Re-Opening at St. Cletus

Over the 4th of July weekend, over 150 parishioners attended Mass, heard the Word of the Lord proclaimed live, and received the Eucharist for the first time in over three months. There were approximately fifty people at the 8am Mass on July 4th, where Dick Maday was presented with the Fr. Charles Gallagher Award for his years of service and his contributions to country and church. Later in the day, another fifty people attended the 5pm Saturday evening Mass, and on Sunday, fifty parishioners attended the 7:15am morning Mass.

Following Saturday's morning mass, twelve people celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Earlier in the week, the church was opened for an hour of private prayer before the Tabernacle and for the Spanish rosary.

Although these services don't allow for gathering afterwards to greet and share the participants' thoughts and feelings, one can sense their happiness and their renewed peace at being able to return to church individually or as a member of our parish family.

As directed by the Archdiocese reopening protocols, Fr. Bob and Fr. Ken, asked Paulette Bolton and me to serve as the Lay Leaders of the Reopening Team, to coordinate our reopening efforts and protocols along with the team captains of the Greeters/Ushers Team, the Cleaning Team and the Setup/Sacristans Team. Reopening our parish has required a lot of work and effort by our clergy, parish staff and team captains to recruit and train VOLUNTEERS! And to say that those who have already volunteered are the backbone of our reopening, is not an understatement!!! Volunteers from each of these three teams have been at, and are needed every time the church is open for a celebration or prayer opportunity. Not one of us regrets being able to be of service to you, our fellow parishioners, but we need your help. We need MORE VOLUNTEERS!

This week, there has already been one funeral and two more are scheduled. This coming Saturday, confessions will be heard at 8:45am and there is a wedding scheduled for the afternoon.

Our weekend mass schedule for this weekend will welcome back parishioners (limit of 50 already full for each mass) to Saturday mass at 5pm and Sunday masses at 7:15am and 8:45am. Next week, a prayer service in Spanish on Tuesday evening and private prayer before the Tabernacle on Wednesday are all scheduled.

Every time the doors of our church are open, GREETERS, (led by Colleen Hagen), those confirming reservations and checking people need to be present. USHERS will also need to be present to assist people with being seated, receiving communion and being dismissed safely following each service.

Our CLEANING TEAM, (led by Tom Reisel and Mary Delaney) arrives after each service to wipe down and disinfect the pews, kneelers and other areas of the church used during the service.

Before each service and after each service, our SETUP / SACRISTANS TEAM (led by Mary Sue Kegl) prepare the church and vessels as required for the particular service. At the conclusion of each service, this team cleans and disinfects the sanctuary and all books vessels and furniture used for the service.

All of these volunteers are here to make your visit, your return to church as easy, prayerful and as safe as possible; but WE NEED YOUR HELP. So far, the masses require about 16 volunteers, and the other services a few less. As the parish adds more masses and services and allows for more attendees at these services, the number of volunteers needed will increase.

Please consider being a volunteer. If interested please email reopening@stcletusparish.com or call the parish office at 708-352-6209.

Looking forward to seeing you in church soon.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Last weekend during the opening greeting at mass, the cantor announced: “we pray that you will cherish the songs within your heart.” Instrumental music plus less verses of some songs will be the “new normal” for the foreseeable future. In the spirit of health and safety, congregational responses have been omitted. The “parts of the mass” (Gloria, Holy Holy, etc.) are being spoken so as to be more inclusive of the congregation. The psalm as well as the Alleluia/Gospel Acclamation are “sung through”. In selecting music that will enhance the Mass I have been focusing on a mix of inspirational as well as familiar songs. As for the recessional song, I will always attempt to select one that is uplifting and perhaps even a “toe-tapper” so that underneath your mask you will be smiling! My prayer as always is that the music, in whatever form it takes, will positively impact your spiritual experience. I welcome any comments you may wish to share.

WORD OF LIFE

“Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ...That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other.”

Sunday Readings

READING 1

Wis 12:13, 16–19

There is no god besides you who have the care of all, that you need show you have not unjustly condemned. For your might is the source of justice; your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all. For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved; and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity. But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us; for power, whenever you will, attends you. And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 86:5–6, 9–10, 15–16

R. (5a) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are good and forgiving,
abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.
Hearken, O LORD, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O LORD,
and glorify your name.
For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds;
you alone are God.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are a God merciful and gracious,
slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.
Turn toward me, and have pity on me;
give your strength to your servant.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

READING 2

Rom 8:26–27

Brothers and sisters: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

GOSPEL

Mt 13:24–43 or Mt 13:24–30

In the shorter form of the reading, the passages in brackets are omitted.

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them. Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn." ' "

[He proposed another parable to them. "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.' "

He spoke to them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened."

All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables. He spoke to them only in parables, to fulfill what had been said through the prophet:

*I will open my mouth in parables,
I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.*

Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house. His disciples approached him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field." He said in reply, "He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all who cause others to sin and all evildoers. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear."]

Sunday Notes

GOOD SEEDS

Today Jesus continues to speak to his followers using parables. What a rich treasure we are given today in three parables about the kingdom of heaven! The kingdom is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, a mustard seed, and yeast mixed with flour. As they did last week, today the disciples press Jesus for an interpretation of one of the parables—the parable of the man sowing good seed. Lest we think that these parables are simply amusing little anecdotes, Jesus’ interpretation should be seen for what it is—a warning. Wailing and grinding of teeth in a fiery furnace await those who are children of the evil one. This parable points to the struggle for today’s believer. Sometimes, through sin, we sow weeds and prevent the love of Christ from blossoming. Let today’s Gospel help put us back on track. Let us recommit ourselves to preparing for the last days, the harvest, by blossoming as the good seeds we were created in love to be.

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLŪF (1828-1898)

July 24

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his American clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an American customer recognized Saint Sharbel’s portrait on the wall: “So you’re Lebanese Maronites!” The owner was happily incredulous: “You know our saint?” “Not at first,” the customer admitted. “But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the ‘Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.’ ” “Everyone thinks we’re Muslims,” said the owner, “and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!” A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel’s life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace.

2020-21 SCHOOL YEAR NOTE

We are just about a month away from the start of school! Our teachers and staff have worked very hard and spent many hours this summer to make sure the start of school will go off without a glitch! We are ready with in-school and online plans so that our students do not miss a beat. We are excited to use the iReady program this year - it will take the place of our Aspire interim tests, although we will still do the Aspire summative test. The iReady program provides an initial diagnostic test to customize an individual curriculum path for each student in grades K - 8! This is a wonderful supplement to the fantastic curriculum plans our teachers have already put in place.

Enjoy the next few weeks of July! We can't wait to see you on the evening of August 18TH!
