NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome 2014

November 9, 2014

Wilfred Theisen, OSB in the Loose Leaf Lectionary tells us “The first reading today is a lovely hymn to water. Its source is the temple of God. Water, the prophet tells us, provides blessings for the earth’s inhabitants: ‘Wherever the river flows every sort of living creature that can multiply shall live, and there will be abundant fish, ... fruit trees of every kind shall grow, their leaves shall not fade, nor their fruit fail.’ Coming from the temple of God, water deserves to be seen as sacred, and those who hoard it or waste it make the planet earth a ‘den of thieves.’”

“As we see, long before there were Green parties the Bible was Green. The very first color mentioned in the Bible is green when God the Creator says, ‘I give all the green plants for food’ (Genesis 1:30). Caring for and respect for the environment is not essentially a political issue, but a religious one. Perhaps the arguing over climate change might continue for a while longer, but no Christian can continue to be indifferent about the wise use of water, air and land.”

“Recently world leaders have been speaking about the process of globalization. ‘Under the momentum of globalization the world is opening up, and at an astonishing speed. Old boundaries of culture, identity and even nationhood are falling. The twenty-first century world is becoming ever more interdependent.’ For decades there have been economic summits in recognition of the interdependence of economic practices.”

“With the mass migration on the globe that we have been witnessing, the movement of large segments of a population from country to country, there is a greater awareness of the diversity of religious beliefs. This diversity actually demonstrates the power of religion. Religious faith is not in decline. The advance of science and technology has not suppressed religious faith. It is in fact surviving and thriving. In the control of extremists, it can lead to conflicts, persecution and even slavery. On the other hand, all the great world faiths have a tradition of social justice – the moral imperative of helping the poor.”

“Just think of the work done by churches, mosques, synagogues and temples in the care for the sick, the elderly and the socially excluded. These developments in world religions have led to the idea of the global soul – the ability to recognize the need to coexist with other religions. For the sake of the globe itself peaceful coexistence is an imperative.”

“What has this to do with today’s celebration? The St. John Lateran Basilica is the Mother Church of the Roman Catholic Church. It is a symbol of the unity of all Catholics who are spread across the globe. Everyone knows that within the Catholic Church there are divisions of various kinds. But if we can co-exist peacefully and still dissent in minor matters we can present to the world a model of unity. In the celebration of the Eucharist we express this unity in a profound way.”

*God’s Abundant Blessings Always,
Father Bob
Pastor*

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Weep

© Shutterstock

In her funeral liturgies, the Church encourages us to walk and weep as Jesus did at the death of his friend Lazarus. We walk and weep when we bring the remains of our loved ones to the church for the funeral Mass and when we bear those remains to their final resting place.

Our grieving and our tears do not belie our faith in the power of the Risen Lord. No, when we weep, we express our sense of loss and the sorrowful break that death imposes on us. More importantly, our mourning speaks to the incompleteness of our journey homeward to God. This grieving is like all the sacraments that are celebrated while we are on the way but not yet arrived. And so our sorrow then becomes a seed of hope and expectation that the Lord, forever true to his promise, will come with glory for his people and complete our journey.

THE TEMPLE AND WORSHIP

In all of today's readings, the temple is prominently mentioned. Ezekiel speaks of streams of living water flowing out from the temple, watering the desert, bringing life to all living things, offering fresh healing to God's people. Paul reminds the Corinthians that their faith rests upon the firmest of foundations, Christ himself. More than that, Paul reveals that those who follow Christ are themselves temples, temples of the Holy Spirit; that is, God dwells not only with them, but in them. For the Jews of Jesus' time, the temple had come to be identified with the presence of God and the only place where authentic worship of God took place. Jesus had a different perception. Jesus identified himself not with the temple, but as the temple. In so doing, Jesus indicated a dramatic shift in what it means to worship God, to be in God's presence. No longer was a place to be the focus of prayer. Instead, a person, the person of Jesus Christ, becomes the center of our worship.

Giving Tree

Dear Parishioners,

Our annual Advent Giving Tree Project - a St. Cletus tradition - will begin next weekend, November 15 and 16. We will be offering our parish families an opportunity to share with those less fortunate...those who would not have a very merry Christmas without your generosity. Our trees will be filled with names of individuals in need from our sharing parish, St. Agatha's, and from our community. As in the past, we ask you to purchase gifts for the person named on the PURPLE tag you remove from the tree. Then, on the weekend of December 13-14, please bring your gifts to Church. We also ask you to remember your special person(s) in your family's prayers throughout this holy season. Last year our parish made Christmas brighter for more than 1700 people.

We will again have a tree with RED food basket tags. These tags will have a suggested list for the contents of a CHRISTMAS SEASON FOOD BASKET for the families using our Food Pantry and others struggling in our community. Please read the instructions listed on these "basket tags." On Sunday, December 21, FOOD BASKETS will be accepted in Morrissey Hall in the morning and distributed from there in the afternoon.

We invite you to stop in the narthex next weekend to take a tag or two from one of the Giving Trees. We are thankful for your past generosity in purchasing many gifts for the individual(s) you choose. We are asking this year, for some of you to consider taking an additional tag or two, and perhaps buying fewer gifts for each name you pick. Thank you! Your generosity will provide hope and make a difference in someone's life. God bless you on your Advent Journey!

SAINT CLETUS PARISH

Living our Faith, Building our Future.

Thank you to all of the parishioners, family, friends, the community, and anyone else that supported the ST CLETUS FALL FESTIVAL. Because of the hard work of so many dedicated people the Fall Festival netted $40,000 towards the LIVING OUR FAITH; BUILDING OUR FUTURE, Capital Campaign. Thank you for your spirit and your gift.

Congratulations to our parish school's Administration, Faculty, Students, Parents and Parishioners in being named a 2014 National Blue Ribbon Exemplary High Performing School. It is an honor to receive such a recognition. It is equally important to sustain our excellence in education at a faith based school. One part of that excellence is the various programs that take place in the school as well as having the facilities for such programs to exist. Our new parish center will provide that space. The parish is very proud of your achievement – go Cardinals.

Pledges

Thank you to all those that continue to honor their pledges to our Capital Campaign. Slowly but surely we continue to make progress towards our goal of a new parish center. Please continue to honor your pledge. If your circumstances have changed, please contact the rectory.

Donations

To those who have not yet made a pledge to the Capital Campaign, please contact Bobbie at the rectory to arrange for your pledge.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

STEPS TOWARD THE SACRAMENT

The 7th grade students from St. Cletus and the RE program made a formal commitment to their preparation process of the reception of the sacrament of Confirmation. This was done with their parents as witnesses at a Commitment Ceremony in which candidates presented a signed written agreement affirming their willingness to actively participate in service and prayer during this period. Parents, in turn, blessed their children with holy water from the baptismal font as a sign of their own pledge to walk with and support their child. Fr. Ken stressed that putting our faith into living actions is a life-time commitment and that parents' role is the primary faith formation model. Each child received a red Service Booklet containing the components, expectations, opportunities, calendar, journal and suggestions about these elements that will help prepare the candidate. These booklets will serve as a resource and record keeper of the candidates' activities over the 2 years of preparation.

About 150 of our 8th graders and their sponsors had the opportunity to spend some time with their each other following the 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass last Sunday afternoon. We met in Morrissey Hall for some conversation and planning. After reflecting on the Scripture story of the 2 strangers on the road to Emmaus, the sponsors and candidates engaged in some thoughts about their own faith journey. Each person was presented a conversation guide to share some questions and discussion about their experiences on the road to Confirmation – a kind of getting-to-know-you on a different level. They also were encouraged to map out a plan of keeping connected by setting some dates and specific occasions for interacting. Please keep our young people in your prayers. Confirmation is April 19, 2015.

WORD OF LIFE

“The courage and grace shown by those women who choose life—in the face of fear, uncertainty, parental or partner intimidation, seemingly insurmountable odds—make them today’s heroes. They are joined by the many who counsel, support and nurture them both before and after the birth of their child. Such self-giving love...is powerfully transformative of mother, of child, of families, of cultures.”

—2013-2014 Respect Life Program (USCCB), —Erika Bachiochi, Esq., “Life Matters Roe Plus 40.”

Additionally, Jim has trained hundreds of job seekers in career exploration and job search techniques; he has also held positions as veterans counselor, career counselor and trainer. To volunteer, it is not necessary for you to be an AARP member or to have a tax or accounting background...you just need a desire to help. However, some knowledge of your own personal tax matters is very helpful. All returns are prepared on computers; thus, volunteers should be somewhat computer literate.

- ♦ Training classes will be held in January, 2015.
- ♦ This income tax preparation and assistance is offered to low and middle income individuals, with special attention to those 60 years and older.
- ♦ To volunteer, visit the aarp.org/taxaide website or contact parishioner, John Wagner, (708) 352-0170 for further details.

Developing Reading Skills and Creativity with iPads

This year in reading, the 5th-graders are being introduced to six specific reading skills that encompass comprehension skills. Recently, they were introduced to the skill of "Asking Questions," or what's around the bend in their reading. When using this skill, they engage their brain into thinking and ask questions, wonder what will happen and make predictions. Q is for Duck, an alphabet guessing book, was read to them to help them introduce the skill to their pre-school buddies. The concept is simple: Q is for duck....Why?... because ducks quack. The 5th-grade class created their own Q is for Duck using the Storykit app on iPads. Needless to say, they can't wait to share their books with their buddies!

Songs for Red Ribbon Week

Our 7th-graders put together a song to promote Red Ribbon Week, inspired by Stomp and Paul Simon performing on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon go online to the St Cletus School Facebook page to enjoy their song.

Scenes from the Science Lab

3rd-grade students took dirty water and put it through three different filters including flocculation, sand and carbon. The water looked and smelled quite a lot better than when it started. Students also viewed a video on tap water vs. bottled water.
