NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2014

When children are in preschool and elementary school, it is more than easy to interest their parents in supporting and taking an active part in school life. For a start the children usually like their parents to be involved in what is happening in their lives. Then quite a number of parents are personally present at school activities or volunteering in one way or another almost daily. This regular contact makes school part of their lives, a feature that is increased by their chat and friendship that develop with other parents who are involved. With high school a different scenario often occurs. Teenage children are often embarrassed at their parents' presence, and they want to keep them as far away as possible from their activities, whether work or play. Then the schools themselves usually have much larger campuses and parents often feel more daunted by the size of the establishments and their own mixed memories of teenage years. Unintentionally the school can be experienced by parents as hostile rather than friendly territory. It also does not feel as easy to get involved in the more demanding academic and extra-curricular activities offered to the pupils. Parents are no longer gods!

Later on in life a reconciliation of views usually occurs. The parents marvel to see their children emerge as mature adults from their stormy teenage chrysalises, and the children are amazed at how their parents have matured so rapidly as well.

St. Paul is aware of how much we put between ourselves and God. His letter to the Romans explores how even the Law, which should have impressed upon the chosen people their need of grace or salvation, becomes oppressive as they seek a righteousness before God based on their obedience. To live as God wants we need the inner gift of faith, which acts like an internal combustion engine of goodness. The reason for this is because faith is the free gift of God. We cannot earn it. But nor can we separate ourselves from it. Our natural and traditional ideas of God, even today, contain a strong tendency to make God distant and forbidding. Accompanying this belief is a feeling of our own inadequacy and failure. We feel guilty because we cannot bridge the gap, because we cannot live up to what we believe are God's expectations of us. St. Paul forcefully reminds us that this is not the point. Of course we cannot bridge the gap. Of course we are failures. But this does not matter. What matters is the overwhelming love of God for us, revealed in all its compassion and enrichment, in the person of Jesus Christ. Nothing can get in the way of that love, a love illustrated so well in the gospel story of the feeding of the five thousand, where we see Jesus taking pity on the crowds, healing them and feeding them with sheer abundance.

Our spiritual growth can often take a similar track to our human development. During our spiritually teenage years, which do not always coincide with our physical adolescence, we feel the need to separate ourselves from the authority figures in our lives, loving as they may be. Our rediscovery of how they may be a more real presence in our lives, perhaps as more equal or intimate companions, is the true business of growing up. If we find it difficult to think of God in such terms, we need only think of how St. John's Gospel invites us to be friends rather than servants. Our God is stripped of any autocratic powers in the person of Jesus Christ in order to be our healing friend and servant. The bit of us that remains an undeveloped child or teenager finds that difficult to accept. We want God to be dictatorial and distant. That makes it easier for us to keep our distance! We can refuse to believe, and blame God at the same time. God, however, keeps on loving us all the same, a thought consoling to all who wander away and also to those who grieve for their children or loved ones who seem to have turned away from God. Whatever diversions we take in our spiritual journeys, God's overwhelming love is always there. Our openness to that love is what enables us to then become friends and servants to each other in God's image and likeness.

*Blessings in this Ordinary Time,
Father Bob
Pastor*

ST. CLETUS PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL
NOMINEES FOR MEMBERSHIP
2014-2015

• COLLEEN HAGEN

I have been a parishioner of St. Cletus for more than 30 years. My four children graduated from St. Cletus School and while they were in school most of my parish activities were school related. Now I am a Eucharistic Minister and a member of CREDO (adult faith formation). I have been a member of the parish council for several years and helped write the new bylaws. I would like to stay on the council for another term to help smooth the transition to the new structure.

In my "day job," I am a physician and administrator. I have experience working with teams of people with different skills and mindsets and getting them to work together for a common purpose. I know how to advocate for a person or a cause. I am not afraid to tell people what they don't want to hear but need to know.

I want to use those skills to help build a new parish council that will work with the pastor to plan St. Cletus' future and make it the best that it can be.

• JACK FISHERKELLER

I have been a parishioner since 1991, and a Religion Education instructor for approximately 12 years. I have been married for 33 years and have three children. I am also a small business owner.

I feel we have a tremendous diversity in our parish and we should be taking advantage of all the talents of all of our parishioners.

• XAVIER POLANSKI

My wife Joanna, my son Tom, and I moved into the parish in 1987. We live in La Grange. I work as a nuclear safety engineer for the nuclear power plants owned by Exelon Generation.

I have visited patients at La Grange Hospital as a Minister of Care for 26 years. I was a member of the original Parish Council since its inception, serving as secretary for much of the time. I assisted in the reorganization. I look forward to analyzing issues and advising the pastor as a member of the newly reorganized Parish Pastoral Council

• ROBERTA (ROBBIE) O'SHEA

My husband, Marty, and I have lived in the parish since 1992. Both our children were baptized at St. Cletus and attended St. Cletus School and participated in the St. Cletus Youth Ministry. I taught and coordinated the Early Childhood Religious Education program for several years. I recently sat on the Board of a local not-for-profit organization of which I was the chair. I am currently a Professor at Governor's State University.

I believe my involvement in the parish and my experience with not-for-profit organizations would be of value on the PPC.

ST. CLETUS PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL
NOMINEES FOR MEMBERSHIP
2014-2015

• HELEN MC MAHON

My husband, and I have been members of St. Cletus Parish for 41 years. Our three children attended St. Cletus School and are proud graduates. I served on the School Board, a room mother, and group leader in the Confirmation program. I was an active member of Women's Council and served as president. I also participated as a facilitator in the Pre-Cana program for 13 years. Recently, I was part of the Parish Transformation Committee and have been a lector for many years.

I am committed to St. Cletus Parish and have enjoyed being an active participant in many aspects of parish life. I would be honored to serve as a member and feel that I could bring my past knowledge and perspective to the Parish Council.

• OLIVIA PACH

I am seventeen years old and this fall I will be a senior at Nazareth Academy. I have been a member of St. Cletus since I was born and have been actively involved since then. I attended Religious Education at St. Cletus and was in the children's choir. I was an altar server for three years. Currently, I am a member of the contemporary choir, a cantor, and a lector. In addition, I have volunteered at Vacation Bible School for the past three summers, and this past school year I was a Religious Education catechist aide. Lastly, I have been part of the St. Cletus Youth Group for three years and have gone on three mission trips so far.

I am interested in running for the Parish Pastoral Council because I want to bring the youth perspective to St. Cletus. In conclusion, I am committed to St. Cletus and would be a good addition to the PPC.

ST. CLETUS SCHOOL OPEN REGISTRATION

The St. Cletus Catholic School family invites you to join our community. We currently have openings available for the 2014-2015 school year in first through eighth grades. We also offer the following:

Half-day Preschool: 3-yr olds on Tuesday and Thursday mornings; 4-yr olds on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings; and 4-yr old Prekindergarten on Monday through Friday afternoons.

Full-day Preschool is offered five days a week for 3 and 4 year olds.

Kindergarten: Half & Full-day program.

Besides our regular educational and religious programs, all students also take art, library, music, PE, Spanish, science lab, and technology. We also offer a variety of afterschool activities: band, clubs and sports.

Before and Aftercare Programs: Available for PreK through 8th grade.

Please contact the school office at (708) 352-4820 for information on openings for specific programs. Our website, www.stcletusparish.com/school, provides more information regarding the school, tuition, and registration. We look forward to welcoming you into our school family.

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Gather

© SW Productions

We do not go to God one by one. God has decided to gather us as his holy people in the Church, which is the Body of Christ. When we celebrate the sacraments, we do so as God's Church. Even though our experience may be deeply, deeply personal, for example, when we confess our sins and receive forgiveness or feel the presence of Jesus in Holy Communion, our experience is never just ours alone. We are all a part of the Body of Christ, joined and built up together.

If God has decided to gather us as his people in the Church, then we are called to join that gathering. When we come together, for example, to celebrate the sacraments and worship God, we do so with generous and willing hearts. We support each other, pray for each other, and encourage each other. We also accept in faith the sacramental rituals and prayers entrusted to the Church.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We are looking for married couples who would like to join our Pre-Cana ministry to help prepare engaged couples for marriage. Beginning a marriage is perhaps the most important step that people take in their lives. In view of the many stresses which affect marriage in today's society, the Catholic Church wants to help engaged couples to think and communicate more fully about areas of married life which may or may not have been discussed before. Married volunteer leader couples, trained by the Archdiocese, facilitate the sessions drawing from and sharing their experiences from their own marriage in the areas of communication, decision making/finances, and marital spirituality. The Pre-Canas classes at St. Cletus are held every other month, either two consecutive Tuesday evenings from 7:00-9:00 p.m. or one Saturday morning from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Education Building. If you are interested in being a facilitator for this great marriage enrichment opportunity or would like more information, please contact Bobbie Kallal at bkallal@stcletusparish.com or (708) 352-6209.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
REGISTRATION REMINDER!

If you have not yet registered your child/children for Religious Education, please go to stcletusparish.com to register. If you prefer, you may register at the RE office by calling (708) 215-5415 Monday through Thursday, from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Classes are filling up so do not delay in signing up your child/children as soon as possible. Thank you.

Paulette Bolton

Director of Parish Catechesis/Formation

CATECHISTS NEEDED!

Hopefully you have been thinking about being a catechist as you read the bulletin every weekend. We are still in need of a few more catechists. Join others of our parish in passing on the faith to the children. You will be ministering with a faith-filled group of men and women. There is much support given to help you in this ministry. You will enjoy being with the children and knowing that you are helping them develop a relationship with Jesus. Please contact Mrs. Paulette Bolton at (708) 215-5415 to make an appointment.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE!

- Most needed items include toilet paper, Kleenex tissues, rice, boxed sides/dinners, canned or powdered milk, diapers and baby food. All current nonperishable are appreciated!
- On Thursday, August 14, from 4:25-5:45 p.m. in Morrissey Hall Lobby, we will be accepting your donations of fresh produce, whether from your home gardens or the produce section of the grocery store. It is important to remember that we can accept such donations only at this time, because of storage and distribution limitations.
- Don't forget your donations of school supplies to benefit the children of our food pantry families. Jack Dahill is working very hard on his Eagle Scout Project, which will provide supplies for different grade levels. If you see him this weekend before or after Mass, be sure to say hello and give him encouragement!

If you have any questions, please contact me at (708) 215-5418 or mford@stcletusparish.com. Thank you for so faithfully answering Jesus' call to feed the hungry.

29th Annual
Hunger Walk
June 21, 2014

Thanks again to all those who walked or supported walkers in the June Greater Chicago Food Depository Hunger Walk. Our Pantry thus far has received $1,110 in credits toward our monthly purchase of food at the Depository, which is a huge help.

GREATER CHICAGO FOOD DEPOSITORY/LYONS TOWNSHIP MOBILE PANTRY

Thank you to all volunteers who answered the call to help set up and distribute produce and other food items at the monthly mobile pantry St. Cletus hosted on Tuesday, July 15. Volunteers from St. Cletus Parish worked alongside volunteers from St. John of the Cross Parish, the Food Depository, and Lyons Township General Assistance Office. As one of our SJC volunteers so elegantly put it, "How nice it was to intermingle the volunteers from both parishes! I even met someone from a Lutheran church—truly God's kingdom without barriers." The pictures below tell some of the story.

Pallets of produce & nonperishables are unloaded from truck and organization begins. We check out the sky and consult the Weather Channel. Not to worry—no rain falls until cleanup is complete...our prayers are answered, oh, we of little faith!

CONT:

Unpacking, sorting, and bagging continue. The clock ticks...we only have a limited time until distribution commences.

Those we serve are gathering. All were most appreciative of the bounty of fresh produce, as well as the dry staples which were offered.

Our fresh offerings included bread, watermelon, lettuce, zucchini, peaches, nectarines, plums, cherries, carrots, and egg plants. At the end of the day, we served 188 households primarily from Lyons Township. Final picture portrays cleanup. All the boxes you see in the pictures need to be broken down and recycled...all the tables taken down and returned to proper places. Doing God's work is both satisfying and fun...just ask anyone who took part in this effort!

GRACE IS EVERYWHERE

Grace is everywhere. People of faith act on this belief. As Christians we are called to reach deeply into ourselves and find God's presence there. We are called to reach outside ourselves and find God there, too.

The reality of grace has sustained and nourished people beyond numbering. The church never tires of telling the story of the loaves and fishes. It is narrated no less than six times in the four Gospels. We imagine the hesitant apostles reaching into the baskets and finding bread, always more bread. We anticipate the ending. The apostles will wear out before the bread runs out.

At another time and place, Isaiah also spoke of an abundance, this time of water, sweet honey, and rich milk. Always, always God is a gift-giver, and we the receivers. Our response is doxology, or praise. In the second reading Paul provides the words and attitude. Praise is everywhere.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Most parishes are now aware of the catechumenate and the journey of new faithful in the RCIA, but this form of sacramental initiation disappeared from view in the thirteenth century along with many other ancient practices. Life back then was hard, and often too short, and priests were increasingly insistent about the responsibility of parents to baptize children in danger of death. Since everyone in that society was under unimaginable threat from famine, warfare, and plague, the liturgical rites changed quickly. Everyone was in danger of death all the time. No longer were babies immersed in fonts, being lowered into the water, although the ritual books never backed down from immersion. Infusion was the new way, a simple pouring of a few drops of water on the child's forehead. The catechumenate collapsed, being reduced to the recitation of the Creed and an Our Father at every baptism. Amazingly, any provision for adult baptism was shelved, so that as late as the 1950s, a person being baptized was presumed to be an infant, unable to answer for him or herself. Questions of creed and commitment were put to the godparents, not to the person being baptized. Even Dorothy Day and Thomas Merton, famous adult converts, remained mute at their baptisms while their sponsors answered for them. In hindsight all this appears strikingly odd, yet it was accepted as the way things were. We have good reason to give thanks for the vigorous reforms of the last fifty years!

WORD OF LIFE

"A child is not something owed to one, but is a gift. The 'supreme gift' of marriage is a human person. A child may not be considered a piece of property, an idea to which an alleged 'right to a child' would lead. In this area, only the child possesses genuine rights: the right 'to be the fruit' of the specific act of the conjugal love of his parents', and 'the right to be respected as a person from the moment of his conception.'"
