PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father,

from the beginning you have chosen to entrust the human person to mothers in a special way.

We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;

for their tenderness, care, and compassion,

for their intuition and encouragement,

for commitment and sacrifice.

Bless all mothers this day.

Keep, strengthen, and refresh them

in your loving care.

May they be blessed by our open-hearted

love and gratitude.

Amen.

Pastor's Note

"And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him,"
John 14:21b

Dear Parishioners

How often do we pause, reflect, and ponder about the love we feel and have for God? How is our awareness of being loved by God?

On Saturday, May 6, 2023, 144 children from our Parish School and Faith Formation program made their First Communion. They were accompanied by their parents, siblings, and other family members. Throughout the entire Mass, they radiated joy by prayerfully and actively participating in Mass. They received the Body of Jesus with reverence, admiration, and love. They knew that they were being part of something special which they graciously shared with us. I felt embraced by the Spirit that was present at Mass which aided us to receive God's love.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge and thank in a special way Larry Manetti, Director of Faith Formation, Hector Obregon, Associate Director of Faith Formation, Greg Porod, Principal, Christy Schaefer, Assistant Principal, teachers, and catechists who diligently prepared our children for First Communion. I also would like to thank all parents who faithfully brought their children to Faith Formation and Mass on weekends. Know that your efforts in raising your children in the faith and the witness you give to them is encouraging and greatly appreciated. In addition, I would like to thank all others who generously contributed to the beauty and spirit filled First Communion Mass.

This weekend, as we celebrate Mother's Day, we will be blessed to hear a brief reflection from a mother at each Mass. This will happen right after the homily. They will share with us their faith and experience of being loved by the Lord. Please join me in thanking the Lord for their courage and witness.

On Saturday, April 29, 2023, at 7:00 PM we held the St. Cletus Auction in the Parish Center. It was not only successful in raising funds to support our Parish School but also building community and friendship among parents and parishioners. I am aware that many parents led by Joleen Kirchens and Jeanine Pickering (Co-chairs) out of love worked hard to give us an amazing evening. I would like to offer to each of them my heartfelt gratitude for their fine leadership and special love they have for our parish school. Particularly, I would like to thank Sara Hodak for offering such wonderful leadership and collaborating with our volunteers, Administrators and Co-chairs.

I pray that today we will find a time to admire, appreciate, and thank the Lord for our mothers. We are who we are thanks to the selfless dedication of our mothers. In my case, I am a priest because of the prayers and witness of my mother. She showed me how to love God and how to let God love me. This is something that she still does every time I am on the phone with her or have the opportunity to visit her.

May the Lord fill the hearts of our mothers with his joy and peace.

Happy Mother's Day!

Fr. Elmer Romero

Note From Father Mike

MOTHERS' DAY!

I have so much to be grateful for when it comes to my mom. Giving birth (no pun intended) is just the beginning of the many things mom has done for me over the years. One thing mom has always been is a source of comfort. I would hope that every child could say that about their own mom. I know, unfortunately, that is not the case. Or, maybe it is so, but there are too many children who never get the opportunity to even know their biological mother. All too frequently, we hear of tragic stories on the news how a baby is abandoned, often dying because of starvation. Pray for those children abandoned by their parents, that their parents would have the courage to let them find life in a home filled with love.

Another thing I am grateful for is my mom let my brother and I help make the Nestle Toll House Cookies around Christmas. Mom was very patient with us, teaching us how to measure the ingredients and mix them together to make the dough, followed by dropping the small lumps onto a baking sheet and popping them in the oven. We didn't get to take them out of the oven for the first couple of years, but eventually even that we were allowed to do. Better watch that clock. Don't want to burn them. Excuse me, but I am drooling.

In more recent years, mom has been my nurse several times. Being pastor at St. Lawrence O'Toole parish in Matteson made it much more convenient for mom to be a nurse. The parish was only ten minutes to the south of Midlothian (where she still resides). So, when I was ill, she would either shop for me or even sometimes I needed her to stay with me overnight. Being by myself in a house made that a little easier. I don't know if that would have worked with another priest living there. Then when I needed to have a kidney removed about 7 or 8 years ago now having been diagnosed with stage one cancer, she let me stay at home with her while I recovered. Most of you know I was able to do the same thing back in March when I had a hernia repaired. She is a great nurse. Thanks Mom.

But I still say that what I tend to be most grateful for from mom is her faith. My dad had his Catholic faith, too, but they each taught me different things about how the Church works – how important belonging to a parish is and what that means. Mom was involved in being a catechist for both children and adults (her and dad taught Confirmation students, then mom started being on the RCIA team preparing adults to receive the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil). She has been a member of the Mother's Club for the school, the Rosary/Altar Society, and the RENEW team. She was involved in being the concessions moderator for BINGO nights, and that carried over into finding food vendors for the parish carnival – the Fiesta! Mom and I also share one other interesting connection in terms of St. Christopher – the day I began my seminary schooling, mom began working at the Parish Office. She continues to work to this day – that's almost 27 years now.

Congratulations To Our First Communicants!

First Communion

Last weekend we celebrated the First Holy Communion of 144 students from our Parish School and Faith Formation Program. We are so excited to welcome them to the Table of the Lord for the first time!

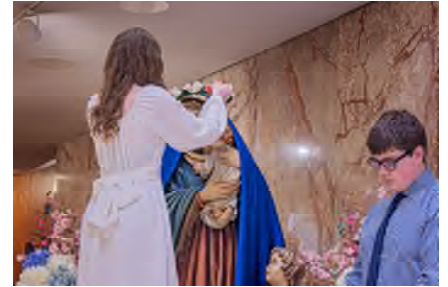

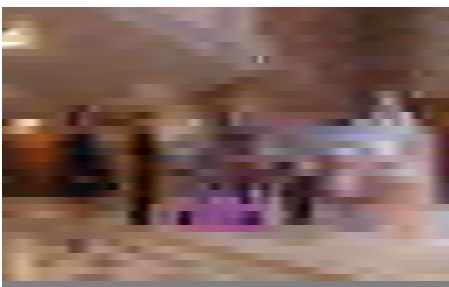

Pope Francis refers to the Eucharist as a gift. He reminds us about how important the Eucharist is to our faith journey. He encourages us to receive the Eucharist as a family as often as possible. Our Holy Father spoke to a group of children in Italy as he recalled his First Holy Communion many years ago. He addressed the children and stated, “You will make your First Communion, always remember that day your whole life: the first day that Jesus came to us. He comes, makes himself one with us, makes himself our food, our nourishment to give us strength.” Please pray for our children and their families that they will continue to receive Christ into their hearts and lives through the Eucharist.

Explore New Beginnings In Your New Job Search

You may be in a position where you want to explore other job opportunities. What should you do? Join us on Wednesday, May 18 from 7-9 pm when our presenter, Michelle Nacker, explains what to do the first few days of your transition. She will detail the key actions that you can take from day 1 to day 100 and beyond. She will address issues such as preparing for the job search, video interviews and how social media plays a part in your search. After spending most of her work career for one company, Michelle found herself in the job market. She will share her experiences of what has worked and what has not. Michelle began her career testing video games and progressed to companies such as TransUnion, IBM, Acxiom and Donnelly Financial. Mark your calendar and be sure to join us for this interesting and informative evening. We look forward to seeing you at St. John of the Cross Parish Center, 5055 Wolf Road in Western Springs. Everyone is welcome!

CELEBRATING MAY, THE MONTH OF MARY

The Rosary Table Today!

Praying the Entire Rosary Next Sunday

Stop by the Rosary Table today in the Parish Center! We offer everything about the Rosary: the rosaries themselves, pamphlets, medals, pouches and books. We can repair most rosaries and accept donated rosaries to pass on to others. Find out about other Rosary activities and how to make Mary a bigger part of your life.

Next Sunday, May 21st, the Living Rosary will pray the entire Rosary at 11:30 in front of the Parish Center doors. This takes about 90 minutes and is a very moving walk with Mary and Jesus on their way to Heaven. Come and stay for as long as you can, but come. Mary will be very glad to see you.

On Wednesday, May 31st at 7 pm in the church, The parish is sponsoring Hail, Full of Grace, a prayer service of the Rosary and songs, a fitting celebration of Mary in May.

You can always joining us to pray the Rosary every Wednesday at 1:00 in the church. It is like stepping out of your life into heaven for a half hour, to draw closer to Mary and the Lord. We are always there and welcome everyone to share their prayers and intentions.

For more information about The Living Rosary, call Mary Lu (630-430-3338) or Linda (708-482-0669).

CCW MEETING

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord Jesus,

We beg you good and holy priests. In every age you call men to follow you as servants and shepherds of your people. Open their hearts to your call and give them the courage to follow you. Be their rock of refuge and their lights as they discern.

Help us to support them on their journey, and to love them as your disciples.

We thank you for all that you are and all that you do. In your name we pray.

Amen.
