GOD'S WORD TODAY

Today's Gospel tells the story of the preparation of the place where Jesus and his disciples were to eat the Last Supper. During that meal, the new covenant in Christ's blood was established as an everlasting covenant that we celebrate to this day. Today is a good day to ask ourselves just how intentional we are when preparing to celebrate the Mass. All too often, our coming to this place becomes routine and the Mass seems to pass us by. What an opportunity we miss when this happens! When we celebrate the Eucharist, we are joined to Christ, proclaiming and participating in his death and sharing in the promise of his new life. The gift of today's solemnity gives us the chance to re-examine our own preparedness for Mass. As today's Gospel is proclaimed, let us remember that it is at the table of the Eucharist that we can truly find transformation. Here at this table we taste newness of life. FAREWELL TO FR. EDGAR

It very hard to believe that Fr. Edgar's seven year term with us here at St. Cletus Parish is coming to an end. Fr. Edgar will begin his new assignment on July 1, at Christ the King Parish in Chicago.

To show our appreciation we will celebrate his years with us at a thank you celebration to be held on Sunday, June 28, 2015 at 12:00 p.m. (Noon) under the tent in front of school. Please come and thank him for his priestly ministry and wish him well at his new assignment.

NOTES FROM FATHER BOB...

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI 2015

People cannot match God for faithfulness; the Covenant was constantly breached. And so Jesus came, God's own Son. The Law became a person, obedience became a relational response to a person, and the rule became love. The writer of the letter to the Hebrews deliberately describes the work of Christ as renewing, even replacing the old Covenant between God and people. The New Covenant is the person of Christ. This brings us to consider the first day of Unleavened Bread.

God's new covenant with people has gradually unfolded in the person and teaching of Christ. He is revealed as Savior in his ministry of healing, teaching and forgiving. But the old Covenant is still in place, and people are still bound by the Law. Jesus re-states the Law, showing its heart of love. He points out that the two greatest commandments are loving God and loving neighbor, and lives these commandments to the full. He spends his final hours on earth fulfilling, in his obedience, the Old Covenant, and putting in its place the New. Only he could fulfill the demands of the Law perfectly, and so only he could bring the New Covenant into being. And only his blood could seal it.

In the upper room, Jesus took bread and wine and used them to announce his own death, and the salvation it would bring. Ever after, bread and wine, broken and poured out in his memory, would be a sign of the New Covenant between God and his people. Christ made the one, perfect offering to the Father, and enables us to share in that offering. We have nothing else to offer the Father; we could have nothing else to offer. In the Eucharist we associate ourselves with the ultimate offering, Christ himself.

But the Eucharist is not a morbid proclamation of the sacrifice of Christ; it is a celebration of a sacrifice unto death, which brought and brings only life. The Law alone was not enough – we cannot relate to law. But when Christ himself became the sign of the Covenant, we entered into a personal, dynamic relationship with him who is our salvation.

In our Eucharist, bread and wine are signs of the New Covenant. They are signs of Christ who is the Covenant, and signs of the blood by which he sealed the Covenant. This has profound implications for us who gather around the table of the Lord to share this bread and wine. We are not people under the obligation of law; rather, we are people in a covenant relationship with God. This means that external obedience is of no importance. Obedience of the heart is what is crucial. Our commitment to the commandments of love will be manifest in our lives, and so our behavior is renewed from the inside to the outside.

Our sharing the bread and wine is a celebration and a demonstration that we are not individuals with private contracts with God, but we are a people who share a Covenant with God. Our living of the Covenant is not private, but social; it is something we do together, with each other. We become what we celebrate: the Body of Christ, the presence of Christ in the world, and we pour out our lives in service of God and of our neighbor.

Blessings of Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist,

*Father Bob
Pastor*

YEAR OF SACRAMENTS • ONE WORD AT A TIME

Bless

An essential work of priests is to bless.

What exactly does this blessing mean? In the first place, priests of God bless God. They acknowledge the great and good things that God has done, especially our salvation in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. Priests remind us, in other words, that we live in a world of grace, a world blessed by God.

Priests also bless the people of God and some objects as well. In blessing people and objects, priests invoke or call on God to be present. They ask that God would be present to his people so that they can be healed and find strength for their journey. They ask God to bless the objects that are used to stir the devotion of people as they pray and remember the Lord and his saints. In all their blessings, priests remind us of the holiness of God, a holiness God shares with us, his sons and daughters.

200 Elderly Retired Chicago Priests Depend on You

Please consider Chicago's Archdiocesan retired priests in your will

And We Still Depend on Them

Increasing costs for care facilities, prescription drugs, hospitalization and pension benefits all contribute to the fact that retired Chicago Archdiocesan priests needed almost $7 million in 2014.

Is there any good news? Yes, at least 100 priests who are able, help out each weekend in priest-short parishes. Some take over priestless parishes until a pastor can be found. Retired priests also often preside at baptisms, weddings and funerals of old friends and past parishioners.

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATE!

SERVICE OUTING

On Friday, May 1, two St. Cletus teens responded to a need at Eve Assisted Living in Hinsdale by organizing a small group of classmates to perform music for the residents. Kelly Czarny and Caroline Spitkovsky joined efforts to recruit fellow bandmates and organized a small program to entertain the residents through a variety of music. The residents thoroughly enjoyed it, and the teens graciously and selflessly shared their talents in a way that brought much joy to others. Thank you!!

Hope Out of Darkness

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me..”(Matthew 25:35)

“We ask Catholics and others of good will to help meet the material, social and spiritual needs of families separated from loved ones by detention...and to work steadfastly to reform the laws that undergird the US immigrant detention system.”~(USCCB Committee on Migration, Unlocking Human Dignity: A Plan to Transform the U.S. Immigrant Detention System, 2015)

The division of families and immigrant detention of non-criminal family members undermines our family values and traumatizes children separated from their parents. Together we can support legislation that respects families promotes solidarity among our communities.

ACTIONS: Pray for the immigrant separated from families due to detention, especially the children. Call the White House at 855-589-5698 and ask for an end to family detention.

Once a Cardinal Always a Cardinal!

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation. He offers us the chance to drink from His cup. In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and, if we listen to Him, we know what drinking from His cup means for each of us. Often, it means our own sacrifice—giving up some of our time, talent and treasure to do His work on earth.
