Notes from Fr. Bob...

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was panic in the airport because many flights had been cancelled. A slow-moving line of passengers were waiting to book on another plane. One man was getting increasingly annoyed at the long wait. Finally he marched to the counter and demanded a first-class ticket on the next available flight. "Sorry" said the girl at the counter "but I must serve the people in line by turn". The irate customer banged his fist on the counter: "Have you any idea who I am?" he roared. Without a moment's hesitation, the girl picked up the P.A. microphone and announced: "There's a gentleman here who does not know who he is. If anyone in the airport can identify him, please come to the counter." The people waiting in line burst into applause, while the line-jumper experienced one of the most embarrassing moments of his life.

In today's gospel Jesus tells a similar story and I suspect he does so with a smile. He shows that when people try to become the heavy, to give the impression of being far more important than others, they often come very unpleasantly noticed. He is at a banquet at the time and has noticed how some of the guests have been commandeering the "places of honor". From a common sense point of view it is an extremely foolish thing to do. Just imagine yourself ensconced on the top table and the embarrassment you would feel if your host had to explain that you were occupying someone else's place. Of course the converse is true: take the lowest place yourself and then there's every chance that your host will come along with the invitation "Friend, go up higher". And then you will win the admiration of all who are present.

I need hardly say that Jesus didn't come to give us lessons in etiquette, much less to show us how to get to the top by cunningly pretending we are worthy only of the lowest place. The gospel specifically says that he was using a parable. His purpose was to lead his hearers on towards a profound spiritual truth. He wanted to teach them-and us-the paramount importance of humility. Quite simply, "Everyone who exalts him (or her) self will be humbled" and "those who humble themselves will be exalted." The banquet he has in mind is the 'festival' of heaven, where, as our second reading explained, everyone is a first-born son or daughter of God. And among God's true children there is that utter honesty which is at the root of humility: honesty about self, which includes a recognition of gifts and talents, but also honesty about where the gifts and talents come from; in other words, a recognition that everything is sheer gift from God. It's an attitude beautifully summed up in Mary's prayer, the MAGNIFICAT. She boldly declares that "all generations will call me blessed", but equally boldly she insists: "he that is mighty hath done great things for me; holy is HIS name." I am blessed among all God's creatures, but to him (not

me) give the glory.

The truly humble don't pretend to know everything, they are aware of their limitations, they have respect for everyone. I suspect it was his patent humility that specially endeared Pope John XXIII to so many people. It shone in the gentle way he treated others: among the first engagements of his pontificate was a visit to the inmates of Rome's largest prison.

Jesus himself suggests that humility is linked with the way we treat other people, especially the marginalized; hospitality is to extend to those who are unable to offer a return invitation. He's not so much laying down a precise rule as posing a challenge. In God's eyes, we all belong to "the lowest place", we are all equally indebted to him for all we have and are, we are all in some way maimed or blind or lame. Our treatment of others, then, is a good indication of whether or not we are truly humble. If we are not, we don't know the truth about ourselves or about them. And without that basic knowledge, we are in a worse position than the irate man in the airport – we're suffering from a serious identity crisis.

Humble Blessings and Prayers Always,

Fr. Bob Clark

THANK YOU

Labor Day is traditionally the day to honor workers in the U.S. and more recently to unofficially mark the end of summer. What a most fitting time to celebrate those workers in our Social Concerns Ministry, who dedicate so many volunteer hours to "labor" for God's kingdom all year long, even during the long, hot summer. Whether you serve on the Social Concerns Commission, volunteer your service for the Food Pantry, the Greater Chicago Food Depository, the Giving Tree, Interfaith Career Network (Employment Ministry), the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Interfaith Community Partners, Respect Life, Mission Ladies, Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry, other special outreaches, or provide fruits of your "labor" by offering financial support, food for our Pantry, or gifts for our Advent Giving Tree outreach, a heartfelt thank you for being models of faith in action! May you and your loved ones have a safe and enjoyable Labor Day weekend!

HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue we don't see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn't been irritated by the "trolls" who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. "The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; [God] leads forth prisoners to prosperity."

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.

WORKERS

The workers are the saviors of society, the redeemers of the race.

—Eugene V. Debs

NO SURPRISES

We are told by all spiritual writers that one important point to bear in mind, as we seek to attain humility, is not to be surprised by our own faults and failures.

—François Fénelon

ROSARY HILL BIBLE STUDY

Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance

Mondays beginning September 23, 2019 at 7:00 pm. - 8:30 p.m. An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Jeff Cavins (Presenter) and Thomas Smith. Paul's letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the Church—as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. It shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God's great love for us can transform our daily lives—if we allow it. Ephesians will enrich your faith—and show you how to live it out.
