Notes from Fr. Bob...

“One mightier than I
is coming after me . . .
I have baptized you
with water;

he will baptize you
with the Holy Spirit.”

~ Mark 1:7, 8

By Baptism we too are anointed by the Spirit. This means that we too are inspired to follow in the footsteps of Peter in the living out of Christ’s message. We too may need to make breakthroughs in our understanding of that message as we go through life. It is not a message that is given in a fixed package in advance. It is a message that unfolds more and more as we allow ourselves to be guided by the Spirit, and, again, the Spirit may lead us down uncharted paths. But if we want to check whether the underlying direction of the Spirit is active within us, we need only look again at the examples offered by Peter and Paul. Are we conveyors of the good news of peace? Are we unifiers and reconcilers or do we drive others apart? Are we healers? Have we gotten in touch with that inner power that can bring about healing and renewal in the lives of others? The Church has always been involved in the service of healing, whether spiritual or physical. Many Christians give themselves to the healing professions under the Spirit’s inspiration, but through the power of baptism we are all called to heal each other through the little acts of daily care. Finally, when we look at our lives, do we, like Jesus, go around doing good? Is the world a better place for our presence in it? When we are touched by the Spirit, we are all able to be life-giving performers in the great dance of creation.

Blessings of Your Baptism Always!!!

Fr. Bob, Pastor

GIVING TREE

We wanted to pass along just a few of the kind thank you messages we're getting. Thank you for all of your generosity that makes this possible.

Hi [redacted]
My name is [redacted] and my family is a recipient of your food pantry and giving tree. I just wanted to say thank you for the food pantry the past couple of months. It has really helped my family, I have lost my job during this time. I also want to thank you for the Giving tree gifts for my kids. Thank you to you, the donors and all that were involved. Merry Christmas 🌲

AREA RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

MASS FOR LIFE AND MOVE THE MOVEMENT CAR RALLY

On Sunday, January 17, the pro-life movement will come to Mundelein with a drive-in, socially-distanced rally, which will feature inspiring speakers, including Cardinal Cupich, and an invigorating sense of community as we witness the sanctity of life. For more information and to register, please visit www.marchforlifefchicago.org/tour.

On Friday, January 22, the Archdiocesan Mass for Life will be livestreamed on the Archdiocese of Chicago YouTube channel from Holy Name Cathedral at 12 p.m. This Mass, which will be presided over by Bishop Kevin Birmingham, will be on the anniversary of Roe vs. Wade and the eve of the final event on the March for Life Chicago tour. For more information visit www.marchforlifefchicago.org/tour.

WORD OF LIFE

“When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of others; so too, others’ lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them.”

Other Ministry News

COMPASSIONATE CARE MINISTRY

The Compassionate Care Ministry is again badly in need of postage stamps for its notes of sympathy and support during the first year following the loss of a loved one. Each bereaved family receives six cards during that year. This means that if there are ten funerals during a period of one month, 50 stamps are needed in that month alone. Your generous donations have meant so much in the past and we are very grateful.

If you are able to contribute to this worthwhile ministry in this way, it will be very much appreciated. Simply place them in an envelope marked CCM and put them through the slot in the rectory door—or drop them in one of the collection baskets located at each exit in the church building.

BOOK DISCUSSION

The next book discussion will be at 7 P.M. February 9, 2021

We will discuss Happiness is a Choice You Make by John Leland.

For those who like to look ahead:

April 13, 2021: To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

June 8, 2021: Saints for All Occasions by J Courtney Sullivan

Questions – call Denise at 708.712.8294

MISSION LADIES

We are still looking for White Cotton Eyelet fabric to continue to making Bibs for the babies who are Christened at St. Cletus. Also, need crosses for the bibs, either in Gold tone or Silver tone, at least 1” high. These can be delivered to Dolores Scalette, or left at the Ushers room in church. Please label the package "Mission Ladies". If delivering to Dolores, please call first to the number below.

We are not taking any new members now until the virus is over. But, if you need any information on our future meetings - call the number below.

Stay warm, stay safe, and keep praying.
Dolores Scaletta, #708-839-9605

WATER

It may seem obvious that the theme for the Baptism of the Lord is “water,” but when one spends time with the readings today, one can see many different connotations for that water and its power. Isaiah calls the poor who are thirsty and tired to come to the water and take the spiritual food and drink that will be provided if we but seek the Lord. Here, God is both destination and consolation. The responsorial psalm follows suit with the image of drawing water from the springs of salvation. 1 John takes us to the reality of Christ as eucharist: not only Jesus’ birth and baptism, but his death, as we hear that Jesus came “by water and by blood.” The Gospel depicts John baptizing Jesus with water, and the Spirit baptizing Jesus. We experience both the humanity and the divinity of Christ. Indeed, water has much power to save us.

BEING THE MESSENGER

When we go to a pop music concert, there is often an opening act. Usually they are a young group on their way up, or older musicians who are past their prime and still hanging on in the business. This is indeed a hard job. In the comedy world it is the same thing. You have to warm up the crowd. You are not who they are coming to see, and audiences may be unresponsive, come in late, or not pay a lot of attention. Yet John had no problem being the opening act, the messenger, the harbinger of faith for Jesus. He was very devout in his faith and knew what his role was. Many Jews were actively seeking a messiah, and he was quick to let them know that he was not the one for whom they were waiting. “I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” Yet he conducted his ministry with faith and hope.

BEING THE MESSAGE

As John humbly carried out his mission and Jesus accepted this simple baptism by John, the Holy Spirit indeed came down upon Jesus, and God proclaimed for the first time, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” Thus Jesus began his formal ministry. There must have been much that he already knew, but also much that he uncovered each day in his encounters with the disciples and the crowds. As he responded “yes” to the Father over and over, his thirst was quenched and his spirit strengthened.

How many times do we witness baptisms in the parish? The priest ministers with simple elements of water and oil, but the Spirit is called down each time. Every time we participate, we are experiencing the message, experiencing the call again. How many times have we blessed ourselves with holy water, or participated in a sprinkling rite? Yet in these days, when church fountains are empty due to safety precautions, we need to remember those other times, trust in God, and sing the prayer of Isaiah in our hearts about drawing the water joyfully. We must trust in the message. We must become the message of God’s saving action through our baptism and our lives.

Sunday Notes

THE WATERS OF BAPTISM

When new sod is put in, it needs constant saturation with water. Landscapers say that this “knits” the sod to the soil. The same when a branch is grafted onto a tree: the poultice that joins them at the splice must be kept wet at all times. Water is the stuff that binds the very cells of our bodies together. No wonder religions throughout all times and cultures have used it so prominently. When Jesus stepped into the Jordan for baptism, he “knit” himself to what had come before him. By going to the Jordan, he made himself one with the people of Israel who had crossed it into their Promised Land. With John the Baptist, Christ wove himself into the prophetic tradition that heralded the coming reign of God. He had become fully human in the waters of Mary’s womb, and by partaking in the rite of the baptism of repentance, Jesus identified himself with our sinful, frail humanity. It is through the waters of baptism that Christ continues to graft new members onto his Body, the Church; through these waters we are cleansed from sin and filled with the promise of grace, given our destiny for eternal life. For us, as for Jesus, it is also the waters of baptism that inaugurate our mission to proclaim the Good News.

FEAST OF FAITH

The Sign of the Cross - At the beginning of our prayer, we make the sign of the cross together. This sign, simple and powerful, operates on many levels. We trace the sign of the cross over our bodies, reminding ourselves that the cross of Christ has become our source of resurrection, life, and grace. With this sign, we also profess our faith in the Trinity: the presider does not say “in the names,” but “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit”—three persons, one God. The sign of the cross is also a baptismal reminder, for every sign of the cross echoes the words spoken over us at our baptism, which marked our entry into the saving mystery of Christ. This many-layered sign is also our primary sign of blessing: the cross is traced over people, places, and things upon which we ask God to impart divine benediction.

In blessing ourselves with the sign of the cross at the beginning of Mass, we acknowledge the mystery that has gathered us together: that Christ, the crucified and risen One, is living, and that we are members of his Body. Our response, our Amen, is our yes to all this, our first profession of faith.

AN ANCIENT BAPTISTERY

One of the most ancient and enduring sites for baptism in Rome is the church of San Giovanni in Fonte. This church is in fact a baptistery, and houses the font for the Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of Rome. The Emperor Constantine sponsored its construction in the year 315, and it is therefore the oldest baptistery in the world. It is the model for nearly all later baptisteries, including perhaps the font in your own parish church.
