Notes from Fr. Bob...

5TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Spring is a time of surprises. Snowdrops begin to appear from the dark earth and soon the daffodils sprout. A change begins to take place. The branches which appeared dark and dead during the winter months begin to show new life. Light green foliage cloaks the trees and the bushes. Seeds which seemed lifeless germinate, and potatoes which appeared to be rotting begin to grow. A sense of hope arises as the days lengthen. All of these events illustrate that change and renewal are part of life.

The same cycle can be seen in the recovery from illness. Lying on the bed suffering from the aches of flu, one feels lifeless and there is no enjoyment. Food loses its taste and the days seem endless. Sometimes people wish they were dead. Recovery marks a change, new strength emerges and slowly the body heals. Life returns. Health, which can so easily be taken for granted, acquires a new meaning.

Many modern churches have replaced the traditional crucifix showing the suffering Christ with a cross showing the risen Christ or the Christ in Glory. The account of the passion in St. Mark's gospel corresponds to the crucifix of the suffering Christ, while St. John's gospel, which we hear today, reveals the Christ of Glory. Both images are important if we want to understand the meaning of the cross and resurrection. We should not over-emphasize one aspect, either suffering or resurrection, and lose the other dimension of the mystery.

Transformation is the theme of the readings this Sunday. In the first reading, new life and a restored homeland are promised to the Jewish people in exile. The prophet Jeremiah speaks of God renewing the heart. God promises a new covenant to his people in which he will write his law on their hearts. The heart for the Jews meant the core of the personality. God is present to each human person and speaks deep within.

Jeremiah's words, however, gives even more reason to rejoice. God promises that not only will he forgive the people's $\sin$; he will forget it and never call it to mind. God will remember only the good that people do.
Jesus' death is also a transformation. He speaks of it in terms of a wheat grain falling into the ground. It appears to die but, after a period of time, brings forth a new harvest. The pattern of winter being followed by spring helps us to understand this cycle. What appears to be death is in fact preparing for a new beginning. The promise of Jesus is that his death will be the opening to a life of glory, the life of heaven and a union of love with the Father. Whilst we can see the changes in the bulbs, the seeds and the trees, only through faith can we trust in the resurrection, when those who have died will be united with Christ for ever.

St. John presents the glorification of Jesus on the cross as the triumph over death and suffering. However, the pathway to this glory is agonizing. The Letter to the Hebrews speaks of the suffering of Jesus, when he prayed aloud and in silent tears. His time in the Garden of Gethsemane was one of anguish. He trusted still, but at times God must have seemed distant.

As we approach the celebration of Palm Sunday and Holy Week, the readings offer hope. Death has been conquered by the death of Jesus and his resurrection. But the crucifix reminds us that Jesus knew suffering. His anguish in prayer reminds us that God hears our own prayer. How often people cry out to God. Why has my husband been diagnosed with cancer? Why has my child died? These prayers from the heart echo Jesus' prayer on the cross: "My God, why have you forsaken me?" To those who suffer physical or mental pain, and bear it in silent tears, the promise of the Gospel is that God hears their prayer.
Looking at nature and rejoicing in the gift of creation can help us believe in the resurrection. The new growth around us reminds us that change happens. The crucifix of St. Mark's gospel leads to the cross of the Christ of Glory in St. John's gospel.

Holy Thursday Visit of the Seven Churches

On March 29th, right after Holy Thursday Mass we will be visiting churches following the ancient tradition of "The Visit of the Seven Churches." This tradition originated in Rome. It was the custom for the faithful of the Early Church to visit the seven major basilicas as penance. The tradition today calls us to accompany Jesus in his agony by visiting seven Catholic churches and, for an indulgence, to pray for the intentions of the Pope.
St. Cletus Parish will take part with our own parish and then visit 4 additional churches.
The remaining churches are for you to visit on your own if you wish to do so.
A bus(es) will be waiting outside St. Cletus after our 7:30 p.m. Holy Thursday Mass.
If you plan to join us, please contact the rectory at (708) 352-6209 to ensure we have adequate transportation. Thank you.
The parish would like to thank our Holy Name Society for sponsoring the transportation cost of this event.

LENTEN OUTREACH - ENCOUNTER ALEFA

We encounter ALEFA IN Malawi, where seeds are helping her family survive an uncertain climate. How can you care for God's creation this Lent? How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities?
Members of the Nkhombedzi Rice Scheme take a break to sing a dance. Chikwawa District in Malawi has battled a long history of food insecurity due to drought, most recently during the 2015 growing season. CRS's Diversification for Nutrition and Enhanced Resilience (DiNER) Fair program offers subsidized agricultural vouchers to beneficiaries to use to purchase droughtresistant seeds. The vendors also benefit by having a place in which to reliably sell their goods. These fairs help beneficiaries gain the ability to plant staple crops in the upcoming agricultural season, as well as encourage improved agricultural practices that build resilience to future shocks.

Alefa attended the first CRS DiNER Fair in her village and chose to buy two bags of hybrid maize seed, cabbage, rabe, Chinese cabbage and tomato seeds. In 2015, several of Alefa's crops (common beans, sesame and rice) failed due to the drought. She had no peace of mind and was worried about money and food for her family. She had to sell part of her land and bought rice seed with the money. Not as many people grow rice, so she can get more money from selling it. Last year she harvested 36 bags of maize and sold 10 , which helped her to send her children to school. The harvest from the seeds she purchased at the DiNER Fair will help with school costs as well. Visit crsricebowl.org for more.
*Please note, Rice Bowls are due back next weekend, March 24-25. They can be dropped at the bins near the door, in the collection basket, or at the Parish Center. Thank you for your generosity!

GOOD FRIDAY WALK FOR JUSTICE

Friday, March 30, $201812 \mathrm{pm}-3: 00 \mathrm{pm}$. Gather at the corner of Michigan Ave. \& Congress Pkwy.
"Justice is what love looks like in public," a quote by Cornel West, has been at the heart of why 8th Day Center created the public witness of its annual Good Friday Walk for Justice 38 years ago. This will be the last year the Center hosts its modern day Way-of-the-Cross.

We will revisit the issues and prayers used in previous walks, and connect those issues of the past to our current reality. We invite the walkers to reflect on how the same unjust systems and power imbalances contribute to our experiences today. What will our love look like in the future? Please join us for this holy act of love-to remember, to resist, and to be in solidarity with those working to dismantle unjust structures. Contact 8thdaycenter.org or 312-641-5151 for more info.

The Fifth Sunday of Lent

SAVED BY GOD'S LOVE

Because the people broke the old covenant, God promised a new covenant, not in the blood of oxen and other animals, but in the blood of the Son, Jesus Christ. This new covenant, foreseen from afar by Jeremiah and the prophets, was not to be engraved on stone, or written on paper, but carved on our hearts, so that we might know God intimately. Not by keeping many laws are we to be saved, but by the love of God, living and real in our hearts through the sacrifice of Christ.

Our Eucharist is the pledge of that indwelling of Christ, and of our response of praise and thanksgiving to God for the mercy, love, and kindness shown to us in forgiving our sins and cleansing our hearts of everything evil. God issues this invitation to intimacy by offering us the chance to have our sufferings transformed into the perfect love of the Savior, who first loved us.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the next two weeks, as we hear of the interior anguish of Jesus, we are led to the Garden of Gethsemane, the scene of a night of suffering, failure, and loss. In Hebrew, the word means "olive press," and it was an olive grove, although only a few trees remain. Olives can't be eaten off the trees, they need to be curedknocked from the trees at harvest time, scooped into a stone basin, and cracked open by a heavy millstone. The crushing stone weight was itself called a "gethsemane," and once it was lowered onto the olives, oil from the fruit and the inner stone would drip into a groove and flow into jars. The night before his death, Jesus experienced such anguish that scripture says his own blood perspired from him, an image no one who understands olive oil production could miss.
Today, the Mount of Olives is within the city of Jerusalem and the site of the Church of All Nations, also known as the Basilica of the Agony. It was built in 1924, funded by Catholics in twelve different countries. An open-air altar on the grounds is used by Anglicans on Holy Thursday every year. Nearby is the Russian Church of Mary Magdalene, built by the czar in 1888, its magnificent golden domes a distinctive landmark. There is also another tiny Catholic Church, called Dominus Flevit, or "The Cry of the Lord," built in a teardrop shape in the mid-1950s. For centuries, the Franciscan order has had the care of the shrines of the Holy Land, and our Good Friday collection helps sustain these precious sites.

STATEMENT FROM CARDINAL CUPICH

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich on Governor Bruce Rauner's Veto March 14, 2018

The governor's decision to veto a bill that would have required firearms dealers to be licensed by the state is deeply disappointing. No one believes that this or any one bill can be a comprehensive solution to the plague of violence afflicting our nation, but licensing these dealers, would have been one step in the journey toward making our state safer. The incremental benefits of this and other legislation under consideration that limits the size of magazines, the availability of devices to make weapons automatic, and access to assault weapons, along with other proposals, will add up to lives saved. Our families and those who protect us should not be forced to endure more fear, anxiety and heartbreak on the premise that we have to wait for our elected officials to provide a "comprehensive" solution, all the while relegating our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness to second place.
The voices of children demanding action now cannot be ignored and it is up to the adult world to stand with them and the families devastated by loss by pressing our elected leaders to adopt laws, which might be less than comprehensive but are more than nothing.
