NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2014

Some years ago an elderly woman was being interviewed on television. All her adult life, she explained, she had spent as a nurse. "Tell me," the interviewer asked, "If you could have just one wish, what would it be?" To his astonishment and, I imagine, that of millions of viewers, she replied: "To meet our Lord and hear him say that he thinks I did a good job for him."

A surprising reply, yet, on reflection, just the sort of reply you might expect from a Christian. After all on the day when we have to give an account of our stewardship, there is only one question that will really matter: "Have I made a success of my life on earth? Have I served the Lord well?" We're perhaps tempted to think that if only we knew just when that day would be, we'd be ready for it. Paul insists that the day and the hour are hidden; admittedly, what he has in mind is "the Lord's day," the end of the world when the Lord will come again; but his words are equally relevant to the day of our death, the day when the world will end for us. It's shrouded in mystery; no-one can say when it will come – the Lord may arrive as unexpectedly as a burglar – and yet, says Paul, if we live wisely, like "children of light," then we won't be caught out.

Fundamentally, then, Paul's is a positive and encouraging message and so too is the message of the other two readings. In the gospel our Lord has a parable for us. It's the story of a wealthy man who, just before going abroad, gathers three of his servants and entrusts to each a number of talents. Incidentally, in the parable the word "talents" does not mean personal skills but rather silver coins, money; in fact a talent was a considerable sum of money, a small treasure. The one who had received five talents and the other, who had received two, both traded well and in fact doubled their treasure. But the servant who had but one talent became paralyzed with fear and simply hid the money; he was playing for safety, or so he thought. His master thought differently; on his return, there was a handsome reward for the first two wise, industrious servants, but withdrawal of his one talent, and punishment too, for the third, lazy, fear-racked servant. You may have noticed in the first reading also that the "perfect wife," as she is called, wins praise because she is wise and industrious because she uses her gifts well.

The moral could hardly be clearer: this life is enormously important, for what we make of it will decide our future: in the Kingdom of God, the disciple who responds fully to the gifts God has given him or her and uses them to good effect will receive still greater ones, while disciples too fearful or lazy to make any efforts will lose everything they thought they had.

It's easy for us to think that because we may not have much in the way of talents and gifts we're not very important. However, in the gospel, the servant who came to grief did so not because he had only one talent but because he didn't use it. The fact is that each one of us, however meager our gifts may seem, has a vital role in God's plan. The idea is neatly conveyed in a prayer by Fr. Michel Quoist, called "The Brick." A bricklayer is at work; the first brick is laid on its bed of cement, others follow, slowly the building rises tall and strong. "I thought, Lord, of that brick," says the prayer, "buried in the darkness at the base of the big building. No one sees it, yet it accomplishes its task, and the other bricks need it. Lord, what difference whether I am at the roof-top or in the foundation of your building, as long as I stand faithfully at the right place?"

So long as we are genuinely trying to love and serve the Lord in the lowly events of life, we need not be overwhelmed with fear of rejection. On the contrary, if we are faithful in trying, we can be humbly confident that at death the Lord himself will greet us with those most glorious words: "Well done, you've been faithful in small things, come and join in your Master's happiness."

Blessings,

Father Bob

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Thank you to all who donated items for last week's monthly food distribution, and/or donated their time preparing for it. This is a major undertaking each month, which could not happen without YOUR participation.

- ◆ Our current needs are peanut butter & jelly, Boxed sides, dry pasta, meals in a can/box, crackers and paper products.
- ◆ We continue to collect Jewel stamps for Cuisinart Cookware for our Advent Giving Tree Outreach. If you are not collecting them for yourself, please put the stamps in an envelope and place with your food donations, or drop the envelope in the collection basket, or at the rectory.
- ◆ There's still time to tell the cashier at the Jewel store across the street that you would like to help St. Cletus Food Pantry by making a donation of $1, $5, $10 or whatever you wish. Your thoughtful donation will help bring a traditional holiday dinner to a family in our community that otherwise may have gone without.

THANKS for the many ways you continue to support this ministry.

ADVENT GIVING TREE

Let us share Christ's message of hope with others during this Advent season by taking a tag or two from our Advent Giving Trees this weekend. We are thankful for your past generosity in purchasing multiple gifts for the individual(s) you choose. We are asking this year, for some of you to consider taking an additional tag or two, and perhaps buying fewer gifts for each name you pick. Consider buying gift cards from the St. Cletus School Manna program to use for shopping. Gifts are to be brought to Church on the weekend of December 13/14. Please remember, each tag represents a real person. When you take a tag from the tree, you are making a commitment to that person, and to returning your gift(s) on time.

Food Baskets are to be brought to Morrissey Hall on December 21. If you know you are going to be out of town when gifts and baskets are due and you wish to take part, consider these options: (1) Ask a friend or family member to bring your gifts or food basket on the designated weekend; or (2) Arrange with us to donate gift certificates (i.e. Walmart, Target) beforehand, which we will use to purchase any needed gifts or food. Directions are printed on each tag, but if you have any questions, please consult our parish website: www.stcletusparish.com/socialconcerns for answers to frequently asked questions, or contact Mary Beth at mford@stcletusparish.com or (708) 215-5418; or Maureen at (708) 839-0345. Thank you for your continuing generosity to the less fortunate in our community.

'TIS THE SEASON TO CONTINUE YOUR JOB SEARCH

Interfaith Career Network invites you to join us on Thursday, November 20, from 7-9:00 p.m. for our last meeting of 2014. Our speaker, Jim Fergle, will provide a special presentation to help you deal with the opportunities of a job search during the holidays. Jim's topic, Why I Believe in Santa Claus, is a semi-autobiographical story about several of his own holiday - job searches coupled with stories of successful job seeker events during a season of hope and anticipation. Some of you may know Jim through his management of Employment Services at WorkNet DuPage Career Center. Additionally, Jim has trained hundreds of job seekers in career exploration and job search techniques; he has also held positions as veterans counselor, career counselor and trainer. Start this holiday season off on a positive note! Join us at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5005 South Wolf Road in Western Springs. This program is open to all and there is no cost to attend.

Poverty

Picture hunger. What do you see? Famished people in Africa? Sweatshop workers in India? Families subject to violence in Venezuela? Think again. Poverty and hunger are closer than they may seem.

In efforts to combat the threats that hunger and poverty pose in the United States, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) works to empower the poor through self-help programs. They fund organizations in your neighborhood including Progress Center for Independent Living, an organization that works to build a society in which people with disabilities shall have the same freedoms, rights, and civil liberties.

This November 22/23, join the millions of generous Chicagoans and support the Capital Campaign for Human Development to help fund remarkable organizations.

Please visit www.ChicagoPeaceAndJustice.org/CCHD for more information.

Support the Collection for the CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Next weekend's (11-22/23) Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty in the United States by funding organizations that help people help themselves. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations, and economic development CCHD continues to make a positive impact on communities nationwide. Your contribution will defend human dignity and help those living on the margins of our society. Please give to the CCHD Collection next weekend.

ST. CLETUS HOLY NAME

Thank you so much for your support for the Hank Maday Turkey Raffle. The lucky number was 8. Turkeys may be picked up between 2-4:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 23, in Morrissey Hall.

Entrust

© Shutterstock

As we gather around the bedside of our dying loved ones, we entrust them to the Lord. We can do no more. At some point, although medicine can offer some comfort, it can no longer keep them alive. We face within ourselves and in our loved ones the poverty and dependence that has always marked our lives, even when we have not been conscious of it.

Now, we entrust them to God, to the saints, and to the angels. And when we do so, we acknowledge that we belong to a great communion of holy men and women and of spirits who serve the living God. What seems to be the most solitary, the loneliest moment of our lives, when we are dying, is rather a time of communion and connection. The whole Church in heaven and on earth gathers. The whole Church in this moment of entrustment is our great sacrament of communion in the Lord.

2nd Grade Collects Pop Tops To Help Kids

Second grade chose Ronald McDonald House as their service project this year because they wanted to do something with children and this organization helps entire families through difficult times.

The children love collecting pop tabs and explaining their service project to their extended family members. If you would like to donate your pop tabs, please drop off them off in a container or bag to the school office or either second-grade classroom.

Crushing Cans For St. Vincent De Paul Society

Collecting and crushing cans has been a tradition in the 5th grade for many years since promoting recycling began. Students worked with Mrs. Ford and picked our parish's St. Vincent De Paul Society to receive our donations that come from recycling. This service project helps students realize that something as simple as recycling cans can not only help the environment but also those in need.

The students love to use our can crusher—the more cans, the better! Anyone one can bring in cans and the 5th grade will happily handle the crushing.

St. Cletus in Washington DC to accept the National Blue Ribbon School award for Academic Excellence

School President Jolene Hillgoth and 4th-grade teacher Lauren Lewandowski traveled to Washington D.C. this week to accept the National Blue Ribbon School award for academic excellence and a flag on behalf of St. Cletus School. Ms. Lewandowski was instrumental in leading the team that put together our submission.

The National Blue Ribbon School award affirms the hard work of students, educators, families, and communities in creating safe and welcoming schools where students master challenging content. The National Blue Ribbon School flag gracing the school entry is a widely recognized symbol of exemplary teaching and learning.
