A Note from the Pastor's Desk

"I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus."

Philippians 1:6.

Dear Friends,

Last week, the First Sunday of Advent, we were invited to grow in prayer, acknowledge our blessings, and always give thanks. How was it? Were you able to carve out a few more minutes each day for prayer? What happened as you became aware of some special blessings given to you or a loved one? Did you notice your heart desiring to give thanks? Feel free to continue with this exercise throughout the season of Advent.

How about if this week, starting with the Second Sunday of Advent, we discern, reflect, and ponder on the active presence of God in our lives and the lives of our loved ones. How aware are you of his presence in your life? What are some of the best practices you have discovered to cultivate a conscious recognition that God is always with you and actively involved in your daily life? How is prayer, acknowledging your blessings, and giving thanks helping you find him in your own heart? People who are good at this, no matter how hard and difficult life might be, are always radiating the closeness, goodness, peace, and love of God. We are blessed to serve, pray, and worship God with them at St. Cletus.

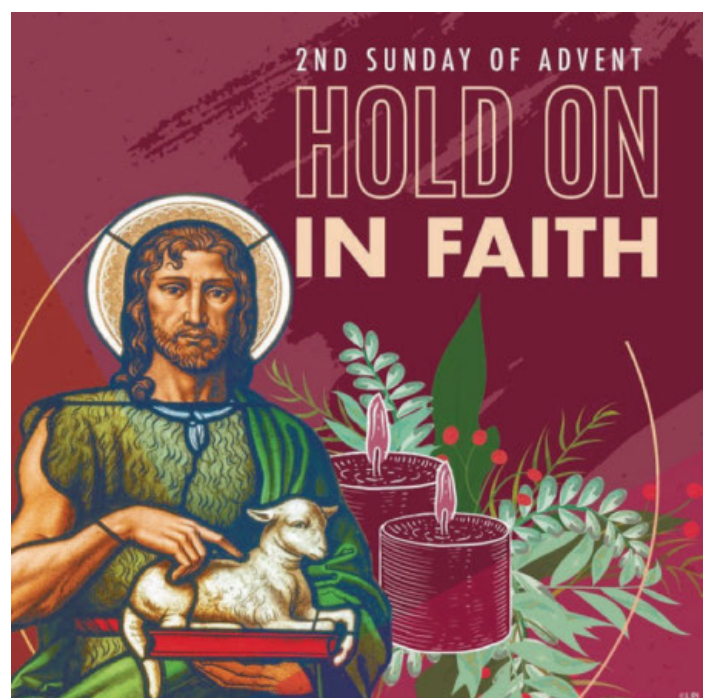

The weekend before Thanksgiving our parish, through the Food Pantry, distributed over 400 turkeys to our brothers and sisters in need. The love of God was received and given. Volunteers and guests greeted each other with respect, care, and love. God was present in everyone and everywhere. His active presence was felt by all. Their hearts were warmed by the love of God. That is precisely what I experienced as I showed up twice to welcome and thank everyone. As I acknowledge and thank Kendall Grant, Director of Social Concerns, and all the wonderful volunteers, I also would like to thank you for your prayers, support, and generosity.

This week on Thursday, December 12, we will be celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. We will start at 4:45 AM singing along with a very good Mariachi the Mañanitas (Morning serenade) to Our Lady followed by hospitality in the Parish Center. Then, at 7:00 PM, we will gather together and celebrate a special Mass (Spanish) to give thanks to the Lord for being close to us through Our Blessed Mother. After Mass, we will move to the Parish Center for hospitality. I am grateful to our leaders for arranging to have this special celebration at our parish. On behalf of them, I am extending you an invitation hoping you can join us.

May the teaching of St. Paul, "that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ" affirm the active presence of God in our lives.

Fr. Elmer Romero.

A Note from the Associate Pastor's Desk

"Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights; look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God." (Baruch 5:5)

The above verse is part of the first reading for this coming Second Sunday of Advent. It's a great image for me because it brings me back to the Holy Land pilgrimage I was on in 1999-2000 with my seminary class. It was a great trip, and there are lots of incredible memories. However, I listen to the prophet Baruch "Up, Jerusalem! stand upon the heights." The way Jerusalem is built up in elevation and from walking along the ramparts of the great city (the tops of their walls), one can see for miles to the east. but Baruch is not simply telling us because we can see forever, but that all of God's children are going to be called back one day -- and not simply the "holy ones." ALL of God's children. And how? Are they going to be afraid? What if God doesn't like me? Is He really going to call ALL of us?" Yes! REJOICING that they are remembered by God. Isn't that beautiful?

We are also let in just a little about John the Baptist. It's not the very beginning of his life and the story of Zechariah's vision of the angel. No. John is already grown up and fulfilling the prophesy that Zechariah made upon John's naming -- that he would announce to the world the coming of the Lord. "You, child, will be called prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give his people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins." (Luke 1:76-77) And his message was simple "Prepare!"

I know that I have been focusing on the formation series we have been having on Monday evenings for the last several weeks When You Pray by Edward Sri. The people in attendance are really loving it so far. It's amazing how something like a Bible Study can help to form new friendships as a group of people begin to trust one another. Years ago, I was in a small group of parishioners that formed to meet during Lent. Little did I know it would lead to an annual and significant part of our lives as disciples.

The group would normally attend a soup and bread dinner at the parish, and then disperse into our individual small groups. We always had something to give a kickstart to the discussion – scripture, formation material, questions of faith, etc. The discussions that ensued were sometimes very heavy. We could be deep because we learned to trust one another that what was said in our group time was sacred ground – what we call an internal forum, just like the discussions between the priest and penitent in confession. I see that happening with this group. It may not be something that happens every year like it was in my past, but trust is building every week at our table.

That trust is necessary. Invariably, the group discussion takes a detour and that is okay as long as everyone is still involved. That alone makes people more comfortable with sharing their thoughts and feelings without feeling like they are on trial or being judged for their view.

Small groups really are a great leap of faith and can really have a great effect on how we learn to care about one another, seeing each other as God sees us. Think about inviting people you know, know of but want to know better, or someone who is just a stranger to you. Good small groups are about 10-12 people in size. No one should monopolize the whole discussion. Everyone should have an opportunity to share. And if you are so moved, have it at your home and practice hospitality. Snacks and non-alcoholic drinks are great.

Just a few thoughts to consider for your future. I know that St. Cletus has begun Alpha (an opportunity to learn and pray together). Maybe there can be something else in the works for St. Cletus' future. Lent is a great time for such programs. There is never a shortage of good authors who have material and questions for discussion in their books.

Press on, St. Cletus. Prepare!

Fr. Mike

Thank You!

Thank you to our volunteers and donors, those who collected Turkey Bucks and donated at Jewel, those who loaded and unloaded, lifted and moved VERY HEAVY boxes of turkeys and sacks of potatoes, those who greeted and helped with check in, the smiley faces and the feet running carts to cars, all of our bakers and cookie sorters, on and on!

We raised over $5,000 for Thanksgiving meals at Jewel-Osco.

We unloaded over 6,500 lbs of food from GCFD.

You baked over 3,000 cookies!

We made 103 home deliveries

We had enough meals for 402 households this year! A record!

We are so grateful for each of you. THANK YOU!

2nd Sunday of Advent: Gospel Meditation-Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

By Fr. John Muir at ©LPI

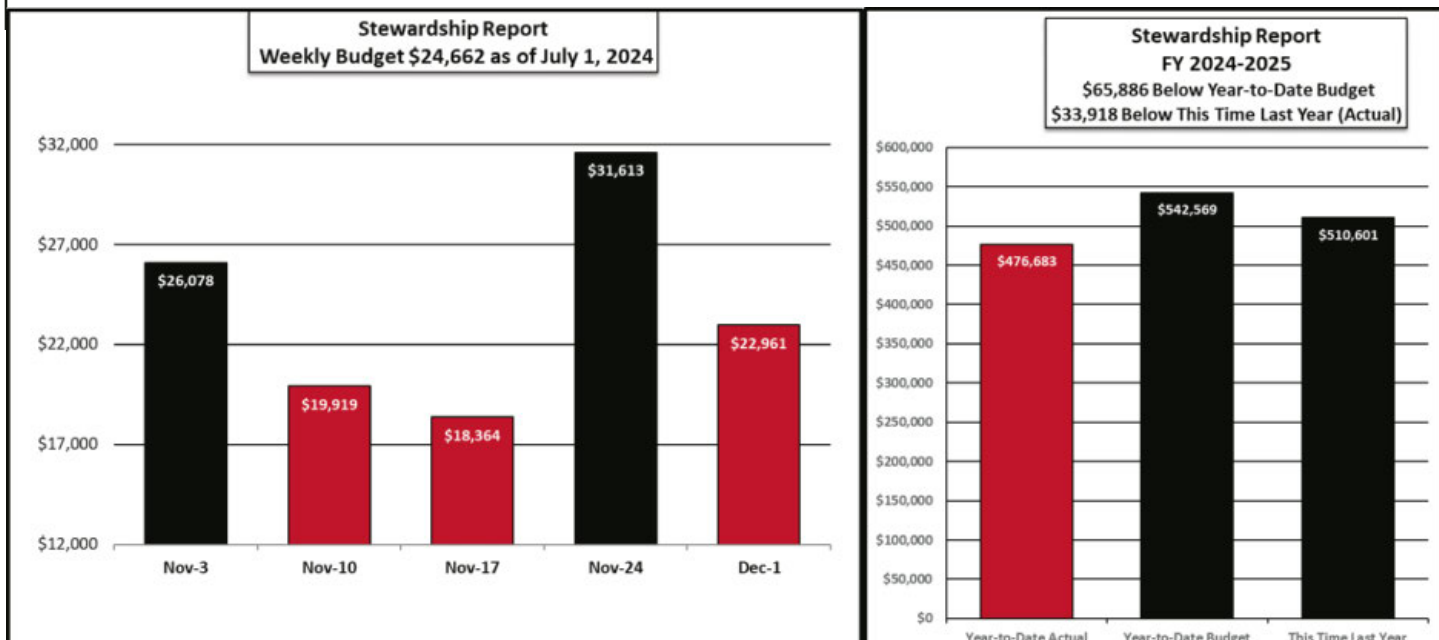

In the year 1995, in the seventeenth year of my life, when Fife Symington was governor of Arizona, Bill Clinton was president of the United States, Chuck Keiffer was pastor of St. Theresa parish in Phoenix, Arizona, and Ron and Mary were my parents, the word of God came to my youth minister Eric and through him I started to see the salvation of God. Soon, Christ came into my life never to leave. I'm thankful beyond words.

Why am I being so specific, you ask? Because in the Gospel this week we hear the specific names of people holding civic and religious authority in first century Palestine when "the word of God came to John the Baptist:" Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate, Herod, Philip, Lysanias, Annas, Caiaphas, and Zechariah. All this is meant to help us see that God breaks into our history, into real human events. Jesus is no mere myth. He is the Word-which-breaks-in, in concrete moments, you might say. And now we anticipate his coming once again in our specific situations.

Advent challenge: Name as many civic and religious leaders who are in authority currently in your life. Now, name who the potential John the Baptists may be. A spouse? A friend? A podcaster? A work colleague who brings God's word to you? Spend a moment considering that this comprises the concrete, historical setting into which Christ wishes to come. Then, with these specifics in mind, pray: "Come, Lord Jesus. Come."

— Father John Muir
