Notes from Fr. Bob...

PENTECOST 2017

Like other artists of his time, the Flemish painter Rubens had a group of apprentices working with him. They watched closely and strove to imitate him. He would sometimes pause for a moment, gazing at the rather hesitant creation of one of the would-be artists. Then, seizing the brush from the hands of the pupil, he would add the finishing touches. It was those touches which brought the painting to life. "After alluding to this practice of Rubens, a modern scripture scholar notes that until the day of Pentecost the disciples, our Lord's 'apprentices', had been clumsily trying to copy their Master"; but on that day "the Spirit...finished the painting".

It is a neat way of summarizing the effects of the first Pentecost. It explains why Pentecost is spoken of as the Church's birthday, the day when the Church truly sprang to life; the day when it was made ready for its mission of taking the Good News to the ends of the earth. The mighty wind, which shook the house where the disciples had gathered, soon grew still; the flames of fire which hovered over their heads, soon disappeared. But the Holy Spirit, whose coming had been announced by wind and fire, had come to stay, had come to be with the Church until the end of time, to be its very soul, its life principle. And the Holy Spirit never grows old!

Today's second reading is from a letter of Paul to his friends in Corinth. He explains that it is not even possible "to acknowledge that Jesus is Lord" without the assistance of the Spirit. To put the point positively, it is the active presence of the Spirit that enables us to accept the truth at the heart of Christianity – Jesus is risen, he is with us, he is Lord.

Paul goes on to say that the Spirit blesses the Church with a variety of gifts or charisms. In ordinary speech a charism means an exceptional natural talent, but as used by Paul it means a special gift bestowed by the Holy Spirit. It is a grace given by God 'for the common good'. Such gifts are allotted to the laity just as much as to the ordained. Some are dramatic, such as those of healing or of speaking in tongues; but many are less striking, such as those of teaching, of helping others, of administration. Indeed, every gift we have is a potential charism, something that can be put at the service of all.

Paul insists that the Holy Spirit who is responsible for the rich diversity of gifts in the Church is also responsible for the gift of unity. Many gifts "but always the same source, the Holy Spirit"; "all sorts of service to be done but always to the same Lord (Jesus)" and "in all sorts of different ways in different people, (but always) it is the same God who is working in all". "Just as a human body" says Paul "is made up of many parts and yet remains 'a single unit', so, thanks to the Holy Spirit, the Church is one though made up of many different members, each with their own unique gifts."

An early Christian writer, speaking of the effects of Holy Communion, noted that 'he (or she) who eats the bread (of the Eucharist) with faith eats at the same time the fire of the Holy Spirit'. On this Sunday we might consider our own parish community and ask to what extent the 'fire of the Holy Spirit' is in evidence here. Is our parish alive? Are people devoting their time, their gifts, and their energies to the building up of community? Are we open to new ways of doing things or firmly anchored in the past? Are we completely self-centered as a parish or do we look beyond our parochial bounds? Is our unity manifested in genuine friendliness to one another, in readiness to listen to and to serve one another? Does our parish community live in harmony or is it driven by divisions?

Asking such questions can be valuable. But only if we are prepared to ask a supplementary question: "if things are not as they should be, what can I do to improve the situation?" If enough of us were ready to adopt that attitude, who knows what might happen? Might not the Holy Spirit put the finishing touches to our small efforts, bringing about a miniature Pentecost in our midst and so renewing the face of the earth right here?

Creating Contraptions

8th graders put on their engineering and design hats in Science to build contraptions using the physics lessons they have been studying this year. Not only are projects like these an opportunity to apply their science knowledge, but it also gives them an opportunity to learn how to work together as a team on a common goal.

Chicks Hatching

The third graders learned a lot about the incubation process and the development of chickens recently. They did experiments and activities to learn the different parts of the egg, how strong an egg really is, how to determine if an egg is raw or hard-boiled, and what happens when vinegar is put on an egg. They then had fun watching the chickens hatch, holding them and observing their differences and daily changes.

Band Concert

Music filled the halls of St. Cletus recently as Mr. Phil Enns led the band in a spirited Spring concert. We are a parish with a strong appreciation for music and music education which is why we offer band to St. Cletus students starting in 4th grade.

Author's Tea and Lemonade

During the annual Author's Tea/Lemonade, first grade student authors shared stories with parents before sharing snacks to celebrate their accomplishments.

Sunday Notes - Pentecost Sunday

SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, the languages of the whole world arise to God in a Pentecost of praise. In some American dioceses, the Mass is offered every Sunday in more than thirty different languages, including the silent praise of American Sign Language. Fifty years ago, the landscape of liturgy was very different. It was grounded firmly in Latin, which is to the present day still the official language of the Roman Rite. Very few people were fluent in Latin, even though in those days Latin was far more widely studied in school. Nevertheless, almost every Catholic was competent in the responses and chants of Latin since it is not difficult to pronounce. The clergy were normally minimally competent in Latin, since much of seminary education was conducted in that language.

When the Second Vatican Council was convened, all of the debate and daily work of the council was to be in Latin. In the first session in 1962, Boston's Cardinal Richard Cushing continually complained about it, and threatened not to return in 1963 if something wasn't done. He convinced the fathers when he rose to speak in fairly fluent Latin in an unforgettable Boston twang. The next year, he returned, but with a simultaneous translation system funded by the people of Boston. The ordinary everyday language of the people, the vernacular, had arrived at the Vatican via Boston!

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

This is why domestic violence victims don't speak up, Johnny

First of all, this story isn't about the recent issues between Johnny Depp and his soon-to-be ex-wife Amber Heard. This is about all those people who are now watching it play out in the media and are thinking: wow, that was/is me and my partner. I can't help but find parallels to these celebrities' stories and my own, and so many other people I know.

People who haven't been through domestic violence often wonder why victims don't speak up, and I think the case with Depp and Heard shows why: because people don't seem to believe the woman. "She's a gold digger" "She just wants his money" "He's a nice guy".

It is the biggest fear of a woman who is being abused that people won't believe her. That people will think her bruises are fake or not real because how could the loving family man do that?

Well, let me tell you: it happens every single day, and women are still dying at the hands of their boyfriends, husbands and other males in their lives. It is a sad fact that our society might be more educated about domestic violence but not everyone is sympathetic, especially when divorce and money is involved.

So where to from here? I don't know but I was hoping that big news stories like the Depp/Heard case would shed a light on violence, but all it does is further the notion that the woman is making it up to slander a man and get his hard earned cash. Yes, that does happen, but why are we so quick to say it every time?

WEDDING MINISTRY

IS THE WEDDING MINISTRY CALLING YOU?

Wedding Ministry

All you have to say is "I do"- to accept the call and you are on your way. You would work with a partner in talking and walking the bridal party through their rehearsal (the night before) and being present at the wedding to assist in setting up as needed. There is an easy guide to follow and you would be trained. It's a great ministry to help ease any anxiety of the happy couple. It is not a large time commitment as weddings occur sporadically and the more ministers we have, your service can be spaced at your preference. Please think about this and give me a call (or send an e-mail) if you have any questions or would like more information. Contact Paulette Bolton at 708 215-5422 or email pbolton@stcletusparish.com

ST. CLETUS BOOK CLUB

The St. Cletus Book Club will be meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday evening, June 13th. We'll meet in room 102 in the school and will discuss the popular book, "A Gentleman in Moscow". All interested participants are most welcome, so think about joining us for a fun discussion.

ST. CLETUS FALL FEST

REGISTRATION FOR 2017-2018 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES HAS BEGUN!

The St. Cletus Religious Education department has programs to fit the needs of each parish family. Our Early Childhood Program provides beginning religious instruction to children ages 3-5. Songs, crafts and stories are used to instill a sense of community and introduce these young members of our parish to Jesus' word. For families with children in public schools, we have Traditional Religious Education Classes and sacramental preparation for children in 1st – 8th Grade, where the children have an encounter with Jesus through scripture, service experiences, interactive activities and games, and classroom experiences. These classes occur on Sunday mornings from 9:15-10:45 a.m. or on Monday evenings from 6-7:30 p.m. throughout the academic year.

Please take the time to complete the forms to register your children for RE classes for the 2017-2018 academic year! Registrations are due by June 30, 2017. Registration forms can be found online at stcletusparish.com/re, in the Parish Rectory, Religious Education Office, or in the back of the Church.

Please take the time to register today!

To get priority placement, please consider volunteering your time and talents in one of the following ways:

AS A CATECHIST

Catechists receive weekly lesson plans and all resource materials to conduct an interactive lesson.

AS A CLASSROOM AIDE

Aides assist the Catechist weekly in the classroom

AS AN OFFICE VOLUNTEER DURING CLASS TIME

Office Volunteers assume responsibility weekly for assisting with the operations during RE classes

AS A MEMBER OF OUR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ADVISORY BOARD

Board Members meet monthly with the Director of Religious Education and the Pastor to provide input and feedback on the Religious Education program, and to assist in the implementation of various programs.

AS A SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

Subs are sometimes needed to cover for a Catechist who cannot attend one of our scheduled classes.

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR THE YOUTH MINISTRY MISSION TRIP THIS WEEKEND

There will be a second collection after all masses this weekend of June 3rd and 4th. This collection will support youth ministry to help us with our fundraising efforts for our summer service trip to South Bend, IN. Our funds will help cover the cost of renting vans to reach our destination and travel to and from our service sites as well as to cover the cost of registration for teens and adult volunteers. Thank you to all parishioners for their prayerful support and financial contributions to make it possible for our teens to follow the Holy Spirit's prompting to respond to the Gospel by serving God's people through this week-long service commitment.

YM LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP ON SPIRITUAL GIFTS- NEW DATE

Join us on Monday, June 5th for a mini-retreat focused on Uncovering Gifts! Take some time to discover what gifts may be hiding within you and then discern the ways you can put those gifts to use. All teens welcome who have completed at least one year of high school. Whether you have been a leader in the past in youth ministry and want a capstone to your experience, or plan to be a leader in the future and are exploring the ways you will lead, or have little or no experience in ministry at all, this event is for you! The retreat will be held at St. John of the Cross from 10-2. RSVP to Elizabeth Tomasek at etomasek@stcletusparish.com or to Katie Hayes at khayes@stjohnofthecross.org by June 1st is preferable.

SUMMER KAIROS

Going Deeper

Christian Identity and the Contemplative Experience

Fr. Laurence Freeman, OSB, Director and Spiritual Guide of the World Community for Christian Meditation

Thursday, June 8

St John of the Cross, 5005 Wolf Rd, Western Springs

1. Daytime Session: 'A New Holiness' (9:30 am check-in/hospitality, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. program) For many the meaning of the terms spirituality and religion have changed. Returning to the gospel after discovering the contemplative experience breathes new life into the Christian identity.

2. Evening Session: 'The Inner Room' (7 pm check-in, 7:30 – 9 p.m. program) Jesus was - and is - a teacher of contemplation. Our own tradition of meditation shows us what he meant and how we can enter the transformative experience that Jesus opens to us all.
