieve God's will.

- PRAY for the spiritual nourishment we need to grow in God's love, and to carry out concrete, visible service to others each day in Jesus' name.

Catching Spring Snowflakes

Our kindergarten students welcomed the first day of spring...with SNOW! The class went outside and "caught" snowflakes on a black piece of paper. The children were amazed to see the crystal shape of each snowflake.

April's School Prayer, The Apostles' Creed

During morning prayer, in addition to our regular student prayers, the school recites a specific chosen prayer together throughout the entire month. For April St. Cletus School students are starting their day with "The Apostles Creed" and will recite it together throughout the month. By the end of the school year, students should have memorized several prayers that are part of the Catholic faith.

Apostles' Creed

*I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God,
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.*

Amen.
