ST. CLETUS MUSIC MINISTRY

During weekend masses as we continue in our current mode, I have heard from so many of you regarding just how much you miss being able to participate in the singing. In a recent Canticle I mentioned that St. Cletus is one of the most “singing parishes” that I have every ministered at. You love your music and you love to sing! But for everyone’s health and safety, we just can’t risk spreading more of this terrible virus in the “spray” which singing produces.

On that note, this story arrived in my email this past week and to me, it put things in perspective. I am pleased to share it with each of you.

“This is a story of a visiting pastor who attended a men's breakfast in the middle of a rural farming area of the country. The group had asked an older farmer, decked out in bib overalls, to say grace for the morning breakfast. "Lord, I hate buttermilk", the farmer began. The visiting pastor opened one eye to glance at the farmer and wondered where this was going. The farmer loudly proclaimed, "Lord, I hate lard." Now the pastor was growing concerned. Without missing a beat, the farmer continued, " And Lord, you know I don't much care for raw white flour ". The pastor once again opened an eye to glance around the room and saw that he wasn't the only one feeling uncomfortable. Then the farmer added, "But Lord, when you mix them all together and bake them, I do love warm fresh biscuits. So Lord, when things come up that we don't like, when life gets hard, when we don't understand what you're saying to us, help us to just relax and wait until you are done mixing. It will probably be even better than biscuits. Amen. " Within that prayer there is great wisdom for all when it comes to complicated situations like we are experiencing in the world today. Stay strong, my friends, because our LORD is mixing several things that we don't really care for, but something even better is going to come when HE is done with it.”

May God bless us all!

Karen Ziemba

SAINT JOHN’S ABBEY DAILY REFLECTION

Psalm 62: “In you alone is my soul at rest. My help comes from you.”

Hard up for encouraging thoughts and words to give you, I have turned to some of the wonderful people I hear from via e-mail or courtesy of the US Postal system.

Jim’s wife Beth had a stroke some years ago which has left her paralyzed and unable to speak. Nevertheless because of occasional signs he reads to her and prays with her. Most recently he says: “We are both enjoying a remarkable work, Joan Chittister's The Breath of the Soul. We celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary in June with all three children present from Maine, Oregon and Rhode Island. Beth wore her wedding dress which she had made, and all enjoyed seeing her in it for the first time.”

Julie lives on a farm and writes: “The computers are slow, but the grass is growing. If I get totally fed up with the computer, I may just mow the lawn today or I could watch the two baby calves running around the pasture. They are about 2 or 3 weeks old and full of energy!”

“Four years working for Haiti relief,” Ted writes, “has been very stressful, fast paced, and nonstop. I’m using this Covid-19 time to pray and reflect. I feel beat up; Mission work comes with its own set of trials such as an armed robbery in 2018.... I'm glad you still have, like me, many lay friends with whom you can connect despite physical distancing. How bland life would be without friends to share happiness with! We are social beings, meant to be around others, sharing fun, tough times and memories.”

“I am really getting sick of being at home, but really have no reason to complain,” says Sally. “I am not a single mom in a small apartment with little kids. We have a spacious backyard and rooms we can go to be alone if we wish.”

Doris writes: “I am reading Dorothy Day’s In My Own Words. It is certainly appropriate currently. She railed against the inequality of our society and stressed that the only way to know and serve God is to do so through and to our neighbor. Not the ones we socialize with, but those who need us, the poor. And she didn’t write about something she didn’t live every day! I hope real change can finally come to make Americans of every color and gender equal.”

Psalm 27: “I believe I shall see the Lord’s goodness / in the land of the living.

Wait for the Lord; be strong; / be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord!”

Religious Education

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN RE?

The church teaches us that the family is the “domestic church”, a cell that makes up the larger church. The family is almost like a miniature parish. When a child is baptized, parents take a vow to be the “first and best teacher of the faith” to their children. Never has this been more brought to life than in the last few months of this pandemic. We found ourselves quarantining at home, helping our children through e-learning of school subjects, family religious education lessons, and mass on television or streaming it from YouTube. These have certainly been unprecedented and challenging times.

Now we look to the Fall and the reopening of schools and Religious Education programs. We have been studying CDC, state, and archdiocesan guidelines for the safe reopening of schools. The safety of our children has always been the primary factor in decisions we make regarding our programs. It is with this in mind, and a preponderance of caution, that we announce that next year's Religious Education program will be done as a Family Catechesis program, at home.

Schools in Illinois plan to keep children safe in their reopening plans by keeping them in cohorts or small groups that do not mix with other groups. In our Religious Education environment, we cannot ensure that same safety within the cohort because we have children mixed in classrooms that are feeding from 7 or more different schools. We believe the risk of contagious infection would be too high, especially during this ongoing pandemic. Furthermore, the archdiocese is mandating a strict limit to the number of volunteers we bring into the program. To follow the guidelines for maximum child safety, we would need to utilize 4x the number of volunteers we currently have to man doors, take temperatures, screen children, and sanitize for their protection. Many of our Catechists also fall into the most vulnerable population, and we would be putting their health at significant risk as well.

We know that we have a unique opportunity to partner together this year. We believe that our Family Catechesis model will provide our families with lesson plans that are downloadable/online, engaging and fun, easy to follow and not burdensome, and relational allowing families to bond together with each other and Christ and his Church. We will do this together, and we are here to support you every step of the way.

Our Family Catechesis model will provide two family lesson plans each month, along with weekly mass discussion cards and activities, and fun zoom calls! We will also send out a packet with a Saint of the month, as well as provide monthly service opportunities for our families. We also are planning to gather together in person for each grade level during the year for prayer and a special activity. For students preparing for Sacraments, we will have additional online lessons for sacramental preparation.

An email was sent from Barb Campbell with details about our plan for the fall and how to register. Please check your inbox or spam folder for this important email. Registration forms are also available online at stcletusparish.com/re/ or you can email Barb Campbell (bcampell@stcletusparish.com) for the registration materials or with any questions you may have.

We are asking all families to please register by August 24, 2020. We look forward to supporting our families as we come together to keep our faith at the center of all we do in these challenging times!

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

After the miracle of Jesus walking on water, the disciples exclaimed, "Truly, you are the Son of God" (Matthew 14:33). Most Christians will probably never experience such a dramatic miracle. Like Elijah, we await the manifestation of God in other moments. Perhaps the biggest challenge for the believer is to be constantly attuned to the possible presence of God in the everyday events of life. This is a stance that takes some people years to develop. Others seem to find the Lord easily in the simple things. As the week unfolds, let us look for the presence of God in the little things around us. Perhaps, like Elijah, we will be surprised at what we find. And, like the disciples, we can add our voice to the confession, "Truly you are the Son of God."

SAINT TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS (EDITH STEIN) (1891-1942)

August 9

"Come," Edith gently whispered, taking her sister Rosa's hand, "let us go for our people!" These were Edith Stein's last words as the Nazis, enraged at the Dutch bishops' condemnation of their genocide, took into custody all Catholic converts from Judaism. Born Jewish, but non-practicing from her teens, Edith's search for truth led to a doctorate in philosophy, a brilliant career as professor and author and, finally, to the Autobiography of Saint Teresa of Avila, which she read in one sitting, then declared, "That is the Truth!" Baptized on January 1, 1922, observed then as the feast of Jesus' initiation into the covenant of Abraham, confirmed on February 2, the feast of Jesus' Presentation in the Temple, Edith entered the cloistered Carmelites in Cologne, transferring to a convent in Holland when she realized that, because of the Nazi persecution of the Jews, her presence could imperil the safety of the other nuns. She died in the gas chambers of Auschwitz as a daughter of Israel and of the Church.

A NOTE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

The Archdiocese of Chicago believes strongly that our reopening plan, which provides for full-time in-person learning, is in the best interests of children and our mission. In-person learning is essential for the intellectual, emotional, physical and spiritual growth of our students. Our reopening plan maximizes the safety of our students and employees while allowing the resumption of in-person learning. It is therefore our intention to remain committed to our plan to offer five-day, in-person learning in addition to a remote, e-learning, option for those students who are unable or whose parents are unwilling to return to classrooms.

In designing our reopening plan, we consulted guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention as well as input on safely reopening and important mitigation efforts from the Chicago Department of Public Health (CDPH), state health officials and infectious disease experts on our own task force. If this guidance were to change, we would adjust our plan accordingly.

We have prepared our staff and teachers and have adapted school buildings to follow these guidelines.

Yours in Christ,
 Jim Rigg, Ph.D.
 Superintendent of Catholic Schools
