PENTECOST SUNDAY

THANK YOU TO OUR CATECHISTS

Classes for our Religious Education program have come to an end for this school year. Celebrating First Communion for over 100 of our school and religious education children was a beautiful way to end and yet begin another part of our children's faith journey. It will be a joy to be able to welcome these young folks to the table each week with their families.

Faith formation involves the sharing of the Lord's gifts from many people beginning with parents. Additional nurturing is done by the instruction and modeling given by our teachers/ catechists and aides.

In the Religious Education program, we rely greatly on the generosity and love of our catechists and aides. There are over 45 parishioners who selflessly give of their time and talent to faithfully serve the little ones as catechists or classroom aides. We are grateful to each of them and wish them a peace-filled and joyful summer. We look forward to welcoming them refreshed in the fall.

Notes from Fr. Bob...

PENTECOST SUNDAY 2016

A teacher was asking the children the names of their brothers and sisters. One five-year-old explained that she had a new baby brother who was to be baptized the following Saturday and that he was going to be called Euan. "That's a very nice but unusual name, Andrea," said the teacher. "I suppose he's going to be called Euan after a family member or other relative?" "No, teacher," came the reply from Andrea, "he's going to be called Euan after the Holy Spirit." "After the Holy Spirit?" queried the teacher. "But the Holy Spirit isn't called Euan, is he?" "Oh yes, teacher," replied Andrea. "Our parish priest always says: "...with YOU-AND the Holy Spirit." We're not told what the teacher said in return!

Of course, when small children seem rather hazy about the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, we can make allowances. But the tragedy is when adults fall into the same category, for as today's readings make clear the Holy Spirit is essential to the life of the Church and to the life of each member of the Church.

Our first reading takes us to an upper room in Jerusalem. There Mary and the disciples are engaged in earnest prayer. They've been through a most eventful few weeks. Not long ago they had been devastated by the death of their Master; then, on Easter Sunday, sorrow had given way to bewildering joy with the news that he had risen from the tomb. But that was fifty days ago. Some of them had seen Jesus ascend into heaven, but even that couldn't be the end of the story. After all, today's gospel recalls that it was in this same upper room on the night of the Last Supper that he promised his friends that he would not leave them orphans but would send them the Holy Spirit – the Paraclete or Advocate – who would guide and protect, lead and inspire them in the days ahead.

That promise is about to be kept – and in dramatic fashion. A violent wind is felt throughout the house, tongues of fire rest on the head of each person, there is preaching in tongues so that people of different nations can understand, and many are converted. These are the events that announce the coming of the Holy Spirit: the Church springs into life.

When Pope John called the Second Vatican Council, he said that he wanted it to bring a new Pentecost. Of course the Holy Spirit has never left the Church since the first Pentecost day, for if that were to happen the Church would simply cease to be; it would have lost its soul. Nonetheless, in every age the plea is made – it should be our plea today – that the Holy Spirit will come again, in the sense that the Spirit's presence will be felt in a renewed and reinvigorated Church, a Church more responsive to grace and better able to spread the fire of love throughout the world.

However, the Holy Spirit is not only at the heart of the Church's life; the Spirit is at the heart of the life of every Christian. The Spirit's coming to us was a good deal less dramatic than the one we have heard about today but it is no less certain. In our Lord's own words: the Holy Spirit "abides with you". He goes on to explain that those who love him will be loved by the Father, and then he and the Father – and where they are, there too is the Spirit – "will come and make our home in them".

And there are those incredible statements of St. Paul: "the Spirit of God" he says, "has made his home in you"; without that Spirit you would not belong to Christ, who will bring about your resurrection from the dead; whenever you cry out "Abba, dear Father!" it is the Spirit who is bearing witness to the fact that you are a child of God, joint heir with Christ to the glory of heaven.

Whether or not Andrea's little brother is called after the Holy Spirit on his baptismal day, one thing is beyond question: the Holy Spirit will make of him a living temple, just as we were made his living temples on the day we were baptized. Therefore St. Paul urges us not to live "in the flesh", as though we had only our own poor human resources to depend upon, but rather "in the Spirit", because in fact God's power is at our disposal. On this day, then, we pray for the Church at large but also for ourselves that our hearts may receive an outpouring of the strength and vitality of the Holy Spirit who has power to renew us and the face of all the earth.

One in the Holy Spirit,

Youth Ministry

SPIRIT SOCIAL

This past Friday, 8th graders from the St. Cletus parish community gathered together for their first youth ministry event. They socialized while eating snacks and then participated in activities led by high school participants. They were able to get to mingle with other teens who would be attending their same high schools and talk about the transitions ahead and the ways that faith should be a part of those transitions. The teens who attended were spirited and joyful, and they will add vibrancy to our growing ministry! Stay tuned for the next opportunity!

ENCOUNTER GROUPS

Are you interested in helping youth grow spiritually? Do you enjoy working with teens? I am looking for enthusiastic, dedicated, and faith-filled parishioners who are flexible and willing to give of their time and talent to minister to our teens in faith-sharing groups. Called Encounter, these groups will allow teens and adults to come together to encounter Christ by looking at their lives through the lens of faith. As a leader, you will share your home (or partner with someone who shares theirs) and share your faith eight times per year with a small group of teens. You will be invited to help at a few large group sessions as well. A few facilitator meetings are held during the year to give you the support and guidance necessary to enjoy the many rewards of this ministry. This responsibility should be shared, and session outlines and curricula would be supplied. If you are considering making this commitment, please pray over it. We need you!

DISCOVERING HIDDEN TALENTS

Join us on Tuesday, June 7th for a mini-retreat focused on Uncovering Gifts! Take some time to discover what gifts may be hiding within you and then discern the ways you can put those gifts to use. All teens who have completed at least one year of high school are welcome. Whether you have been a leader in the past in youth ministry and want a capstone to your experience, plan to be a leader in the future and are exploring the ways you will lead, or are just curious, this event is for you! The retreat will be held at St. Cletus from 10-4. RSVP to Elizabeth by June 1st to register.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY REFLECTION: THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

As the liturgical year—and this Jubilee Year of Mercy—unfold, we reflect on what Jesus' ascension meant for the first disciples and means now for us. Stay in Jerusalem, Jesus had instructed, awaiting “the promise of the Father. In a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit. You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:4–5, 8). Despite Jesus' absence, they wait “with great joy . . . continually in the temple praising God” (Luke 24:52–53). But as we join them, waiting and worshiping, the enduring challenge—theirs and ours—is delivered by “two men in white” (Acts 1:10). In every age, disciples must stop looking at the sky, head down the mountain, and go back into the world, “commissioned,” says Pope Francis, “to announce the mercy of God, the beating heart of the Gospel,” inviting everyone to find “in our parishes, communities, associations and movements... wherever there are Christians... an oasis of mercy” (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).

JUBILEE OF MERCY PROCLAIM

The mission of the Church—and therefore of everyone in the Church—is to proclaim the mercy of God to the entire world. Jesus entrusts this mission to his disciples as he ascends to heaven.
“Repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.” (Luke 24:47)

Pentecost Sunday

THE FULLNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The church wakes up to an amazing message this morning. Look around and see who has been called. Listen to the voices of those who proclaim Jesus is Lord. You'll find no race of people left out; you'll find no language on earth unfit to proclaim the glory of God. We call Pentecost Sunday the "birthday of the church." In many ways, the church is still being born. Only when we all know the peace Jesus offered in today's Gospel will we really know the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

St. Paul assures us in today's second reading that "all of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit." When we look around us in the church we should see everyone. But we don't. Not yet. What is holding us back from fully embracing the one Body of Christ? When will we see our differences as manifestations of the same Holy Spirit?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Filled with the Holy Spirit, the apostles begin to speak in tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — In one Spirit we are baptized into one body and given to drink of one Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Romans 8:8-17.

Gospel — Jesus Christ appears to the disciples and sends them on their mission with the power to forgive or retain sins through the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 14:15-16, 23b-26.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

"Order" and "presbyter" are not everyday words in our vocabulary, since we think of order as a quality of life rather than a collective noun, and "priest" usually does just fine in everyday conversation. Yet each word has deep roots in our tradition. At an ordination we select men for service to the community. Ordo is a Latin word drawn not from pagan religious life but from Imperial Rome. It meant a distinct body standing apart from the people, such as a body of people responsible for civil governance, senators for example. Think of the selectmen or board of governors in your civic home, and you will get the idea. The church borrowed the term to describe the place of certain people within the people of God, thus the "order of deacons," "the order of presbyters," and even "the order of virgins, catechumens, widows, neophytes, penitents," and so on, as distinct groups within the church.

Just as ancient Rome had various uniforms for the ranks and stations in civil life, so too did certain garments give clues to membership in an "order" in the church. So, our tradition favors the idea of an ordination liturgy not as receiving something so much as being received. This is clearly expressed in the liturgy. The "kiss of peace" is given only by the ordaining bishop and priests to the newly "ordained," not by the faithful, the deacons, or the concelebrating bishops who are present.

A PRAYER TO THE SPIRIT

Spirit of Jesus,
 poured out in flames of fire upon your disciples on the day of Pentecost, we pray to you: Set afire the hearts of your faithful so that they will announce in all the languages of the world the wonders of the salvation of God.

Thank You - Mission ladies are proud to have made and given 1270 different items to 10 different local charities recently. Also, we are happy to have made 189 Helmet Liners for our service men to wear under their helmets. These liners help to absorb the moisture under the helmets. Thank you all who donated and helped make all items.

ST. CLETUS WEDDING MINISTRY

The St. Cletus Wedding Ministry cordially invites all parishioners, male and female, to join this ministry. We work in teams assisting the parish staff with wedding rehearsals and wedding day facilitation. Wedding ministers help to organize and run the wedding rehearsals, usually held the day before. On the wedding day, ministers are responsible for setting up the Sacristy, organizing the Bridal party and making sure that all things are running smoothly and on time. The ministers pick the wedding dates to fit their schedules. For more info, please contact Bobbie Kallal at (708) 352-6209.

“Refugees are being stopped at European borders with nowhere to turn. Increasingly, Europe is closing its doors. The United States has only taken in 2,290 refugees since 2011, pledging to take in 10,000 refugees in 2016. For these refugees, returning to the violence and hardship they fled is unthinkable.”
