Notes from Fr. Bob...

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Mark is just beginning to tell us the story of Jesus. He has set out his main character's credentials, offering us the witness of John the Baptist and the prophecies of the Scriptures. Now he brings Jesus himself onto the scene. It is at the time of John's arrest. There is an undercurrent of danger running through Mark's account of Jesus' life, an undercurrent that will grow stronger, to flow out into the events culminating in his death. Jesus begins his public life with a summary of what he is about, as succinct a Mission Statement as any modern organization could demand. The time people have been waiting for has come. The kingdom of God, the new state of God's presence in the world, is being inaugurated. To be part of it we have to repent and believe the Good News. Putting flesh on these bones will be the story of the gospel. We see people turning away from the past, turning from evil and from failure and being transformed by what Jesus says; we will see people discovering their true destiny.

The first example we are offered is the calling of Jesus' closest followers or disciples. Mark's gospel is very much the gospel of action, so here too we see no questioning of destiny but an immediate response. Simon and Andrew, James and John don't utter a word. At once they leave both their livelihood and their families and follow Jesus. Mark was well aware of the cost to early Christian communities of their belief, where following Jesus brought persecution and inevitable family splits. For Romans, for example, the gods of the household, the lares and penates, were inextricably bound up with being family. So you could not follow Jesus and remain within your family, unless your whole family chose to follow you in your belief. The disciples are offered as a reassuring model. Even before knowing Jesus they respond immediately to him. It is a world of high drama and response Mark is introducing to us.

We live in a world that is often very confused. Some young people do still grow up with a clear sense of purpose and conviction. Many struggle to discover themselves against the pressures of peer groups, changing fashions, conflicting values and an underlying sense of uncertainty. In other parts of the world oppressive regimes and a lack of economic and political freedom make it even more difficult to discover that sense of having something special to do or be in life.

Mark's draws a picture that is tough, but is also reassuring. In one way he is letting us know that nothing has changed. The discovery of destiny will always be a challenge. We always have to leave a lot that we consider important behind. It may even be our family or our livelihood. The American poet Robert Frost talked about taking the road less traveled by, and there is always that element of the unknown involved; but that, as he went on to say, makes all the difference. What we have to leave behind are bits of us that impede our real progress, the baggage we all carry in one way or another – the false messages and perceptions, the fears and anxieties. What faces us is the Good News. The Good News tells us that we matter in a unique way. It tells us that we too are part of Christ's transfiguration of the world into a better place.

Blessings Always,

WORD OF LIFE

“Many people know someone personally who is suffering because of an abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing? ... Even a woman who doesn’t go to church or think of herself as religious can be afraid that God will never forgive her for having an abortion. She should know that God loves and forgives those who are sorrowful. He wants to comfort them and give them his peace.”

Religious Education

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION?

Over the past few months, many people have been busy preparing virtually for Sacramental Celebrations. We have young children, teenagers, High School students, young adults, and more “seasoned” adults all in the process of preparing for Baptism, First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation.

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

We have two people in our RCIA program this year, one younger elementary aged student and one adult. They have been meeting virtually through Zoom calls each week since early October.

Our younger student, Anahy Martinez, is a Catechumen. This means she is preparing for all three sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation. She is a wonderful young girl, who was so excited to receive her first Bible at the Rite of Acceptance in December! She has spent each day reading more of the stories of our faith in the Scripture, and is loving every minute of it!

Erica Velazquez is our adult Candidate. Erica will be completing the Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) at the Easter Vigil. Erica joins our weekly zoom calls with enthusiasm, and we have a large RCIA team on the calls as well. Years ago, Erica brought her two sons (then in 5th and 8th Grade) to join our RCIA program for children. Inspired by their faith journey, she has returned to complete the journey to the Sacraments of Initiation herself.

Adult Confirmation Class

This year, St. Cletus offered an adult Confirmation class for the first time. We are collaborating with St. John of the Cross and St. Francis Xavier to offer this virtual class. We have six adults in the class, meeting for seven consecutive weeks in preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation. The ages of our six participants are mostly young adults. They are a dynamic and fun group of people who are eager to learn and share their faith stories with one another. We are excited to have them join in our larger Confirmation celebrations at the end of February, where they can witness to their own faith and desire to be confirmed, along with our teenagers of the parish.

Sacrament of Confirmation

This year we are preparing 103 teenagers in the Religious Education program and the Parish School for the Sacrament of Confirmation. These teens have been very busy preparing for this sacrament by completing different requirements, including: curriculum lessons, writing a saint report, participating in a virtual Sponsor Meeting, completing and journaling about service experiences and writing a letter to the Pastor sharing why they desire to be confirmed.

Confirmation masses are scheduled for the weekend of February 27 and 28. Due to the pandemic restrictions, we are limited in the number of people allowed in each mass, so we will be celebrating in four different Confirmation masses this year. Also due to the pandemic, the Archdiocese has delegated the authority to confirm to the Pastor this year, so our 103 teens and six adults will be confirmed this year by Fr. Bob Clark. It is a wonderful honor for Fr. Bob to be able to confirm these young people in his final year as pastor here at St. Cletus.

First Reconciliation and First Eucharist

This year we are preparing 100 young students for these two important sacraments.

First Reconciliation services have been postponed twice this year due to COVID-19 surges, but we look forward to celebrating with these children in March.

First Eucharist will be held in five different masses this year (similar to what occurred last year during the pandemic) in late April and early May.

Please keep all of these young children, teenagers, young adults and “seasoned” adults in your prayers over the coming months. We are so happy that we can continue to share God’s outpouring of grace and love through the sacraments with all of them, even during a pandemic. God’s love and mercy conquers all!

The Splendors of Ireland

May 15-25, 2022

Depart/return USA

Dear friends,

Given the events of last year we decided to reschedule the trip to May 2022.

This will give all interested time to get vaccinated, decompress, get comfortable with traveling by air again and really enjoy a relaxing Irish vacation.

We had a webinar late last year which covers the itinerary in detail and the recording is available if you are interested by contacting me via phone or by email.

Ireland is a truly unique place as all who've been there or came from there will agree.

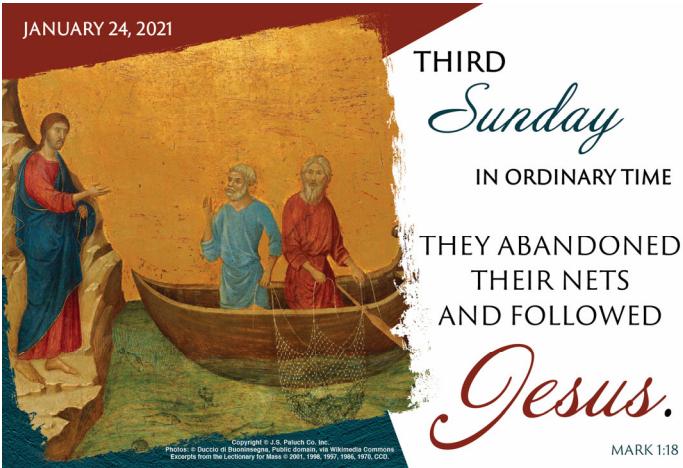

We look forward to your company, on what we believe will be a most memorable visit to the Emerald Isle, land of laughter, awesome hospitality, Guinness and a much slower pace of life.

Sunday Notes

A NEW DAY DAWNS

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing “by their actions” how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, “The world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live “as though” they aren’t doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn’t a new day dawn today for us as well?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Ninevites turn from their evil ways in response to Jonah’s message (Jonah 3:1-5, 10).

Psalm — Teach me your ways, O Lord (Psalm 25).

Second Reading — The world in its present form is passing away (1 Corinthians 7:29-31).

Gospel — Jesus proclaims, “Repent, and believe in the gospel.” The new disciples abandon their nets and follow him (Mark 1:14-20).

FEAST OF FAITH

The Penitential Rite

Standing together in the presence of the Lord, we acknowledge our weakness, our sins and faults and failings. But the penitential rite is really less about our sins than it is about God’s mercy. It is not a time for individual confession, like a mini-sacrament of reconciliation. It is, rather, a preparatory rite, preparing us to praise the mercy of Christ as we acknowledge our own weakness. When Simon Peter witnesses the miraculous catch of fish—when he realizes who is in the boat with him—he falls at Jesus’ feet with the words, “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man” (Luke 5:8). We are like Peter. The more aware of the Lord’s presence we become, the more awareness we also have of our sinfulness, our weakness.

The penitential rite of the Mass takes several forms, from the traditional Confiteor or “I confess” to a litany, spoken or sung by the deacon or cantor with responses by the entire assembly. The penitential rite always includes the words Kyrie, eleison; Christe, eleison—Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy. This ancient Greek prayer came to the Roman liturgy from the East, and still echoes in many of the litanies of the Eastern Rite Churches. These words turn our gaze from our own weakness to the gentleness, the kindness, the forgiving love of Christ.

SESSION TWO: "The Good Samaritan: Who is my Neighbor?" | January, 28, 2021 from 7 - 8:15 pm

SESSION THREE: "Self-gift as the Key to Deeper Fulfillment" | February, 4, 2021 from 7 - 8:15 pm

Interested individuals can attend one or more than one session. It is not necessary to have read Fratelli Tutti to participate. Email mmcmahon@sfxlg.org to register/receive the Zoom invitation.

COMPASSIONATE CARE MINISTRY

The Compassionate Care Ministry is again badly in need of postage stamps for its notes of sympathy and support during the first year following the loss of a loved one. Each bereaved family receives six cards during that year. This means that if there are ten funerals during a period of one month, 50 stamps are needed in that month alone. Your generous donations have meant so much in the past and we are very grateful.

If you are able to contribute to this worthwhile ministry in this way, it will be very much appreciated. Simply place them in an envelope marked CCM and put them through the slot in the rectory door—or drop them in one of the collection baskets located at each exit in the church building.
