A CALL TO PRAYER

Providing a Light in the Darkness: Prayer can help to strengthen our bonds with one another and with God, regardless of our faith identities. By turning to prayer, we call forth a light in the darkness.

Who we are: Volunteers from across the Archdiocese of Chicago who feel called to accompany anyone feeling the need to pray during this time of uncertainty and isolation.

What we offer: A phone line staffed from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, as well as 24-hour voicemail and e-mail connections. Our prayer partners are here to pray with you - opening our hearts to God, asking for his blessings and peace.

We are available at: 312.741.3388

Reopening Letter from Fr. Bob

Dear St. Cletus Parish Family,

It is with great joy and anticipation that we are preparing to re-open our Church. The Archdiocese has developed a plan for the gradual re-opening of our parishes. Through the efforts of our re-opening Leadership team and generous parish volunteers, we have been approved and certified to enter Phase I of the plan. That enables us to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Weddings, Reconciliation, funerals and visitation for private prayer. Please note that all these services are permitted for a limited number of participants and require registration. All entry into the church is from the main doors into the narthex. All exiting from the church is from the side doors. Follow the floor markings.

We will re-open our church on Friday, June 19 with the Sacrament of Reconciliation available by reservation only from 7:00pm-8:00pm for the Spanish speaking members of our parish. On Saturday, June 20, and each Saturday thereafter, the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available in English by reservation only from 8:45am-10:00am. Please remember the entire Archdiocese remains dispensed from Mass attendance on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation until further notice. Also, a reminder that if you are a part of our “vulnerable population” or suffering from underlying medical conditions, you are asked to stay home and support our faith with prayer. Your health is our first concern.

To make your reservation for Reconciliation this Friday (Spanish) or Saturday (English), please call (708) 352-6209 from 9:00am - 12:00pm (Monday-Friday).

There will be Spanish Devotional Prayer in church on June 23 from 7-7:30pm. Attendance is by reservation only. The church will be open for private prayer visitation on June 24 from 11:00am-1:00pm by reservation only. Visits will be in 20 minute increments. Again, it is necessary to call for a reservation. Reservations may be made on the parish website, www.stcletusparish.com, or by calling the Parish Center at (708) 352-6209 from 9:00am -12:00pm Mon.-Fri.

As we enter Phase II of the re-opening plan, we will introduce some new Mass times. This allows us to fulfill the requirement to clean and sanitize the church properly after each service and to modify our former schedule. Our first celebration of the Eucharist with assigned seating will be on the weekend of July 4th at 8:00am by reservation only. Due to the current Pandemic situation, there will be no band or special Armed Forces’ seating this year. There will be a 5:00pm Mass July 4th evening by reservation only and a Sunday morning liturgy at 7:15am by reservation only.

The weekend of July 11, Masses will be Sat. 5:00pm; Sun. 7:15am & 8:45am by reservation only.

The weekend of July 18, Masses will be Sat. 5:00pm, Sun. 7:15am, 8:45am and the Spanish Mass at 12:15pm by reservation only.

The weekend of July 25, Masses will be Sat. 5:00pm, Sun. 7:15am, 8:45am, 10:30am and 12:15pm by reservation only. As you can see, each weekend an additional Mass (time) has been added so we are now at a full weekend schedule, but as emphasized, with limited numbers.

Once again, we remind you, that you have a dispensation from attending Sunday Mass during this Pandemic until further notice. Also, you are advised to stay home if you fall into the “at risk” group or are feeling ill. The Lord wants you to love your neighbor as yourself.

Again, it is imperative to call or register on line for whatever service you wish to attend. In order to be more equitable, please contact the parish the week you choose to attend not weeks in advance nor ask to register for multiple weeks at a time. This allows others an opportunity to come to church. As we have learned from the news reports, the number of attendees may fluctuate depending on the situation. Please be patient with this seemingly slow process. As we move forward, daily Mass will resume and notification will be made to the parish.

Masks and social distancing are mandatory for the protection of all. Ushers, greeters, cleaners and sacristans are all part of the re-opening team who are eager to welcome everyone back and assist in making this a smooth transition. If any of you would like to volunteer in any of these areas, please let us know. We are always in need of your help. E-mail: reopening@stcletusparish.com or call the Parish Center @ (708) 352-6209.

The Archdiocese asks us to implement these procedures for the well-being of all. We know this has been and will continue to be a different and challenging experience for us all as we long to gather again in person for the worship of our Lord. Our collective patience, willingness to help and desire to be together is a demonstration of our unity and love for one another.

Blessings,

Fr. Bob Clark

NEW MINISTRY -UNEMPLOYED TOGETHER

The pandemic has sadly created unemployment and reduced employment for several in our communities.

Unemployment is not just an economic problem; it impacts ones sense of worth, security and spirit. It can be a spiritual challenge as it affects people at every level. It affects ones well being.

St. Cletus Parish is launching a virtual small faith group called "Unemployed Together". It is to help those facing the same challenge of unemployment to grow in faith and relationship with Christ through the lens of this exceptionally challenging moment in his/her life.

All are welcome! - The small group will meet weekly, virtually via Zoom video conferencing. An invitation to the Zoom video meeting will be emailed to you the week that the sessions begin. Meetings will be held on either Tuesdays from 2:30-3:30 p.m. or on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. You can choose which time works best for your schedule when you register. Sessions will run from June 9 & 10 to July 14 & 15. Each session will last one hour.

Please go the parish website (stcletusparish.com) to sign up for this new virtual small faith sharing group!

GREATER CHICAGO FOOD DEPOSITORY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

GREATER CHICAGO FOOD DEPOSITORY

We have cut back on our number of volunteer slots at the St. Cletus Food Pantry, in order to keep within recommended social distancing guidelines. This means our slots have been filling quickly. THANK YOU! If you haven't been able to grab one of our volunteer slots, considering volunteering at the Greater Chicago Food Depository. They are in need of volunteers! PLUS, let them know you are from St. Cletus Food Pantry and you will earn $15 for the pantry each time you volunteer! This helps us reduce our food expenses at a critical time. Check out their link for volunteer eligibility information and sign up. <https://www.chicagosfoodbank.org/volunteer/>

INVITATION FOR HOPE, COMMUNITY, AND CONNECTION

Do you seek more social connection during these days of physical distancing? You are not alone!

You are invited to connect and share our human togetherness in these days of isolation. Facilitated by long-time parishioner and lector, Mark Staelgraeve, the conversation will start with gratitude, then honors our pain for the world, sees the possibilities through new eyes, and encourages us to go forth with intention. Unite with our community while discovering your way to actively create a new hopeful reality.

Groups meet virtually every other week on Sunday evenings from 6:00pm-7:30pm. The group is different each time, so attend one or attend them all. Register at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F044BAEAF23A5F58-stcletus1>.

Sunday Readings

What I say to you in the darkness,
speak in the light;
what you hear whispered,
proclaim on the housetops.

READING 1

Jer 20:10–13

Jeremiah said:

“I hear the whisperings of many:
‘Terror on every side!

Denounce! let us denounce him!’

All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine.

‘Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail,
and take our vengeance on him.’

But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion:

my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph.

In their failure they will be put to utter shame,
to lasting, unforgettable confusion.

O LORD of hosts, you who test the just,
who probe mind and heart,

let me witness the vengeance you take on them,
for to you I have entrusted my cause.

Sing to the LORD,
praise the LORD,

for he has rescued the life of the poor
from the power of the wicked!”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 69:8–10, 14, 17, 33–35

R. (14c) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

For your sake I bear insult,
and shame covers my face.

I have become an outcast to my brothers,
a stranger to my children,

Because zeal for your house consumes me,
and the insults of those who blaspheme you fall upon me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

I pray to you, O LORD,

for the time of your favor, O God!

In your great kindness answer me
with your constant help.

Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness;
in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

“See, you lowly ones, and be glad;

you who seek God, may your hearts revive!

For the LORD hears the poor, and his own who are in bonds he spurns not.

Let the heavens and the earth praise him,
the seas and whatever moves in them!”

R. Lord, in your great love, answer me.

READING 2

Rom 5:12–15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned—for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come.

But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

GOSPEL

Mt 10:26–33

Jesus said to the Twelve: “Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father’s knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father.”

ENTHUSIASM AND GRAMMAR

There is a good reason that the writings of St. Paul don't show up as examples in grammar textbooks. Today's reading is a case in point. It begins with one of those long Pauline run on sentences that leave lectors gasping for breath. So what? Take a closer look at how Paul's fervor for his subject matter derails the grammar. There is something admirable about being so caught up in his convictions that the words cannot come fast enough to express them, much less in an orderly fashion. Scripture scholars usually take this grammatical ineptness as a sign of a passage's early importance in the Christian community, something they were so ardent about that their language never got refined.

What leaves us in this condition? Re-telling the plot line of an action movie or the play-by-play of a sporting event? When was the last time any of us was so excited by our faith in Christ that we were left grasping for words, stumbling over our own errors in speech? It may be bad grammar, but it is an excellent way to inspire others with the message of Christ!

SAINT JOHN FISHER (1469-1535) AND SAINT THOMAS MORE (1477-1535)

June 22 - From Robert Bolt's classic A Man for All Seasons to Showtime's edgy The Tudors, Thomas More endears himself still: lawyer-statesman of impeccable integrity, remarried widower and affectionate father delighting in a lively household—four children, a pet monkey, even a paid jester! And challenges still: humanist-reformer, yet champion of Catholic faith and papal primacy. John Paul II named him Patron of Statesmen and Politicians, citing More's generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society. More's decision for principle over politics, conscience over convenience prompted his final words: "I die the king's good servant, but God's first." Alone among England's bishops, John Fisher dared challenge Henry VIII's divorce and repudiation of the papacy. When the Pope named the imprisoned Fisher a cardinal, Henry thundered: "Don't bother sending Fisher's red hat here; I'll send Fisher's head to Rome!" Whose "good servants" are we first? Isn't a right conscience worth the pain of standing alone?

2019-20 SCHOOL YEAR WRAP UP

"It has been nearly two weeks since our 8th grade graduation. We feel so proud and fortunate to have had such a wonderful ceremony given the COVID 19 restrictions. With the Holy Spirit strong in our midst, we were able to watch each student walk across our ceremonial stage to receive their diploma. We wish our 42 8th grade graduates the best of luck in the next chapter of their lives and welcome them to the alumni status of a St. Cletus Cardinal! Once a Cardinal, Always a Cardinal.

The end of the school year also brought the retirement of Mrs. Carol Reckwerdt. After 27 year of teaching, countless lessons to her students, and years of caring and compassion, Mrs. Reckwerdt decided it was time to spend more time with her family, grandchildren and dogs. We wish her all the best in her retirement!

The teachers spent the last week preparing for an online and an in school start to the school year in the fall. We are so pleased with the preparations that are already in place, regardless of how our school year begins. We Want To Be In School! And we are fully prepared to start our school year safely, if we are given the green light. Parents can prepare by making sure their student has their own personal school supplies, a shoe box size clear container, and a face mask.

We send our blessings to you all as you begin a summer unlike any other. Be safe, be healthy, be happy.

"It's a Great Day to Be a Cardinal!"
