SCHOOL MASS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 31

On Tuesday, August 31, we will be celebrating a Mass of the Holy Spirit for our school students. All parishioners are invited to join us. As this is the first school Mass of the academic year, we will do our best to begin by 8:00am, however, a little flexibility may be needed.

We will have school Masses each Tuesday through the academic year when school is in session. We are blessed to have 340 students this year and we ask that adult parishioners who do attend on Tuesday mornings to sit behind the pew break in church to allow the children to sit as close to the front as possible.

Thank you for your flexibility and understanding.

A Note from Fr. Elmer

Dear Friends,

I am happy to share some news with you today.

In addition to the work completed in my living quarters, we also had some wall repairs and bathroom work in Fr. Dan Costello's quarters. He lives in the northwest corner upstairs in the rectory and that part of the building requires some tuck-pointing as well, as evidenced by the condition of the interior walls in his rooms. As with most of the windows in the rectory, there is water damage around his windows as well which we will need to take care of when the windows are replaced. I know Fr. Dan is very grateful to you for making the necessary repairs and updates to help him feel at home in his rectory quarters. I am sure you realize how important it is to maintain our facilities as best we can to be good stewards of the whole parish complex. Below you will see details about the work completed for which we paid $16,500.00. Thank you for your generosity.

The desire to keep enhancing our parish landscaping and gardens is growing. Last Sunday after our 12:30 PM Mass I had a very good meeting with a group of men who want to help us with the upkeep of our parish gardens. They are in the business of landscaping and want to share their time and experiences with us. At the meeting Elias Lopez was chosen as the leader of this new team. He will coordinate with Mary Delaney and Tom Reisel, leaders of our existing weeding team. I am so grateful for their initiative and generosity. Please keep them in your prayers.

On Monday, August 16, 2021, I joined our St. Cletus School Administrators, Faculty, and Staff for a "Day of Reflection, Prayer, Fraternity, and Growth" which took place at Mundelein Seminary. We had a wonderful day together. Our presenters, Fr. John Lodge and Dr. Paul Hilliard, did a great job in sharing their knowledge about the Catholic faith. They both inspired and encouraged us to appreciate and share our faith with confidence. For more details about our day together I am sharing with you our schedule on the next page.

With gratitude I share with you two reflections I received from our school faculty who attended our day of Reflection at Mundelein Seminary.

"Today was FANTASTIC! I was so glad that I rearranged my schedule so that I could attend.

My original intent to attend the Mundelein event was driven by my desire to hear what the teachers were going to hear and to also begin to establish, even in just a small way, some relationships with the new teachers. My expectations were totally underestimated. The new knowledge I received from the two presentations was astonishing. Both Fr. John and Dr. Hilliard are excellent presenters; to say they are well versed in their areas of expertise is an understatement. Driving home I was mentally thinking I now had even more enthusiasm for the coming year. I particularly thought that the emphasis on God's Grace was so positive and encouraging. The day's agenda was perfect, it was paced very well and provided a variety of experiences; the campus tour was also so enlightening! It was truly a great opportunity and I'm so glad I was able to be part of it!"

"While getting to experience all of the rich cultural and historical elements of our Catholic heritage, particularly as it pertains to the Chicago-area, I was reminded of how my Catholic faith was passed down to me by my parents and grandparents. Through their beliefs, disciplines, and actions, my upbringing as a Catholic has led me to my vocations as a Catholic school teacher, husband, and father."

We give thanks to God for the way He continues to walk with us.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH

Here's my secret - "I am a married man with four great children. My story, too, is very hard to tell. My wife and I had a picture-book wedding, we were so in love. The babies started coming pretty fast. I was working very hard to keep up with the expenses and my wife was getting a little bogged down with all the child-care and laundry. But she is a good mother. After baby number three she said she'd had it. We used a more reliable kind of birth control and were able to keep the fourth from coming so soon. But with the fourth baby she had a lot of problems, and he had to be born by C-section. The recovery was hard, especially since no family members could come to help out. I took as much time off work as I dared, but it wasn't enough. Gina began getting more and more crabby. Seems like she hated the children and me. Finally she began sniping at me all the time. Before I knew it, she started throwing things at me. Not little things, either. I know this sounds like a cartoon of the beleaguered husband and his shrewish wife, but she means business. She has hurt me badly, but I NEVER seek medical help because I am so ashamed. Imagine, a husband that lets his wife abuse him...."

MYTH: Men do not get abused by women.

FACT: Women can be violent in relationships also. Approximately 8% of men experience Domestic Violence in their lifetimes.

You are not alone! In an emergency, dial 911 or call the National Domestic Violence 24-Hour Hotline at 800-799-7233.

WORD OF LIFE

"God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives."

DON'T QUIT! THE BEST IS YET TO COME!

Do you remember when your children were very young, and first beginning to learn to walk? That was a challenging and exciting time for you both! If walking was easy to do, your child would have been walking around an hour or so after being born. Instead, it took 9 – 13 months before your child took their first steps. But they didn't stop there, did they? Learning to walk also comes with many falls and failed attempts. Walking isn't easy. But when your child fell, did you just give up on helping them to learn to walk? Did you both stop trying? No, of course not! You both kept trying. You encouraged your child to continue to try to take those first wobbly steps, and then encouraged them to take more until they had mastered it. Now your child is not only walking, but most likely running, skipping, jumping and maybe even walking backwards! That is all very impressive learning – because you didn't give up!

In today's Gospel story, we hear about Jesus teaching his disciples what it means to follow him. After listening to Jesus, some of the disciples tell him, "This is hard. Who can accept it?" After that, they quit following Jesus, and returned to their previous way of life. Can you believe that? They actually stopped being Jesus' disciples. But not ALL of Jesus' disciples quit – the original twelve apostles stayed. They stayed because they knew that Jesus had the words of eternal life, and that he was God. He was "the real deal".

Today's Gospel is a good reminder to us to think about why we choose to keep following Jesus. Just like you and your child didn't give up learning how to walk because you knew walking was worth the challenge to learn, the apostles didn't give up on following Jesus because they knew what he was teaching was worth learning and living. We know how the story continues... the apostles were right to not give up on Jesus, no matter how challenging it got. With the Holy Spirit's help, they went on to heal others, teach others, evangelize others, and even have their own disciples like Jesus did. Sometimes following Jesus is difficult and challenging, but it is always worth it. When we allow Jesus in as the center of our lives, really good things happen in our lives.

A helpful video on teaching children about the Real Presence of the Eucharist can be found on YouTube at this link: <https://youtu.be/JYkvjq6pG1Y>. The video is called Catholic Kids Media - What is "Real Presence"? 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time cycle B, and is two minutes long.
