Notes from Fr. Bob...

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Karl Rahner SJ, one of the great theologians of the last century, wrote many books in which he tried to make sense of the Catholic faith for his contemporaries. That's what a theologian has to do. Towards the end of his life he wrote an influential essay on the future of the Christian faith. It began with this provocative statement: "The Christian of the future will either be a 'mystic'...or...will cease to be anything at all."

Did he mean that we must all have visions like St. Teresa of Avila? Karl Rahner thought that the old Catholic culture that he had known as a boy was fast disappearing, eroded by an increasingly secular world. It meant that the average Christian could not depend on a Christian culture that everyone took for granted. So he thought that unless Christians had a deep and personal experience of God they would not be able to keep up the practice of their faith. That is all he meant by saying that each person needed to be a mystic. No matter how big the institutional Church seems to be, if its members do not have in them the life blood of a personal encounter with God, then it will wither away.

Jesus took for granted that his Jewish faith needed laws and institutions like the Temple if it was going to transmit its message to the next generation. And so he knew that his Church must be built on the rock of Peter; then God would preserve it from all its enemies. But in today's Gospel, he tells his disciples at the Last Supper that if they are to survive they must remain close to him. He takes the image of the vineyard, which was used to represent Israel in the Old Testament, and in a sense identifies himself with it by saying: I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser."

If the disciples are to survive then they must be branches of Jesus, the vine. And just as a vine is pruned to make it more fruitful, the disciples will also grow by being tested in their faith. Jesus tells them to remain close to him and have the living sap flowing in their branches, or else they will shrivel up. He insists that at the heart of their faith there is this close personal relationship with him: "Make your home in me, as I make mine in you." As they are united in Christ so they will be united through him to the Father. But this experience is not just for special members of the Church, like the apostles. The Spirit is given to everyone. All are called to have this "mystic" experience of being so close to Christ in their daily life that they produce good fruit.

It is easy to get carried along by externals. The Church is essential to our faith. We cannot say, as some do, that we want Jesus but not the Church. In the Creed we affirm our belief in Jesus Christ and also in "one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church." The institutional Church is a key part of our faith, but there is always the danger of just going through the motions and dying on the vine. The institution will shrivel unless its members have the sap of the living Christ flowing through them.

As Karl Rahner pointed out, it is much more difficult now to be carried along by other people's faith in a society that is both secular and often hostile to our beliefs. How can we produce the fruit that will show that Christ's Church is alive and well? We do not need to be mystics like some of the great saints, but to make sure our practice of the faith, whether it is going to Mass or saying our prayers, is firmly based on a close personal relationship with Jesus. We don't at first have to do anything but rather to be at peace in his presence, to allow him to dwell in us. Then we can share a deep communion with him as we receive his body and blood in the Eucharist. If we change the image from sap, we could say that his real presence in his blood gives us new life. If we do have this close relationship of the branch to the "true vine," then it will produce good fruits especially in the way we love God and one another.

Alleluia!

Pastor*

LETTER FROM GRACE BERGER - BIKING FOR BABIES

Dear Friends and Family,

I have been invited and chosen to be a part of such a movement with an organization called Biking for Babies. This will be my 2nd year riding with them, and I could not be more excited. The mission of Biking for Babies is to renew the Culture of Life, one pedal stroke and one pregnancy resource center at time, by increasing PRC awareness, raising financial and spiritual support, and forming young adults, like myself, into pro-life missionaries. This July, I have a special opportunity to travel across the country, from Columbus, OH to St. Louis, MO to bring awareness to centers across the country that help women who find themselves in crisis pregnancies. Donations can be made online at www.bikingforbabies.com; or make checks payable to "Biking for Babies," with my name in the memo line. If you are unable to donate at this time, I ask for your prayers as I travel on this mission, especially on the hills, and for the mothers and babies I ride for.

Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely in Christ, Grace V. Berger

Join us on Thursday, May 20 from 7:00-8:30 via Zoom. We all know a job search is tough and it's really tough to Keep On, Keepin' On in the middle of Covid and no response from the recruiter who promised to contact you within two days, eight days ago! But you can do it! Our speaker, Conor Cunneen will provide you with down to earth, implementable AND memorable concepts to help you Keep On, Keepin' On. This is a program that WILL help you feel better about yourself during the job search...and more confident during the interview. Connor will also specifically address the issue that no corporate entity admits exists, yet every boomer has to address - Ageism. Conor is a recipient of the President's Gold Medal for Volunteer Service for the work he does with those in a job search; also a Chicago Humerous Speaker of the Year, so you can be assured of a fun, yet meaningful and helpful presentation. Connor has presented on many occasions to ICN to genuinely rave reviews. Don't miss this one!

PRAY THE ROSARY TODAY AT 2:00

The Living Rosary is hosting an AT HOME joint recitation of the Rosary in honor of Mary during May. We cannot gather over the weekend at church yet but this way we can unite our prayers and praise. So at 2:00 TODAY, AT HOME, pray as many of the 20 decades as you can. Mary will welcome our prayers and hear our intentions.

We will continue to meet each Wednesday at 1:00 in the church to pray one set of mysteries together. You can sign up on the St. Cletus website or just come and sign in when you arrive. Joining our prayers together, whether we are physically present at church or spiritually together from our homes, is a very moving gift of love and faith, placing ourselves and our intentions in Mary's care. God bless and keep us all in these difficult times.

If you would like further information on the Living Rosary, call Mary Lu Gebka at 630-430-3338 or stop by on Wednesdays at 1:00.

SURVEY REQUEST - COLLEEN HAGEN

We are all looking forward to the end of this crisis, this pandemic, and a return to normal. There is a good chance that the “new” normal will be different from the normal we, and the rest of the world, were used to. The new normal for the parish will include a new pastor in July and beginning the Renew My Church process. Lots of change, but change can also be opportunity. So as not to go forward blindly but to proceed with intention and direction, it is better to ask people what they are thinking and not assume what people want. A survey is being sent out by email to obtain information about the state of the parish and the state of mind of the parish community. If you do not receive the email or wish to fill out a paper copy, please call the parish office or ask a greeter when you come for mass. Thank you in advance for your help. Colleen Hagen

SCCW

Hello CCW members! We continue to miss all of you but wanted to make sure we send out one more message to stay close this Mother's Day. Check your mailbox or front door during the week of May 3-7 for a little envelope from your CCW board. Hopefully we will be able to meet in person in the near future. In the meantime bless your month of Mary, with joy & good health!

BULLETIN ARTICLE SUBMISSIONS

Please note that all Canticle articles are to be emailed to canticle@stcletusparish.com as text with pictures attached separately. All articles are due 5p.m. Friday a full week (9 days) before Sunday's publication.

Religious Education

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION?

This week's Gospel from John continues with the I AM statements of Jesus. This week we hear him say, "I am the true vine." He was trying to help us understand the value of being connected to him by faith. Helping children understand this statement can be challenging, because many of them have never seen a grapevine in person. Maybe a simple way of helping them to understand this is to talk about a lamp in your home. A lamp cannot give out light unless it is connected to a power source. It needs to be "plugged in" in order to work properly and provide light to those who need it. Similarly, we need to be "plugged in" or "connected" to Jesus in order to live properly and be a light to the world.

This is our second weekend of First Communion Masses. We are so blessed to have 100 children celebrate with us, for the first time, at the Table of the Lord. Another of Jesus' I AM statements is "I am the Bread of Life". This bread of life discourse focuses on Jesus as true and complete gift to us. In the Eucharist, Jesus is food and drink for the world. As we receive this gift, we in turn become food and drink for the world. As Jesus gives himself to us, so we must in turn give ourselves away to our neighbor and to the world. That's the crazy thing about love, the more we give, the more we are filled with love. I pray that our children always approach the Eucharist with the same wonder and awe that they did on their First Communion day, each day that they come to Mass. May we, as adults, receive this Eucharistic gift and then become the gift to others. Please continue to pray for all of our First Communicants that they always remain this close to Jesus, and that they continue to join us at the table each week.

Parents Prayer for our Children

Father, you give each one of us a special life and love in our families.

It is through the experience of sharing and growing together that we deepen our experience of you.

As we join with our children in this time of preparation before they celebrate the Sacrament of Eucharist for the first time, we ask You to be with us in the power and gift of Your Spirit.
We ask you to encourage all of us to be aware of the wonder of Your Sacramental gift and to deepen our union with You and with one another in and through Jesus, Your Son.

Amen.

Children Celebrating First Eucharist

Please pray for these children who will join us at the Table of the Lord for the first time on April 24th, May 1st and May 2nd. May God bless them on their First Communion day, and every day.

BEARING FRUIT

Few of us, even when we meditate on the image of the vine and branches, stop to really think about how God “prunes” us. For some there is the danger of thinking that we are already producing fruit for the kingdom, in deed and truth as John says, perhaps raising a family, being active in our parish, and so on. But even those branches which are bearing fruit, the Gospel tells us, can be pruned to produce still more. Today Saul, freshly “pruned” by his conversion, arrives in Jerusalem and meets resistance. Since he had been persecuting Christians, this was only natural. But even after he is accepted and begins to bear fruit, he meets further adversity, and his letters are filled with many accounts of how his trials “pruned” him to produce greater fruit for the kingdom. Like him, as long as we remain in Christ we will continue to bear fruit and, when the will of the Father determines it is time to prune us, the strength of the true vine must enable us to endure it.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Homily - The ambo, or pulpit, is a special place—it is the place for God's word. That is why it is not used for all the spoken words of the Mass, even important words like the collects and the blessing. The ambo is only used for the scripture readings, and for the homily and the prayer of the faithful.

The homily is part of the Liturgy of the Word. It flows from the readings we have just heard, and helps us to understand the way in which God is speaking to us today. The homily is not a lecture, a catechism lesson, or a speech. It is more like an exhortation; it has an urgency about it, for it calls us to find ourselves in the scripture, to live the faith we profess, to see our world by the light of the Gospel. The homily, in itself a response to God's word, demands a response from us. There are many styles of preaching and many ways to respond to the scriptures. But whether the homily is weak or strong, an open ear and an open heart can find in it an abundance of spiritual nourishment.
