INTRODUCTION

Coping with the death of a loved one or a close friend and the accompanying grief is heart wrenching for the survivors. During such an emotional time, it is hard to make decisions, and yet, there are necessary arrangements that must be made.

The Compassionate Care Ministry (CCM) of St. Cletus is here to offer support, comfort and love during this difficult time. As a Eucharistic community, we believe that each funeral service should reflect our faith in Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, as well as the life of the deceased, while meeting the needs of the family.

One of our CCM team members, a funeral planner, will meet with you to discuss the funeral service, help select Scripture readings and music, listen to your preferences, and be a liaison between the priest celebrant, the parish staff including the music director and choir.

The CCM will also provide support in the months after the funeral, including an invitation to our All Souls Day liturgy on November 2nd. Please know that our ministry and parish community are always here for you.

It is our hope that this booklet will be a helpful guide to you and your family while planning the funeral arrangements for your loved one.

FUNERAL MASS/SERVICE

The rituals and prayers surrounding death are a witness to the faith of the one who has died. They give comfort to the community of family, friends and associates who have surrounded the deceased during life. These rituals affirm and express solidarity between the living and the dead in the Communion of Saints.

The funeral liturgy is usually conducted by the priest within the context of a Mass. The funeral Mass is the perfect prayer through which the focus shifts from the ending of a life on earth to its beginning in eternity. A funeral Mass is customarily held in the parish church of the deceased or his/her family. A funeral liturgy outside of Mass, may take place at the funeral home, at a church or at a cemetery chapel, and is called a funeral service.

VIGIL SERVICE

At the wake, usually held the evening before the funeral mass or service, extended family members and friends gather to offer prayers, condolences and to visit with the bereaved family.

The Vigil Service, which is conducted during a wake, is often the first occasion among the funeral rites for the solemn reading of the Word of God. Early during the wake, a priest may meet with the family and pray with them. One of the members of the CCM, if requested, will lead people at the wake in the Catholic Vigil Prayers. We pray that the deceased may enjoy eternal life.

During the Vigil Service there is an opportunity for friends and family members to share words of comfort with one another.

SELECTING SCRIPTURES AND MUSIC

The following pages outline suggestions for the First Reading, the Second Reading, and the Prayers of the Faithful, which family and friends are invited to read. The funeral planner will guide you through these selections. The priest who will celebrate the mass will choose the Gospel.

Four hymns and a responsorial Psalm should be selected from the suggestions on pages 15-17. The funeral planner can discuss with you the most appropriate time in the Mass when each hymn might be used, but the final placement of the hymns in the liturgy will be determined by the parish Director of Music. The Director of Music will also be happy to assist you with requests for other hymns or musical instruments other than the piano. However, secular music such as Broadway or popular tunes are generally not permitted. Recorded music are not permitted.

SPEAKING IN REMEMBRANCE EULOGIES AT FUNERAL MASSES

Eulogies and personal remembrances have their place at the wake, but not in the funeral Mass itself. The Mass is offered for the forgiveness of sins and the salvation of the soul of the departed. However, at the discretion of the priest, a time for speaking in remembrance may be placed between the post-communion prayer and the commendation, toward the end of Mass. A family member or friend may say a word of thanks to those attending and speak about what the deceased meant to those who loved him/her. Because of emotions surrounding the funeral experience, the reflection should be written ahead of time. The words of remembrance should be limited to three minutes and submitted in writing, at least 24 hours prior to the funeral, to the priest who will celebrate the Mass.

FIRST READING SELECTIONS (C)

(C3) Wisdom 3:1-6, 9

The souls of the just are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall touch them.
They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.
But they are in peace.
For if in the eyes of men, indeed they be punished,
yet it is their hope full of immortality;
Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God has tried them
and found them worthy of himself.
As gold in the furnace, he proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself.
Those who trust in him shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with him in love.
Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones,
and his care is with his elect.

(C5) Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples
On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
The web that is woven over all nations;
He will destroy death forever.
The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from all faces;
The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.

On that day it will be said:
“Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the LORD for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11

There is an appointed time for everything,
and a time for every affair under the heavens.
A time to give birth, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to tear down, and a time to build.
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

What advantage has the worker from his toil?

I have considered the task which God has appointed for men to be busied about. He has made everything appropriate to its time, and has put the time into their hearts, without men's ever discovering, from the beginning to end, the work God has done.

Proverbs 31:10a, 13-22, 25-31

Who can find a woman of worth? Far beyond jewels is her value. She seeks out wool and flax and weaves with skillful hands. Like a merchant fleet, she secures her provisions from afar. She rises while it is still night, and distributes food to her household. She picks out a field and acquires it; from her earnings she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength; she exerts her arms with vigor. She enjoys profits from her dealings; her lamp is never extinguished at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle.

She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. She is not concerned for her household when it snows – all her charges are doubly clothed. She makes her own coverlets; fine linen and purple are her clothing. She is clothed with strength and dignity, and laughs at the days to come. She opens her mouth in wisdom; kindly instruction is on her tongue. She watches over the affairs of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed: "Many are the women of proven worth, but you have excelled them all." Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Acclaim her for the work of her hand, and let her deeds praise her at the city gates.

Second Reading Selections (E)

(E5) Romans 8:31b-35, 37-39

Brothers and sisters: If God is for us, who can be against us? He did not spare his own son but handed him over for us all, will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn us?

It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish or distress or persecution or famine, or nakedness or peril or the sword?

No in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(E6) Romans 14:7-12

No one lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

For this is why Christ died and came to life, That he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why then do you judge your brother? Or you, why do you look down on your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God; for it is written:

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall give praise to God."

So then each of us shall give an accounting of himself to God.

(E11) Philippians 3:20-21

Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly bodies to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself.

(E12) 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God will come down from heaven, And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

(E15) 1 John 3:14-16

We know that we have passed from death to life because we love our brothers and sisters. Whoever does not love remains in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him. The way we came to know love was that Jesus laid down his life for us; so we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

2 Timothy 4:1-2, 6-8

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

For I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.

Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always. I shall say it again: rejoice!

Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, dear ones, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

(E10) 2 Corinthians 5:1, 6-10

Brothers and sisters: We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven.

We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

In addition to the previous selections, the following readings may be used.

- (E1) Romans 5:5-11 "Hope does not disappoint"
(E2) Romans 5:17-21 "If by the transgression of one"

Music Selections

ST. CLETUS PARISH FUNERAL MUSIC GUIDELINES/SUGGESTIONS

Revised July 30, 2019

Typically four hymns plus a Responsorial Psalm should be chosen by the family.

The following is a list of where, within the mass, music is appropriate:

Processional
Responsorial Psalm
Preparation of the Gifts
Communion
Recessional

While suggestions offered by the family and parish funeral planner will be honored whenever possible, final placement of the songs within the funeral liturgy will be determined by the parish Director of Music Ministries.

Additional hymns possibly may be added as either a prelude, 2nd Communion Hymn (if a large attendance at the mass is expected) or a Communion Meditation (song to be sung only by the choir/soloist). The addition of a hymn beyond the required four (plus Psalm) is optional and not required.

In all instances liturgically appropriate music is to be selected. It is suggested that secular songs, near and dear to the deceased and the family, be incorporated into the visitation at the funeral home or after the mass, perhaps at the luncheon or family gathering.

The Music Ministry will make every effort to accommodate requests for other music not found on the following list of hymns, but may not always be able to accommodate a request due to liturgical guidelines, inability to secure the music, etc. Any questions, at any time, regarding the music for a funeral mass may be directed to:

Karen Ziemba, Director of Music Ministries, cell/708-710-0644, call/text or kziemba@stcletusparish.com
