NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST 2014 (CORPUS CHRISTI)

Today's readings are about a memorial. It is not made of stone like those we raise in memory of those whom we have lost, but is nonetheless real: a memorial meal. The Eucharist which we celebrate today is the memorial instituted by Jesus. It draws attention to his life; it proclaims his death; and it celebrates his resurrection from the dead. The Eucharist draws attention to issues in our world that have not gone away and are much needed: sacrifice, service, presence, and redemptive love.

In today's first reading, Moses reminds the people of God's saving goodness, shown to them over many years. The remembering is important, because it keeps the people alive to the continuing saving presence of God. Similarly, Paul emphasizes the importance of the Eucharist, this memorial which represents an intimate sharing in the life of Christ, which binds people together more surely than anything that can tear them apart.

Jesus draws on the familiar tradition of God's provision for the people in the desert and takes it much further. It is not manna which now feeds and nourishes. It is his own flesh, given for the life of the world. Here we have a memorial which draws on the past, takes place in the present, and promises the future. It effects union with Christ, and so with the Father.

So this celebration works on many levels at once. We hear again of the sacrifice of Jesus, his self-giving, his offering of his own life that we might live. We are reminded that in the Eucharist we enjoy communion with Jesus, and so are drawn into his life with the Father. We are also drawn together in faith and become a community with Christ's self-giving at its centre. And we commit ourselves to Christ's kingdom of justice, reconciliation, and peace.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, we are caught up in a living memorial. We are challenged to deepen our commitment to each other as we reflect on the example of Jesus, who gives generously of himself, that we might live. His life of loving service inspires us and empowers us to serve as he does.

Our communion with Christ and with each other in the Eucharist is the beginning of eternal life. In Christ we are already in the tomb, and already risen and ascended to the Father. Eternal life has already begun for us. The Eucharistic memorial is where we are reminded of this and taken up in it. Our communion is our salvation, tangible and very near.

Our great civic memorials commemorate lives lived and lost, and the Eucharist is no exception; but it is much more too. The life that was lived and lost was found again. Jesus died and was raised from the dead. And so too our lives are lived, will be lost, and will be restored to us by God's grace. A memorial which can do this can only come from God. And that God's own self is caught up in this memorial can only come from love.

Blessings of Christ in the Eucharist to All.

Pastor*

ST. CLETUS PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL (PPC)

The St. Cletus Pastoral Council has spent this past year in discussion and review of the makeup of our parish representative structure to our Parish Council. After much discussion and discernment it was determined that there was a need to adapt the current structure of two representatives from each parish ministry.

The existing council voted to rewrite the existing constitution to better reflect all members of the parish. A committee of the existing council has met several times over the past few months to discuss, discern and rewrite the constitution to reflect this new approach to representation to the council from the parish. This committee has worked very hard to accomplish this task.

The Council Committee have completed their work and have approved a new constitution that will include an election by the entire parish of six (6) voting members from the parish; three (3) members appointed by the council; one (1) non-voting representative appointed by the Parish Staff; one (1) non-voting representative from the Parish Finance Committee; and the following non-voting members: the Pastor, Associate Pastor(s), the School President or Principal, and the Director of Religious Education. This will be the make-up the new Council with nine (9) voting members.

Over the next several weeks the Council will explain the process of nomination and election to the new Parish Pastoral Council for this coming fall in the Canticle and on-line at the St. Cletus Parish Web Site. You may check the Parish Web Site to review the newly approved Constitution.

*Thank You,
St. Cletus PPC*

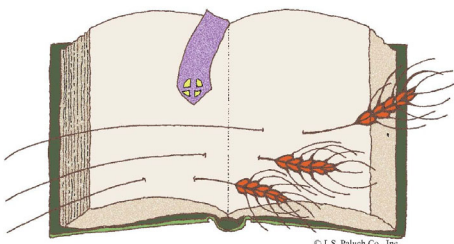

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Next weekend, June 28/29, we support the Holy Father in his charitable works.

This year's Peter's Pence Collection provides each of us the opportunity to be a witness of charity. In addition, our financial support of this annual collection will assist Pope Francis in strengthening dioceses, religious orders and struggling communities of faith.

Envelopes are available in the pews this weekend.

Thank you for your generosity.

ST. CLETUS CELEBRATES INDEPENDENCE DAY

All parishioners are invited to join us as St. Cletus celebrates Independence Day. On Thursday, July 3, we will welcome back the City Lights Orchestra for a free concert on the parish lawn. All are invited to join in a Ravinia-style evening which will include music that will be fun for the whole family. The concert begins at 7:00 p.m. and will conclude about 8:30 p.m. (at dusk).

Then on Friday, July 4, we will again honor military personnel - active and retired - at our 8:00 a.m. Mass. This powerful liturgy has been a St. Cletus tradition for over 30 years; many members of our surrounding community come to our parish just for this event. Our music will be enhanced by the 40-piece Independence Day Band, and all military personnel will be recognized for their service. Plan to start this holiday giving thanks to God and saying thanks to all who live among us that have served our country faithfully.

Hope

Here's a trick that can change your outlook on life: watch your language. Let me explain. I was listening to parents who were picking up their daughters from dance class. One mom rattled off the day's activities as though they were a list of punishments: "I have to get Elizabeth from here to Brownies, and then I have to pick up Jeremy at hockey and take him to the store for new shoes. Then I have to . . ." Another described her day differently: "Today we get to spend time at the library, and then Maria is looking forward to trying out her new moves at Tae Kwon Do. Tonight we're excited to see that new Disney flick!" One mom's words reflected dread; the other revealed hope. So watch your language and ask, Do my words reflect dread or hope? —Tom McGrath

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Ordinary Time beckons, and so on this Sunday we surrender the last glimmers of paschal joy as we celebrate the renewal of our life around the table of the Eucharist. This feast reminds us that the goal of the catechumen's journey through Lent is not the baptismal font at Easter, but rather the experience of Pentecost. It is all about life lived in the Spirit's embrace in relationship to the Body of Christ, which is found both "on the table" and "at the table."

The season of confirmation is also drawing to a close, and this feast serves as a reminder that this sacrament, a solemn sending from font to table, is keyed to renewed vigor. Confirmation has sometimes been sadly misunderstood as a kind of graduation from religious formation, but it is nothing of the sort. It is about being led by the Lord Jesus to the place where the Spirit flourishes, and where the gifts of the Spirit are most easily detectable. After next week we will resume our consideration of the sacrament of confirmation, its rich and somewhat tangled history, its challenging theology, and its changing celebration.

REGISTRATION REMINDER

It is time to register your child/ren for Religious Education Classes for 2014-15. Make sure that your child is part of an exciting faith adventure. Growing closer to Jesus and our parish family is always exciting and never ending.

Please note: Students anticipating celebrating their First Communion (second grade) or Confirmation (8th grade) need to be in the program for 2 years prior to the reception of the sacrament. (1st & 2nd grades and 7th & 8th grades).

Remember that we need a copy of your child's Baptismal Certificate if you are new to our program. I look forward to hearing from you.

Please think about offering your gifts and talents by teaching the children of St. Cletus Parish. Please consider the call to share your faith as a catechist. Perhaps you could work with a partner.

Paulette Bolton

Director of Parish Catechesis/Formation

AMEN

Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it's only a year or two old, the word "Amen" has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's feast is about those "Amens" offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our "Amens" and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others?
