

Saint Cletus Parish Canticle

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths.
— PSALM 25:4

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert,
and he remained in the desert for forty days,
tempted by Satan.
He was among wild beasts,
and the angels ministered to him.

These are some resources to help refresh and connect us as we approach the holy season of Lent. You can also try typing -“free Catholic resources for Lent” and a myriad of possibilities, in addition to these, appear. Some sites haven’t updated all their material but still offer timeless thoughts or suggestions.

During this unusual time when we may feel isolated or even estranged from our faith and one another, it is especially important that we seek ways to strengthen our relationship with God and each other. Our Lenten mantra of prayer, fasting and giving can be experienced in a new and special way this Lent. God Bless Us All.

Notes from Fr. Bob...

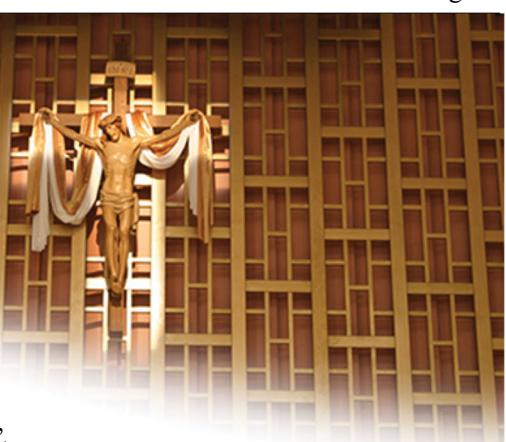

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

The native tribes of South America make a point of marking different events in a person's life in dramatic fashion. In a time honored tradition their young men are initiated into the tribe in a private ceremony. They will eventually receive honorable status in their society but not before they have endured differing rituals designed to test their strength, and, perhaps humble them a little. There are many rites of passage for different occasions. Somehow these help them become loving and caring husbands and tribesmen. These societies have no doubt learned that the only way humanity moves forward is when we have the courage to face our weakness and our fears.

Like Matthew and Luke, Mark shows Jesus going through a time of testing. Each account, in a different way, tells us that he has to endure his strengthening, his initiation, before he could preach his message of salvation. The spirit that leads him to the wilderness is the same spirit that will tell him he is a beloved son. His preparation to do the will of the Father will not be complete until he spends those hungry days alone with his thoughts, finding out who he is.

To the people of the day, the wilderness of the desert was a lonely place, cut off from the support of one's family. How could one survive this experience, vulnerable and exposed to danger? In fact, Jesus is facing those demons that we all must face at some time in our lives, the terrible vulnerability of aloneness, and the inevitability of death. His days alone were a foretaste of the cross to come. Of course we know that this testing leads to freedom and through the cross, to redemption. Since we are baptized into Christ, we too can overcome the obstacles that may confront us. We can rest safe in the knowledge that Christ has overcome even death itself.

Perhaps like Noah, we cannot fully understand what real freedom looks like until we experience vulnerability. As the early Christian mystics say, we cannot understand the language of the cross, until we have faced darkness in our own lives. To be a builder of the kingdom means being a person of compassion and that is not learned without suffering. Life brings with it many forms of testing, for some it may be an embittering experience, leaving them cold and closed. For us as people of the promise, it can be a turning point, a cleansing experience that leads us to growth and openness. This freedom can only come about if we, like Jesus, remember that we are beloved by the Father who is with us at every stage of our journey. Like Jesus, we are accompanied by a Father who is intimately involved in our joys and our moments of weakness.

In this time of Lent,
the Church asks us to spend time looking within ourselves.

During the coming weeks we are to confront our fears and temptations, so that we might be brought into a fuller relationship with Christ. The Gospel reminds us that the Father who strengthens his son in the desert is the same God who renews the promises to an unfaithful people and is bound with them forever. This is the good news that we all need to hear, and are all called to share.

What does this good news look like? Well we know it transforms people, it makes them turn around, repent, and start again. It gives hope; it drives away fear; it promotes true peace; it is concerned for others; it is concerned with building up what is good, and destroying what is evil. When we begin to see this work of God in our lives, when we respond anew, we will find life: life in all its fullness.

Prayerfully Yours,

*Fr. Bob
Pastor*

A Note from Deacon Stuart and Marlene Heyes

Dear Friends,

Marlene and I write this note with mixed feelings.

We have decided to move to TN and join the IL exodus for several reasons.

Foremost - Marlene's health is compromised with the severe Winters here and a milder climate is best for us both at our time of life.

Chicago is not the place we loved to visit anymore and likely won't be in our lifetime.

Our daughter, Ruth, and family moved there last year and love it. When we visited recently we experienced why.

We visited last week and found the perfect home in a great Del Webb 55+ community - really great set up and first class amenities.

Nashville area offers so much, it is drawing multitudes from IL NY & CA. Cost, climate, and quality of living!!

So we'll be leaving IL and all of you in March / April. We'll really miss you all and the St Cletus community.

Blessings to you all,
Stuart & Marlene

As you know the St. Cletus Council of Catholic Women is involved in many areas of outreach in our parish. JOIN OUR ROSARY COMMUNITY

I was a faithful “tabernacle side, up front” participant at the 11:00 Mass. You knew the “regulars” around you and knew when someone was missing (are they sick?) or when their relatives came to visit. It was just one way that a larger parish became smaller, more welcoming. This is one of the things I miss as we celebrate socially distanced Masses on our new schedule (all very necessary) is that sense of community.

But this is also one of the things that I love about saying the Rosary together at 1 o’clock each Wednesday. We have a faithful group of parishioners who join together in prayer. We share our intentions and pray for our families, parish and nation. We invite you to join us whenever you can. It is always good to sign in on the website, but come and unite with us in prayer. Sometimes I laugh that we are on a Zoom call with Mary, but how wonderful it is to take a half hour out of your day to spend with Our Mother. You are also welcome to make a reservation and come before the Lord in private prayer during this time; the church is open for us all. We will be waiting every Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. for you to join us.

WORD OF LIFE

“Abortion affects countless marriages more than many people recognize. But there is no doubt that God will bring great healing to those who trust in his infinite mercy. If a past abortion can be acknowledged and addressed, a married couple can make great strides in experiencing even more fully God’s design that ‘the two shall become one’ (Mt 19:5).”

You can protect mothers and children by joining this worldwide mobilization to pray and fast for an end to abortion! Through prayer and fasting, peaceful vigils and community outreach, 40 Days for Life has inspired 1,000,000 volunteers! With God’s help, much good has been accomplished in the effort to protect the lives of the unborn.

It is said that searching for a job is the hardest job you will ever have. You likely had years of experience in your previous position. However, you are a novice at job search and much has changed since your last search. Networking during a pandemic? ATS Systems? One or two page resume? Jody will welcome any and all questions and address job search questions you had not yet thought about. Have your questions answered and learn from the questions of other job seekers. Jody Eriksen offers her integrated background in Psychology, Business Administration and Professional Coaching to bring original tools and techniques to enhance your Career Development tool kit. The link to this ZOOM meeting can be found on our website at <http://www.interfaithcareernetwork.org/calendar>. Everyone is welcome and there is no cost to attend

COMPASSIONATE CARE MINISTRY

The Compassionate Care Ministry is again badly in need of postage stamps for its notes of sympathy and support during the first year following the loss of a loved one. Each bereaved family receives six cards during that year. This means that if there are ten funerals during a period of one month, 50 stamps are needed in that month alone. Your generous donations have meant so much in the past and we are very grateful. If you are able to contribute to this worthwhile ministry in this way, it will be very much appreciated. Simply place them in an envelope marked CCM and put them through the slot in the rectory door—or drop them in one of the collection baskets located at each exit in the church building.

Sunday Notes

REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL

Lent is the time of year we devote to scrutinizing our lives in the light of our baptism into the death and resurrection of Jesus. Today's readings are a nice shorthand catechism of what our baptized lives mean. As Noah passed through the waters of the flood to a covenant with God, so did we enter into a covenant, a promised relationship with God through our baptism.

Peter's letter gives an explicit explanation of what our baptism means: it is an appeal we make to God for a clear conscience. How do we obtain this clear conscience? The words proclaimed by Jesus immediately following his temptation show us the way: "Repent, and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15). It might be a good spiritual exercise to keep these readings before us throughout the entire season of Lent, a means to help us return to a life lived by our baptismal promises.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth (Genesis 9:8-15).

Second Reading — The water of the flood prefigured baptism, which saves you now (1 Peter 3:18-22).
