Notes from Fr. Bob...

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The cathedral of St. Bavo in Gent, Belgium, is home to the fifteenth century altar panel; "The Adoration of the Mystic Lamb." As people crowd around the work, gazing in wonder at the beautiful art by Jan Van Eyck, eyes are drawn to the central panel. At the center is an altar on which stands a young lamb and next to it a chalice. A spear has pierced the side of the lamb. Blood flows into the chalice from the wound. Around the altar which stands in a fertile garden, angels bow in adoration worshipping and singing praise to the lamb. In front of the altar there is a fountain from which pours water. It runs in streams and waters the garden. Flowers bloom and medicinal herbs grow in abundance. Around the altar are gathered pilgrims, penitents, preachers, priests, bishops, popes and many saints who have dedicated their life to Christ. The people of God – in all their diversity – gather to praise Christ who gave his life for his people. Christ is the Paschal Lamb who offered his life as a ransom for all. It is a medieval scene of the communion of saints who offer praise and thanksgiving.

Today many tourists travel to visit this wonderful piece of art. What feeling does the picture evoke in the hearts of those who gather around it? Maybe it renews faith in God's victory of Easter?

The altar piece portrays vividly the message conveyed by the First Letter of Peter. It celebrates the paschal lamb who gave his life so that all people may have their sins forgiven, be healed of hurt and suffering and share in eternal life. The scene depicts the fact that God has no favorites by showing the diversity of people who gather to praise Christ. Rich and poor, priest and laity, saint and sinner gather to worship. The fountain represents the water of life that is given at Baptism. Water, as gift from God, also gives life to the medicinal herbs, which bring relief in suffering. The blood, which comes from the side of the lamb, is the blood of Christ received in communion. Through Baptism and Eucharist the life of the faithful is nourished and strengthened. The medieval scene shows the sacraments and the way in which they nourish the life of the Christian. The disciples on the road to Emmaus recognize Christ at the breaking of bread; he gives them new sight and understanding. The scene reminds those who observe it that Christian faith is a total gift from God. The response which follows is a feeling of awe and a hymn of thanksgiving.

The pilgrims who gather at the altar are those who have walked to Santiago de Compostela. Their journey may have lasted many months as they travelled from different parts of Europe. Like the disciples on the way to Emmaus, their pilgrimage would have meant days of joy and burning hearts, moments of faith and hope in Christ. It would have also involved difficult days of travel when feet were sore and painful. Nights of cold and danger must have been endured, when many must have wondered why they had undertaken the pilgrimage. The comfort and encouragement of other pilgrims must have been important.

Christian discipleship is a daily pilgrimage. Most people do not undertake a physical journey to Compostela or Jerusalem but make a journey of faith by remaining faithful to Christ and continuing to love their neighbor and their family in the midst of everyday life. This love is revealed in small but significant gestures; daily tasks at home, the washing and care of the sick, or a word of encouragement to those who struggle. Like pilgrims, by noticing the difficulty and struggle of others, each moment can become an opportunity to respond and show love.

The scene from the altar panel evokes the awe and wonder of the events of Easter. They can never be fully comprehended or described by words. Perhaps the artist is able to grasp the mystery more fully? These events can only be enjoyed. To grow in the capacity to praise and give thanks to God is the most important aspect of the Christian life. It recognizes that the message of Christ is a total gift to each one of us. The healing of Christ transforms each person to grow in holiness. Each moment presents the opportunity to become holy and grow in love.

Easter Blessings and Prayers,

Fr. Bob

Dissecting Owl Pellets

As part of our science curriculum the fifth-grade classes dissected owl pellets recently. Owls are birds of prey. That means they hunt the animals that they eat. After an owl eats the small rodents, birds, and bugs that are a part of its nightly diet, its stomach cannot digest the fur, bones, teeth, feathers, and insect shells from that food so it regurgitates it in the form of a pellet.

Third Graders Learn About Farming

Third-graders recently went on a field trip to the Chicago High School of Agricultural Sciences. It is a magnet school on the Southside of Chicago where 40 acres are dedicated to a working farm. They learned about farming, pigs, cows, and many other livestock. Students got to see animals, taste natural honey, and learn about where our food comes from!

Opening Track Meet

Last weekend St Cletus hosted the first Track Meet of the season. A big thank you to all the parent and alumni volunteers that made it a success. Our Track and Field program gives students from 5th-grade to 8th-grade an opportunity to learn events from sprints and relays to javelin and triple jump in a positive instructive environment.

Capital Campaign

Living Our Faith, Building Our Future

Five years ago, we began a journey. Recognizing that our facilities were no longer meeting the needs for our parish or school, we embarked on Phase I of a fundraising effort to build a new Parish Center. Together, with generous pledges, fundraising efforts, investments, and parish savings, we have secured $3.6 million to date. As a result, we have not only broken ground, but our facility stands near completion. Our new Parish Center will include:

- Handicap accessible meeting rooms to accommodate the various ministries within our vibrant parish
- A large multi-purpose space, featuring a stage and a gymnasium
- Handicap accessible and more centralized office space
- Concessions stand for hospitality and sporting events

Morrissey Hall will be re-purposed to serve as a cafeteria for our school children and continue to be available as additional space for parish and school events.

Thanks to your generosity, this dream is now a reality. Now, it is time to bring this project across the finish line.

Complete the Vision

With work on the exterior of the new Parish Center nearing completion, we grow more eager to move in. However, additional funds are needed to complete the interior of the facility. In addition to the critical spaces the Parish center will add—meeting rooms, a gym, and stage—completing our original vision will also provide for amenities such as basketball hoops, bleachers, changing rooms, concessions stand, handicap lift for the stage, and general purpose lighting.

Additional equipment needs that will help the Parish Center become completely operational and functional include:

- Gym equipment
- Stage lighting
- Stage curtains
- Furnishings
- Concessions equipment
- Projection screens and projectors
- Meeting room and gym audio
- Security equipment

Without the continued support of our parishioners, St. Cletus will need to finance the remainder of our Parish Center. We are committed to taking on as little debt as possible. We are asking for the people of St. Cletus to once again come together in support of this critical project.

To Teach Who Christ Is

An important part of our campaign will be our parish's participation in the Archdiocese of Chicago's To Teach Who Christ Is campaign. We are eager to faithfully support this fundraising effort for strong schools, parishes, and lay leaders. Funds raised will go towards scholarships for students in need, Catholic education innovation, religious education programming, and facility life safety.

HE IS RISEN ! HOW WILL YOU RISE ?

Happy Easter Season! I have found that my most meaningful Easter seasons seem to culminate from my most meaningful Lenten preparations. But that doesn't necessarily mean that if we lacked effort in during the opportunities of Lent, or slacked off from our well-intentioned resolutions, that we should be disheartened. Easter, after all, is about the rising after the fall. Jesus rose from the dead. Sometimes we are so comfortable with that statement we forget to ponder the wonder of it all. I challenge us all to really take some time to think about what Christ's Resurrection means for us. What does His invitation to true freedom allow us to do and to be? How will you allow Christ to help you rise again, each time you fall ? Happy Easter to all !
