GOD'S WORD TODAY

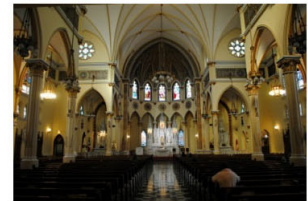

Easter changes everything. Listen carefully to today's Gospel passage, and notice the fact that this account includes Jesus breathing on his disciples. The same Greek word for breathing used in this passage also appears at the very beginning of the Bible. There, in Genesis, the Lord God breathes upon Adam, giving him life. In the Gospel passage, through this act of breathing on the disciples, the risen Jesus gives them new life. What does new life in the resurrected Christ look like? We need only look at the first reading to discover what a community of believers acts like when its members are living lives in the risen Christ. As we prepare to listen to the scriptures, let us pray that the breath of God will fill us with new life and help us live like the early Christian communities, when there was no needy person among them.

VISIT OF THE SEVEN CHURCHES

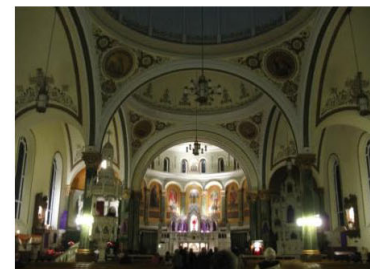

Holy Thursday at St. Cletus Parish was special this year! Not only did we have the always beautiful liturgy, we also had the opportunity to visit other stunning Catholic churches in the Chicago and Cicero areas. In our mini-pilgrimage, Fr. Edgar and 33 more parishioners, followed in the ancient tradition of the Visiting of Seven Churches. This tradition calls us to visit seven churches to show solidarity with Jesus as He contemplates the events that await Him on Good Friday.

Right after Holy Thursday Mass, we took a bus and set out towards Cicero, IL, our first stop, where we visited St. Mary of Czestochowa Church. This parish was founded as a Polish parish in 1895. It is a prime example of the so-called 'Polish Cathedral style' of churches in both its opulence and grand scale. The church is well known as the site where Al Capone's sister Mafalda married in 1930. Fr. Waldemar Wieladek, its pastor, welcomed us warmly and kindly showed us around.

We left St. Mary of Czestochowa in route to St. Jerome Croatian in Chicago. This church is also a historic church of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The parish's original church and rectory were purchased from German Protestants. It was blessed and opened its doors for public worship on December 5, 1912. The style of the church is not very common. In an effort to expand the church, balconies were constructed to accommodate more of the faithful. A group of parishioners welcomed us and described for us some of the most important features in the church.

Our third stop was St. Mary of Perpetual Help, which was seven minutes away from St. Jerome. St. Mary is, unquestionably, the most stunning church in the group. Founded in 1882 as a Polish parish, St. Mary of Perpetual Help remained a parish for Polish workers in the Union Stockyards until the yards closed in the early 1970s. In recent years the neighborhood has seen a growth in new housing and has seen an influx of new residents of many backgrounds and cultures. The church, designed by Henry Engelbert in a Romanesque-Byzantine style, was completed in 1889. The present pastor is Fr. Tom Aschenbrener and, along with Fr. Bart Juncer, a resident priest, proudly showed us around the recently restored church.

The last church we visited that night was St. Barbara's in Chicago. St. Barbara is three minutes away from St. Mary of Perpetual Help, and is another historic church of the Archdiocese of Chicago. It was founded in 1909 as a Polish parish to relieve overcrowding at St. Mary of Perpetual Help. The first pastor of St. Barbara was the brother of St. Mary's pastor at the time. Therefore, the birth of St. Barbara Catholic Church was known to be a family affair! It is one of the few octagonal houses of worship in the archdiocese. There are 25 stunning stained glass windows depicting the Gospel and the lives of the saints. The present pastor is Fr. Arthur Marat who was very attentive and, with a group of his parishioners, gave us brochures with information about the church's features.

Although we visited only 5 churches (counting St. Cletus), the experience was well worth the effort. We were so energized by it that, we wanted to continue visiting churches all night! But, of course, we wanted to bring everyone back before midnight, and we did!

We would like to thank, especially, Fr. Bob Clark for supporting this opportunity to visit the seven churches. Special thanks to the Holy Name Society, not only for sponsoring the transportation, but also for being there to assist, especially, its president Bill Wettstein, and secretary David Wendell. Many thanks to Roman Szabelski, chairman of the St. Cletus Capital Campaign, Living our Faith Building our Future, for his encouragement, his support, and help.

The event was a success in many fronts and we hope to be able to repeat it next year. Meanwhile, let us enjoy God's blessings during this Easter season, and the blessings that come through our beautiful parish: St. Cletus.

Fr. Edgar

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Send

©iStockPhoto.com

As each of the four Gospels ends, Jesus sends his disciples into the world. They are on a mission. They have a purpose. And that mission and purpose is to continue what he has begun. When we realize that Jesus sends not only his first disciples but us as well to continue his work as his disciples today, we stand amazed and overwhelmed by the scope of our calling. But we are not alone.

The Holy Spirit of Pentecost empowered the first disciples to begin their mission to carry the mission of Jesus to the ends of the earth. That same Holy Spirit enables us through the sacrament of Confirmation to take up and effectively fulfill the great task entrusted to us. The Lord Jesus truly sends us but not without the grace to fulfill our mission. He sends us, his confirmed disciples, in the Holy Spirit.

THERE'S STILL TIME TO RETURN YOUR CRS LENTEN RICE BOWL!

Did you discover you forgot to return your Rice Bowl after the flurry of Easter and Spring Break died down? Not to worry. You can still return it to the rectory during business hours this week. Also, thank you to those who have already done so. Look for the results of this year's Lenten Almsgiving effort in the Canticle within the next few weeks.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE!

Our clients continue to express their deep appreciation for the hope we give them each month as we provide supplemental groceries to help them make ends meet. Thank you for the large part you play in helping those struggling in our community.

- All non-perishables are greatly appreciated. Most needed staples include DRY PINTO BEANS, cereal, crackers, and paper goods.
- In addition to our staples, "special" items are also included in our monthly distributions: one or two items in each pre-packed family bag, and on the client choice "special table". Some favorites we are low on at this time are cleaning products, coffee, and juice. Remember to check expiration dates to avoid out-of-date goods, which we cannot use, unless they have just recently expired (within three months).
- Please drop off your donations when you come to Mass over the weekend, or daily from 7:45 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
- Special thanks to all those who volunteered to set-up for the April 9 distribution, and those who helped during evening distribution. You are AWESOME!

LIVING THE RISEN CHRIST

Saturday, April 18; 9:00 a.m.- Noon

Facilitator: Jack Shea

Last week was Easter Sunday. So Easter is over...or is it? The Gospel stories of the Risen Lord are not meant to be memories of something that happened in the past or assurances of a post-death existence in the future. They are revelations of a way of thinking and acting that are meant to give life and love into the present. But in order for that revelation to be received, we must ponder the symbols of the stories and test out their invitations in our experience. During our morning gathering, that is precisely what we intend to do.

Youth Ministry Update!

YOUTH MINISTRY VISION FORMATION

We invite anyone in the parish to join us for a conversation regarding the future of St. Cletus Youth Ministry! This includes teens and parents of teens, but we also would love to hear from parishioners who are young adults, parents of young children, parents of grown children, those who are retired, etc. Every voice counts! Join us as we form the vision for youth ministry and assess how we can use the resources already within the parish to shape a vibrant ministry for our high school teens! This discussion will take place Wednesday, April 22, from 6:30-8:00 p.m. in Room 201 of the Education Building.

TEEN ADVISORY BOARD

Thank you to those who came to the first Teen Advisory Board! We had a great discussion sharing ideas for the hopes of the St. Cletus Youth Ministry and look forward to inviting anyone in the parish to join us on April 22, at 6:30 pm!

PRAYER GROUP FORMING FOR PARENTS OF TEENS

Our next Prayer for Parents of Teens will take place April 14, at 10:00 a.m. in Room 200 in the Education Building.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to all those who supported the Youth Ministry Mission Trip by purchasing candy bars during Palm Sunday weekend! We are getting closer to our fundraising goal! And a BIG thank you also to the teens who gave their time not only to sell candy bars but also to serve at the Holy Name Pancake Breakfast!!

MISSION TRIP

The next Formation meeting for those participating in the Summer Mission Trip will be Monday, April 20, at 7:00 p.m.!
