DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

#MaybeHeDoesntHitYou Highlights the Reality of Emotional Abuse

Abuse is not always just physical. Women took to twitter to share their experiences with emotional abuse. Abuse in a relationship isn't always physical. Powerfully underscoring that fact, writer and artist Zahira Kelly posted a string of tweets on May 1 detailing emotional abuse using the hashtag #MaybeHeDoesntHitYou. Her words sparked a Twitter campaign in which women shared apparent experiences of emotional abuse at the hands of a partner:

#MaybeHeDoesntHitYou but he compares you to other women, criticizes your body and constantly tells you, you aren't doing enough for him.

#MaybeHeDoesntHitYou but he manipulates you and threatens to commit suicide if you leave him.

#MaybeHeDoesntHitYou but you're embarrassed to tell ur friends what hes said to u because u know they'll ask "why are you still with him?"

#MaybeHeDoesntHityou but he tries to control who you talk to, where you go, what friends you can have, and acts like it's out of love.

Domestic violence and abuse encompasses not only physical violence, but emotional and psychological abuse as well.

Kelly told BBC, "abuse is often seen as very cut and dry, and only physical. For several years now on social media, on a daily basis I talk about many different forms of abuse and what they look like," she said.

www.usnews.com

In an emergency, dial 911, call the National Domestic Violence 24-Hour Hotline at 800-799-7233 or the local 24 hour hotline for Pillars, found in the purple box to the left.

You are not alone.

WORD OF LIFE

"Human dignity is the same for all human beings: when I trample on the dignity of another, I am trampling on my own."

— Pope Francis, "Message for the Lenten Brotherhood Campaign in Brazil." © 2014 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission. <https://goo.gl/JElrMo>

SOCIAL CONCERNS

As we celebrate America's Independence Day and the freedoms upon which our country was founded, it seems appropriate for us to also reflect on one of the seven key themes in Catholic Social Teaching*:

Rights and Responsibilities of All People

Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency—food and shelter, education and employment, healthcare and housing. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities – to one another, to our families, and to the larger society. Common good implies that social structures of society must be crafted in such a way that all people have the opportunity to participate and fulfill their basic human needs.

*“Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith. Its roots are in the Hebrew prophets who announced God's special love for the poor and called God's people to a covenant of love and justice. It is a teaching founded on the life and words of Jesus Christ, who came "to bring glad tidings to the poor . . . liberty to captives . . . recovery of sight to the blind"(Lk 4:18-19), and who identified himself with "the least of these," the hungry and the stranger (cf. Mt 25:45). Catholic social teaching is built on a commitment to the poor. This commitment arises from our experiences of Christ in the Eucharist.” --- from Catholic Social Teaching: Challenges and Directions.

Thank you—parishioners, friends and volunteers-- for your generous support of all the works of the Social Concerns Ministry, as we strive to follow the Catholic Social Teachings of the Church. May you and your loved ones enjoy a peaceful and safe 4th of July holiday!

Sunday Notes

THE RICHNESS OF LIFE IN CHRIST

Today we have the beautiful story of the woman promised a child, the wonderful exhortation about life in Christ, and a powerful instruction from Jesus. An embarrassment of riches? Not if we take Jesus' words about "welcome" to heart. The many challenges and blessings offered to us today by Elisha, Paul, and Jesus should be cause for rejoicing, and welcomed heartily into our lives. And, like the great treat that they are, they should be enjoyed and shared generously with others.

Today's reading from Romans was chosen very early in the liturgical life of the Church to be the sole apostolic instruction received by candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil. This illustrates its importance as a core belief, and as a means of comprehending the story of the Resurrection. Christ's resurrection is not merely a story about something that he underwent once upon a time, but it is our story, the story of how we joined the other members of the one Body of Christ, the church. We were not only dead, but we were buried; not ultimately buried, but raised to eternal life with Christ.

There was no plan for Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis and Carl Perkins to record together on December 4, 1956. But as fate would have it, they did and left behind a historic and mind-blowing album. Million Dollar Quartet tells that story, with all the raw energy and monumental talent everyone has come to expect from these music giants.

Tickets: $50; with transportation: $ 70.

WEDDING MINISTRY

IS THE WEDDING MINISTRY CALLING YOU?

All you have to say is "I do"- to accept the call. You would work with a partner in talking and walking the bridal party through their rehearsal (the night before) and being present at the wedding to assist in setting up as needed. There is an easy guide to follow and you would be trained. It's a great ministry to help ease any anxiety of the happy couple. If you have any questions or would like more info contact Paulette Bolton at 708 215-5422 or email pbolton@stcletusparish.com

ATTENTION FUTURE COLLEGE FRESHMEN!

Do you ever wonder how you can practice your Catholic faith and enjoy college at the same time? Do you want to learn more about what to expect as a new college student? If attending a public college, do you know how to find other Catholic students on campus?

For answers to these and other questions, you're invited to a lively and fun all-student panel discussion on Thursday, July 20 at 7pm in the St. John of the Cross Parish Center. There will be an opportunity to socialize followed by discussion, so be sure to put this event on your "To Do" list! Bring a friend, and we hope to see you there!

YOUTH MINISTRY IGNITE IS UNDERWAY

Join us this summer for IGNITE, a student-led small group for college and high school students. We meet weekly for community time and reflection on how the scriptures are relevant to our daily lives. Wherever you are in your faith journey, all are welcome for this popular summer group! IGNITE will meet each Tuesday this summer from 7-8pm at the St. John of the Cross Parish Center.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS WORKSHOP AUG. 7TH

Earlier in June, nearly two dozen high school teens gathered for a workshop on Spiritual Giftedness. They learned about the right and duty Christians have to use their spiritual charisms, given in baptism. Through the use of a specifically designed inventory, they were able to discover what their charisms are and how they can use them as well as set up a plan to support each other in spiritual growth by sharing their gifts with the world. This workshop will be offered again on August 7th. All high school teens who have completed at least one year of high school are welcome to attend!!
