SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 12,
2017

A circular illustration depicting the Transfiguration of Jesus. Jesus is shown in the center, wearing a white robe and a golden halo, standing on a rocky outcrop. He is flanked by two other figures, likely prophets or apostles, one in a blue and gold robe on the left and one in a red and gold robe on the right. The background is a bright, golden light. The illustration is set within a circular frame with a white border, surrounded by various colored circles and bokeh effects.

HAPPY ST. PATRICK'S DAY

St. Patrick's Day, March 17, falls on a Friday this year. Cardinal Cupich has given a general dispensation to Catholics from abstaining from meat on this day. Instead, Catholics in the Archdiocese of Chicago who choose to make use of this general dispensation are asked to substitute another form of penance for the Lenten Friday abstinence.

ENCOUNTER NUTRITION

Pick up your rice bowl after masses this weekend. Please see page 10 where we encounter Evelina in Zambia as she and other mothers in her community learn new ways to provide nutritious meals for their growing children and families. How do we ensure that those who are hungry have not only food but true nourishment? Visit crsricebowl.org.

NO WEDNESDAY LENTEN EVENING MASS

Due to lack of attendance there will be no Wednesday Lenten Evening Masses. Please page 11 for a list of other Worship Opportunities offered at St. Cletus Parish.

BULLETIN ARTICLE SUBMISSION

Please note that all Canticle articles are to be sent to canticle@stcletusparish.com. All articles are due 5:00p.m. Friday a full week (9 days) before Sunday's publication.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED AND THEIR FAMILIES...

Francis (Frank) H. Russell

May he rest in peace. Amen.

PLEASE REMEMBER OUR SICK IN YOUR PRAYERS:

We always welcome names for the sick. Please note that requests must only be made by the individual or an immediate family member. Names will remain in this prayer list for 3 months.

Notes from Fr. Bob...

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Thor Heyerdahl is one of the most famous explorers of the twentieth century. He is particularly renowned as the leader of the Kon-Tiki expedition which set sail in a simple raft from the Pacific coast of South America to trace the journeys of the ancient peoples of Melanesia. As a newly married man in 1930, Heyerdahl went with his bride to a South Sea island and lived there for a year, in search of paradise. In fact, they were plagued with mosquitoes, and Heyerdahl's comment on the experience was: "Admission to paradise cannot be bought. Those who have found paradise have found it within themselves for free."

At the age of eighty-five he published a book entitled "IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF ADAM". He reflected on his life as an explorer of this world. All his life he saw his purpose as a search for unity between peoples, and for unity between people and nature. From his native Norway, Heyerdahl has travelled the world, a dynamic man, driven in search of knowledge and understanding. His guiding stars were unity and harmony.

An impulse such as this seems to have been at work in ancient times in the character of Abram. A citizen of Mesopotamia, he felt the call of God to uproot himself, leave everything behind, and go in search of a new land and a new destiny. He was to become the father of the Jewish people, and he settled in the land of Canaan. But at the time of his uprooting, life did not look very promising for Abram. Well on in years and childless, his dream of new life looked a very forlorn hope. But God had made promises to him and Abram would not deny them. He became a great adventurer, a great explorer of the unknown future. The Lord blessed him, and caused others to bless themselves by Abram, the man of faith.

A similar man of adventure was Saint Paul. He is described as a man "in journeying often". He explored the whole of the world within his reach. St. Paul traveled from Palestine and Syria to Asia Minor and Greece and from the islands of the Mediterranean to Italy and Rome. He wanted to go to Spain, and to the ends of the earth. This narrow, intense, bigoted, religious zealot, whose life was happily circumscribed by the religion of his fathers and the traditions of his ancestors, suddenly found his narrow world and even narrower perspectives blown apart, when he met Jesus of Nazareth on the road to Damascus. After that experience, everything changed. Paul had found paradise in this Jesus, and for that, he was prepared to suffer the loss of everything. Now he would go anywhere, go everywhere, to preach this name and to bring this faith to everyone.

Throughout his life, all his energy would be for this purpose, to help gather into unity the scattered children of God. He would become all things to all people, to save some at any cost. He would travel anywhere; explore any situation, to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ, risen from the dead. Paul became an adventurer and explorer for the Faith. Writing to Timothy, he tells his friend and disciple that all the hardships of life are worth it, in order to preach Jesus Christ to the world. As Paul faces his final days, imprisoned in Rome, the heart of the great adventurer cries out the great discovery – Jesus has abolished death and has proclaimed life and immortality.

This truth, this vision, was seen by the apostles in all its splendor on the mountain of the Transfiguration. There, the glory of God was seen in the body of Jesus. This experience of paradise inspired the Lord and his friends for the life they must live and the hardships they had yet to face.

It is God who is the great adventurer, the great explorer. To become a man, to take our flesh, and live our life: to bear suffering and undergo the Cross. What impulse drives the Lord to venture such things? The Lord is driven by the impulse of a deep and genuine love for us, his children.

It is in imitation of the Lord that we are called to take up the adventure of our own lives. The Lord calls us to "stand up" and "not to be afraid." Take your part in the adventure of faith, and help bring to unity the scattered children of God. .

Kindergarten Celebrates Dr. Seuss

We had fun celebrating Dr. Seuss this week! We laughed A LOT when reading his books. Dr. Seuss books are PERFECT for beginning readers. In fact, Seuss was asked to publish a book with a certain number of sight words back in the 1950s due to criticism over children's reading levels. The result was The Cat in the Hat! Seuss has helped make children readers or better readers for many years and our students enjoyed celebrating one of their favorite authors.

ENCOUNTER NUTRITION

We encounter Evelina in Zambia as she and other mothers in her community learn new ways to provide nutritious meals for their growing children and families. How do we ensure that those who are hungry have not only food but true nourishment? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

A child who lives in Royda Banda's family complex. Royda is the sister of Evelina Banda. The sisters are very close and do many things together, including cooking, eating and farming in Ndombi Village, Zambia.

Both Royda and Evelina are learning about nutrition and hygiene by participating in the CRS FANSER project, implemented by Caritas Chipata in Eastern Zambia.

The child in this photo benefits from the nutrition and hygiene information that Evelina and Royda are learning.

Background: With support from GIZ, the German government's agency for international development, Catholic Relief Services and Caritas Chipata are implementing the "Food and Nutrition Security, Enhanced Resilience" project, also known as FANSER, which aims to improve food security and nutrition among pregnant and lactating women and children under two in Petauke district, Eastern Zambia.

First 100 Days of Your Job Search

Looking to change jobs? Find yourself in transition? Join us on Thursday, March 16, 7-9 pm at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5005 S. Wolf Road in Western Springs. Our speaker, Michelle Nacker, former ICN job seeker and current Product Management professional, will detail key actions you can take from day 1 to day 100 and beyond. Michelle speaks from her heart because she knows what transition is like emotionally and professionally. She will share tips on how to build your network in the community and on social media; what days are better to reach out to potential employers and some basic steps to help organize your search. Everyone can learn something from Michelle! ICN meetings are open to everyone and there is no cost to attend.

Free Resume Review

Interfaith Career Network invites you to join us on Saturday, March 25 from 9:30-11:30 am. Come in for a helpful one-on-one conversation with a HR, or other search related professional, for some ideas and suggestions that may enhance or refresh your resume. Looking for some helpful job search strategies? Need some coaching with your elevator speech? This is a great opportunity for you or someone you know in a job search. Join us at the St. John of the Cross Parish Center.

Interfaith Career Network (ICN) offers job support through various programs throughout the month. For further information, please visit our website at www.interfaithcareernetwork.org.

Youth Ministry Continued and Other Ministry Notes

YM - ENCOUNTER SMALL GROUPS

Our next Youth Ministry Encounter is Sunday, March 12th at 4pm on the 2nd floor of the Education Building where we will again gather to explore life issues as they relate to our faith. Join us!

YM - GIRLS CHURCH LEAGUE

 Thank you to Mike Walsh and Leo Lopez for offering to volunteer their time and talents as coaches for the girls' team! Registration has been extended, and we still have spaces for more girls to join the team. You can find the registration forms on the website today. Please submit by March 16th!

YM - WEDNESDAY SUNDAES

Strengthen your Lent journey by joining us at 7pm this Wednesday in the church for some prayerful reflection, pausing to take notice of how God is working in your life. Then stay after for ice cream and conversation in the Youth Ministry room.

YM - KAIROS 25

Over 50 high school juniors and seniors leave Thursday evening for their Kairos retreat. Please pray for the retreatants, that they may have minds and hearts open to God's calling, for the teen leaders, that they may courageously and joyfully share God's role in their lives, and for the adult leaders, that their love for teens allows the teens to recognize God's own love and mercy.

YM - COMMUNITY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

St. Cletus has committed to helping at the West Suburban Community Pantry on Saturday, April 29th from 8-12 in Woodridge. We are looking for 5-6 high school teens (parents welcome) to help clients shop for their needs. Contact Elizabeth for sign-up details!

ST. CLETUS CREDO LIBRARY TURNS 5!

The library is FIVE years old. We have over 1,600 books and DVDs that have been donated, and over 300 are currently checked out. Due to limited space on the library cart we can only have a portion of the library on display each month, and books are changed regularly and with respect to the church calendar (Advent, Lent, etc..).

Once a year we do an inventory, and this year we will do it at the end of March. So if you have any books out that you have had for over six months, please return them as soon as possible.

Your gifts have made the library possible. Thank you, and please continue to leave donations in the return basket.

Also, a reminder to leave your NAME and PHONE NUMBER on the card when you check out a book.

Thanks, CREDO

RESISTING HAPPINESS - BY MATTHEW KELLY

Last Christmas Fr. Bob and Staff gave all parish families this book for Christmas. I pray that many of you read it and loved it, as did I, not only that but that you took some concrete steps as a result to make you a happier and more fulfilled Catholic. The reason for this note is let you know that his organization: DynamicCatholic.com is offering the "BEST LENT EVER" daily video series. They will take you through the book for a Lenten journey like no other. So don't give up chocolate BUT RATHER travel with Matthew Kelly and enjoy your Lent! To get them in your e-mail box daily visit their website DynamicCatholic.com and register. - Dcn. Stuart

Sunday Notes

THE JOURNEY OF TRANSFIGURATION

“We used to be such good friends. How is it that you’ve moved so far away?” one man asked another. “Perhaps,” the other replied, “you have moved away. By standing still.” This exchange very well could have happened between Peter and Jesus, had Peter been allowed to erect tents to stay on the mount of the Transfiguration. He nearly succumbed to the temptation to stay in a place of wonder and light. But Jesus knew the hard truth: we are on a continual journey when we are walking the paths of God’s will. It is not good for us to stay in one place on our faith journey. Equally unhealthy is staying put in times of joy and wonder to avoid life’s difficulties, or to wallow in our trials and temptations and fail to be companions for our sisters and brothers who are also suffering—or celebrating! The pilgrim Church is required to do one thing on its Lenten journey: to walk continually with Christ as his Body born of water and the Spirit, seeking God’s will, helping the reign of God to be known on earth, being led to the end of our journey, transfigured for all time into the company of heaven.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD said to Abram: All the families of the earth shall find blessing in you (Genesis 12:1-4a)

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — God has called us to a holy life, not because of our works but according to grace (2 Timothy 1:8b-10).

Gospel — Atop a high mountain, Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James, and John. (Matthew 17:1-9).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Blessed Sacrament was not reserved in church buildings in the first centuries of the church. In those early years, of course, people met in borrowed “house churches,” gathering on the Lord’s Day for community, apostolic teaching, the breaking of the bread, and the prayers, as Acts of the Apostles tells us. Dispersed, people went their way into the workaday world until the next assembly. Weighing down their hearts was the absence of brothers and sisters, not only the sick, but those imprisoned for the faith. No wonder they developed a way of extending the food of the Holy Table to them.

Forty years ago, every altar boy in training heard about Saint Tarcisus. He was a twelve-year-old boy at the time of intense persecution in fourth-century Rome. His community had begun to convey the consecrated bread from their Eucharist to those condemned to death or awaiting trial. Normally deacons did this, but on one occasion, it was necessary to send the boy to bear the holy mysteries to the prison. The legend says that he was an athlete, and was detained on the way by some playmates who wanted him to join in their game. When he refused, they demanded to know what he was carrying. The situation went from bad to worse, and he was badly beaten and died of his injuries. A hundred years later, a pope called him a second St. Stephen. In the nineteenth century, Cardinal Nicholas Wiseman of England wrote a novel in which he expanded the story and popularized it. By then, no one seemed to notice that this twelve-year-old was actually touching and ministering the Eucharist, unthinkable until recently. Scholars say the story rings true: the first reason for setting some Eucharistic bread aside was not adoration, but Communion of the sick.
