Notice from the Archdiocese of Chicago

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

ONE IN CHRIST

Brotherhood. Diversity. Gratitude.

Priests' Convocation
June 18-21, 2018

Priests serving in the Archdiocese of Chicago will gather for their triennial convocation from June 18 through June 21 to pray together, to renew and refresh their spirits and to reconnect to Jesus and to one another. This gathering is an important and necessary time of spiritual renewal for the priests, so that they can better serve the People of God. Under the theme of "One in Christ," the 2018 Convocation will provide the time for the Priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago to commune with one another and respond to Christ's prayer that we may all be one, focusing on brotherhood, diversity and gratitude.

The priests have been asked to clear their schedules, so that they can fully participate in this experience. Consequently, during those three days, there will be no weekday Masses celebrated. However, St. Cletus Parish will offer communion services at 8am each day. In cases of emergency, parishioners can contact our parish staff at 708-352-6209 who will make whatever referral is appropriate.

The people of the Archdiocese can support their priests in several ways. Their patient understanding of scheduling changes is very important. Even more important is the prayerful support they extend to priests who have prayed for them and with them. Please use the prayer to the right as a personal prayer or as a family prayer.

As the priests of the Archdiocese gather for their convocation know that they bring you and your families in their hearts to this important time of prayer and reflection.

Please be supportive in our priests' absence and pray for the success of our convocation. Thank you for your support.

No Weekday Masses June 19-21, 2018 Communion Services will be offered at 8:00 a.m.

18	19	20	21
8am Mass	No 8am Mass	No 8am Mass	No 8am Mass

Please offer the following prayer, as we approach the days of our convocation:

LORD JESUS CHRIST,
eternal High Priest, you offered yourself to the Father on the altar of the Cross and through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit gave your priestly people a share in your redeeming sacrifice.

Hear our prayer for all the priests of this Archdiocese of Chicago, especially as they gather in Convocation.

Grant that all who are ordained to the ministerial priesthood may be ever more conformed to you, the divine Master, the Good Shepherd.

May they preach the Gospel with pure heart and clear conscience.
Let them be shepherds according to your own Heart, single-minded in service to you and to the Church and shining examples of a holy, simple and joyful life.

Through the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, draw all priests and the flocks entrusted to their care to the fullness of eternal life where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

AMEN

PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Second Reading — We have an eternal dwelling from God, not made with hands (2 Corinthians 4:13 — 5:1).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop's point of view.

SECOND COLLECTION FOR RETIRED PRIESTS THIS WEEKEND

Rev. Daniel F. Sullivan, Rev. James W. Kim, Rev. William J. Finnegan, Rev. Joseph E. Auer

You can count on them.
Can they count on you?

Surely you've seen this coming. Retired priests have been helping out in priest-short parishes for years. Many are even taking over parishes again.

What some didn't see coming was the skyrocketing health and retirement costs for our over two hundred elderly priests.

You can count on them as long as they can walk and drive.
That's a promise.
