HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

While this year's Mother's Day is being celebrated in the challenging circumstances of the coronavirus, we pray for all mothers and we give thanks for the love that they give every day of their lives. We think of those mothers no longer with us. We offer a special prayer too for mothers to be and for Godmothers and all who play a maternal role in our lives.

The St. Cletus Parish Priests and Staff would like to wish all of you a happy and blessed Mother's Day and we hope to celebrate with you as soon as it is safe to gather.

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE

Zoom Call with President Obama: Every week during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Greater Chicago Food Depository has hosted a video call with their network of food pantries, soup kitchens and shelters. These calls are an opportunity to discuss challenges and opportunities while getting the latest information to front-line organizations.

This week's call had a very special SURPRISE guest – the 44th President of the United States, Barack Obama. President Obama joined us by video to personally offer encouraging words, ask important questions about how to help, and heard from organizations like ours about what we need right now to face the growing need before us.

Near the end of our call, President Obama told us, “Know you’re doing the kind of work that makes communities stronger and makes the world a better place.”

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: MAUREEN SOLDAT

For the past 25+ years Maureen has been volunteering at the food pantry.

She has always been a staple at our check in table which means she knows just about everyone's name. She greets every guest with a smiling face, asks about their kids, and grand kids, ageing parents. She keeps track of people's health concerns and remembers to touch base to see how they are doing. Maureen sends cards to clients to wish them well, check in after a surgery, to see how chemo is going.

Maureen makes people laugh with her quick wit, sarcastic nature, and funny rhymes when she calls out the numbers. She brings in candy to refill at the table, knowing its a fun treat to help people feel a little more welcome at the pantry, especially on their first visit.

This week we were supposed to celebrate Maureen at the GEM Award Luncheon. Please join me in showering her with our love and gratitude for her generous spirit!

Thank you, Maureen!

A LITANY FOR MOTHER'S DAY

We remember Sarai who was taunted by others in the household because of her inability to have children. All-encompassing God we pray for those who feel excluded when we emphasize one kind of family as normal.

We remember Esther, who was adopted and raised by her cousin. God who embraces us all, we pray for those who cannot be raised by their parents, for a short time or permanently.

We remember the mother of Moses, who placed him into a raft on the river. Saving God, we pray for parents who struggle to raise their children in oppressive circumstances.

We remember Hannah, who loved her child so much she handed him over to another to raise. Loving God, we pray for parents who have placed their child in another family.

We remember Naomi, who grieved the death of her sons. God, who grieves with us, we pray for parents who mourn the death of a child.

We remember Ruth, who gave up her family to be family to another. Inclusive God, we pray for those who choose to be family to those isolated by culture or language or distance.

We remember Elizabeth, who had a child in old age and we remember Mary, who had a child as a teenager. Ageless God, we pray that as a community we accept people of varying life stages and responsibilities and relationships.

We remember Rachel, crying for her children. God of justice and hope, we pray for those whose children are killed, and look to a time when children can live safely in their communities.

We remember Lois and Eunice, who taught Timothy faith by example. Faithful God we pray for those who teach us faith by their lives, may we remember that we also teach about you in the way we live.

We remember other people, not named in the Scriptures, like the mother of the prodigal son. Companion God, we pray for those who wait for a phone call or a visit, cut off from family and friends by distance and disagreement.

Nurturing God, we give thanks for those who enrich our lives by their presence who teach us about your abundant love who encourage us to journey in faith.

Rev. Patty Lawrence

WORD OF LIFE

"O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties."

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities,
"A Prayer for Pregnant Mothers"

Religious Education

WHAT'S HAPPING IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION?

Happy Mother's Day to all of our special Moms! This includes any person who offers nurturing, love, and support to children. You don't have to give birth to be a mother figure to someone. Godmothers, Aunts and teachers are examples that come to mind of people who put the needs of a child first and provide love and support to help them to flourish. As Catholics, we have a wonderful example of motherhood in Mary, the Blessed Mother. It's no coincidence that we celebrate May as the Month of Mary and Mother's Day.

Mary is the ultimate example of saying "Yes" to God, to allowing the Holy Spirit to guide her, and for nurturing love. Her life wasn't easy. She suffered through some of the same challenges and emotions Moms today have: anxiety when they had to flee to Egypt, being scared and upset when Jesus was missing in the temple, trying to be encouraging and supportive to Jesus at the Wedding Feast of Cana, being there to pick him up when he stumbled and fell as a child, and being courageous enough to trust God despite the pain, uncertainty, and hard times. Mary saw and felt it all, and that makes her the perfect model for Mothers. This Mother's Day, let's ask Mary to show us the radical power of surrender and trust in God, and the beauty of a heart full of love.

The Religious Education Office sent out an At-Home Family Lesson celebrating Mother's Day. We hope you have fun as a family celebrating the Moms in our lives. We would like to spotlight the Radulski Family today. They are taking the time to find creative ways to spend time, grow and love as a family. What a blessing to be together as a family!

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of “vocation” and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today’s apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the “cornerstone” of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God’s] own, so that you may announce the praises” of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life’s vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament.

SAINT DAMIEN JOSEPH DE VEUSTER OF MOLOKA’I (1840-1889)

May 10

In the mid-1990s, a heavily bearded, bespectacled Robin Williams appeared on Late Night with David Letterman, whose host was clearly taken aback. Letterman inquired as to why the wild look. Uncharacteristically subdued, the usually manic comic responded that he was producing and starring in a movie about a most extraordinarily compassionate man, Damien, the Leper Priest of Moloka’i.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being: Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, though Williams’ film was never completed, his admiration speaks, as does Damien’s statue outside the capitol in Honolulu, of this newest saint’s universal appeal. Far from his native Flanders’ idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ’s light into Moloka’i’s bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings—and the social stigma—of those with whom he delighted to identify: “We lepers,” he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. Saint Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our own day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them.

MUSIC MINISTRY

For quite a few years now I have been involved with the St. Cletus School students musically assisting with their masses. This has involved individual rehearsals with cantors (many of whom you have seen on Sunday morning masses...they're awesome!), rehearsing with individual grades prior to their all-school masses, selecting music with Mary Claire Zurowski, the St. Cletus School music teacher, and in general assisting the teachers as needed as they prepare for the school masses.

The theme for the 2019-20 school year, which unfortunately abruptly ended in mid-March, was "Angels Among Us." Last summer in researching that title, I found the song "Angels Among Us" which was recorded by Alabama. (Alabama is an American country and Southern rock band formed in 1969.) This song was taught to all the students and sung at most of their school masses. In view of this current world situation, the words take on new meaning. Here are they are:

Oh I believe there are, angels among us
Sent down to us, from somewhere up above
They come to you and me, in our darkest hours
To show us how to live, to teach us how to give
To guide us with the light of love

When life held troubled times, and had me down on my knees
There's always been someone, to come along, and comfort me
A kind word from a stranger, to lend a helping hand
A phone call from a friend, just to say, I understand
But ain't it kind of funny, at the dark end of the road
That someone lights the way, with just a single ray of hope

If you'd like to listen to the entire song, simply search the internet for: Angels Among Us Alabama and you'll find the official recording.

I'd like to suggest that each one of you pick out one person who has been your "Angel" in your darkest hour; think about what they have done for you, how they have "Guided you with the(ir) light of love!" And once you've come up with that person, reach out to them and share the above words/song with them and let them know how important they are to you!

And finally, if there are any school families reading this, how about taking a video of your student singing this song (refrain would be great!) and send it to me at: kziemba@stcletusparish.com or text 708-710-0644. I'll figure out how to put them together and hopefully get them up on the parish website.

I truly miss seeing all parishioners; hopefully hugs and in-person smiles will return sooner rather than later. In God's time! Stay healthy; stay safe.

NOTES FROM A COOK COUNTY JAIL VOLUNTEER

During this crisis we have been praying much for our first responders, healthcare workers, paramedics, police, fire etc.- quite rightly

However, I'd like us to add to our devotions the officers at jails and prisons, especially Cook County jail, who daily face the hazard of Covid19 in spaces, where social distancing is not possible.

Additionally, they face the hazard of dealing with unruly, dangerous, mentally unstable individuals in such conditions and they seem to be forgotten by the media.

However, they are not forgotten by the ministers of Kolbe House Jail Ministry. My partner Sr. Betty Smigla SP and I always pray for the officers (to be patient and understanding) and judges (to be fair) even as we minister to the detainees.

During this pandemic, Kolbe House has a weekly Zoom prayer service where the intentions include all involved in and impacted by our criminal justice system (including the victims).

I would ask that you also include such an intention in your daily prayers.

Additionally, while we have been unable to visit we have made cards for the detainees to let them know while we can't visit, they are still in our thoughts and prayers.

These are difficult times for all of us but please reflect on the particularly hazardous daily duty of jail and prison officers, and the unhealthy conditions of their charges, who have to co-exist in necessarily confined and dangerous conditions.

May God Bless the St Cletus community and keep us safe
- Marlene

LETTER FROM PARISHIONER GRACE BERGER

Each Mother's Day my mom and I light a candle and say a prayer for my biological mother who chose LIFE for my twin sister and I. I have been invited and chosen to be a part of an organization called Biking for Babies. The mission of Biking for Babies is to renew the Culture of Life, one pedal stroke and one pregnancy resource center at time, by increasing PRC awareness, raising financial and spiritual support, and forming young adults, like myself, into pro-life missionaries.

This July, I have a special opportunity to travel across the country, from Green Bay, WI to St. Louis, MO to bring awareness to centers across the country that help women who find themselves in crisis pregnancies. A part of our formation includes fundraising for life-affirming pregnancy resource centers to decrease the cost of services to families in crisis pregnancy situations.

Jesus made the ultimate sacrifice by giving up his LIFE so that we may have Eternal Life with His Good Father in heaven. The physical, mental, and emotional challenges I will face on this trip are so small in comparison to the sacrifice our Lord made, on the cross, for us. This six-day trip will call me and my teammates to offer up our comfort, as we bike 120+ miles every day and find solidarity, in small ways, with women who have unplanned pregnancies. I am very excited about this national ride. To best help these pregnancy resource centers, I have set my own fundraising goal of $3,500 and 100% of the gifts I collect will go to these life-saving centers. I hope you are able to make a donation that will help me achieve this life-saving goal. Any contribution you are able to give toward this cause is greatly appreciated. I am praying that 25 people will assist me with a gift between $50 and $100.

Please donate online at www.bikingforbabies.com; or make checks payable to “Biking for Babies,” with my name in the memo line. If you are unable to donate at this time, I ask for your prayers as I travel on this mission. Thank you for your consideration!

Sincerely in Christ,
Grace V. Berger
